

When She Stops Playing Nice Chapter 91

Chapter 91

After searching for a long time, Jasmine was completely exhausted. Finally, amidst the smelly trash, she saw the familiar box.

“Neil, I found it!” Jasmine finally heaved a sigh of relief. She was also covered in the rotten smell of trash.

When Jasmine approached with the box, Neil couldn't help but frown, Jasmine knew that she was being despised.

She bit her lip and tried her best not to cry out loud. Gina must be gloating at her misfortune!

Although Gina looked calm on the surface, Jasmine felt that Gina must be overjoyed!

Jasmine thought, “This bh!”

“What are you doing here?” Gabriel learned from Isaac that Gina had arrived, and he rushed back to the old mansion from the company. In the end, he missed. He asked Isaac again and found out that they were at this dump.

When Jasmine heard Gabriel's voice, her entire body froze. She wished she could find a hole to hide in. She couldn't let Gabriel see her pathetic state!

But she had nowhere to hide.

In reality, Gabriel did not place his attention on Jasmine at all. In his eyes, there was only Gina.

Gina briefly explained what had happened. After Gabriel heard this, his expression turned cold as he glanced at Jasmine.

Jasmine still wanted to explain, “Gabriel...”

Gabriel said. “I told you not to call me that.”

“I can't change it,” Jasmine said angrily.

“You don’t have to change it. Anyway, we won’t have many chances to meet in the future.” Gabriel said coldly.

Jasmine’s expression turned ugly. “Gabriel, what do you mean?”

“From now on, you don’t have to come to the Jackson family.” Gabriel’s tone was as cold as ice, causing Jasmine to be sad.

“Why? Can’t I come to your home anymore? Neil, I still want to visit you. I still want to practice painting and play chess with you! Previously, you were sick because of my tonic. I feel very guilty and haven’t made it up to you. Neil, you’ll still let me go to the Jackson family, right?” Jasmine asked nervously.

“I’m fine. I don’t need you to visit me. You came today and caused such an unhappy thing. I’m in a bad mood and my health isn’t good, so I won’t trouble you to visit me,” Neil said coldly.

Jasmine was going to break down.

Neil didn’t want to bother with Jasmine anymore. He asked the driver to open the box. Gina looked at the medicinal herbs inside and said, “It could have been used for a while, but it was contaminated by trash, so it can’t be used anymore.”

Gina frowned. Seeing the medicinal herbs she had personally planted being ruined made her feel uncomfortable..

Neil sighed and hesitated to speak to Jasmine,

Chapter 91

However, on second thought, Jasmine was not from his family after all. No matter how badly the elders in her family educated her, it would not be appropriate for him to criticize her too much.

“Throw it away. It’s useless,” Gina said calmly.

Jasmine was very angry. She had finally found it, and now Gina was saying that she was going to throw it away. She hated Gina to death!

Neil could not bear to throw the box away. Just as he had said, this was Gina’s first birthday gift to him. It meant a lot, so he took the box and threw away the medicinal herbs.

“Now, Gina, let’s discuss where to eat. Let’s go back to the car,” Neil said to Gina.

Gabriel walked to Gina’s side and naturally held her hand. He said gently, “Let’s go.”

Gina looked up at him. Her fingertips trembled and she felt shy.

They all ignored Jasmine.

Jasmine's body stiffened as she watched them leave.

Half an hour later, Jabari came to the dump to pick up Jasmine,

"You smell so bad. Did you fall into the toilet?" Jabari teased.

Jasmine burst into tears, "Jabari!"

The smile on Jabari's face faded. Seeing her cry so sadly, he became a little more serious. "What's wrong?"

Jasmine cried as she told Jabari what had happened.

Jabari knew Jasmine too well. He knew that what she said must have been an exaggeration.

"So, you said that you threw away the box containing the medicinal herbs accidentally? Is Neil still very angry?" Jabari s

"That's right. It must be that vixen. I don't know what she did to make Neil not like me anymore! Neil clearly doted on me at lot in the past!" Jasmine said.

Jabari thought silently, 'It is your illusion...

"Let's go home first. You are smelly. I can't listen to you," he said.

Jabari! Why do you despise me? I hate you! Don't you know how to comfort me?" Jasmine yelled.

Jabari acted as if he hadn't heard her. "Let's go. If you don't leave now, you can go back on your own."

As soon as Jasmine arrived home, she started to complain to Hannah.

Hannah comforted her, "Dear Jasmine, don't cry. Neil must have said those words in a fit of anger. No matter what, he won't ignore the relationship between the two families. Next, you just have to do something to let Neil like you again."

"What should I do... Jasmine asked helplessly.

“Go and buy the medicinal herbs that Neil needs. Gina refused to tell you where she bought them. It must be because she wanted to curry favor with Neil and said that you can’t buy them. It’s really funny. I don’t believe that there are any medicinal herbs that can’t be bought from the Treasure Shop in Oriata City. Coincidentally, the Treasure Shop in Oriatal City is going to hold an auction in a few days. Go and buy the medicinal herbs. I’ll help you talk to Neil. Neil will definitely be happy.” Hannah said.

Jasmine felt that Hannah’s words made sense.

However... “I don’t know what medicinal herb it is.” She said.

Moreover, the original medicinal herbs had been thrown into the dump. She did not know if they had been disposed of. Hannah made a prompt decision and immediately sent someone to find the medicinal herbs that had been thrown away.

The subordinate was also very efficient. He quickly replied to Hannah, “Mrs, Bush, it’s a mixture of Green Grass and Healthy Sunflower. These two medicinal herbs are quite rare. They’ve only been auctioned at the Treasure Shop in Oriata City. There aren’t many of them every time.”

“Alright, I understand,” Hannah said.

Hannah hung up the phone and told Jasmine the good news.

Jasmine thought, ‘Gina said that I couldn’t buy it. What a joke! I reckon that this country bumpkin doesn’t know that there is a place called the Treasure Shop in Oriata City! I would deal with this scheming woman sooner or later!’

After calming herself down, she snuggled into Hannah’s arms and said, “Mom, you are still the best. You will give me ideas and help me solve my problems, Jabari will only watch from the sidelines!”

Chapter 92

Jabari said indifferently. “Helping you is just a waste of effort. Gabriel doesn’t like you at all. Don’t you understand?”

Jasmine was already in a bad mood. Hearing Jabari say something like that, she was on the verge of exploding. "Fk off she said.

Jabari frowned and said, "Then if you need anything in the future, just don't ask me for help."

"Mom... Jasmine looked at Hannah aggrievedly.

Hannah glared at Jabari and said, "Can't you shut up? You're not a good brother at all!"

On the other side, Gina sat on the Jackson family's Rolls Royce. Her phone rang

It was a call from Ruby. "Gina, there was a commotion outside the door just now. I wanted to open the door, but I didn't see anyone when I opened the door. No, I think I saw someone. I saw a figure running into the elevator. I was a little afraid, so I closed the door. What's going on? Did something like this happen when you lived here in the past?" Ruby said on the phone.

Gina's heart sd a beat. She had a bad feeling.

'Could it be... Those people? Gina thought.

Gina comforted Ruby. "Ruby, stay at home and don't go anywhere. I'll be back soon."

"Okay, okay. Ruby did not want to disturb Gina from going out to relax, but she was too afraid, so she could only call Gina.

"Neil, I'm sorry, I can't have a meal with you guys anymore. I have to go back. Ruby needs me," Gina said.

Seeing Gina's serious expression, Neil naturally nodded immediately and said, "Okay, okay. Let's go back."

Neil said, "What happened? Gina, I think I should also go over and take a look. And I can meet Ruby."

'Neil, please don't," Gina said.

Ca thought of what Ruby had said. She hadn't confirmed her relationship with Gabriel. It was too early and inappropriate to let the parents of both parties meet now.

Neil chose to respect Gina's opinion. "Alright, then we'll drop you off and leave," he said.

Thank you, Neil, Gina said.

"Don't stand on ceremony!" Neil said happily. "However, Gina, you owe me a meal. When you have time, you have to make it up to me!"

For the first time, Neil took advantage of his seniority to make a request.

"Alright." Gina smiled faintly,

When they arrived, Ca said goodbye to them and went upstairs.

When she reached the door, Gina realized that her door had been splashed with red paint.

Someone even wrote three large words in red paint. "Go to hell."

Seeing this curse, Gina didn't mind it at all. She pushed open the door.

Ruby was a little flustered. "Gina, is that you?" Ruby said.

"Ruby, are you okay?" Gina asked.

Ruby nodded and said. "I'm fine. I was just a little frightened. Was I disturbing you just now?"

"Nothing, it's okay," Gina said.

"I'm fine, it's just..." Ruby stopped mid-sentence.

"I'll go to the property management office and see what's going on," Gina said.

"I'll go with you." Ruby said.

The two of them arrived at the property management office.

"I'm sorry, Miss Miller. Unfortunately, the surveillance camera is broken," the staff said.

"Man-made damage?" Gina questioned.

"It's really not. Miss Miller. It just happened to break down. It broke down two days ago. And it is still being repaired, the staff said.

Gina frowned and said. "The surveillance camera is broken. I think someone sneaked in and broke it."

The staff said surprisedly. "Im sorry, Miss Miller. Please tell us what's going on. We'll also strengthen our security recently."

"How long will it take to fix the surveillance camera?" Gina asked.

Gina didn't plan to let the property management office handle this matter because if it was really the group of people guessed, then the property management office couldn't solve the problem. They just had to do their own job.

"Well, maybe a week, the staff said.

"That long!" Gina frowned. She could not wait that long. If she was still living alone, she would not mind. But now that Ruby was here, she could not tolerate anything happening to her only family member in this world.

I'm sorry. Miss Miller. This can't be helped, the staff said.

"Let me see," Gina said.

The staff was stunned.

"Let me see what the problem is," Gina added.

Because Gina was the owner, the staff couldn't directly refuse, so they let Gina approach the computer of the surveillance system.

The staff originally thought that Gina would definitely not be able to tell anything. Since she did not know it, why was she putting in so much effort? the staff thought.

Chapter 92

Gina sat down and began to operate. Her slender fingers were quickly typing on the keyboard.

The staff's expression changed from boredom to shock.

He couldn't understand what Liina was doing. However, he could more or less understand that Gina was writing code.

He couldn't understand it, but it looked very awesome.

Three minutes later, the originally dark surveillance footage instantly became clear.

The staff's eyes widened. "Miss Miller, did you fix it?" the staff asked in surprise.

Yes Gina said calmly.

The staff rubbed his eyes in disbelief.

Your surveillance system was compromised by a highly encrypted virus. Now that I've cleared the virus, it's fine," Gina said.

The staff was so shocked that he couldn't speak. The people who had repaired the surveillance cameras previously couldn't find the problem. They didn't know where to start and even invited experts to check, but they didn't find anything wrong. But Gina fixed it in three minutes!

"I won't charge you for the repair fee, but the repair of the surveillance cameras must be kept a secret, understand?" Gina said to the staff.

Although the staff did not know what Gina meant by this, in his eyes, Gina was a very awesome big shot. He only nodded his head vigorously and listened to her arrangements. "Okay, okay. Miss Miller, don't worry," he said.

"Okay." Gina replied indifferently.

Since the other party had used such a high-level virus to hack into the surveillance system, they would definitely not only come once.

Next, Gina planned to wait to invite them into her trap..

The staff's mind was filled with admiration for Gina. "Miss Miller, thank you very much! Do you need some water?" he said.

Gina was speechless.

"No, thanks," Ca said.

Then Gina planned to leave with Ruby.

The staff could not help but praise Ruby. "Madam, your daughter is really amazing!

Ruby smiled and said, "Yes, Gina has always been outstanding."

Chapter 93

They left the property management office.

When Ruby went out just now, she noticed that the words “go to hell” were written in red paint at the door.

She was very angry. How vicious are these people to be able to make such a curse? Aren't them afraid of retribution?”

Gina was a little surprised that Ruby cared so much about this.

In Gina's eyes, this kind of provocative behavior that did not dare to face her head-on and only dared to secretly provoke her was very low-level, making her want to laugh.

“It's okay, Gina. It's not a big deal, Gina said lightly.

She had never believed in this kind of curse. She only believed in herself.

You guys must hide well. If I find you, you may die!’ Gina thought.

A hint of coldness flashed across Gina's eyes.

Ruby quickly said. “Don't talk about it. It's inauspicious. You will definitely live a happy life. I will go to the church and pray for you. You must be blessed.”

Gina was stunned.

Gina thought of Ella going to the church to pray for Olivia.

At that time, Gina, who still yearned for kinship, was very envious

What Ella had never done for Gina, Ruby had done for her. It made Gina understand that sometimes, kinship did not have to be built by blood.

Gina would not say that there was no need to be so disappointing. She nodded and said, “Okay, thanks.”

Star Entertainment Company.

Jason's manager was analyzing the incident and thinking of a countermeasure.

Jason, because of your sister Olivia's scandal, the public is very interested in your private life. Your fans are speaking up for you and asking others to care more about your work and not your private life. But it's useless. I'm just afraid that someone will dig deeper or try to drag you down. If so, that won't be good.

"Let's deal with it coldly now, but it doesn't mean that you don't do anything. Hurry up and find the master who helped you write the famous song. Get her to write another song for you. Then, announce to the public that you've been concentrating on composing for the past few days. Use your work to shut their mouths. This way, your fans will have the confidence to speak up for you and say righteously that you've always been working on composing and have no time to fool around. Moreover, Olivia is just your sister. If she messes around, it has nothing to do with you.

"This matter will be over just like that. You might even be able to attract more fans," the manager said.

To be honest, ever since Jason produced a song a year ago, he had become famous overnight. Ever since then, he had been living off it.

Chapter 93

The subsequent songs did not cause much of a stir.

It wasn't a good idea to take advantage of Jason's old work, so his manager took the opportunity to urge him to produce another good work..

Jason was in a bad mood. He replied to his manager perfunctorily, "Alright, alright. I got it."

Seeing Jason's perfunctory attitude, the manager was a little unhappy. Jason, the entertainment industry will change very quickly. If you continue to be so lazy, it's only a matter of time before you're replaced. Think about it carefully, the manager said.

With that, the manager left. As a top manager, he had a lot of stars, not only Jason

Jason started smoking. He did not know if it was his imagination, but he felt that his career as a star had not been smooth recently. Previously, he had received a lot of advertisement endorsements. But ever since more than half a month ago, his work had greatly decreased. What was going on?

Calculating the time, it was probably after the Miller family's old residence burned down and Gina cut ties with her family.

After escaping from the fire, Jason immediately went to the airport to catch up on his schedule. Although he was not at home, he still knew what had happened at home.

'Could it be that Gina was behind this? Did she want to ruin my career? Back then, maybe she knew I was going to video call Olivia, so she came to Olivia's engagement banquet to cause trouble, Jason thought.

"Dn it!" Jason cursed fiercely.

He gritted his teeth, his eyes filled with hatred.

However, on second thought, he felt that Gina might not have the ability.

However, what happened at the engagement banquet had indeed affected his career.

This bh, I will settle scores with her!' Jason thought.

The next day, Gina returned to Trowell University to take the end-of-term test.

After the test, Gina walked out of the teaching building.

A man wearing sunglasses and a mask stepped forward and called out to her, "Gina!"

Ca turned to look at him. "Who are you?" C i n a asked.

Jason took off his sunglasses unhappily.

When she saw that it was Jason, Gina's expression turned cold. "What's the matter?" Gina asked.

"I'm warning you, don't even think about ruining my career! You knew in advance that I was going to contact Olivia at her engagement banquet, so you caused trouble, right? Don't be too vicious. I don't owe you anything!" Jason said.

Gina raised her eyebrows and said, "What? You don't owe me anything? Who saved you when you were almost trapped in a sea of fire?"

May

Chapter 93

Jason was speechless, but from the bottom of his heart, he did not want to acknowledge Gina's kindness.

Jason sneered and said, "Have you forgotten about the pesticide you put in my breakfast milk? You saved me because that's what you should do. Are you joking? Do I owe you? If Olivia hadn't reminded me, I wouldn't have drunk it. Otherwise, I would have died"

"Then will I become a superstar now? Jason thought.

"I just said something bad to you the day before and you hate me. Then you want to poison me!" Jason said aggressively.

Before Gina planned to poison him, he could only say that he despised Gina a little. Usually, he wouldn't do anything to her, only scolded her sometimes. He didn't expect her to be so vengeful and hateful.

Therefore, after Gina rescued him, Jason saw that Gina was unconscious, but he was not moved at all. He chose to stand by and watch. He even left elegantly to catch up on his schedule.

When he got on the plane, he received a call from his family. He thought that he was going to hear the news about Gina's death. He did not expect that the news was about Olivia's car accident. If not for the fact that the plane could not stop halfway, he would have gotten off the plane and rushed back to see Olivia.

Later on, he found out that Olivia was fine. His mother told him to focus on work, so he did not rush back. Later on, he found out that Olivia's car accident was fake.

Also, he knew that Olivia had spread rumors about Gina.

For the first time, Jason was speechless with Olivia. However, she was still his sister. It was understandable for her to make some mistakes.

However, the prerequisite was that it could not affect and harm Jason's interests.

Gina's face was cold. "I told you, I didn't do this," she said,

Chapter 94

"So you don't have it just because you say so?" Jason did not believe Gina and said disdainfully.

"Where's the evidence? You just believed in Olivia's one-sided statement. Have you found any records of me buying pesticides? You're indeed a natural family. Olivia is a natural liar, but you all believed her Gina said.

Jason was speechless. If it was in the past, he would definitely argue with Gina. However, now that he knew that Olivia had lied a lot, he could not speak up for Olivia so confidently.

Jason was angry and said. "Let's not talk about anything else for now. Let me tell you, don't even think about ruining my career. You won't get what you want. As long as Olivia uses her talents and helps me write a good song. I can change public opinion. Don't even think about playing tricks!"

When Gina heard Jason's words, she just wanted to laugh. "Do you really think that she was the one who wrote the song that made you famous back then?" Gina said.

Jason was stunned and asked, "What do you mean?"

Just like that, Gina said.

"If Olivia didn't write it, who did? Could it be you?" Jason said disdainfully.

Gina did not answer Jason's question. "Please ask Olivia to write a song for you. Let's see what she can give you," Gina said.

Gina ignored Jason and turned to leave.

Jason was dissatisfied with Gina's attitude. He wanted to stop Gina, but Gina looked at him coldly and said, "I think you're dressed like this because you don't want to be recognized. If you don't want to be recognized, get lost quickly. Otherwise...."

Jason gritted his teeth and pointed at Gina. He could not say a word for a long time. He looked around as if he was worried that someone beside him would recognize his identity as a big star. He quickly put on his sunglasses and left

After Jason left, Gina received a call from Oriata City Treasure Shop's owner. "Miss Miller, our auction will be held in two days. When do you think we can bring over the medicinal herbs that you're selling this year?" the owner asked on the phone.

The Treasure Shop was famous throughout the country because it exclusively sold Gina's rare medicinal herbs.

Although the medicinal herbs that Gina could provide to the Treasure Shop every year were all determined by her will, and the amount she gave each time was not much, Gina would often contact them to provide herbs a few days before the auction.

Some people in the industry felt that Gina was putting on airs.

However, the owner knew that Gina's herbs were all rare treasures,

Naturally, he treated Gina as a big shot. He spoke politely, afraid that he would make Gina unhappy.

"I'm sorry, I can't provide herbs this time. My medicine land was destroyed and I've been a little busy recently, so I forgot to tell you, Gina said.

The owner hurriedly said, "Oh, Miss Miller, you're being too serious. But then again, how did your herb field get destroyed? Who did it? Miss Miller, do you need me to do something for you? Who dares to destroy your medicine land?"

The owner's anger was genuine. Every time they held an auction, their gimmick was to auction off the precious medicinal herbs provided by Gina. Now, Gina's medicine land had been destroyed by someone. It had also cut off the wealth of the Treasure Shop.

"You don't have to" Gina said.

"Alright, then Miss Millei, let me know if you need anything! the owner said.

The owner sighed and said, "What a pity. Many old customers even asked about the herbs that are going to be sold this year many times a few days ago. I can only say that they will only know when the auction is near. They are all looking forward to it. But in this case, I can only regretfully tell them that they can't buy them this year."

Gina did not know that such an accident would happen this year.

She felt that she shouldn't just tell the owner the matter, so she said, "I'll be there on the day of the auction to explain the situation to the old customers."

When the owner heard Gina's words, his mood immediately improved. "Oh, thank you very much, Miss Miller!"

"You are welcome," Gina said calmly,

After hanging up. Gina bumped into Aria.

"Gina! Long time no see." Aria said.

C i n a smiled faintly at Aria and said, "Hi, Aria."

"How have you been?" Aria asked.

Ever since Lily's self-directed suicide act, Aria had not met Gina in school for a long time. When Aria sent messages to Gina. Gina only replied after a long time. Aria felt that Gina must be busy. Moreover, Aria had always felt that she had not helped. much with the previous matter and she felt a little guilty.

Gina was Aria's savior. She had always wanted to repay Gina

"Oh, I'm good," Gina said.

Gina recalled her life during this period. After leaving the Miller family, she met her real "family" and felt kinship. She felt the feeling of being loved.

"Congratulations on winning the National Design League Gold Award, Gina said with a smile.

Aria was a little embarrassed. "Thank you, but how did you know I got first place? Did you pay attention to this too?" Aria was a little excited.

This is because your first place was determined by my re-evaluation, Gina thought.

C i n a 's gaze shifted slightly and said, "Yes, a little."

Aria was very happy. "The award ceremony is next Friday. Gina, can I invite you to come with me?" she asked.

Aria was not sure if Gina treated her as a friend. There was a hint of uncertainty in her tone.

"Sure," Gina nodded and answered.

Aria was very happy.

Chapter 94

That's great! I think that if I get first place, my chances of entering Quaria will be higher! Aria said happily.

Gina nodded in agreement and said. "Just try it. I believe you can do it. Quaria also needs outstanding talents with potential like you.

Aria was embarrassed by the praise. "That's too exaggerated. I'm not that good..." she said.

"Don't be too humble," Gina said in a friendly manner.

She was very optimistic about Aria's design talent. Otherwise, she would not have finalized that Aria was first.

Aria smiled shyly and said, "My dream is to become a designer as powerful as the mysterious chief designer of Quaria now

"I heard that she's also a judge for this design competition. I wonder if I can see her in person during the award ceremony! I really want to see her in person and ask for an autograph!"

Gina felt a little awkward and asked, "Do you admire her a lot?"

Aria nodded vigorously and said, "It's more than admiration! But then again, every student in Trowell University who majors in design regards her as an idol!"

Chapter 95

"You already said that she's a mysterious designer. I don't think she'll show up easily," Gina said.

Aria sighed and said, "You're right. I wonder if I'll have the chance to see my idol in this lifetime!

You will, Gina said in a comforting tone.

Aria took it as Gina comforting her. After all, no one knew the true identity of this chief designer. Even if Aria's family background was good, the chief designer was not someone who could be seen just because Aria wanted to.

From this. Aria understood that there was a problem in this world that money could not solve.

Gina was a little curious and asked, "If you want to enter Quaria as a designer, does your family have any objections? Won't they ask you to enter the family business?"

If Gina remembered correctly, Aria was the Torres family's only daughter.

"Family... Aria's face darkened as if she was not in a good mood.

"My family is no longer my home," Aria said.

Gina was stunned. Because of Aria's short sentence, Gina felt a sense of empathy.

Ad Here

"Why?" Gina asked.

"My mother passed away early. My father recently had a girlfriend who was pregnant. She went for a checkup and said that she was pregnant with a boy. My father was very happy. He felt that he had a successor, Aria sneered and said.

Gina frowned and asked, "Can't a daughter be a successor?"

"My dad thinks that I'm going to get married eventually," Aria answered.

It was not that Aria did not want to inherit the family business. She thought that she could pursue her dream of design and manage the family business well. However, her father had already decided that her so-called stepmother's unborn child would be the heir.

Aria was a little indignant, but since her father was not on her side, she had no choice.

"Alright, let's not talk about these unhappy things! Gina, let's go for some snacks, okay? There's an ice cream shop near the school. It's very delicious. I wonder if you've been there?" Aria said.

To be honest, Gina's school life before was extremely monotonous. Most of the time, she only came back to deal with the exams. Moreover, Olivia had previously ruined Gina's reputation all the time. No one was willing to be friends with Gina.

Aria was the first friend Gina had made in school.

“Alright.” Gina nodded.

When they arrived at the ice cream shop, Aria chatted with Gina enthusiastically, and Gina replied from time to time. They could be considered to have a good chat/

“Aria,” someone called out behind then.

Chapter 95

Hearing a familiar voice, Aria’s face stiffened. She did not even need to turn around to know that the person was her stepmother, Yolanda Morris.

零82%世

Ever since Yolanda got pregnant, she liked to show off in front of Aria that she was pregnant with a boy who was the Torres family’s future heir.

“Aria, why are you ignoring me? You haven’t been home for a long time. Your father is busy with work, so I came to see you. Are you having snacks with your friend!” Yolanda said.

“Hello, I’m Aria’s... Gina said.

“What does it have to do with you? Don’t hang around in front of me!” Yolanda interrupted Gina.

Yolanda looked very aggrieved and said, “Aria, I know that you haven’t accepted me for now, but I really want to get along well with you. In the future, we’re all family. The child in my womb is also your biological little brother, right?”

Gina frowned as she listened to Yolanda’s words. She seemed to see the shadow of Olivia in Yolanda

Yolanda looked like she was about to cry. “I came here today to ask you will you go home this weekend? Your father and I won’t be at home because your father wants to accompany me to the Treasure Shop in Oriata City to buy some medicinal herbs to protect the baby,” she said.

She looked aggrieved, but her tone was filled with bragging.

She indirectly told Aria that her father, Felix Torres, valued the child in her womb very much.

Aria could not take it anymore. "That's enough nonsense. Can you get lost now?" she said.

"Aria, don't treat me like this, okay? Your father won't be happy if he finds out, Yolanda said.

This meant that Yolanda was going to complain to Felix...

Gina looked Yolanda up and down and said indifferently. "There's no need to protect the baby."

Yolanda looked at C i n a in shock. "What nonsense is this wretched girl saying?" she thought.

"What do you mean? You're also a university student. Why are you so low-class? You said that there's no need to protect the baby. Are you cursing me to have a miscarriage? You're too vicious!

"You and Aria are friends. Could it be that... Aria. do you think so too? How can you think that way? No matter how much you don't like me and how unwilling you are to accept me as your stepmother, you have to admit that I'm pregnant with your biological brother, right? Why can't you try to accept your biological brother in my womb? In the future, when your brother inherits the family business, he can also support you, right?" Yolanda said.

Aria was about to explode from anger when she heard Yolanda's annoying words. "Are you done? Why do you care what I think? Also, please don't disturb us! Get lost!" Aria said angrily.

Yolanda took the opportunity to stir up trouble and refused to give up. "Then get your friend to apologize to me. She wants to curse me to have a miscarriage. Also, Aria, you have to apologize to me. I came to meet you and talked to you nicely. Why do you treat me like this?

"Your father also hopes that we can get along well. If he finds out about what happened today, he'll be angry at you. I don't want to see you and your father at odds,

"It's just that I don't want this matter to affect my mood. If I'm in a bad mood, it won't be good for the baby in my womb," Yolanda said.

Chapter 95

What she meant was that she was still secretly threatening Aria that she would complain to Felix.

Gina's expression was indifferent. "I'm telling the truth. If you have time, you should take the time to go to the hospital for a comprehensive checkup. We'll see if it's a child or a tumor in your stomach," she said.

Yolanda's face turned pale. "What... What did you say?"

Saying that my child is a tumor? How dare you! Yolanda thought.

Yolanda was about to explode in anger. She raised her hand and was about to slap Gina.

Gina wanted to restrain her, but Aria was the first to make a move. Aria grabbed Yolanda's hand and said, "What are you doing? Are you trying to hit my friend?"

"Aria, she's cursing your brother and saying that he's a tumor. This wretched girl can even say such nasty words. I think it's because you've said too many bad things about me in front of her, right? Let go! I'm going to teach her a lesson today!" Yolanda shouted.

Not only did Yolanda want to slap Gina, but she wanted to slap Aria as well.

"Don't mention the brother in front of me. My mother only gave birth to me. I don't have a brother! If you dare to hit my friend. I won't let you off! Aria steadfastly protected Gina.

Chapter 96

"I'm going to hit her today!" Yolanda sneered and said.

Aria stood in front of Gina.

Gina patted Aria's shoulder lightly.

Aria turned to look at Gina. Gina gave her a reassuring look. Aria did not understand what she meant. Gina gently pushed her away and asked her to move aside.

Gina faced Yolanda and said, "If you dare to touch me today, all the businesses under the Torres Group will be destroyed."

Yolanda was stunned for a moment before she laughed out loud. The more she looked at Gina, the more she felt that Gina was a lunatic.

Are you kidding me? If you don't apologize to me today, I'll kill you as easily as killing an ant!" Yolanda said.

"We'll see. Just a phone call," Gina said calmly.

Yolanda said disdainfully, "What? What do you mean by a phone call? Who are you calling? Who can touch our Torres Group's business?"

Yolanda glanced at Gina from head to toe. 'How poor she is! How can she talk such ridiculous nonsense?' she thought.

Gina didn't waste any time and called Gabriel.

Gabriel was in a meeting when he saw Gina calling him.

He immediately paused the meeting and went out to answer the call. Everyone in the conference room was stunned. 'Mr. Jackson was famous for being a workaholic. Who would dare to disturb him during his working hours?

'Not only did Mr. Jackson suspend the meeting, but he also went out to answer the call. He even seemed to smile when he saw the caller ID. What kind of person could make Mr. Jackson suspend work to answer this call?' they thought.

"C i n a, it's rare for you to take the initiative to contact me." Gabriel's tone was filled with unconcealable joy.

"Am I disturbing you? I have something to trouble you'with, Gina said on the phone.

Tell me," Gabriel said.

"Also, Gina, don't mention the word trouble again. I'm glad that you thought of asking me to help you because then I feel that I'm needed by you, Gabriel added.

After a few words, the atmosphere became a little ambiguous. Gina cleared her throat and said. "The second wife of the chairman of the 'Torres Group, Yolanda Morris, offended me and wanted to hit me. I want the Torres Group to pay the price."

She wants to hit you?" Gabriel was surprised,

Gabriel did not care about the cause and/effect. Just the fact that Yolanda wanted to hit Gina was a death sentence for him, Gabriel's expression became terrifyingly gloomy. "Alright, I'll get someone to ruin the Torres Group, he said.

Chapter 96

There was no need for that... Gina thought.

Cin originally wanted to hang up the phone first and then send a message to Gabriel to tell him that she just wanted to scare Yolanda and deter the Torres Group.

However, before Gina could send Gabriel these words on WhatsApp, she heard Yolanda start to mock her again. "Ruin the Torres Group? Are you kidding me? Who the hell did you find to help you perform a scene? What a joke!"

Unfortunately, Yolanda had only been smug for a few minutes when her phone rang. It was a call from Felix.

She immediately answered the call. Felix's anxious and furious voice came from the other end of the phone. "Who did you offend? The Jackson Group suddenly announced that they will stop collaborating with our Torres Group!"

"I heard that Gabriel even personally said that from now on, any company that cooperates with our Torres Group will lose the right to cooperate with the Jackson Group!"

Now, several companies that were cooperating with the Torres Group were eager to terminate their contracts. After all, no one would choose the Torres Group but lose the Jackson Group.

If one chose to abandon the Torres Group now, he could show his loyalty to the Jackson Group.

Yolanda was stunned. 'So her phone call just now was not an act? Instead, she called the CEO of the Jackson Group, Gabriel?' she thought "Ruin the Torres Group." Yolanda shuddered, deeply experiencing the horror of these words.

In just a few minutes, the situation had changed a lot.

'Gabriel... This girl actually knew Gabriel? She could even get Gabriel to help her!' Yolanda thought and was even a little envious.

If not for her old age, Yolanda's target would not be an old man like Felix.

"Are you mute? Say something!" Felix was anxious.

This was the first time he had said such harsh words to Yolanda. After all, ever since Yolanda got pregnant, Felix had been very indulgent towards her, even though he knew that Yolanda would find trouble with Aria openly and secretly.

He turned a blind eye because he did not want to affect the child in Yolanda's womb.

At this moment, Aria said, "Dad, Yolanda wanted to hit my friend. My friend is also Mr. Jackson's friend. Mr. Jackson was very angry when he found out about this, so he made this decision."

Felix was confused, but now, he was not in the mood to figure out the whole story. "Yolanda, why did you hit Aria's friend?"

Yolanda was about to explain. "Hubby, I..."

"Shut up, don't say anything else. Hurry up and apologize to her!" Felix said.

Although Yolanda was unwilling, she knew the seriousness of the consequences of not apologizing. She gritted her teeth and revealed a fawning smile that was uglier than crying. "Miss Miller, I'm sorry. I was blind just now and offended you.

On the other end of the phone, Felix also chimed in, "Miss Miller, I'm really sorry. My wife is pregnant and she's not in a good mood recently. Please don't hold it against her.

*Aria, you should also persuade your friend. Since you're friends, don't make a big deal out of a small matter. The Torres Group's assets are also your assets!"

Gina said indifferently, "Haven't you already made up your mind to let the child in Yolanda's womb be the heir? In that case, the Torres Group's business has nothing to do with Aria. Why should I show mercy to the Torres Group?"

Felix choked on his words. That was what he really planned to do.

"Even if they are friends, why does Aria tell her everything?" Felix thought.

Felix felt a little embarrassed and said, "No, how can that be? Aria is my child too. How can she not have a share of the family assets?

"Oh, didn't you say that Aria will eventually get married?" Gina asked in return.

"No, no! I never had such thoughts. Aria, are you listening? You're Daddy's darling too. How can you not have a share of Daddy's things?" Felix said.

Upon hearing this, Aria finally understood Gina's intentions. Gina was helping her fight for the inheritance she deserved!

Aria was touched and grateful. She thought quickly and cooperated with Gina. "Is that so? Then, Dad, when I said that I wanted to enter the Torres Group, you didn't agree even if I said that I was willing to start from the bottom. You clearly didn't want me to participate in the family's business, right?" she asked.

Chapter 97

"How is that possible? It's a good thing that you want to take over the family business. Previously, I didn't let you enter the company because I think you're too young and don't have the ability to control your family's business. However, it's different now. You've grown up. I think it's time for you to take on heavy responsibilities. When do you want to enter the company? Don't talk about starting from the bottom. It's too tiring. Just enter management"

When Aria saw Yolanda's pale face, while she felt happy, she also felt a little sad. Aria knew very well that her father's complete change in attitude was completely because he had found out about her friend, who was also Mr. Jackson's friend.

Hence, Felix started to curry favor with Aria.

However, Aria was not very sure about the relationship between Gabriel and Gina.

Ever since Gabriel helped Gina fight Ethan and Aria over the phone at the bar, Aria had also vaguely sensed that their relationship should not be ordinary.

Yolanda also braced herself and said, "Aria, quickly persuade your friend! It's all my fault. Miss Miller, if you're angry, come at me. Please ask Mr. Jackson to be magnanimous and not cause trouble for our Torres Group!*

Yolanda's submissive manner was completely different from her arrogant and despotically persona just now.

Gina said calmly, "Alright, then I'll let it go on account of Aria."

Gina sent Gabriel a WhatsApp message that read, "I've changed my mind. Let the Torres Group go."

Gabriel did not ask for the reason first. Instead, he instantly replied with an "Okay".

Felix

quickly received the news that the crisis had been resolved. He broke out in a cold sweat and said fawningly on the other end of the phone, "Aria, bring your friend home when you have time. It's good that you have the opportunity to apologize to your friend for what happened today."

"No need Gina rejected coldly.

Feli laughed awkwardly. "That's all for now. I'll hang up first!TM

After hanging up the phone, although Yolanda looked at Gina with an unconvinced gaze, there was a hint of fear in her eyes. She left with a stiff expression.

Aria was very happy to see her finally leave. He turned to look at Gina gratefully. "Gina, thank you."

"You're welcome. What are we friends for?"

Gina smiled lightly.

Aria nodded vigorously. "Gina, do you know? If you didn't help me today, I don't think I would have the courage to fight for the family assets I deserve because I don't have a family. I'm on my side."

Gina could empathize with this feeling of being alone and helpless.

"It's good that I can help you," Gina said.

Aria took a deep breath. I understand now. Back then, it was my mother who helped my father build the Torres Group. Her hard work is part of the company. I have to take back what should have belonged to me."

Chapter 97

Gina nodded in agreement.

The two of them finished their afternoon tea. Aria had yet to finish her classes. She still had classes in the evening, so she went back to school first while Gina went home.

When she got home. Gina looked at the time.

Gabriel should be getting ready to get off work at this time.

This was because Gabriel was meticulous. He always reported everything to her. She passively understood Gabriel's habits bit by bit. His life could be said to be regular and monotonous.

Work, eat, sleep, talk to her, and ask her out.

C i n a looked at Gabriel and replied with an 'okay. After that, she did not send any new messages.

Gina had always felt that Gabriel seemed to have endless things to say to her every day. He was clearly cold and aloof to everyone else.

Who would have thought that Gabriel, who was like an emperor in the business world, would have something to talk about in private?

It seemed that she was the only one who knew.

But why did he not give her any other new information this time?

It was a little strange. Was he too busy?

What was keeping him so busy?

Gina did not even realize that she was starting to care about Gabriel.

After hesitating for a moment, Gina sent Gabriel a message. "Are you there?"

Gabriel replied quickly. "Always"

"Actually, I wanted to tell you about what happened just now after I finished the call. I was just pretending to intimidate the other party. I didn't really want the Torres Group to go bankrupt."

However, she did not expect Gabriel to move so quickly.

“You don’t think I’m playing with you, do you?” Gina asked.

“No, Gina. Whatever you want me to do, I’ll do it according to your wishes. You can trouble me more in the future.”

What Gabriel actually wanted to say was that Gina could rely on him more in the future. However, he had discussed the art of chatting with David in depth. Sometimes, there were some things that could not be said too bluntly, especially before they confirmed their relationship. Otherwise, it would seem too greasy, causing Gina’s favorability towards him to plummet!

In fact, even if she really wanted to uproot the Torres Group, Gina could do it herself. However, she did not want to reveal her identity, so she could only rely on Gabriel

After relying on him once, it felt pretty good.

“So, Mr. Jackson, you’re a helpful person. Aren’t you afraid of trouble!” Gina teased.

Chapter 97

I’m willing to be troubled by you.”

Gina’s heart palpitated, and she was at a loss.

At the Miller family’s villa.

After Jason returned home, he went straight to Olivia’s room to look for her.

“Jason, what’s the matter?”

Olivia stuck her head out.

Jason’s expression was serious. “Olivia, I need your help now. Help me write a good song immediately to cover up this matter”

Olivia was stunned. “Jason, but I don’t have any inspiration now. The song I got previously was just an improvisation. Now, I might have used up all my talent for composing lyrics and music. I can’t write it at all!”

Jason was a little speechless. Gina’s words were still echoing in his mind, causing him to feel a little frustrated. Because of the engagement party, his tour had been forced to stop, and he had lost a lot of endorsements. He was simply anxious now. He simply laid his cards on the table and said, “Actually, you didn’t write that song at all, right?”

That song was indeed written Olivia widened her eyes and started to pretend to be confused. “Jason, why would you say that? That song by me. I stayed up late for three days and three nights to write it and almost got sent to the hospital.”

Jason was impatient. He was not in the mood to listen to Olivia’s sad words. “Alright, you wrote it, right? My agent praised you for being a gold-medal composer back then. He even wanted to pull you into the company to continue creating good works for his idols. Now, I won’t force you to write a song for me, and there’s no need for the song to be popular. Instead, compose the simplest song for me right now.”

Chapter 98

Olivia was stunned. She had never seen Jason so aggressive..

After a moment of stalemate, Olivia was defeated. “Jason, I admit that I didn’t write that song”

Jason’s eyes were filled with disappointment. “Then who wrote it?”

It was Gina.

On a weekend when Gina returned home, Jason was not at home. Olivia found that Gina had put the songbook in Jason’s room and left a note.

The note said that the song was for him, hoping to help his career. Olivia did not think that Gina could write anything good at the time, so she immediately wanted to throw the lyrics book into the trash can.

If Gina wanted to please her family and gain their love, she had to nip it in the bud.

However, Olivia instantly changed her mind. She tore up the note and threw it away, but the lyrics book remained.

When Jason came back, he asked who had put it in his room.

Olivia came out to claim credit. She said that she wrote the song and gave it to him, hoping to help him advance his career,

Jason was very touched to see his beloved sister so considerate of him. He even said that he would definitely use that song. At that time, they did not think that the song would become popular, but once it was publicized, it had already become popular. Jason had also gone from being a D list singer to a top celebrity.

However, Olivia would never tell Jason the truth.

She braced herself and said, "I bought it."

"Who did you buy it from? Tell me clearly. I don't need to ask you. Just tell me clearly. Why is it so difficult to talk to you?" Jason said.

Olivia could not stand this kind of grievance. "Jason, don't be anxious, okay? Don't be fierce with me."

Jason sighed and looked speechless.

"I don't know who the other party is either. We communicated through an intermediary. The intermediary said that the other party's identity has to be kept a secret."

"I have to find her! Give me the contact information of the intermediary."

No, I deleted it."

"Olivia, are you lying to me?"

When Noah heard the commotion downstairs, he went upstairs to see what had happened. When he saw Olivia's aggrieved expression, he still could not help but feel his heart ache.

"Jason, what are you doing? Can't we talk things out? Have you forgotten?"

herself. She didn't write the song. She bought it."

Noah was stunned.

This was because during this period of time, he realized that Olivia had told too many lies. Moreover, after being exposed one by one, he now had some credibility in Olivia's words. He was also puzzled.

However, when he thought about how his relationship with Olivia was no longer that of an ordinary brother and sister, he braced himself to speak up for her. "The most important thing isn't whether he bought the song or wrote it himself, right? The most important thing is that, as your sister, she misses you, thinks about you, and helps you resolve your troubles."

Jason was silent for a moment before he changed the topic. "By the way, did Gina really put the pesticide in my milk?"

breakfast

That time, if he really drank the pesticide in one gulp, there would be nothing he could do. This also caused him to think that Gina was very vicious and to hate her deeply.

Jason looked up at Olivia. "Did you really see Gina sneakily pour something into my milk?"

Olivia immediately became nervous. For the first time, she deeply felt that the Miller family had already developed a serious crisis of trust in her.

"Yes." Olivia secretly made up her mind. She would never let go of this matter!

Jason, didn't we find half a bottle of pesticide in Gina's room? That's what she poured out."

"But we haven't found her purchase records."

"She can get someone else to buy it for her."

"Who?" Jason asked.

"I don't know either, Jason, did you meet Gina today?" Olivia stammered and asked.

Jason nodded calmly and turned to leave without saying anything.

Olivia secretly clenched her fists. That st Gina must have said something to sow discord with Jason, which led to Jason's bad attitude towards her.

At the same time, Olivia felt that she could not just sit there and wait for death. She had to think of a way to make Gina and the Miller family's enemies.

Olivia seemed to have thought of a vicious method. Her lips curled into a cold smile.

Noah looked at Olivia and asked, "What are you thinking about? Why are you so engrossed?"

"No, nothing"

Olivia came back to her senses. She looked at Noah because something that should not have happened between the two of them had already happened. Now, she felt that when they were alone, the atmosphere had become a little ambiguous.

“Olivia, what do you plan to do about the design league?”

Olivia was already in a bad mood. When she heard Noah talk about her troubles, she was about to go crazy. Previously, she

However, she did not expect to not see his name when the official website announced the final results. Olivia did not intend to let it go just like that. She had to go and ask for an explanation. Coincidentally, the award ceremony was in a few days. She would go straight to the venue and let the judges give her an explanation.

“If there’s anything you need my help with, just let me know,” Noah said.

Olivia’s heart sd a beat. She felt that if she asked him for help, he might ask her for some kind of benefit in the future.

Their abnormal relationship might not be able to develop.

Olivia was still a little resistant to having some sort of relationship with Noah.

That kind of ridiculous thing was enough once.

Hence, Olivia rejected him. “I’ll handle these matters myself. Thank you for your concern, Noah.”

Hearing Olivia’s clearly distant tone, Noah frowned unhappily.

“Sure.”

In the blink of an eye.

On the day of the auction at the Oriata City Treasure Hall.

Gabriel followed Gina to Oriata City.

Gina directly met with the owner and discussed with him when she would meet with some old customers who came to buy herbs to give an explanation.

“I don’t intend to show my face,” Gina said.

“Okay, okay, Miss Miller. When the time comes, just say a few words and explain a little.”

“Yeah, sure.”

After discussing this with the owner, Gina left the owner’s office..

She needed to wait until the auction was about to end before announcing her explanation. She still had about two hours of

She planned to return to Gabriel’s car to rest.

As she walked out of the store, Gina bumped into Jasmine.

Gina glanced at Jasmine and quickly ignored her.

She walked around her.

However, Jasmine stepped forward and blocked Gina’s path.

Her tone was unfriendly. “What are you doing here?”

Gina said calmly, “What does my presence here have to do with you?”

Jasmine sneered. “You’re here to buy herbs too, right? Thyme and dried basil?”

Gina’s expression was indifferent. She did not react at all, making Jasmine feel like she was punching cotton.

What was this bh pretending for!

What Jasmine hated the most was Gina's arrogant look

"You even said that I can't buy it. Why? Do you think I don't know that the treasure shop sells it? You're deliberately that I can't buy it and want to buy it yourself to show that you're very filial to Neil, right? Why? Do you really treat th Jackson family as your own home and Neil as your biological grandfather? Gina, let me tell you, the Jackson family's future daughter-in-law will never be you?"

Jasmine gritted her teeth.

Gina looked at Jasmine's expression as if she wanted to anger her and found it funny.

Since Jasmine insisted on making trouble for her, she decided to play with her,

Gina smiled calmly. "So, you think that you will be the Jackson family's future daughter-in-law, right?"

Jasmine was rather arrogant. "Of course I'm the best choice for Gabriel. It's just that you've temporarily bewitched Gabriel and Neil. I'll let them see your true colors!"

Gina said nonchalantly, "You're so determined to win. If you let go of other aspects, I'm afraid it'll be very difficult for you to finish everything, right? Could it be that your goal in life so far is to marry Gabriel? Apart from that, you have no other goals?"

Jasmine was stunned by Gina's words. She snapped out of her daze and asked, "What do you mean?"

"You make me feel that you're too selfless. Moreover, you're still lacking in the spiritual field. It's as if your life goal is nothing but to become Mrs. Jackson, right? You think about this all day long?" Gina asked.

Was this bh educating her? Jasmine was so angry that she laughed. "What are you pretending for? Don't you want to be Mrs. Jackson? Aren't you just trying to sh Mrs. Jackson's position from me?"

"I'm not interested in fighting with you."

Gina had always felt that the person who could be sd away did not belong to her.

“You’re still denying it? You’ve already tried your best to curry favor with Neill Jasmine said angrily.

Gina felt like she was not on the same page as Jasmine. However, she could not be bothered to explain too much to Jasmine.

Jasmine suddenly asked Gina, “Don’t you want to be Mrs. Jackson?”

Gina fell silent. She did not know if she wanted to or not. She just felt that things like marriage were still far away from her. Moreover, she had not chosen to accept Gabriel as her intimate partner.

Jasmine was a little surprised that Gina did not answer.

Jasmine suddenly had a flash of inspiration and looked like she had come to a realization. “I knew it. You just want to marry Gabriel and enjoy wealth for the rest of your life, right? You gold digger! You shameless bh! You’re not even sincere to Gabriel, yet you still want to sh him from me! You’ll die a horrible death!”

“Jasmine! Shut up!”

A deep and cold voice rang out, and Jasmine’s back stiffened.

When she recognized Gabriel’s voice, she turned around and saw Gabriel walking in with a dark expression and a deep coldness in his eyes.

It was so cold that it could freeze people to death.

Gabriel, who was originally waiting for Gina Miler in the car, could not sit still after a while. He planned to enter the look for Gina.

He did not expect to hear Jasmine say such vicious words as soon as he entered. Immediately, Gabriel’s anger surged. What nonsense was Jasmine spouting just now? She actually cursed Gina?

Jasmine did not expect to run into Gabriel. Could it be that Gabriel had sent Gina to the hall today? Thinking of this, Jasmine felt like crying. What right did this bh have to make Gabriel treat her so well?

“Gabriel, don’t be angry. Listen to me.”

“Gina doesn’t have you in her heart at all. She only has the Jackson family assets! When I asked her if she wanted to become Mrs. Jackson, she was stunned and didn’t answer me at all. She doesn’t really love you. She only likes your money! What she likes is only your money! Gabriel, can you believe me? Gina is a gold digger!”

The more Jasmine spoke, the more agitated she became.

“Money is one of the charms. Also, how many people in this world don’t like money? Is it strange to like money? If Gina likes money, that’s great. I have some

He was still in the process of pursuing Gina, and he found that his relationship with Gina was not progressing quickly, but everything was in order.

Hearing Gabriel speak up for Gina, Jasmine gritted her teeth. “Gabriel, aren’t you afraid that she’s here for the Jackson family’s assets?”

Gabriel did not answer Jackson’s question. Instead, he gently said to Gina, “Gina, as long as you have everything I have, you can take it away. If you want the Jackson Group shares, I’ll get David to draft a share transfer letter for you Jackson froze on the spot. Was Gabriel crazy?

What was there to like about this st, Gina?

In terms of family background, looks, and figure, how could Gina compare to her?

Jasmine could not understand.

Gina originally wanted to say that there was no need, but when she saw Jasmine’s reddened face, she deliberately asked, “Can I have as many shares as I want?”

“Of course.”

“Even 20:3

Gina did not casually mention this number. Instead, she subconsciously said it.

Previously, Gina had taken back the relic that Evelyn had left for her. She had 20% of the Miller Group shares, which was enough for an ordinary person to live comfortably.

As for 20% of the Jackson Group shares, the profit would be hundreds of times more than that of Miller Group’s.

“Of course.

Gabriel answered without hesitation.

Jasmine was so angry that she was about to cry.

Chapter 100

Jasmine glared at Gina hatefully.

The auction was about to begin, so Jasmine had no choice but to enter the venue unwillingly and buy the medicinal herbs.

After she bought the herbs and sent them to Neil, she would make Neil happy and ask him to arrange her marriage with Gabriel!

After Jasmine left angrily, Gina looked up at Gabriel and said, "I was joking when I said I wanted the Jackson Group shares."

*Gina, but I meant what I said just now." Gabriel's gaze was extremely firm.

Gina was just trying to anger Jasmine. She was not short of the Jackson Group's 20% shares, even though she would not complain about having too much money.

Two hours later.

Ca entered the hall again and went backstage. Through the broadcast change of voice, she announced the explanation. behind why there were no herbs to sell this year.

"The medicine land was destroyed? It's too despicable. Who did it, causing us to not have any medicinal herbs to buy? Every year, I look forward to buying medicinal herbs this time of the year."

"Now, I have to wait another year. I need the herbs urgently.

Jasmine was dumbfounded. As she was a new customer, she had not expressed her interest in buying herbs before coming here. Now that she knew about it, would her trip not be in vain?

Jasmine was depressed. That st Gina was right. She could not buy herbs?

Her plan was ruined!

However, Jasmine quickly comforted herself. Even if she could not buy it, Gina could not buy it either and would not be able to claim credit in front of Neil.

The auction ended.

Gina was also prepared to go back with Gabriel,

She walked out of the hall.

At this moment, Gina saw a familiar figure. It was Yolanda.

Gina recalled that day, Yolanda had bragged in front of her and Aria that Felix wanted to bring her to the store to buy herbs to protect her baby.

Gina had intended to retract her gaze, but when she glanced at Yolanda, she saw the abnormality in her expression

She frowned. Out of the kindness of a doctor, Gina decided to go forward.

Yolanda's originally happy expression turned ugly the moment she saw Gina ecause the other party was Aria's father, Gina smiled politely.

What do you have to say to my wife? Just say it," Felix said.

olanda was stunned. She thought that Gina had said those words to mock her. Could it be that she was really suggesting it

Jolanda only felt that Gina was cursing herself.

Moreover, Aria was not here, and Yolanda did not do anything. Why did this wretched girl come to her and be so sarcastic?

rolanda could not take it anymore. "Miss Miller, don't you think you're being too nosy? Although you're Aria's friend, our amily's matters are none of your business, right?"

After hearing Yolanda's words, Felix's face darkened.

Yolanda resisted the urge to roll her eyes.

C i n a did not want to interfere, nor did she have the hobby of poking her nose into other people's business. However, although she had a bad impression of Yolanda, she could not leave her in the lurch.

"If you don't go for a checkup and stop the damage in time, your life will be in danger."

Gina's expression was solemn. She did not mean to scare them at all.

However, Yolanda immediately became anxious. "Gina, what do you mean? What hatred do I have with you? Must you curse. me like this?"

"I'm not trying to scare you." Gina's expression changed slightly, and she frowned.

Yolanda was impatient and refused to accept Gina's suggestion.

Felix saw that the atmosphere was in a deadlock. He was afraid that Yolanda's words would anger Gina again.

He quickly tried to smooth things over. "Miss Miller, I'm sorry. Yolanda is pregnant now, and her temper is getting hot. Please don't hold it against her."

Felix's expression was indescribable. He felt a little uncomfortable when he heard this, but he did not dare to offend Gina. He still asked nicely. "Miss Miller, why did you say that?"

"Because I'm telling the truth." Gina frowned.

When Felix saw how confident Gina was, he began to have some doubts. He turned to Yolanda and said, "Why don't we listen to Miss Miller's suggestion and go for a checkup?"

Yolanda was furious. Just as she was about to say something, she suddenly felt an unbearable pain in her stomach. Immediately, she felt her legs go weak and she held her stomach, unable to speak.

"What's going on?" Felix also realized that something was wrong.

*Felix, my stomach hurts." Soon, blood flowed out from between Yolanda's legs. Yolanda screamed in surprise, "My child, my child!"

Yolanda fell to the ground. Felix stood rooted to the ground in a daze. "What's going on?"

"Felix, quickly call the ambulance. Nothing must happen to our children!"

Only then did Felix react. He hurriedly called the emergency number.

Yolanda cried miserably and glared at Gina fiercely. "You'd better pray that the child in my stomach is fine. If anything happens to my child, it's your fault! You cursed me!"

Initially, Felix did not dare to be disrespectful to Gina, but when he saw that his child was about to die, he did not hold back. "Miss Miller, if anything happens to the child in my wife's stomach, you have to take full responsibility!"

The ambulance arrived very quickly. Felix stared at Gina and said. "You can't leave before ensuring the safety of the mother and son!"

Gina did not show any fear and calmly followed them to the hospital.

She sent Gabriel a WhatsApp message to tell him that she was heading to the Vegate Central Hospital.

Gabriel, who was waiting for Gina in the car, arrived very quickly.

Outside the operating theater, Felix was waiting anxiously.

His eyes lit up when he saw Gabriel, "Mr. Jackson!"

Even though the Torres Group had business dealings with the Jackson Group, it was still very difficult for Felix to meet Gabriel. He wanted to curry favor with Gabriel, but he did not have the chance to expand their cooperation.
