

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2297

Having said that, Luna sighed. "Moreover, the result from the IP address showed that the email was sent from the Landry Mansion. Coincidentally, Sean just moved in yesterday."

Luna sighed again and stood up to walk right up to Joshua, staring at the numbers she had no idea what it meant on the laptop. "Can it estimate which room the email was sent from?"

Joshua furrowed his brows and hastily drew out the floor plan of the Landry Mansion. "It should be from the last room of the second floor... The one Heather stayed in?"

The answer startled Luna, so she inhaled deeply. She bit her lip. "Butler Fred said Sean is staying in the room where Heather used to stay."

Joshua's brows were still squeezed together. "Maybe someone else had sent it from his room. I don't believe it's him."

Luna pinched her glabella to ease the pain from her headache because of Joshua's reaction.

She had expected this reaction. Sean was his cousin, so it made sense he would choose to believe Sean was innocent.

Impersonating Bonnie was not that serious. It did not cause any severe damage, and the people who got hurt were just Christopher and Sean himself. However, this incident showed that Sean was a person who would do anything just to achieve his purpose.

He would impersonate himself as Bonnie to email Christopher, triggering his emotions so that he would go crazy, just because Sean did not wish to see Jim and Bonnie married. He could do even more despicable things in the future just to accomplish his purpose.

It was a moment of silence. Luna did not want to start a fight with Joshua.

"Anyway, I think you should stay away from your cousin and also avoid him."

"I told you, Sean won't do such a thing." Joshua furrowed his brows as he looked at Luna. "I'm sure you know what kind of person Sean is, since you've been in touch with him all this while."

Luna was amused to see Joshua fighting to get her to agree with his point. "Joshua, I don't want to start a fight with you, but we shouldn't judge a book by its cover, right? It's like when Aura and I used to be like sisters. We were so close that I wanted to bring her to live in Banyan City after I got married. I even recommended her to be your secretary. Look what happened after that.

“And Malcolm , too. He had a whole lie going at me for six years. When I got back together with you, I felt sorry for him, but look where that landed us. When they were pretending, they were so kind and gentle that I felt blessed to know them. Reality has given me a big slap on the face. Our faults aren’t written on our foreheads.”

Luna’s face turned red because she was agitated as she thought back to the time she got betrayed and cheated on by those who she thought were her friends.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

She knew the pain, so she did not want Joshua to be blinded like she was “Sean isn’t like Malcolm.” Joshua squinted at Luna, his black pupils aiming right at her. “I believe Sean isn’t that kind of person. My aunt’s son is not who you think he is.”

Luna narrowed her eyes to see Joshua being steadfast and his unequivocal judgment. “Joshua, I just don’t want you to be like the old me.”

Joshua lifted his hand and closed the laptop. “I won’t, and Sean is not a bad guy.”

Luna sneered at Joshua’s reply. “Even if all the evidence is suggesting that he is, are you still going to blindly believe him because of the biological relationship between you and him? Really, just because he’s your aunt’s son?”

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 2298

Joshua’s eyebrows creased as he stared at Luna’s adorable face helplessly. “It’s not because we’re biologically related...”

“What is it, then?” Luna sneered . “How long have you and Sean known each other? About the same time as me, no? How could you be so sure that he’s a good guy? I was just acting in your best interest. I hate to see you grieve in sadness when he used you to fulfill his wishes, and that’s why I want you to keep a distance from him. Not only did you not appreciate my gesture, you even told me you believe in him.”

Luna took a deep breath. She took her phone and turned around. "Fine. You can believe in him. I won't say anything about this anymore!"

With that, she opened the door and walked away.

Joshua pinched his glabella because of a headache as he watched Luna leave.

All Luna could think of was what Joshua said as she left the hospital. The more she thought about it, the angrier she was.

She did it in his best interest because she was scared Joshua would put too much trust in Sean and ended up being hurt when he realized Sean was not who he thought he was. Not only did Joshua not appreciate her, but he even disagreed with Luna and thought Luna should not suspect Sean.

If there was one day when Joshua got hurt because of Sean, she told herself she would never feel bad for him. Never!

Amid Luna's internal rant, her phone rang. It was a call from Fred, Mickey's father and the Landry family's butler.

"Ms. Luna, did anything happen when you ask which room Mr. Sean was staying in? Since Master and Ma'am weren't around, I took the liberty to arrange it myself. Do you think it was inappropriate for him to stay in Heather's room?"

Fred paused for a bit before continuing, "Or...is there anything else you'd like to know? I'm all ears to listen to if you have other arrangements, or if you have something you'd like to know."

As Luna sat on the bench outside of the hospital, she closed her eyes helplessly. She had enough on her plate already, yet Fred kept on asking her about Sean. To avoid throwing a tantrum, she tried to speak with a calm tone, "I was just asking. It's fine, and I don't have any problem with the arrangement. You may continue with your work."

There was a moment of silence before Fred sighed. "Alright, that's good. When Mr. Sean moved in yesterday, he requested the wifi password and told me he was in a hurry to go online. I have no idea what he was busy with, but I just wasn't feeling right."

After that, with another sigh, he said, "If there's nothing else, I won't bother you anymore..."

"Wait!" Luna called out, her eyebrows pressed together. "You said...Sean requested the wifi password as soon as he moved in? And he was being fishy?"

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

As soon as Luna started the topic, Fred immediately started talking, “Yes, he was acting suspicious and asked me a lot of things such as the relationship between Master, Ma’am, and Christopher, as well as Young Master Jim and Christopher’s friendship, among other things. He asked a lot, and I can’t remember everything. I think he didn’t sleep for the entire night. I noticed that the light in his room was still on at around four in the morning.”

Luna grasped her phone tighter and tighter as she listened to Fred.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website " . Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 2299

‘Four in the morning? That was the time Christopher received the email! Requesting for the wifi password as soon as he arrived and using the excuse to post something online ... Asking Fred multiple questions and even staying awake at four in the morning...’

Every piece of information suggested that Sean was indeed the one who imitated Bonnie and sent the email to Christopher, and the thought of it riled up Luna. “What else do you remember, Butler Fred?”

Since Joshua did not believe that Sean was a scheming person, she would just prove it to him. Then, when she gathered all the information, she wanted to see Joshua begging for forgiveness.

“Let me think...” Fred went silent for a moment before a thought crossed his mind. “He had asked me which church was chosen for the wedding ceremony and which media companies were contacted. I really have no idea what he was thinking. How very mysterious.”

Fred sighed and said, “Ms. Luna, do you know what he’s up to?”

Luna squinted -of course she knew what Sean was up to. How stupid of her to think Sean was devastated because Jim and Bonnie were getting married. She even thought of many nice things to comfort him! Who knew Sean had already arranged everything before looking for her and Joshua.

First of all, he inquired about the relationship between Jim, Bonnie, and Christopher, and he then asked about the details of Jim and Bonnie’s wedding. Finally, he imitated Bonnie's tone to send an email to Christopher to trick Christopher that Bonnie needed his help.

When Christopher was back in Merchant City, he acted all innocent and threw a tantrum at Joshua's house so everyone would comfort him and pretended that he had finally let it go. In the end, he even went to the extent of hurting himself to save Jim when Christopher wanted to stab Jim 'Sean isn't as pure and innocent as he looked! Luna thought.

"Ms. Luna?" Noticing Luna's silence, Fred asked cautiously, "Are you still listening?"

"Yes." Luna took a deep breath. "Thank you, Butler Fred. If anything else is going on with Sean, please report it to me."

"But..." Fred hesitated, sounding as though troubled. "Mr. Sean is injured, so he has to stay in the hospital. Moreover, Eldest Young Master came back himself to pack a few things for Mr. Sean. He mentioned that Mr. Sean needs to stay in the hospital for a while... From the way Eldest Young Master mentioned Mr. Sean, he looks very gentle. I think he has accepted Mr. Sean to be his brother."

Luna was shocked to hear this, biting her lip as she digested these words. "Alright, I understand.

After that, she hung up and rested on the bench, feeling very helpless. 'Sean had employed a good trick to gain an end by enduring bodily suffering. Jim is also on his side now after he rescued Jim. No matter how much Jim hated Sean before, he'd no doubt change his mind after this incident.'

Luna exhaled deeply.

Just when she wanted to go look for Jim, however, Gwen called her.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

"Luna, I'm at Central Hospital. Where are you? I have some information to tell you regarding Sean!"

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2300

Instantly, Luna told Gwen her location when she found out Gwen had new information.

A while later, both ladies finally met. Gwen wore a long white dress with her hair down. She looked beautiful, like a fragile porcelain doll.

Luna subconsciously looked behind Gwen when she realized she came alone. "Luke let you come out by yourself?"

"He went to look for Joshua." Gwen shrugged and pointed at the window on the second floor of the hospital. "There."

Luna looked over in the direction she was pointing, and there she saw Luke and Joshua, dressed in all black and was standing beside Luke. It seemed like both of them were discussing something.

Luke leaned on the rail with one hand and tilted his head to look at Joshua while saying something. Meanwhile, Joshua leaned on his hands placed on the rail and gazed right at Luna. When he saw Luna looking at him, he even smiled and waved to greet her.

Luna, on the other hand, did not seem too happy to see Joshua. She remembered how Joshua refuted her when he was defending Sean. She turned her head the other way angrily so she did not have to look at him anymore.

Noticing her behavior, Gwen's lips curled into a smile as she looked at where Joshua was. "He's still looking at you. When I came here with Luke, we went looking for Joshua first. I thought you were with him, but Joshua said you were angry at him and went downstairs alone. I was curious where you'd be, and when I looked down, here you are, sitting alone. He's been watching over you, you know."

Gwen stretched her body and winked at Luna. "I can tell Joshua is still very worried about you. Even when he knows that you're still in the hospital, he just had to find a window to watch over you. You've been together like, what, almost ten years? How do you two manage to love each other so much after such a long time?"

Luna rolled her eyes. "Who said we've been together for nearly ten years?"

"But your kids are seven years old now." Gwen did not understand how that was possible.

"I raised my kids alone within six years." Luna pursed her lips and glanced at Joshua from the corner of her eye. "Specifically speaking, we've only been together for a few years."

All this while, they were most likely apart from each other. It seemed like they had been together for a long time, but that was just an illusion. Even so, he still disregarded the good gesture Luna had for him and rather believed in Sean, who was biologically related to him.

The thought reminded her how angry she was with Joshua, thus she gave Joshua the look as if it would make her feel better.

Luna's childish behavior amused Gwen. "I can't believe you're a mom to three seven-year-old kids sometimes."

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Luna pursed her lips and joked around with Gwen before starting a more serious topic.

"Didn't you say you have new intel on Sean? What is it?"

Gwen, too, got serious. "While I was talking to you, Luke asked what we talked about, so I told him you suspected Sean. Coincidentally, his men saw Sean last night."

Luna furrowed her brows. "He saw Sean last night?"

"I thought Sean had been staying in Landry Mansion the whole night. Butler Fred even said he kept asking a lot of things, and he locked himself in the room afterward. Moreover, Butler Fred also mentioned that Sean was still busy at four in the morning. How could Luke's subordinate have seen him last night?"

Gwen frowned and said, "That's right. Because of Bonnie, Luke helped Sean take vengeance on Terry on behalf of Sean's sister. Didn't Luke have his man practically neuter Terry?"

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you