

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2325

Luna emotionlessly looked into Joshua's eyes coldly and spoke curtly, "You never did make true of this vow, be it in the things that you think of, the problems that needed to be solved, and your suspicion toward anything. You'll only tell me when you need me to know, and otherwise, you won't tell me."

Joshua furrowed his brows tightly. "You're going overboard, Luna. It's just a small problem. Why do you—".

"Am I?" Luna interrupted coldly. "We're talking about Butler Fred and Mickey now, but what about in the future? If there are more dangers in the future, will you tell me? Do you think I have the right to know? Do you think you'll be honest and tell me?"

The more Luna went on, the more worked up she became. "You might think it's just a small matter, but if you're not even willing to share this small matter with me, then what about bigger issues? Will you share it with me and let me know?"

Joshua frowned again as he listened to Luna. After a while, he sighed and grabbed Luna's hand once more. "I'm sorry."

He gazed at Luna's face fondly with his deep, dark eyes and said sincerely, "I now know what bothers you now. I was wrong."

His apology came as a surprise to Luna. The thing that she was ready to say was suddenly stuck in her throat. She opened her mouth but found herself unable to say anything and was instead stunned.

If she forgave him, she would have no place to vent. On the other hand, if she chose not to forgive him...

Joshua had apologized so sincerely, too.

Just when Luna was in a very awkward moment and did not know what to do, someone opened the door.

It was Lucas, coming in to inform Luna and Joshua, "Sir, Mrs. Lynch, Luke and Gwen are here."

Gwen and Luke were her saviors, Luna sighed internally. She swung away Joshua's hand again and pretended to be angry as she looked outside. "We'll talk again when the guests leave."

Joshua knew that Luna was not angry anymore based on her expression, thus he curled his lips into a smile. "Alright."

Joshua and Luna made their way to the living room and sat on the couch. Coincidentally, Luke and Gwen were making their way in. Gwen leaned into Luke's arms fondly, to which Luke smiled very brightly. From afar, they looked like the perfect couple.

However, there was something different from before.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Gwen used to look terrible while Luke would seem healthier and more alive, but at this very moment, it was completely the opposite. Luke's face looked very pale, while Gwen's face looked filled with life and vigor.

"He didn't have a good rest last night. It's fine." This was Gwen's answer when Luna asked why Luke looked pale.

Gwen then smilingly added, "How could a person who sleeps like a pig every night be sick?"

"You're right," Luke agreed with her sweetly. He then looked at Joshua and continued, "I'm as healthy as a horse. Even if I lose an organ, I'll be lively as usual. There's nothing to worry about."

Joshua squeezed his brows together upon hearing Luke's words.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2326

Gwen might not understand what Luke meant, but Joshua knew exactly what Luke was talking about.

Joshua's eyebrows furrowed as he looked at Luke with a passive expression. "Having a healthy body is not the reason for you to do whatever you want."

Joshua then turned and looked at Gwen. "Am I correct?"

Gwen was so focused on Luna's expression that she missed Joshua's conversation with Luke. Thus, being questioned caught her off-guard as she eventually stammered, "Y—Yes."

Gwen then whispered into Luke's ear, so softly that only he could hear her, "What were you talking about just now?" Her cheeks became tinted with pink like ripe peaches.

Luke had a hard time restraining himself from nibbling her cheek. He would have held Gwen in his arms tightly and kissed her until they were both out of breath had they not been in Joshua's home at the moment.

Alas, there they were.

Luke curled up his lips and pinched Gwen's cheeks tenderly. How he adored her. "Nothing. We were just talking about how healthy I am." He smoothed Gwen's hair. "Don't mind us. Didn't you want to talk to Luna? Go on."

Gwen's heart suddenly skipped a beat. Most of the time, she disliked Luke, disliked how overbearing he was, disliked how possessive he was, and disliked his occupation and the cruel things he did. Nevertheless, Luke was, in fact, a good boyfriend most of the time.

He would always give her the correct response when she needed it the most, as well as being generous and stingy at the right time. Furthermore, butterflies would flutter in her stomach when she looked at Luke's gentle and kind face as well as his smoky voice while remembering how ruthless he could be.

Things would have been better if Luke was not a demon in disguise. How good would it have been if Luke did not kill her fiance? If...he was not that possessive over her, she would at least be willing to be a normal couple with him. They would not be where they were at this moment.

Gwen sighed and moved away, detaching herself so Luke would not be able to pat her head. She did not want to have too much contact with Luke as she feared that the more she got involved with him, the quicker she would fall for him to the point she could no longer leave him.

She turned around and looked at Luna with a smile. "I'm here to talk to you. Should we go upstairs or to the garden?"

Luna paused and quickly grabbed Gwen's hand with a smile. "Let's go to the garden. I'm afraid we can get too excited and startle the three kids. They'll be all over you once they see their godmother here."

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Luna's words humored Gwen. She stood up and shook her head helplessly. "Well, as you said, I am their godmother. I'll be more than happy if they're all over me."

While that was the truth, Gwen headed to the garden.

She knew Luna too well. Luna saying that she was afraid of waking her three children was not the entire truth; she actually meant she was afraid they would be too loud and disturb her three kids from resting. Since Gwen cared about the children, she could not bear exposing Luna.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you