

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2470

"That's right. We also have ample time to nurture feelings with Ms. Riley," said Thomas' assistant.

Thomas curled up his lips and glanced at his assistant. "This is the best thing you've said today."

The assistant chuckled awkwardly and lowered his head.

The fact was...he and Xander did not lie to Thomas at all. The woman he saw that morning was Yannie!

When he saw Yannie for the first time since he was here in Merchant City, he thought she looked familiar. It was when Xander mentioned that Yannie could be the woman who had slept with Thomas a year ago that it sprung into his mind.

Yannie was that woman!

However, since Thomas did not want to accept that fact, he could only keep the truth to himself.

On the way to Riley's ward, the three of them continued talking. When they arrived, the nurse at the ICU requested them to put on clean gowns before entering. They did what they were told as they then entered the ICU, the door closing behind them.

Through the glass window, people from the outside could see the three men were carefully monitoring Riley and talking.

What they did not know was that a woman was hiding behind the door in the stairway of this level, eavesdropping on their conversation. When she heard them entering the ICU, she carefully sneaked out of the stairway and looked at the ward.

When she saw how concentrated the three men were, she took out her phone to take a photo.

Unfortunately, she forgot to switch off the flashlight.

Flash!

The sudden flash startled Thomas, and he quickly lifted his head. As a superstar, he was very familiar with that kind of light.

"Someone took a photo," growled Thomas as he sharply scanned the corridor. Xander and the assistant quickly shielded Thomas as if someone was attacking them.

“We’ll go and take a look.”

When the door to the ward opened, Kate quickly put away her phone and ran downstairs.

Xander picked up the sound of footsteps and gave chase, only to see a woman’s back when he reached the stairway.

He knew he was incapable of chasing the woman 10 minutes later, so he walked back to Thomas’ side dejectedly. “Sir, she’s gone.”

“Imbecile!” Thomas gave him a cold look before he turned toward the other assistant. “Monitor the news. If that person is a reporter, buy the photo regardless of the price and suppress it.”

The assistant nodded. “What if she isn’t a reporter?”

Thomas squinted. “Well, we could be in trouble.”

“Where’s Luna?” Kate opened Sean’s ward, panting. “I have something important to tell her!”

Sean furrowed his eyebrows. “She went looking for you. Why are you back here by yourself?”

“I don’t have the time to explain to you.” Kate held the phone close to her chest as though it was an invaluable treasure. “Stay here and take care of yourself, Sean. I need to go find Joshua.”

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 2471

“Why do you need to go look for Joshua?” Sean furrowed his brow as he looked at Kate. “Riley isn’t in a good condition. She’s still in the intensive care unit, and they still haven’t found their daughter until now. He’s very busy and can’t help you handle your problem, so.”

Kate’s eyebrows knitted together as she turned and looked at Sean in bewilderment.

“Why do I need

Joshua’s help?”

She discovered Thomas’ secret! She bet Joshua and Luna had no idea that Riley was Thomas’ daughter.

Before this, she had heard from Luke saying that Joshua and Luna were looking for Riley's biological parents. If they knew Thomas was Riley's father, they would not need to look any further!

"You..." Sean furrowed his eyebrows as he looked at Kate. "Aren't you going to look for Joshua so he'd say something good about you with Luke,"

"Is that what you think?" interjected Kate before Sean could finish, smirking coldly as she looked at Sean with an icy expression. "Why do I need to get Joshua to put in the good words for me with Luke?" she sneered.

"I don't think I'm that close with Joshua to let him solve my private affairs. Plus..." She sneered, and her smirk never wavered. "I do like Luke, but that doesn't mean I need to try to break up him and Gwen."

After that, she turned to glance at Sean. "I'm not like you. I don't need to be with him just because I like him. Don't think that everyone is the same as you.

"You knew Bonnie and Jim were in a relationship, but you still insisted on stepping into their relationship. I'll never do such a thing like breaking up a couple just because I like that guy."

With that, she left the ward with her phone.

Sean leaned back on the headrest and watched as Kate left. Biting on his lower lip, a bitter smile slowly formed soon after.

Frankly speaking, he wanted to tell Kate he no longer yearned to be with Bonnie after Joshua and Luna lectured him. Even when he still had feelings for her....

It was the same case with Kate.

Maybe Luna's choice was right. Only girls like Yannie were the best option for him. However, it did not seem like Yannie liked him either.

Was he that bad?

When Kate arrived at Joshua's house, Joshua was on the phone with Luna. "What? You have to do that? Have you found the girl?"

Luna sighed on the other side of the phone while she was still in the control room, looking at the monitors. "Yes. It's been almost an hour since kate left Sean's ward, but no matter how I look at the surveillance footage from an hour ago, I can't find her... Where did she go?"

Joshua laughed as he heard Luna's nervous voice. "Didn't you say you wanted to help Sean look for Kate so Sean and Yannie could have some time alone to nurture their relationship? Why are you in a hurry to find her, then? Isn't that better? Sean and Yannie could have more time to themselves if it takes you more time to locate her."

Luna pursed her lips. "But it's been more than an hour."

It did not make sense at all if she could not even locate Kate after such a long time.

Right at that moment, the butler came knocking on the door and brought Kate with him. "Sir, Ms. Miller here said she has something important to tell you."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2472

Joshua furrowed his eyebrows as he looked at the butler and Kate. In the end, he burst into laughter." Alright, you don't need to look anymore. Just come back home."

Luna, on the other end of the call, rolled her eyes. "What do you mean, 'come back? I called you because I want you to help me. It's fine if you have no intention to help, but why do you ask me to go back?"

"That's because..." Joshua curled his lips into a smile and said with a low pitch, "Ms. Kate Miller is in our house now."

"What?!" Luna widened her eyes. "I'll be home!"

She hung up the phone immediately and left the control room.

Back in Joshua's house, Joshua languidly sat on the couch as he gazed at the woman before him. "What brings you here? Is there something you want to tell me?"

Kate frowned and sat on the couch. "Yes, there is."

Then, she took a sip of coffee and looked at Joshua. "Should I wait for your wife, or should I tell you now?"

Joshua smiled, but there was an undeniable gleam of coldness in his pupils. "You can tell me for now, and I'll consider if I need to tell my wife about it."

Kate smiled at this, having expected this response. She looked at him with curiosity. "There's something I've been wondering. Within this year and more, Ms. Luna was once engaged with Young Master Quinn, but you now refer to her as your wife. Are you two divorced or not?"

Joshua narrowed his eyes and gave Kate a once-over before he chuckled. "We were never divorced. But... I owe her a wedding."

Theoretically speaking, Luna was still his legally married wife. However, the name on the marriage certificate was Luna Gibson, but she no longer used that name anymore.

They were indeed still married, but they needed to amend the marriage certificate and have a wedding ceremony. After all, Joshua had no intention to force Luna if she was unwilling to bear her old family name, Gibson. The first thing he planned to do was marry Luna after he found their daughter.

It was quite complicated, and Kate might or might not have understood it. She looked up and saw the coldness in Joshua's eyes.

With this, she knew Joshua was not willing to disclose such private information since they were not close, so she stopped asking.

"The reason why I'm here is..." She took a deep breath and passed her phone to Joshua after searching for the correct photo. "When I left Sean's ward, I went upstairs along the stairway. As I reached the top floor, I accidentally saw this."

Joshua's eyebrows furrowed as he looked at the photo. A hint of shock and surprise appeared in his dark and deep eyes.

"T-They said..." Kate inhaled deeply. "This man here, Thomas Howard, is Riley's biological father, and there are three reasons why he's here: Riley, to look for Riley's mother, and..." She gazed at Joshua's face. "To have his revenge on you and Luna."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2473

Joshua curled his lips and sneered as he shifted to a more comfortable posture. "I understand it now."

From the looks of it, Thomas did not simply take Malcolm in and let Malcolm change his name to Lucifer Howard because Thomas was a philanthropist. Both of them must have had a deal where Malcolm provided information about Riley to Thomas, and Thomas would take Malcolm in and give him a new name so that Malcolm could return to Merchant City legitimately

However, was Riley genuinely Thomas' daughter?

Could there be such a coincidental event in life, or did Malcolm deliberately stir up the conflict between him and Thomas?

“Mr. Lynch, what do you understand?” For some reason, Kate was afraid as she looked at the mysterious man in front of her.

Although Joshua was a handsome and good-looking man, he reeked of prominence and arrogance. The only time that aura would soften was when Luna was around.

However, Luna was not here at the moment. His powerful, suppressive aura scared Kate a lot, even when she spent most of her time with Luke, a gang leader.

“Nothing.” Joshua regained his senses when Kate asked that question. He looked at the scared girl and deleted the photo from the phone. Then he handed the phone back to Kate. “I’m aware of this now. Pretend like you never saw it or heard it. Don’t let anyone else know about it to stay out of trouble.”

Kate pursed her lips and took her phone carefully, staring at Joshua as questions stormed her mind. “Not even Luna?”

“Yes.” Joshua squinted and sternly repeated, “Not even Luna.”

She was already biased toward Thomas, and with Thomas being one of her business partners, Luna might not be able to keep her cool when working with that man should she find out about the truth.

Joshua feared that things would get out of hand.

“What are you two talking about? What is it that I can’t?”

The first thing Luna heard was Joshua telling Kate that she could not.

What was that about?

Kate, startled by Luna’s sudden appearance and voice, timidly looked at Joshua, not knowing what to do.

Joshua, on the other hand, was calm. “Nothing.”

He stood up and walked toward Luna, pulling her into his arms as he softly added, “I was just telling Kate that no one is better than me when it comes to locating a person. She then asked about you, and I said that not even you can beat me.”

Luna defeatedly pursed her lips and looked at Kate, who was sitting on the couch. “I admit that.”

The hospital was just that big, and she could not locate her whatsoever. She even let people working in the control room replay the surveillance footage, yet she still failed to locate Kate.

At one point, she started to suspect her ability to locate a person.

Kate smiled awkwardly and looked at Luna. "Well... It's normal you can't see me from the surveillance footage. I bribed the people working in the control room yesterday with a huge load of money to make sure they won't capture me on all of the cameras in the hospital."

Luna was baffled to have heard this as she turned to gaze at Kate. "Why?"

Kate scratched her head. "Because... I don't want anyone to know my whereabouts, and I don't want Luke to find out what I was doing....."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2474

Kate paused for a moment and failed to come up with a further explanation. Even though she said nothing, Luna understood what she was trying to convey.

Luna was right on the money, Kate liked Luke.

Kate bribed the people in the room so no one could find her, all so she would stay hidden from Luke. It was purely a little tactic that she used on the man she liked. She knew Luke cared about her and that he had promised her family to stop her from missing and losing contact. This was probably why she liked to use these little tactics to stop Luke from locating her and worry about her in return.

With that, Luke would have to take some of his attention away from Gwen to look after her.

With that in mind, Luna disliked Kate even more, especially since Luna was a friend of Gwen. Should there be a woman like Kate with Joshua... She would have picked a fight with Joshua because of that woman.

Nevertheless, Gwen never fussed about it. In fact, Luna never knew there was such a person besides Luke if it were not for Sean.

Gwen might not care, but it did not mean Luna did not.

Thus, she curled her lips and smiled while looking at Kate. "In that case, there was no problem with my ability, and I didn't fail to locate Ms. Miller from the control room."

Then, she walked over to the couch and sat down, glancing at Kate coldly. "But I'd like to know, why are you here in my house?"

She sipped her coffee while glancing at Kate and Joshua. "Perhaps you're planning to ask my husband to say something nice about you to Luke?"

To her, she and Joshua were on the same boat; only finding out about Kate after Sean's incident. Otherwise, Luke did not have to tell Joshua about Kate's life and family when he wanted to look for Kate.

They were not close with Kate, so there was no other reason Luna could think of for Kate to have come.

Feeling the hostility emanating from Luna, she furrowed her eyebrows and looked at Joshua.

Joshua squinted and shook his head at her.

Knowing what Joshua meant, she squeezed out a smile for Luna. "It's because I know you were looking for me on Sean's behalf. I know you can't find me in the hospital, but I don't have your number, so I came to your house..."

Luna squinted. "You don't have my number, but Sean does."

This essentially rendered Kate's explanation weak.

Yes, she did not have Luna's number, but Sean did. Why did Sean not contact her? It did not make sense at all.

Kate's face turned pale.

She bit her lip and stammered, "Actually... Actually, you're right. I did come here to get Mr. Lynch put in some good words for me to Luke, but Mr. Lynch rejected me."

In the end, Kate exhaled deeply. "I'll leave now. Goodbye."

She ran out of the house as if she was running for her life.

Luna frowned as she watched Kate leave. For some reason, she had a feeling Kate and Joshua were hiding a secret from her.

At that time, Luna's phone rang. It was a call from Gwen.

"Hey, Luna," came Gwen's soft-sounding voice. "I remember that Bonnie will wake up anytime now. Didn't Jim say he wanted to have a wedding ceremony for Bonnie and let her wake up during the ceremony? | don't have any gown fit for a wedding, so I've asked Kate to go shopping with me. Why don't you come along, too?"
