Chapter 2651

(Yeah!) Luna shifted into a more comfortable position as she laid on the chaise lounge. She continued to reply to Joshua's text message. (But Gwen said she dreamed of Luke last night. In her dream, Luke nearly hit her with his car and that he brought her into his car afterward. She recalled hugging Luke, crying and laughing as she did, but Luke said he didn't know her, even saying he has a fiancée. No matter how Gwen cried and begged, he kept on saying he didn't know her.]

(After that, he even had his driver drive him to his fiancée's house, and Gwen didn't remember anything later. She added that since she was found in the dumpster when she woke up, Luke's fiancée's house must be in the dumpster in her dream!) (What do you think? Do you think she has let it go or not after having such a dream?) Luna was under the impression that this was all a light texting session with Joshua over the phone. Nonetheless, Joshua entered a moment of deep thought after reading the text messages Luna sent.

'The dream Gwen thought she had shouldn't be a dream. So...'

He narrowed his eyes and called Lucas. "Check the surveillance footage of the road, especially from three to four o'clock in the morning. The roads from Luna's hotel to Kate's house." "Yes, sir."

Joshua squinted after he hung up the phone. He was surprised Kate made the move first before he had the time to settle the score with her.

If Gwen remembered correctly, there was a huge possibility that Steven had brought Gwen to Kate's house. Then again, why would Gwen end up in the dump station? If Steven had entrusted Kate to look after Gwen, how did Kate let Gwen sleep in the dumpster?

Half an hour later, Joshua and Thomas had just gotten in Thomas's office when Lucas called. "Sir, I got the result." Lucas' voice was trembling on the other side of the phone. "I think... I saw Mr. Jones in the surveillance footage!" Joshua was not surprised to hear how shocked Lucas was. "What was he doing?" Lucas paused.

"Sir, did you not hear what I just said? I said I saw Mr. Jones! Aren't you a little surprised? You, and I were the ones who pushed him into the operation theater, and we were also the ones who pushed him out! We saw his dead body! How could—" "I know," Joshua cut off Lucas' astonished comment coldly. "Tell me: what did the man in the surveillance footage you saw do?"

After a moment of silence, Lucas inhaled deeply. "I saw Ms. Larson nearly get knocked over by Mr. Jones' car, and she started crying. Mr. Jones brought Gwen into his car and...the car headed toward Ms. Miller's house. After that, Ms. Miller let Mr. Jones into the house, but Ms. Miller's maid threw Ms. Larson into the dumpster. "Ms. Miller's maid even greeted the worker from the rubbish truck... That's why we found Ms. Larson in the dump station."

"Okay." Joshua squinted. It was as he thought. Most importantly, Kate was the first one to cross the line.

Chapter 2652

When Luna finished texting Joshua, Gwen and Yannie had just left the sauna. The three women continued to enjoy their time and talked until it was time for lunch. They had their meal provided by the resort in a buffet. Gwen and Luna did not prefer the lunch provided. After a discussion, they left the resort and were going to find a restaurant to have their lunch.

As they left the resort in their car, a black Porsche stopped at the entrance of the resort. The door opened, and Steven got down from the car elegantly. He walked to the other side of the car and opened the door. "Thank you for bringing me to enjoy the hot spring, darling." Kate, getting out of the car, grabbed Steven's arm with a happy look on her face. She mentioned how she felt like going to a hot spring this morning during breakfast, and Steven remembered it. Now that he had finished with his work, he had brought her here to enjoy the hot spring. 'He's so good to me. It just proves that I'm in his heart!' Kate thought. "You don't have to thank me." Steven smiled as they walked toward the resort. He crackled. "I remember you told me you feel like coming here today, and I'm in a good mood today, so I thought I'd come with you." Kate smiled. "What made your day?" "I got the business." Steven smiled and poked Kate's head. "Then, in celebration of you getting the business, it's on me today!" chirped Kate as she strode to the counter.

Steven curled his lips into a smile while he stood still, watching Kate. He then turned and sat on a sofa beside him. As he did, he saw a small pendant made out of an abalone shell on the sofa. It looked like it had fallen off a keychain. Surprised, Steven picked up the pendant to take a look. He felt like he saw the pendant somewhere before.

The drunk girl from the morning had her key fallen off once when he was carrying her, and her pendant looked just like this one.

He furrowed his brow and looked around him unconsciously. 'Is she here too?' he thought. 1

"Steven." At that time, Kate had finished with the registration. Seeing how Steven looked around while sitting on the sofa, she asked, "What's wrong?"

“Nothing,” Steven answered and put the pendant into his pocket. “It’s done?”

Kate smiled sweetly and nodded. “Yes. Let’s go in!”

She leaned her body and pressed her entire body onto Steven. “Is this the first time you brought me here for a hot spring?”

“Yes, as far as I recall.” Steven smiled and reached out his hand to caress Kate’s head. “Oh, yes. What happened to the drunk woman I asked you to take care of this morning?”

It had been a busy morning for him, and he nearly forgot about that. Kate did not expect Steven would bring up this matter. She laughed without caring too much. “Oh, that drunk woman. I’ve asked my maid to look after her after you brought her to my house. I went in to have a look, and she was so drunk and unconscious. So, I asked my maid to make her some hot soup and let her sleep in the house. Before we were here, my maid told me she had woken up and left the house.” She pretended to be jealous and looked at Steven. “Why do you care about her that much? Aren’t you afraid that I’d be jealous?”. Steven burst out in laughter. He raised his hand and rubbed her head lightly. “If I was afraid you’d get jealous, I wouldn’t have sent her to your house in the first place.” Kate pursed her lips. “That sounded right.”

At the restaurant, nearby The Spring Resort.

After they placed an order for their food, Luna and Yannie were swept away by their conversation before they noticed Gwen flipping everywhere as though searching for something “What’s wrong?” Luna asked with a frown.

“I lost my pendant.” She placed her keychain on the table to show Luna that there was no pendant attached to it. “Luke bought it for me when we were sightseeing in a church in Merchant City. I don’t know where I lost it.”

She flipped through every pocket on her clothes and dug into her bag once again, her eyebrows squeezed together. “I can’t find it, I swear.” Luna did not have the appetite to eat anymore, looking at how anxious and panicked Gwen was. She knew how important the pendant was to Gwen because it was a gift from the deceased Luke, and it was thus an irreplaceable gift. Yannie also started to help Gwen search for it. The three women searched the entire restaurant, but they could not find it. At that time, their food was served. Gwen sighed. “Maybe it fell off in The Spring Resort. Before we left, I was playing with the pendant while we were sitting on the sofa in the lobby discussing where to eat. Maybe it fell off then.” She got on her feet. “Don’t wait for me.” “I’ll go with you.” Yannie quickly stood up when she saw Gwen stand up. “I have good eyesight. I can help you to look for it on the way back.” Gwen had really scared Yannie after she was found sleeping in the dumpster. It somewhat traumatized Yannie, so she was not about to let Gwen walk away by herself again. “Don’t worry.” Gwen pursed her lip. “I didn’t drink any alcohol, and I won’t sleep in the dumpster again.” “We believe in you.” Luna pouted and put some food onto Gwen’s plate. “Let’s have some food in our system first, and then we’ll go search together.” Gwen pursed her lips and hesitated. Finally, she sat down after looking at Luna and also Yannie, who looked very worried. Luna and Yannie had been by her side for the entire morning. From the looks of it, they were , scared she might run off like she did last night. If she decided to leave without eating, both of them would also do the same as she did.

After giving it a thought, she decided to stay and have her lunch first. She could only search for the pendant afterward. It was a precious pendant to Gwen, but it was not because it was expensive. The pendant was in fact bought in a small store in the tourist area. She believed no one would actually pick it up even if it fell on the sofa in the resort.

Nonetheless, the result was not what Gwen expected. After lunch, they searched all the way from the restaurant to the lobby of the resort. Alas, they did not find it. After nearly an hour of searching, Gwen sat on the sofa in the lobby of the resort with disappointment. She looked at Yannie, who was squatting on the floor, trying to find the pendant. “You don’t have to look anymore. Maybe...this is my fate.” Fate wanted her to lose Luke’s gifts one by one, slowly diminishing his existence from her life in the process. Nonetheless, Luna did not believe in destiny nor was she about to give up. She went to the counter. “I’d like to know if anyone else sat on the sofa after we left. We dropped something.” The front desk attendant felt sympathetic because she saw them searching for a long time. Thus, she checked the surveillance footage and looked at Luna while feeling troubled. “Someone did sit on the sofa after you left.”

Chapter 2654

Lupa furrowed her brow and leaned over to look at the surveillance footage. “Who sat there? How many people?” Although the front desk attendant broke the rules once to check the surveillance footage for Luna, she did not dare let Luna take a look at the surveillance footage.

She looked at the footage once again, raised her head, and smiled at Luna. “Miss, I understand you must be anxious to look for your lost item, but according to the rules, we’re not allowed to reveal our customer’s information to others.”

She looked at Luna seriously. “I have an idea. These two customers are in the hot spring right now. Why don’t I go in and ask if they saw your lost item? Is that alright?”

Luna nodded. "Thank you very much."

Frankly speaking, she preferred to ask herself since the front desk attendant had never seen Gwen's pendant. She was afraid the front desk attendant did not know how to describe it well. However, as the front desk attendant said, the rules of the resort prohibited it. The front desk attendant had been kind to her, and she did not want to cause trouble for her. The front desk attendant smiled when Luna agreed with the suggestion. She turned around and went inside. "Please excuse me."

At that moment, Kate and Steven had finished freshening up. They were sitting together and resting in the resting room, having coffee Kate furrowed her brow when she heard a knock at the door. She stood up and opened the door. "What's the matter?"

The front desk attendant quickly told Kate what happened. "A customer came and said they lost something on the sofa in the lobby. You and your partner had sat there for a while, so I'm wondering if both of you saw a pendant made out of an abalone shell?" A pendant? Kate furrowed her brow and looked at the front desk attendant annoyingly. "We didn't see any pendant."

Kate then made a move to close the door when Steven, who overheard the conversation, stood up to stop Kate from closing the door. "Is she here looking for a pendant?"

Kate nodded and looked at Steven helplessly. "But we didn't see anything at all..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Steven took out a pendant made out of an abalone shell from his pocket. He walked over to the door and gave the pendant to the front desk attendant. "Is it this one?"

The front desk attendant had never seen the pendant before. However, it did look like the one Luna mentioned from the shape, color, and pattern mentioned. "I'm not sure." She smiled and accepted the pendant Steven passed over. "Why don't I bring it back to show them? If it's their lost pendant, I'll return it to them. If not, I'll bring it back for you."

"There's no need to bring it back," interjected Kate before Steven could answer.

She looked at the pendant in the front desk attendant's hand with contempt. It was just some cheap pendant that anyone could buy in the tourist area near the church in Merchant City. She saw it in Merchant City before.

Those pendants were just a gimmick the seller in the tourist area thought of. They would pursue tourists and say that these pendants could bring luck, peace, and help those who wear them to find the right person for their lives.

Kate saw it before. The first thought she had when she saw those pendants was that they were just some cheap things that people buy to make their kids happy.

Nonetheless, Luke actually wanted to buy for Gwen when they were there. Yes, Luke, who had always been mature and despised those things, wanted to buy it for Gwen.

She looked at the pendant again as those thoughts surfaced in her mind. Perhaps the one person who would think this cheap pendant was precious and would search everywhere for it was Gwen, that idiot.
