

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 2790

Chapter 2790 "Don't you dare!" When she heard this, Luna immediately took out her phone, dialed the emergency number, and glared at the people around her. "This is against the law! I—"

Before she could even finish, the leader lunged forward and swiped her phone out of her hand.

She brought Luna's phone up to her ear and said into the receiver, "Nothing, I misdialed."

with that, she was about to toss the phone away but, upon noticing how expensive Luna's phone looked, tucked it into her pocket instead. Finally, she shot Luna a triumphant glance and said, "How are you supposed to call the police now?"

"Don't worry." Gwen immediately turned around and shielded Luna behind her. She lifted her head to stare at the crowd before her. "I was the one who had said the stuff about Thomas, so if anything, you should target me instead, but no matter how mad you are, I won't change my mind!

"Thomas is just a suspect, and no one has yet found any evidence to convict him of murder. It should be up to the judiciary system to decide whether he's guilty of murder or not, not any of you.

"Besides, even if he truly murdered his father, it's not up to either of you to demand him to hand over his shares!"

The look in her eyes was so cold that the men surrounding them immediately shrunk backward out of fear.

The crowd fell silent.

Finally, murmurs spread throughout the crowd.

"She's right; the police haven't even said anything about Thomas Howard's capture yet..." "I heard that Senior Howard was admitted to the hospital after Thomas shot him yesterday, and he passed away at midnight... Who else could it be if not Thomas?" "But we can't possibly protest anything if there's no concrete evidence yet..."

The leader of the party overheard this and immediately flew into a rage. "Do you honestly believe everything she says? If we don't chase Joshua Lynch out and demand Thomas Howard to hand over his shares, are we supposed to wait until they've evacuated the money and nothing is left?"

“Have you forgotten what Mrs. Howard said? She promised us that she’d split one-third of Howard Group’s shares among us if we successfully chased Joshua Lynch out! Do you know just how much that is? That’s tens of thousands of dollars! Are you going to give up on that money just because of what this woman said?”

The people immediately changed their minds upon hearing this.

They surrounded Luna and Gwen again, tugging at their shirts while pointing their cameras at them.

They wanted to get their hands on the money Tina promised.

Gwen narrowed her eyes when she heard this. It turned out that Tina was the one who had sent these people over. No wonder these people were acting like maniacs—they had been brainwashed by Tina!

Tina must have known that Joshua would never hand over Howard Group’s shares despite the people’s protests. Otherwise, she would not have made such an outrageous promise.

She was using the false promise of money to lure these people into doing her dirty work and preventing Joshua from investigating Senior Howard’s death. The truth was, these people would not get anything out of this at all.

However, they would not think of blaming Tina at all. Instead, they would direct their blame on Joshua.

Tina was a cruel but cunning woman.

All of a sudden, someone grabbed hold of Gwen’s parka.

Rip—! The sound of a blade slicing through fabric, and the next moment, down feathers poured out of the jacket.

However, this was not the end. Without her jacket, the people easily caught hold of Gwen’s shirt, and as they tugged with all their might, her buttons were about to pop off “Stop!”

Chapter 2791 A hand grabbed hold of the arm that was tugging on Gwen’s shirt. “Is this the culture that Howard Group propagates—a culture of tugging on innocent women’s clothes to expose her in the cold?”

This voice...

Gwen froze, then instinctively lifted her head.

The person who had come to save her was none other than Luke!

Her entire face seemed to light up, and tears welled in her eyes as she bit her lip.
“You...”

“Are you okay?” The man turned to smile at her.

Gwen’s face fell when she realized that it was Steven. She bit her lip but could not seem to hide the disappointment on her face. “I’m fine, Steven.”

Steven’s heart sank

The reason she had seemed so happy to see him...was because she had mistaken him for Luke. After realizing he was not Luke but Steven, however, she became visibly disappointed.

Even when he was rescuing her, she was still hoping it was someone else.

The light seemed to disappear from Steven’s face at this realization, but the sadness only lasted a moment.

He let out an exhale, stepped in front of Luna and Gwen, and then lifted his head to stare at the people before him. “I’ve already called the cops. It’s absolutely disgusting of you to treat these women like this.” “What business is it of yours?” The leader did not seem to be bothered by Steven’s appearance. She sneered and said, “We’re in the middle of resolving internal conflict! This woman is Joshua Lynch’s wife! How is it wrong of us to treat her like this? If anything, it’s all Joshua Lynch’s fault!”

With that, she brandished her arm and added, “Everyone, if we don’t lure Joshua out of the building, all our waiting would’ve been for nothing. It’s been difficult waiting out here in the freezing cold, so let’s not let our efforts go to waste. Don’t be intimidated by this man!”

Upon hearing this, the crowd surged forward in Steven’s direction.

Gwen bit her lip and instinctively reached out to grab Steven’s arm.

If the person standing in front of her were Luke, she would not have been worried at all, but he was not Luke.

Steven was gentle and would not even hurt a fly. “Don’t worry.” Steven narrowed his eyes and shot the crowd a disdainful glance. Then, he took off his jacket, handed it to Gwen, and pulled his sleeves up. “If you intend to lay a finger on her, you’ll have to go through me first.”

With that, he lunged towards the crowd.

The color drained from Gwen's face as she bit her lip.

"Gwen," all of a sudden, Luna's voice rang out next to her. "Why is Steven so...gifted at fighting? It kind of reminds me of Luke."

Luna had witnessed Luke in combat before.

Luke and Joshua had once gone to rescue her when she was kidnapped back in Sea City, and at that time, Luke had left a significant impression on her.

Appearance-wise, Luke looked gentle and even a little weak, but this man was surprisingly agile and quick in mortal combat. As she watched Steven fight against the crowd of protestors... it brought back memories of Luke in combat. Gwen immediately lifted her head upon hearing this. Her heart lurched as she stared at the man in the distance.

Tears slid down her cheeks.

Luna was right.

Steven's every punch and blow...even the way he swiped his hair out of his face in between strokes...was identical to Luke's. Was this just a shared trait between identical twins, or was Luke gradually returning?

Chapter 2792 Even Steven was surprised by how agile and strong he suddenly became. He did not feel like himself anymore.

He had never been an advocate of violence before, but for some reason, he could not help feeling pleasure while in combat.

He was surprisingly enjoying this feeling The thought of being able to protect Gwen, and the thought of these people bullying Gwen... Every punch of his landed at the right spot, and he easily tackled every person that came his way.

After he had tackled the burly men in front, neither of the protestors dared to approach him, not even a single step. Even the leader of the group seemed surprised by this. Who would have thought this gentle, scholarly-looking man would turn out to be such a good fighter? "Steven." Gwen lunged forward to grab hold of his arm. "Are you okay?" "I'm okay." Steven turned around and gently pinched Gwen's nose.

The blood in her body ran cold, and her muscles immediately grew taut.

This was what Luke used to do to her every time.

Gwen lifted her head to stare at the man before her, unsure whether she was looking at Luke or Steven.

“What’s wrong?” Steven curled his lips into a smile when he saw Gwen staring at him, then reached out to pinch her nose playfully once more. Finally, he turned to stare coldly at the people before him. “If you guys have anything against Joshua, you should take matters up stead of bullying innocent women like this.”

With that, he grabbed hold of Gwen’s arm and turned to glance at Luna. “Come on.”

Luna was so shocked that she could not utter a single word.

The way he had threatened the people...

Was this not Luke?

“Luna,” Gwen’s voice rang out.

Luna immediately broke out of her stupor and chased after them.

This time, with Steven escorting them, no one dared to touch Luna and Gwen again.

The three of them entered the lobby. Lucas, who had been waiting at the entrance, let out a sigh of relief when he saw them. He patted his chest and said, “Ma’am, Ms. Larson, thank god you’ve finally come. Sir was just about to brave the crowd to save you. Thankfully, I managed to stop him before he could do so.

Then he circled Luna, giving her a once-over, and sighed in relief after making sure she was unscathed. “Thank God.”

Luna knew that Lucas was worried about her safety because of Joshua. She curled her lips into a smile and said, “Don’t worry, I’m fine, but...”

She glanced in the direction of the elevator. “How’s Joshua doing now? And what about Howard Group...” “Don’t bring that up.” Lucas sighed. “Now that Thomas has been arrested as a murder suspect, and Senior Howard didn’t set up a will in time before his death... Tina and Dan are at work trying to convince the investors to split Thomas’ shares while taking Senior Howard’s inheritance for themselves.”

Lucas appeared visibly outraged when he said this. "The reason we followed Mr. Thomas here to Saigen City was to help him take back what was rightfully his, but none of us saw this coming. Senior Howard's death has set everything back to square one!"
