

Read Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is Not Easy Chapter 3020

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is not Easy chapter 3020-Luna was absolutely overjoyed to hear this.

This was perfect! Gwen was supposed to be reminded of Luke because he was Luke!

With that, Luna quickly followed up with a voice message, “Gwen, since you’re already feeling this way, why don’t you try and unveil his mask and see what he truly looks like? I’ll tell you this; you should be more courageous, and who knows if you might be pleasantly surprised by him?”

Gwen was even more amused by this. How could she possibly be even more surprised? The only way that could happen was if Stefan turned out to be Luke in disguise.

Besides...

Stefan admitted that he chose to conceal his face because of his disfigurement, and this was why she was reluctant to reveal his face. She was secretly worried that every ounce of her developing feelings toward him would dissipate after seeing his crude, grotesque face.

She did not want to lose him as a friend.

No. She could not let that happen; she still needed Stefan and Kurt’s help to save her father.

At the thought of this, Gwen paused and replied, [Okay. I’ll try to find a chance, but not so soon.]

She knew that if she turned Luna down, Luna would not rest until she changed her mind.

For some reason, she could not help feeling that Luna had changed ever since she got out of prison.

[Well, if you like taking off other people’s masks so much, why don’t you get one for Joshua so you can do it yourself?]

Luna pursed her lips when she saw this. [That sounds like a great idea. Perfect timing, too—I'm not in the mood to see his face these next few days.]

[What happened?]

Luna stared at Gwen's reply as she cradled Shelly in her arms, wanting nothing more than to tell her everything, but after some consideration, she decided against it.

Since she held Shelly in her arms, she could not explain any further to Gwen even if she wanted. Besides, Nellie was in the same room, and she did not want to reveal her conflict with Joshua to her daughter.

Seeing that Luna did not reply, Gwen furrowed her brow in concern and dialed Luna's number.

The blaring ringtone woke little Shelly from her slumber, and she burst into tears.

With a sigh, Luna reached out to grab her phone, but before she could do so, Nellie's chubby little arms extended toward her.

Nellie had put down her little crayons and stood in front of Luna with her arms outstretched. "I'll help you take care of Shelly, Mommy." She grinned. "You and Aunt Gwen should catch up."

Luna paused. "There's no need for that, Nellie."

"It's okay." Nellie's eyes were little crescent moons as she beamed at her mother. "I can ask Nigel and Neil to help me if anything happens, so don't worry. You and Aunt Gwen should take your time."

Nellie could tell from Luna's hesitation that something unpleasant had happened between her and Joshua, and she was itching to talk about it to Gwen. Therefore, she decided to step in and help take Shelly off her hands.

After all, nothing mattered more than her mother.

Luna sighed at this, then handed the crying infant over to Nellie. After instructing two more nannies to help Nellie, she went out of the room to pick up Gwen's call.

"Did you and Joshua fight?" Gwen asked as soon as the call was connected.

Luna was silent for a moment, then nodded. "I guess you can put it that way."

"What happened?"

"It's a long story." Luna closed her eyes and let out a bitter chuckle. "It's to do with Anne. I just found out this morning that...Joshua was the one who had helped John get out of Banyan City."

Gwen froze when she heard this. "Does that mean he knows where to find John and little Sammie?"