Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is not Easy chapter 3045-“No...”

Although the woman was dazed and groggy, she could make out what was happening and knew someone had come to save her.

She lifted her head to glance at the man who rescued her.

She thought it would be Ben, or some other man she had slept with recently.

The moment Stefan stormed in, she decided to turn over a new leaf and was even willing to marry the man who saved her.

But...

When she lifted her head to glance at him, all she saw was a man wearing a mask. The only thing she could make out was his sharp, chiseled jawline.

Although she could not see what he truly looked like, she could tell that he was a handsome man, even with his mask on.

Not only was he handsome, but he was courageous and single-handedly rescued her from the despicable men who captured her.

“Who are you?” Stefan furrowed his brows, his eyes etched with shock.
“Where’s Gwen?”

The woman’s heart sank at this.

That explained why he was here.

He was here for Gwen!

“She’s Gwen...” whimpered one of the men cowering in a corner. “She’s Gwen. We caught her ourselves! When we found her, she was in bed with her ex-husband... What a slut!”

“Sir, don’t let her fool you. She’s just a slut. We’re just having some casual fun with her...”

“They’re right; she’s dirty and used. The only person who’d treasure her is Luke... Don’t let her fool you. You’ll get into trouble with our boss, Tyson if you do...”

Stefan furrowed his brow when he heard this.

He turned to glare at them, brandishing his knife. “Shut up!”

The room fell silent.

With that, Stefan walked over and removed the gag from the woman’s mouth, then sat next to her and lit a cigarette. “You were caught when you snuck into Gwen’s house with Ben, yes?”

He could not believe it when Diablo first said this. He could not believe Gwen would do something like this, but he was still worried that Gwen was coerced by Ben into doing it, which was why he rushed over.

However, as he saw ‘Gwen’ for himself, he finally understood what was going on.

This woman was probably one of Ben’s newest girlfriends and had snuck into the house with Ben for some fun time but was unfortunately mistaken for Gwen and got caught.

The woman bit her lip when she heard Stefan’s voice. She replied hoarsely, “Yes... I’ve tried explaining to them that I’m not Gwen, but they refused to listen...”

With that, she gazed at Stefan pleadingly and whimpered, “Even though I’m not Gwen...please take me from here. I’m willing to do anything. I’ll even marry you in return for saving me...”
