Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is not Easy chapter 3050-Although she had begun to develop feelings for Stefan after spending most of their time together, Gwen did not want things to progress beyond friendship.

After all, she had someone else in her heart and could not allow herself to fall for Stefan and thus deliberately avoided physical contact with him all this while.

Stefan's actions clearly crossed the line and made her visibly uneasy.

At the thought of this, she began to struggle even harder and exclaimed, "Let go of me, Stefan!"

"I.J'm not Stefan." Luke paused when he sensed Gwen's discomfort. "I'm Luke."

Gwen's entire body stiffened when she heard this familiar name.

The blood in her veins ran cold, and every single fiber in her body was standing on end.

How could this be?

She bit her lip, wanting to say something in response, but no words came out.

"It's me," Luke repeated, enunciating his words carefully as he stared at Gwen. "Gwen, look at me. You're not dreaming. It's really me. I'm Luke. I've always been by your side, and I'm never leaving.

"Stefan is Luke, and Luke is Stefan."

Gwen's entire body froze when she heard this.

A split second later, she reached out to wrap her arms around Luke and burst into tears. "Luke! I can't believe it! I can't believe you've been here all along!"

She finally knew why Stefan always brought her a sense of familiarity.

It was no wonder she had begun to develop feelings toward him. At one point, Gwen accused herself of being disloyal to Luke for having fallen for Stefan…but it turned out that they were the same person all this while!

Stefan was Luke!

The man who had her whole heart, the man whom she would wake up from her dreams crying for, was alive all this while!

Gwen's weeps made Luna, who was in her room right adjacent to hers, frown in confusion. She quickly flung the door open to check on Gwen before she spotted the couple embracing each other.

Luke's arms were wrapped tightly around Gwen's body with a small smile on his face while Gwen sobbed.

Luna was momentarily stunned by this sight before chuckling right after.

"Thankfully, this turned out well," Joshua's voice rang out next to her.

Luna glanced in his direction and came face-to-face with Joshua's reassured smile. "You must be glad to see Gwen happy now, aren't you?"

Luna paused, then nodded and snaked her arm around Joshua's waist. "Yes, I am."

This was the ending she had been hoping for.

Although Luna knew Stefan was just Luke in disguise and that he had been protecting Gwen in secret, she did not dare to reveal the truth to Gwen prematurely.

They finally reunited, and she could finally feel at ease again.

Gwen wept for a long, long time. Finally, she lifted her head to stare at Luke. "Why did you come find me all of a sudden, and why aren't you wearing your mask?"

She knew Luke like the back of her hand. He had intended to remain in hiding while protecting her and would stick to his plan no matter what. The fact that he had come to find her so suddenly and even revealed his true identity to her meant that something must have gone wrong.

At the thought of this, she bit her lip and asked, "Did something happen to my father, Luke?"
