Pursuing My Ex-Wife Is not Easy chapter 3082-“Alright, I’ll ask my assistant to send the information to you now.”

After thinking for a while, Tara agreed to share the information with Luna. She was aware of how close Luna and Anne were when Anne was still alive and she understood that Luna was trying to make up to John and his daughter.

However...

After a slight pause, she looked at Luna, “I heard John and Robyn are living together and Robyn is helping John to take care of his daughter now. Legally speaking, Robyn is John’s sister but she’s not his biological sister...”

While she was talking, she closely observed Luna’s expression.

“As Anne’s best friend, are you sure you are okay with it?”

Honestly speaking, she was not trying to create any trouble intentionally. She was just afraid that all Luna cared about was making up to John and did not consider what could happen when a non-biological brother and sister lived together.

Giving Luna Robyn’s information could actually harm Robyn, instead of helping her. After all, Luna was willing to kill a person for Anne. There was no guarantee at all that Luna could not control her emotions and felt unhappy one day when she realized the relationship between John and Robyn.

Luna did not answer the question immediately. After a moment of silence, she looked at Tara. “I know you mean well asking that. It’s just that...”

She continued talking after smiling bitterly, “I think Robyn is a good person and I think John only treats Robyn as his sister. Even if he has other feelings for her...”

It was followed by another moment of silence.

As she raised her head, she said, “Even if he has other feelings for her, I’m still willing to help Robyn if Robyn treats Sammie well and helps Anne to take care of John and Sammie.”

Because of her selfish actions, Anne lost her life. She could not bear to take away John’s happiness again because of her own feelings. More importantly, she believed that would be what Anne would do too.

If she died without any notice in the future, she hoped Joshua would meet a nice woman to replace her in taking care of her children and Joshua. Thus, she was in no place to criticize the relationship between John and Robyn.

Of course, she would be disappointed if John and Robyn were together because it was only half a year since Anne passed away. Theoretically speaking, she could understand it but as Anne’s friend, she would feel sorry for Anne.

Then again, everything happened because of her, so she had no right to judge or criticize John.

Tara remained silent and thought hard after hearing that. After a while, she exhaled deeply and said, “Alright. I understand it now.”

While they were talking, the elevator reached the top floor of the hospital, the floor where Andy’s ward was.

Since Tara knew where the ward was, she walked in the front and led Luna to the ward.

Meanwhile, Andy was chatting with Gwen and Stefan in his ward.

He held Gwen’s hand and said, “I have no idea you two have been through so much. And I also have no idea...that Luke actually could come back alive after his death.”

As he talked, he looked to the side to glance at Stefan.

“When will your brother wake up? As Gwen’s father, I really want to thank him. Without him, you’ll never be here today. Gwen will continue to live with sorrow and regrets. And I will

He sighed and continued, "Your brother is really our savior. I wish to thank him personally."

Stefan smiled bitterly, "I also wish to do that. But I can never talk to him face to face."

As both of them shared the same body, neither could talk to each other face to face.

When they were in their mother's body, they were the closest brothers. However, they had never met each other after they were delivered. Until the day, Steven was arranged to take over Luke's body.

Never ever again, they would have the chance to meet each other now.

And that was the biggest regret Luke had in his life.
