C14 He Was Right to Come and Beg Him

Hsu Yan was brought into the second bedroom. When she saw more than a dozen people carrying things, she felt dizzy.

They even called her to accompany... She did not know that these people knew that not only did their mistress not sleep with her last night, she was also a driver pretending to be her.

What kind of mood would it be?

Hsu Yan suddenly pointed to the simplest servant, "Everyone, don't be busy for now. I am a little thirsty. Come over and pour me a cup of water."

"What is your name?" When the servant handed the water over, Hsu Yan quickly poured her specially made cosmetic powder inside.

When the cosmetic powder dissolved and emitted a scent, those who did not eat the antidote would unconsciously feel numb when they smelled it and answer whatever they asked.

Although she was a music student, in the few years that she accompanied her mother to fight cancer, she studied thousands of medical books. Coupled with her innate talent and intelligence, she learned how to make various types of cosmetic powder.

That day at the hotel, if Ning Ya had not smeared the medicine on the wine cup and committed a crime of not being able to prepare the antidote in time, she would not have lost her virginity to Zhan Shishen.

"Replying to Madam, my name is Lan! I have been working in the Zhan family since I was young, and it has been more than ten years." Lan said politely.

Hsu Yan pretended to be interested, " Oh, then you should know the history of Zhan family very well. Since I'm new here, tell me about the people in this villa. "

" Yes! Madam, you are really lucky. There are a few women who have married Ninth Master in the past! But you are the only one who survived. Actually, we haven't really met Ninth Master either. He's always alone in the study..."

" There is a driver in the villa called Zhan Shishen. What is his relationship with Ninth Master? " Hsu Yan saw that the effects of the medicine were similar and asked directly.

She suddenly did not know that the people in this villa had long been arranged. Every servant had a unique skill, and Lan did not have any medicine.

When mentioning Zhan Shishen, Lan admired him very much, "You said driver Zhan, he is Ninth Master's savior. Ninth Master had a car accident a few years ago, and that was why his face was ruined. It was all thanks to driver Zhan risking his life to save him. When Ninth Master wasn't around, driver Zhan was the manager of this house."

Hsu Yan's expression was as if she had seen a ghost.

Oh my god, so there was such a story!

The next day, Hsu Yan walked out of the room again. She received a notice from Rui Jin Hospital about her grandmother's illness!

The reason was that no one wanted to renew the fees and request to be transferred to another hospital.

She called Hsu Yunshan. "Dad, Rui Jin is the best tumor hospital in the province. Her grandmother has been there for chemotherapy. I have already married into the Zhan family. Are you going to go back on your word so soon? "

Hsu Yunshan was furious, "Hsu Yan, you still have the face to ask me. Zhan family captured you, Little Mom, and locked you up. She is still carrying your biological brother. Now, the Zhan family has given me two choices. Let go of you, Little Mom, and don't give me the betrothal gift of 100 million. I can only choose one! I want both of them. You have to solve this problem for me right now. "

Father's words pierced through his heart once again.

Hsu Yan was expressionless. "Hehe, the Zhan family won't simply arrest people. Why don't you ask what this good Mo of yours has done?"

On the second day of her wedding, something inauspicious had been sent over! If one were to behave atrociously in the Zhan family, the consequences of not being dismembered by five horses would be light.

"Hsu Yan, I don't care! Since you have the ability to please" Ninth Master, "today you must let Ning Ya bring 100 million home. Otherwise, come to the hospital to collect your grandmother's corpse!"

Hsu Yunshan hung up the phone uncontrollably.

Hsu Yan also tightened her grip on her phone. This father of hers was really heartless!

Since a long time ago, she broke through her father and her best friend stealing Qing and knew that her father was cheating on her.

The reason why she could tolerate it was because of her grandmother who was still fighting against the disease. Now, it seemed like she was going to completely break off this father-daughter relationship.

"Lan, do you know where Driver Zhan is now?"

"That... He and I are old classmates. I asked him to understand Ninth Master's habits and hobbies."

She looked for Lan again and randomly made up a reason.

She was extremely unwilling in her heart, but she still had to sigh with emotion about that cynical man. It turned out that he had predicted that she would go and beg him!
