

My Poor Husband Turns Out To Be Rich

Chapter 15 - It's Better to Work Together than to Tear Each Other apart -

C15 It's Better to Work Together than to Tear Each Other apart

Lan heard that Hsu Yan cared a lot about Ninth Master and told her enthusiastically. Every day at this hour, Zhan Shishen would take care of the car in the garage.

He then said, "Madam, I heard from Special Assistant Qi that Ninth Master is busy with work. In the future, he will let Driver Zhan take care of your daily life! It is great that you are old classmates again."

Hsu Yan almost vomited blood when she heard that. "Cough, cough, that is quite good."

There was a kind of pain that made her personally wear a green hat. It was so green that it made the universe panic!

In the blink of an eye, she walked into the Zhan family's garage. The private villa that originally took up several thousand square meters was already breathtaking.

She saw a luxury car worth tens of millions in front of her, and it was parked in a garage that was as big as a basketball court. What was called inhumane?!

She really married Ninth Master Zhan, who was wealthy enough to rival an entire country. However, this husband whom she had never seen before had let her and the dog house.

When she thought of this, the coldness and conviction in her eyes became countless times firmer.

"Mrs Zhan can't bear the loneliness so soon?"

Suddenly, Hsu Yan was grabbed by a pair of hands. She turned around and was pulled onto a Rolls-Royce.

Zhan Shishen sat in the driver's seat and changed back into a casual shirt. His deep and intoxicating face was looking at her with ridicule. "I thought it would be a little longer, with Mrs Zhan's spicy personality."

He seemed to have expected that at this moment, every sentence would be so ironic and embarrassing.

"Yes! The plan did not change so quickly! You don't know Mr. Zhan, are you still willing to cooperate with me? "

Hsu Yan's beautiful face was burning hot. Facing this man, she instantly became nervous, but she forced herself to say it.

She would rather work with outsiders than submit this time.

"There is a saying that goes 'when the time is right, when the time is right'. Miss Hsu slept with me once. Don't tell me that she feels different from the rest?"

Zhan Shishen let go of the woman, his eyes as deep as the sea revealed a deeper ridicule.

He did not know how much Ninth Master valued this person. That was why he could be so arrogant and frivolous.

Hsu Yan gritted her teeth and said confidently, "I have only heard of it before. It is not too late."

"Mr. Zhan, I know that you have a lot of power in the Zhan family. Now we all know each other's secrets. It's better to work together than to tear each other apart! What I want is for you to help me save a person, my grandmother."

"Oh, you want me to sleep if you help me?"

Zhan Shishen expressed his desire without restraint. His black eyes smiled, reminding the entanglement between the two of them that Hsu Yan was the one who provoked him first.

What a hooligan... Such a handsome face was for nothing.

Hsu Yan's face heated up and she cleverly avoided her gaze, "I will definitely return what I owe you. A gentleman does not force others to do so. If you are unwilling, then forget it!"

She was about to leave after she said that when the man pulled her back, "Mrs Zhan personally sent it over. How could I not be willing?"

Zhan Shishen smiled languidly, a strange light flowing through his eyes.

In the damp basement.

Ning Ya disdainfully knocked over the food sent by the servants and the gravy flowed all over the floor, "Hsu Yan actually let you guys give me this kind of food that dogs don't know how to eat?"

Suddenly, someone opened the door, "Miss Ning, you can go out now."

Ning Ya looked in front of the person who sent the food and spat fiercely, "Mom, why is it you who came?"

Seeing that the person who came was a middle-aged woman who looked almost identical to her, she immediately put on a smile.

This was Liu Yanqiu, her mother. She was also the person who taught Ning Ya step by step to climb onto her good friend's father's bed.

After Ning Ya took over, Liu Yanqiu also became a rich woman who had nothing to do and was able to get on the good side of the rich.

"Ya Ya, you have caused a huge trouble this time!"