

Poor Husband 651

C651 The Dumplings Seemed to be Poisonous

The man's a little gloomy.

The dishes he cooked couldn't even compare to Lu Hee's?

If it was any other man, he would definitely not be able to endure such a scene.

Zhao Tongtong also suddenly said, "Yes, yes. Dumplings are only eaten in many places during the New Year. It means to attract money and treasures. It is a blessing in disguise! Hsu Yan should indeed eat one

C652 Young Master Lu Was Scolded as a Pig

Hsu Yan also touched the corner of her lips, "Bleed?"

There was a red color on her hand.

Only then did she realize that there was a bit of blood in her mouth.

Upon hearing these words, Zhan Shishen, who was sitting on the sofa, was immediately attracted.

Lu Hee swallowed a piece of meat in his mouth and suddenly slapped his thigh. "D * mn, when I was sewing dumplings

C653 Introduce an Old Friend

Something like this happened on the first day he stayed in Sea Moon.

But luckily Hsu Yan was only touched by a needle. Although the dumpling filling was disgusting, it was not harmful.

Zhan Shishen had always understood some medical knowledge and personally sterilized her.

It was very tiring to do intimate actions without talking to each other

C654 Su Wen Treated Her as a Friend

On the first day she moved into the new house, Hsu Yan slept very soundly.

She even had a beautiful dream. In the dream, she had given birth to a pair of children.

The girl was up to her. She had bright eyes and white teeth.

The boy was like Zhan Shishen, with a pair of phoenix eyes that penetrated deep into the hearts of people.

Hsu Yan woke up from the pain. Her stomach was tight

C655 His Stomach Hurt

Su Wen was full of admiration for Hsu Yan. "Don't deny yourself. Director Zhan only married you. Not Miss Bai. This showed that he approved of you. Even Qii Zhan told me privately. You are the brightest sun in Director Zhan's life. Perhaps... Love in a rich family is even more difficult. There are many storms. But it should not be the reason to give up, right? Give the president some time

C656 It Turned out to be Someone from the Shangguan Family

The pain was unbearable. Hsu Yan's phone fell to the ground and accidentally touched a box next to her hand. A soft object rolled out.

This was a gift she took out from the old man's side.

It was very strange. It was actually an embroidery of a newborn's undergarment with a blessing embroidered on it. It was very similar to the craftsmanship of the older generation

C657 Shangguan Pei Had Come to Support Him

Chiang Hong was called out and said respectfully, "Madam, please take a look... I definitely did not mean to neglect this person. There is indeed a person at the last minute. I need to take care of him. Director Zhan had once instructed... I will do as you wish."

Chiang Hong, who was usually full of righteousness, had something flash across her eyes at this moment

C658 The Thing That They Have Been Through the Most Is Their Routine

It's just that, after all, the identity of this old lady Pei is much more noble than that of a simple rich woman. After all, she can't get used to it in a short period of time.

Hsu Yan keenly asked and discovered that Shangguan Pei possessed a certain level of medical skills. That was why under her lack of oxygen, she was able to quickly use some treatment methods to help her relieve it

C659 Confused with the World

The old man sold her so pitifully. If Hsu Yan did not admit it, it would be too much. She held Shangguan Pei's hand back and called out, "Grandma!"

"Sigh!"

Shangguan Pei happily replied and immediately could not close her mouth to laugh.

Taking the opportunity, she put the jade green ring that she did not give away into Hsu Yan's right index finger.

"Good, good, good

C660 He's Got Guts

Zhan Shishen did not care this time and directly touched Hsu Yan's pulse.

Zhan Shishen also knew medicine!

And the way he touched ___'s pulse was clearly also at the level of an expert.

After the two of them reached "Bright Moon Ocean," they revealed their true abilities that had never been revealed in the past.

Hsu Yan immediately adjusted her breathing
