

Chapter 17

Jasmine Pov

I had been in the greenhouse feeling a little afraid of my mate. Who is this person? Do I know the real him?

"I've had similar thoughts," my wolf Lunar said.

"You saw his face too, Lunar. Do we trust him?" I asked her.

"You know our mate is a king. He needed to have a firm hold on his kingdom, plus I talked to the man's wolf who was getting tortured. His wolf says his human was a traitor to the kingdom and was hired to kidnap you," Lunar told me, and my eyes widened.

"Why is he trying to kidnap me?" I asked.

"We are the Luna Dynamis. Many people want us for our powers. I believe it is our ex- mate trying to come for us", Lunar says, and I growl at the mention of Oliver. My hate for him holds no bounds.

"He just doesn't know when to fucking give up." I seethe.

"I have been speaking with Xavier's wolf and I told him I would keep you in the dark to protect you, but our mate is under stress, and you need to know. Someone has been kidnapping wolves to try to break in here to come for you." She tells me and my heart drops. More people get hurt because of me.

"Jasmine, I am not even gonna go there with you on that, but as far as the kidnappings go, they were taking wolves who used to work here at the palace. I am also told this mysterious stranger who calls himself "Nyx" is saving them somehow, she told me.

"Nyx? Is this Nyx person a friend or for?" I asked her?

"I believe they are a friend to our reign, but something tells me you and this Nyx person may potentially be connected. Be patient, things will play out the way they were meant to. Our mate is under so much stress, and he is not himself. This could also be because you both have not marked and mated each other. What is taking you so long?" She asks me and I mentally shrug.

"I don't know. I'm just not ready." I told her, and I saw her rolling her eyes at me.

"That's bullshit and you know it. You forget I am you. I know everything you think and feel. You need to admit to yourself why not." She growls and I sigh.

"I guess... it's just that I am afraid. Don't get me wrong, I love that we are mates. I think I may even love him too, but anyone who gets too close to me ends up dying, and I don't think my heart could take it if Xavier died too. I am so scared, but at the same time, I want him constantly and I can't help it," I told her.

"Jasmine, it is okay to be afraid, but you need to push that fear aside. People die every day and at the end of the day, you can prevent it, but it will eventually happen. All you can do is live your life to the fullest and spend each day making him know how special he is just as he does for you. It's time to accept him, Jasmine. Now" she says. Lunar can be a strict bitch sometimes, but I know she is right. I need to push my fear aside and accept him. I need him, and because of what he has been going through the last few weeks, he needs me too. I can hear people calling out for me and I feel him reaching out to me in my head.

"I'm in the greenhouse." I linked him and I waited for him to arrive.

"Lunar, what if I have waited too long, and he doesn't want me anymore," I asked her, and she growled in annoyance.

"Read his mind," she tells me.

"What, I don't know how to do that," I told her.

"Concentrate on his mind when he comes in. Look through his eyes and they will open up his thoughts to you", she says. Xavier comes rushing into the greenhouse panting a little and I can tell he must have been running. I look into his eyes and into his mind and I feel a barrier, like he is blocking his thoughts from me, but then his thoughts come into my head as clear as day.

"How could someone this beautiful be created? Fuck, she looks so good right now" I hear his thoughts and giggle inwardly. Lunar is screaming "MARK MATE NOW," she says, and I don't hesitate to use my speed and push him against the wall, taking his soft lips into my mouth. He lets me in and soon our tongues are battling for dominance, and he wins. I picture us being in our room since there isn't much space here in the greenhouse, and suddenly that's where we are.

Xavier stumbles back shocked.

"Lunar, what was that?" I asked her.

"Our powers are coming into place since you have started the first step into the mating process. We won't get them all right now, but we will develop them as the weeks go by, but enough of that. I want my mate and he wants us, so go to him", she demands. I look at the bed, then to Xavier and he smirks and uses his speed to get me on the bed, with me underneath him. I felt his hardness pressing against my stomach and my head was gone after it.

Xavier Pov

I went into the greenhouse to make sure she was safe and let her know not to be afraid of me. I felt her trying to probe my mind, so I changed my thoughts. I can't have her seeing more of what I had to do in the dungeons. Instead, I focused only on her.

I was shocked as shit when we somehow ended up in our bedroom.

"Don't be afraid mate, she is coming into her powers. As you both complete the mating process, you will see several, and in the following weeks, she will develop them" I hear her wolf Lunar say. I only knew it was Lunar due to speaking to her while Jasmine was asleep one night. I saw Jasmine looking at the bed, then back to me and I got the hint. I use my wolf speed and put her on the bed while I hover above her. I stare at her. She is so beautiful. I can see her face go to a confused one.

"I'm just admiring your beauty," I told her, and she giggled, drawing my attention to her plump lips. I somehow have an urge to nip on them, so I lean down and do just that. She lets out a little moan which makes my already stiff member twitch in response. I kissed all over her, taking off her clothes until she was nude all over. The smell of her arousal was so thick that it filled the room, and I was lost in it. I stood up and started to take my clothes off but somehow my shirt was smoking, and all my clothes burned right off of me, turning into nothing but Ash. I didn't feel any pain though. I looked at Jasmine, who was just smiling. Her eyes are shifting between hazel and purple. This must be another power.

My eyes trail her beautiful naked body, and she shyly covers herself up. I got back on the bed on top of her and pushed her hands above her head.

"Baby, don't you ever hide this beautiful body from me, do you understand?" I tell her and she nods and smiles. She must like her new nickname.

"Xavier, you're staring," she says, blushing a little.

"You're just so beautiful baby, it's kind of hard not to," I tell her, and she blushes a deeper red. I kiss her lips and I nip at her bottom lip, which makes her moan softly. I kiss all over her neckline, running my tongue over where my mark is going to go, and she shudders.

"Ah, oh fuck" She moans, causing my member to tighten up more. I feel her body tense up as I run my fingers along the side of her stomach lightly.

"Relax baby. I'm going to make your first time extremely pleasurable. She relaxes instantly under me, trusting me with her and I love her even more for it.

I kissed her chest, trailing my tongue around each of her perky pink nipples. Her breathing is picking up.

"Feels.... so.... good" She moans as I fondle her chest with one of her nipples in my mouth.

I work my way down her stomach until I reach her already wet core. Positioning myself between her legs, I start to kiss her inner thighs, teasing her as I lick the nipples on them. The smell of her arousal was hitting me so hard and watching her core glisten with her juices wasn't helping me as I was trying to control Torak, who was trying to force his way out of me.

"This is her first time. Calm down", I told him. I could see him rolling his eyes. "Fine, I'll stop, but don't think I won't be coming out in the future. She is my mate too." he huffs.

"Oh, my goddess baby you smell so fucking good," I told her and before she could reply I shoved my tongue into her wet core, and she cried out "XAVIER" as I did. Hearing her beautiful cry of my name is what made me continue the sweet torture of my tongue as I plunged it in and out of her. She was a squirmy mess as I licked and sucked all the parts of her juicy core, and I loved every bit of it.

Torak purred in satisfaction with her taste. I teased her clit as I started tonguing her sweet pussy and I could tell her was building her first orgasm. I swear, I could get used to tasting her like this every morning and I would be completely content. She tasted like sweet honey, and I was addicted. Her body started to convulse, and she was breathing heavily.

"Xavier something's...." she panted.

"I know baby, just let go. let go," I told her and pinched her clit between my thumb and index causing her to cum and boy did she let go.

"OH FUCKKKKKK" She yelled as she let go and she ended up squirting all over my face.

I was surprised she did it, but it turned me on even more than I would have imagined. I felt a feeling course through me, and I didn't know what it was, but it felt as if I was coming myself.

"She has the power of projection. She sent the same thing she was feeling to you, and you felt the pleasure from it, just not as much as she did." Lunar linked to me. Man, I love those fucking powers of hers.

Jasmine was breathing heavily, coming down from her high and twitching as I made sure to suck up all her juices.

"Motherfucker!" she finally said as she weaned off her high and I wanted to finish licking her clean.

"Don't pass out on me baby. We are just getting started. I tell her and I kiss her stomach playfully, working my way to her sweet lips, causing her to giggle. I positioned my member between her core's lips, getting it wet, causing her to moan from the rubbing I was doing. The contact was amazing.

"Xavier," she said, looking at me, and I felt fear. It confused me until I looked into her eyes and realized it was "her" fear that I was feeling. I kiss her deeply. "Jasmine my baby, calm down. It will hurt a lot at first, but I will not move until you adjust to my size and tell me to move." I told her, and she looked at me with wide eyes.

"Okay," she whispers.

"Ready," I ask her, and she nods. In one swift thrust, I plunged into her, breaking her hymen. She screamed clearly from the pain. As I promised, I didn't move until she told me to.

"It hurts," she said through tears. I kissed each tear that fell.

"I know baby, I know, but soon you will adjust, and the pain will go down. It will be nothing but pleasure after", I told her. After a few minutes, I can feel her body start to relax and she nods to me, letting me know to move. I moved slowly and she gripped my dick with her core muscles, causing me to let out a groan.

"Fuck you're so tight babe," I tell her, and she grips my sides trying to move me a little faster. This lets me know that she is no longer in pain, and I can finally give her the pleasure I've been wanting too for so long. I picked up the pace and she was moaning louder and louder with each thrust. I didn't mind it. Our room was soundproof anyway. She tried to cover her mouth, but I pinned her hands above her,

"Don't cover your mouth baby. I want to hear it when you moan my fucking name". I command her, causing her to moan " Oh Fuck" in return. We had picked up the pace now and I knew we were both close.

"Ah, my god, I'm gonna gonna.... I'M GONNA!...." she pants

"Cum for me baby. Cum all over my dick" I commanded.

"Oh! My! GOD!" She screamed as she crashed through her orgasm and, because of her power, I felt the intensity of hers, causing me to release in turn.

"Fuck Baby!" I groaned as I pushed deep, coating her insides with my seed. Watching her breathe through her orgasm, I couldn't help myself. I was erect all over again. I slid out of her and picked her up off the bed a pushed her against the wall, plunging my dick right back into her and fucking her senseless. Her eyes started rolling to the back of her head as she felt my length. She put both arms around my neck and started bouncing with me and the whole room was killed with her screams of pleasure as we picked up the pace.

"Yes! Yes! Fuck! Yes!"

As I expected, she was coming in a matter of minutes, digging her fingernails into the back of my neck. I felt an open wound from it, but I paid it no mind as I knew I would heal instantly. I knew I was close.

"Shit!" I groaned, creaming her insides. It felt so incredible to finally be inside of her and I kissed her deeply as I coated her. She pulled out from the kiss, and I saw her canines. Before I could react, she gripped my neck hard and pierced my skin on my marking spot. It happened so fast, and I had not expected it, so when she did it right after I creamed her, the pleasure/pain that I felt drew me to complete new heights and I pushed her roughly against the wall while still inside her as she bit deeper, securing her bite.

"Son of A Bitch!" I growled, causing her to shudder in pleasure.

The pleasure that erupted through my body was unlike anything I had ever felt before.

It caused me to spring right back hard again and with me still inside of her, I moved her from the wall back to the bed at the edge and fucked her senseless until she was climaxing all over my dick, at which time I extended my canines and marked her back, causing another huge orgasm to gush out of her right after. She went limp and I could tell she needed to sleep, so I pulled from her, and laid her fully on the bed. After cleaning both her and I up, I climbed into bed with her wrapping my arms around her waist. She turned towards me and snuggled into my chest.

"I love you" I whispered as I kissed her head. We had just mated but I was feeling a slight hesitation about her wolf.

"I love you too," I thought I heard her whisper back, but I wasn't sure because the sleepy darkness had already taken over me.
