Novel Chapter 381

381 Chapter 381: The Drew Family's Coffee Gathering

Even though Sean Price had experienced many ups and downs, he couldn't help but be shocked at this moment: "But..."

Caleb Mamet tapped his finger on the document's page and said meaningfully, "The plan I've set is almost completed, and this is probably the last time I will raise the price"

The Mamet Old Mansion.

Sir Drew and Will Mamet were sitting together, having coffee, with Vivian Drew sitting beside them as well.

Sir Drew's face darkened: "I heard that Caleb raised the price directly to 15 billion dollars today? For Boyd Drew to win..."

Bang!

Will Mamet slammed down his coffee cup, roaring, "I've told him to give up long ago. How dare he disobey me?"

Vivian Drew spoke softly, "Brother-in-law, Caleb is young, and he's stubborn. You shouldn't always scold him. You should persuade him kindly. For Boyd to return to the Mamet family rightfully, he must win this land. Can't you bear to see your own child wandering outside?"

Sir Drew's face darkened: "Exactly! Boyd is the Mamet family's child, and Winni's son. His inheritance of the Mamet family's fortune is justified. Caleb is just an illegitimate son. What right does he have to occupy the position of the head of the Mamet family? Now he dares to make things difficult for Boyd by investing 15 billion dollars. What about in the future? If Boyd returns to the Mamet family, will he have good days ahead?"

Everyone knew what he meant, and Will Mamet acted like a righteous gentleman: "I owe it to Winni; of course, the Mamet family will be handed over to Boyd to manage."

Vivian Drew sighed: "But the Drew family's company's performance is not good at present, and 15 billion dollars is too much for us. I'm afraid this piece of land..."

Hill Forrest, who was standing nearby, looked down silently, not speaking.

If Boyd were indeed Miss Winni's biological son, then Will Mamet would at least have a conscience, remembering his late original wife. However, those veterans knew the true identities of Boyd and Caleb.

But it wouldn't be easy for Caleb to reveal this secret

However, Caleb had made his intentions clear this piece of land must be given to Boyd, no matter how it was done. In the end, the land had to belong to Boyd!

Although he didn't understand Mr. Caleb Mamet's intentions, since he had spoken, he had to act according to the plan. So, Hill Forrest stepped forward and said, "Mr. Chairman, Sir Drew, I have some ideas."

www

381 Chapter 381 The Drow Family's Callon Enrong

Will Mamet had always trusted Hill Forrest. After all, he was a company veteran, and he didn't hesitate to say, "Let's hear it."

Hill Forrest cleared his throat: "Before this, we had professionals evaluate that piece of land for its beautiful scenery and natural hot springs. Even if we buy it at a price of 15 billion dollars, it is still a profitable deal. More importantly..."

"Soon, Mr. Chairman will officially announce that My Boyd Drew is your biological son, allowing Mr Drew to rightfully return to the Mamet family and inherit it. If he doesn't have any achievements, it won't be persuasive enough"

"Nowadays, the entire company is under Caleb's control. If Mr. Boyd Drew has no achievements, how can those people willingly follow him? At that time, might cause a sensation within the company?"

“If Mr. Boyd Drew can win this piece of land and jointly develop it into a tourist resort with the Drew and Mamet families, then by the time he returns to the Mamet family, he will have competitive capital.”

Will Mamet thoughtfully nodded: “Lill is right. For Bilyd, this piece of land is not only a huge profit but also a ticket to return to the Mamet family. So, no matter how much money it takes, we must win it! Jenny and I still have three billion dollars. After all we are Boyd’s... Anyway, we won’t let Boyd lose to Caleb!”

Sir Drew nodded with satisfaction: “Will, I’ve always had high expectations of you. I just didn’t expect that when I married Winni to you, you would be somewhat unhappy. I don’t like that daughter either, but what’s past is past. The most important thing now is to let Boyd return to the Mamet family. As for... Caleb has nothing to do with our Drew family.”

Will Mamet nodded: “Yes, father-in-law.”

Sir Drew had made his position clear. His meaning was that the Drew family didn’t recognize Caleb as part of their family. Winni’s biological son could only be Boyd; there would be no one else.

And as for Caleb, he would always be an illegitimate son!

382 Chapter 382: It’s Time for Sister Evans to Perform!

“Mr. Chairman! Mr. Chairman!” At this point, someone rushed in.

“It’s a disaster, all over the internet there are...rumors! They’ve been speculating...saying you’ve been pressuring your own son, that you’ve even... assaulted your son for an outsider...you’ve caused severe injuries to Mr. Caleb Mamet, they’re all accusing you of not distinguishing between kin and foe, and favoring outsiders.”

Will Mamet slammed the desk and got up abruptly, “Nonsense! This damned scoundrel! He must have been behind these! I’m going to settle the score with him right now!”

By evening, Madam Mamet came around, and Xaviera Evans came to visit.

She had just sat down when her phone rang, Sean Price anxiously said, “Madam! Come quickly! The Chairman is infuriated and has gone to the president’s room with the family law in hand!”

Xaviera trembled in her heart, her face still calm, she got up and left Madam’s courtyard, circled the living room, shed a few tears, and then ran away crying.

She hadn’t reached the door yet when she heard the roar of the Chairman inside.

“These rumors were spread by you, weren’t they? Have you seen how those people on the internet are slandering me and Boyd Drew? You’ve really grown powerful! Resorting to such despicable tricks”

With an indifferent expression, Caleb responded, “Not me.”

The ones spreading the rumors were Steve Price and Sean Price, it certainly wasn’t him.

Will Mamet’s face turned red with anger, he had received several calls just now, all from business partners, urging him not to be foolish.

The Mamet family could not afford to be jeopardized for the sake of an illegitimate son.

Regardless of who is the son of Boyd Drew, his abilities are far from being close to those of Caleb, why should they offend The God of Wealth, Caleb Mamet, for Drew?

Some people even directly threatened Will Mamet, that if the Mamet family supports Drew, they will break off relations with the Mamets from today onwards, because the wealth and glory of the Mamet family today is all credited to Caleb.

Will Mamet was furious, these were absolutely absurd!

Xaviera was standing outside the door, contemplating her emotions, when it was her time to step in. She would have to make it a big drama, hopefully making the situation even worse.

From inside came a clamor, then Will Mamet roared, "You jinx!"

Xaviera trembled inside.

In the past in the Evans home, the Evans family would also curse her for being a jinx.

Caleb is a jinx? How ridiculous! Without Caleb, could the Mamet family live such an easy life? Everything they had was earned by Caleb, and they now dare to call Caleb a jinx?

382 Chantar 382 % Tane for Sister Evans to Flame

Xaviera heard footsteps in the distance, took a deep breath, dashed in, letting out a piercing shriek, Ah! Chairman! Stop!

The shriek resounded throughout the backyard, everyone could hear it loud and clear.

Xaviera rushed to Caleb's side, blocking the family law that was about to fall on him, "Chairman! Stop beating! Caleb is injured, if you are really angry, take it out on me?"

Will Mamet was taken aback by Xaviera's scream, he paused for a few seconds, then Xaviera rushed to Caleb's side, grasping the family law firmly and screamed

"Chairman! You've already beaten Caleb today, his back is bleeding, if you beat him again, he might die! Whimper... I know you don't like Caleb, but he is still your son. He is the head of the Mamet family. If he dies, what will become of the Mamers?"

Caleb was in time to cooperate, "Cough, cough...."

Xaviera feigned anxiety, "Dear! What's wrong? Hang in there!"

"Mr. Chairman! I know you want Caleb to give that piece of land to Drew. We'll give it to him, okay? Caleb, agree right away!"

Caleb's face turned pale.

It just happened that the Mamet family had a small party today, the guests were the Mamets' associates, some aristocratic families who had dealings with the Mamets, and some collateral relatives.

Hill Forrest led the guests into the inner courtyard, list in time to reach the backyard, exactly when he heard Xaviera's words.

Although it was already rumored that Drew was the child of the Mamets, who would have thought that for Drew's sake, Will Mamet was actually going to be at Caleb to death?

Xaviera cried out without any reservations: "Catch, if you're killed! I'll go with you!"

The people around were shocked, whispering "Mayb Mr. Mamet really would"

"Isn't everything the Mamet family has achieved thanks to Mr. Caleb Mamet? What right does the Mamet family have? Are they qualified?"

"A father wants to kill his own son for the sake of an utsider? That's unheard of!"

Will Mamet didn't notice the people outside. Annoye by Xaviera's crying, he blurted out: "Caleb is my son, and since I gave him life, I have the right to take it back!"

Xaviera cried with grief: "Mr. Mamet! For the sake of aleb's contribution in creating so much wealth for the Mamet family, please spare him! I know you don't like him because he's too capable, even overshadowing you, and making Boyd Drew look useless, but..."

Sean Price's mouth twitched, thinking "Madam, It's pity you're not an actress"

But Madam was right, Will Mamet did feel that Mr. Cleb Mamet was too outstanding, making the Mamet family and Boyd Drew look like trash.

At this moment, Hill Forrest stepped forward: "Madan, you've misunderstood Mr. Mamet. He's just speaking out of anger. After all, Mr. Drew's capabilities are lacking, and he will need Mr. Caleb Mamet's support in the future. How could Mr. Mame kill Mt. Caleb Mamet?"

Looking at Caleb's nonchalant demeanor, Will Mame was burning with anger: "Caleb, I'm your father. When I was a successful businessman, you couldn't even walk. I'm sure you can't compete with Boyd Drew!"

Caleb sneered: "Father?"

Will Mamet thought Caleb had softened, but he didn't expect him to say slowly: "Although I was young at the time, I never heard about your success in the business world. Is your memory failing you because of your age, Father? You'd better get yourself checked at the hospital. If you die, who will Boyd Drew complain to?"

Xaviera Evans: "... Wow! Our Caleb has gone savage!

Will Mamet gritted his teeth: “You! Very well! We’ll see!”

With that, he left angrily, Xaviera disdained and closed the door heavily.

Caleb’s expression was calm, and Xaviera couldn’t help but ask: “Caleb... The chairman called you back this time, it shouldn’t be just for that piece of land, right? Is there something else?”

Caleb smiled and rubbed her head: “Smart.”

“Even if he wants that land, he could go to your company or financially support Boyd Drew! Calling you back on this day, there must be something more important –

Xaviera paused for a moment, and continued: “Mr. Mamet wants to officially announce Boyd Drew’s return to the Mamet family.”

Caleb nodded without changing his expression.

Xaviera thought for a moment: “Jenny Green wants to take this opportunity to push all the blame on you. After all, she, as a mistress, took over while Miss Drew was still alive, so she has always been laughed at and had no way to defend herself.”

“If Boyd Drew returns to the Mamet family as Miss Drew’s biological son, Jenny Green will come

984 Chapter 384: Conspiracy

forward to admit Boyd Drew’s identity, announce that he is the heir to the Mamet family, and weep in public. She will take this opportunity to pin the blame for Miss Drew’s death on you.”

There was silence in the room.

“Huh. Caleb’s slender fingers tapped, and he said casually: “That’s what it is.”

“What else would my father be inviting so many people for?”

Xaviera’s heart ached: “What should we do? Can we prove your Identity?”

If both the Drew and Mamet families came forward to testify against Caleb and with him being an illegitimate child, it could indeed be difficult to refute.

Moreover, everyone knew that Jenny Green only got a chance to enter the Mamet family by bringing Caleb, the 'illegitimate child, and then Miss Drew dies. It was very likely that something said or done by the illegitimate child caused Miss Drew's death.

Later, the Drew family would also come forward to slander Caleb, burying the true cause of Miss Drew's death forever.

Xaviera gasped: "Miss Drew has been dead for so many years, and the Drew family still wants to exploit her?"

Caleb's eyes were deep: "When she was alive, she was married into the Mamet family as a pawn. She has been dead for more than twenty years, yet they still won't let her go."

The man's eyes narrowed, "Jenny Green has always had good relationships in the upper class, and is known for her kindness and gentleness. So many people have even forgotten that she became successful as a mistress."

Well, her gentleness is just a disguise, and now it's time for her true colors to show.

As for their feuds, they would slowly be settled one by one.

385 Chapter 385: The Mamet Family's Birthday Banquet

At the same time, Will Mamet stormed back to his room in anger. Jenny Green quickly went to him: "Will, what should we do! So many people are saying that Boyd's abilities are not as good as Caleb's..." "What's there to talk about! As long as Boyd wins, nothing else matters!"

Will Mamet's gaze softened: "Jenny, I'm sorry that you've been mistreated. Don't worry, I will soon officially announce Boyd's Identity, and then you won't have to bear that bad reputation anymore." Jenny Green nodded excitedly: "Will, I don't feel wronged. As long as I can be with you, I'm willing to pay any price. Besides, it's totally understandable that you don't like Winni Drew since she's so boring. It's only natural for us to be together!"

"Because of the Drew family, you didn't drive her out of the house, and instead bore the name of scum man. But when Boyd comes back, nobody will scold you anymore, it's just..."

Jenny Green's face darkened: "It's just that Caleb is so confident. Does he have any evidence in his hand? If he can prove that he is Winni Drew's..."

Will Mamet's eyebrows furrowed, and his heart couldn't help but shudder, but soon this uneasiness dissipated.

"Even if he has evidence, what can he do? Can he alone win against the two families?"

"Moreover, the 'evidence' he finds might be all fabricated, and even if he comes up with it, there's no credibility to it. He's powerful and has connections that can easily allow him to forge evidence. Who would believe him?"

Will Mamet looked triumphant: "The Drew family will come forward to testify that Boyd is Winni Drew's son, and they won't even acknowledge Caleb's identity. What can he do with his evidence?"

Jenny Green put on a sad expression: "Actually, I don't want to treat Caleb this way either, after all, I'm his nominal mother. But it's the Drew family who refuses to recognize his identity, and it's not my fault."

“Don’t think too much about it. Caleb is just a madman! Just like his insane dead mother. Anyway, we have Boyd and Yigol. Once we get the family property back, we will drive Caleb out of the house!”

Jenny Green nodded and revealed a sinister smile.

Why did the Drew family hate Winni so much? Because she was crazy, both insane and blind!

How could an aristocratic family tolerate such a lunatic in their family? If this matter gets out, outsiders would think the whole family carries this gene, ruining the family’s reputation.

Actually, Will Mamet used to like Caleb very much, after all, he was his eldest son, but later on, he gradually discovered that Caleb had the same strange disease as Winni Drew, so he began to loathe the child.

So both the Drew family and the Mamet family were unwilling to expose this secret in order to avoid affecting their own families’ reputations, and as for the cause of Winni Drew’s death, no one cared.

Chapter 395; The Mamet Family’s Birthday Banquet

Two days later,

Mr. Mamet’s 55th birthday, many magnates and aristocrats from the business world came to congratulate him.

As evening came, all the guests had arrived.

The Mamet Old Manston was very spacious, and many servants were hired, with one at every table, and others guiding the guests, making the whole yard very lively.

Many people still didn’t know about the recent turmoil and the close relationship between the Drew and Mamet families,

So when they saw the Drew family members at the Mamet’s event, they were all stunned.

“Am I seeing things? I just saw Vivian Drew!”

“Sir Drew came too? What’s going on between the Drew family and the Mamet family?”

“No way! Miss Drew died inexplicably in the Mamet family back then, didn’t the Drew family say they would never have any contact with the Mamet family? Besides, Vivian even said that Miss Drew committed suicide because Mrs. Mamet, the mistress, was with Mr. Mamet every day, leading to her suicide.

Someone reminded: “Hush! Don’t talk nonsense, be careful not to be heard by Mr. Mamet.”

The

person retorted: “Did I say anything wrong?”

Miss Drew was weak physically, and Mrs. Mamet moved into the Mamet Mansion openly, causing Miss Drew to suffer from depression and commit suicide not long after.”

“Because of this, the Drew family and the Mamet family severed ties, and Sir Drew didn’t allow Mr. Mamet to visit the Drew family, nor did he allow Will Mamet to pay respect to Miss Drew.”

“Sir Drew would rather not do business with the Mamet family than agree to let Mr. Mamet pay tribute to her. The Drew family is really loyal.”

386 Chapter 386: The True Cause of Miss Drew's Death

At this moment, everyone couldn't help but wonder, "Why would the Drew family come this time?"

Xaviera Evans could hardly hold back her laughter.

Sean Price timely explained, "Since the Drew and Manet families severed their relationship, people in the upper class say the Drew family is principled and righteous,"

"They say that Sir Drew regretted marrying his daughter to Mr. Mamet, and that the Drew family became enemies with the Mamet family to avenge Miss Drew's death."

"So, in fact, the Drew family did this to cover up the real cause of Miss Drew's death and to protect the reputations of Will Mamet and Jenny Green?"

Xaviera was stunned, "You mean to say that Miss Drew didn't commit suicide, but was murdered?"

"Mr. Caleb Mamet couldn't find any leads either."

Xaviera suddenly remembered something her grandfather was acquainted with Miss Drew and had written many notes about treating her.

If they could find her grandfather, would they be able to uncover the real cause of Miss Drew's death and gather some clues, proving who killed her?

Xaviera was furious, "What the hell is Sir Drew and Will Mamet, along with Jenny Green, conspiring to kill their own daughter for? Could it be that Miss Drew is not his biological daughter?"

Furthermore, after Miss Drew's death, the Drew family pretended to care a great deal about her while using her death to bolster their good reputation.

At seven o'clock in the evening, the banquet officially began.

The appearance of the Drew family surprised everyone.

Sir Drew also brought a young man, who was chatting and laughing with the Mamet family members. They looked intimate."

Xaviera raised her eyes and glanced at Boyd Drew, her eyes slightly narrowed.

Boyd also noticed her gaze and smiled from a distance. He picked up his wine glass to toast her, appearing as though he and Xaviera were quite familiar.

In the past, the Drew and Mamet families were well-matched in power, but now the Drew family is far from the Mamet family's level. However, there is still a special connection between the two families."

If it hadn't been for that incident, the Mamet and Drew families would have had a close relationship. Has Sir Drew let go of past grievances after twenty years?

If the Drew family cooperated with the Mamet family and combined Mr. Caleb Mamet's strong tactics, which aristocratic family in Libanon could compete with them?

Someone couldn't help but ask out of curiosity, "Sir Drew, who is this..."

Sir Drew candidly replied, "My grandson, Boyd Drew

Canon Why would he share the Drew family name as well?

Si Prew led only two daughters, and the elder one, Winn Drew, died twenty years ago. How could the younger daughter, Vivian Drew, have such an old one?

At this time, someone called out, "Ms. Caleb Mamet is here!"

Everyone looked towards the sound.

The crowd that had surrounded this Drew family hurried forward to approach Caleb Mamet. Sverywhere Caleb went, he was lavishly praised and the center of attention.

Many people were invited to attend the birthday banquet, seeing Caleb as a way to benefit their companies' future development.

Vivian Drew's face darkened, "What's so great about bastard child! They're really ignorant! In the future, the entire Mamet family will be Boyd's!"

Sir Drew scoffed, "Isn't it because of his status as the firstborn son of the Mamet family? Today, Will Mamet will announce Boyd's identity, When these people find out, they will know who to flatter. One child is legitimate, and the other is illegitimate. The weight of each should still be distinguishable!"

Vivian bit her lip.

She was still reluctant to admit defeat in her heart. Why did one need to be the biological son of that bitch to inherit the Mamet family's property? What was she? Wasn't she just occupying the position of Mrs. Mamet?

However, if Winni Drew knew that her biological son had been treated as an illegitimate child, despised and hidden away all his life, she would be in great pain!

www

At this moment, Will Mamet, thinking about announcing Boyd's identity today, was beaming with joy,

"Caleb."

Caleb Mamet's eyes lowered, ignoring him.

Seeing his expression, Will Mamet flew into a rage, "Who the hell are you giving that stinky face to? Fuck your father! Is this how you treat me? Do you have any manners?"

"Mr. Mamet, Caleb hasn't done anything wrong. If anything, you're being too harsh on him," said Xaviera nonchalantly. "For Mr. Drew's sake, you nearly beat Caleb to death. Should he be grateful and thankful for your beating?"

387 Chapter 387: Time to Close the Net

387 Chapter 387: Time to Close the Net

Will Mamet glared at her fiercely, then roared, “Caleb Don’t think you’re the only son in the Mamet family! There was once Yigol Mamet, and now there’s Boyd Drew, and he’s the rightful heir to the Mamet family

Caleb Mamet raised his eyes lightly and sneered, “Well, as you wish.”

He glanced at the time and whispered to himself, “It’s time.”

Eight o’clock in the evening.

The Drew family and the Mamet family were having a lively conversation, which shocked everyone. The scene seemed to go back to the time when the two families first got married more than 20 years ago.

The guests whispered, “Have you seen the young man next to Sir Drew? The Mamet family seems to be very enthusiastic about him!”

“The Mamet family looks very familiar with him, but Mr. Caleb Mamet seems to be neglected.”

“What’s going on?”

Although Mr. Caleb Mamet and Mr. Mamet don’t get along well, Mr. Caleb Mamet is still the head of the Mamet family, yet Mr. Mamet is getting so close to another young man, which is really strange.”

Everyone sensed something was amiss.

Someone lowered their voice, “Have you heard? The land in the northern suburbs that Mr. Caleb Mamet... he didn’t get it!”

“That’s impossible! Who else is qualified to get that piece of land except Mr. Caleb Mamet? Who dares to compete with Mr. Caleb Mamet? Even if the two are competing, that person’s financial strength cannot be a match for Mr. Caleb Mamet’s.”

“Far away in the sky yet close in front of our eyes, it’s Boyd Drew...”

People were dumbfounded.

What kind of background does Boyd Drew have that he can snatch that land from Mr. Caleb Mamet's hands?

Moreover, both the Mamet family and the Drew family seem to attach great importance to this young man. It seems a change is coming.....

At this moment, Will Mamet was flushed with alcohol, his face full of smiles. He staggered onto the stage, held up the microphone, and announced loudly. "Thank you all for coming to my birthday party! I invited you all today because I have an important announcement to make. I'm sure you're all very curious why Sir Drew and Miss Wendy Drew are here."

Everyone looked up, expecting his explanation.

The whole room was silent.

Will Mamet cleared his throat and officially began, "Before announcing this, I want to thank my father-in-law Bit Drew and Miss Wendy Drew for...

Halfway through, he choked up for a moment and continued, "Thank you for helping me raise the child of mine and Wind"

"Hoyd, come to daddy"

Boun

The air was certly quiet.

People exchanged glances, unable to believe what they had Just heard.

Will Mamet said that the Drew family raised his and Winni's child?

Boyd Drew is the child of Will Manet and Winni, a legitimate son of the Mamet family!

In addition to their shock, people couldn't help but look at Caleb Mamet. Now that the rightful heir had returned, where would Caleb, who had been holding the power of the Mamet family as an legitimate son', go

As businessmen are always profit-oriented, whether born in wedlock or not, only those capable are qualified to be heirs. Now that Boyd Drew has acquired the land and Caleb has been defeated, it means Boyd, the legitimate son, is not inferior to Caleb.

In the midst of the sighs of the crowd, Caleb Mamet remained calm and snapped his fingers towards the shadows.

The fish is on the hook, time to reel it in.

Boyd Drew went on stage and stood next to Will Mamet. Their faces were very alike, and the people below the stage stared for a moment before someone started applauding.

Soon a group of people started clapping and congratulating. It was a good thing for the legitimate son. of the Mamet family to recognize ancestry and come back to the family, but it was a troublesome thing for Caleb alone.

Will Mamet nodded in satisfaction, his eyes full of pride.

"While everyone is here, I announce that from today, the shares and assets of the Mamet Corporation. will be handed over to my son Boyd Drew, who will be the only heir to the Mamet family!"

As the voice came through the microphone all over the hall, the crowd couldn't help but tremble and then look at Caleb Mamet.

A businessman who has cooperated with the Mamet family for many years said with some difficulty, "Mr. Mamet, it's indeed a good thing to find your legitimate son, but the matter of the heir must not be rushed."

"Now that Mr. Caleb Mamet is the heir to the Mamet family, and without him, the Mamet Corporation would not have grown rapidly in just a few years. If we change the heir now, wouldn't it be..."

Others also advised, "That's right, Mr. Mamet, let's discuss this matter further."

"Without Mr. Caleb Mamet, the consequences for the Mamet family would be very serious. Why not find another position for Boyd Drew first, he's still young after all..."

388 Chapter 388: Double Happiness Comes Knocking

Countless opposing voices emerged, and everyone didn't care about who was in charge of the Mamet family. They only wanted to ensure their interests were not harmed. Although Boyd Drew had a legitimate claim, only Caleb Mamet could make everyone earn money.

Will Mamet's

face remained unchanged, and he calmly said, "What you all are saying makes sense, Caleb is indeed very capable but, he has suffered serious injuries, and doesn't have the manage the company, nor the ability to be the heir of the Mamet family."

energy to

He sighed, frowned, "Regarding the land in the northern suburbs, Caleb abandoned the bidding when it reached 15 billion dollars. As the head of the Mamet family, he made such a serious mistake, he should reflect on it properly"

Boom—

Everyone widened their eyes, Mr. Caleb Mamet voluntarily gave up that piece of land?

Everyone in Libanan knew that the land was a big piece of fat meat, whoever could get it would benefit endlessly. It was almost in hand, but Mr. Caleb Mamet suddenly gave it up?

Will Mamet pretended to be serious, "Caleb made such a serious mistake, causing some loss to the Mamet Corporation. So it's still debatable whether he's qualified to be the heir."

Caleb Mamet was sitting quietly in the chair, lounging leisurely.

Sean Price reminded, "President,"

Steve Price scoffed, "Don't worry, Brother! The Mamet family achieved its current wealth and status because of the President. Without him, the whole thing could collapse in an instant and be gone with the wind!"

Caleb Mamet hooked his lips.

Even though Steve Price was usually confused, he was quite clear-headed when it came to big issues.

Will Mamet laughed triumphantly, "The land in the northern suburbs is a project that the Mamet and Drew families will develop together in the next five years. Boyd Drew bought it for 15 billion dollars, proving his ability. Moreover, he is even more qualified than Caleb to be the heir, and I believe he will lead every one to a better future."

Sir Drew also stood up, "Boyd is my daughter Winni's child, my daughter has had extraordinary business talent since she was a child, Boyd is very much like Winni when she was young. I believe he will definitely be able to make it big in the future."

When it came to Winni Drew, everyone looked up to her.

Miss Drew was a genius in the business world when she was young, unfortunately, she later contracted a serious illness and eventually committed suicide due to depression, otherwise, there would have been one more goddess in the business world today.

It's reasonable to say that Boyd, as Winni Drew's child, would have some business talent. With the support of the Drew and Mamet families, he would definitely achieve something.

388 Chapter 388: Double Happiness Comes Knocking

And by the present situation, Caleb is isolated and helpless, both families are supporting Boyd, Who could become the heir is still an unknown.

Everyone glanced at each other, their eyes filled with confusion.

In order to support Boyd, the Mamet and Drew families reconciled and jointly provided him with resources. Even an ordinary person could get a generous return.

Mr. Caleb Mamet is unattainable, many people want to work with him, but Boyd Drew has just started his career. If they follow him at this time, they will become veterans of the company in the future, how could they be afraid of not having money to spend?

Everyone hesitated.

“Mr. Mamet...”

At this moment, someone hastily pushed open the door of the banquet hall.

The person was from the high-level group of Mamet Corporation, his eyes full of panic, staggering in. “Mr. Mamet! Mr. Mamet!”

Will Mamet frowned, “What’s the matter? What are you shouting for?”

“Mr. Mamet, that piece of land...” The high-level executive was panting, catching his breath for a while, and then anxiously said, “A government worker came to inspect the land...”

What?

Everyone was stunned for a moment, Will Mamet stood up abruptly, his eyes full of surprise.

The government workers came for inspection? If the land is to be developed as a key area, the state may issue a development fund, then the value of the land may double.

Will Mamet was ecstatic, “Boyd! You are really the lucky star of the Mamet family. You just spent 15 billion dollars to get this piece of land, and now it has attracted the attention of the government. The future success of the Mamet family depends on you. This is really double happiness!”

Sir Drew also laughed, “Boyd is really amazing, so much stronger than that illegitimate child.”

Everyone cast a cautious look at Caleb Mamet.

389 Chapter 389: 15 Billion Dollars Gone in Vain

Sir Drew was still not satisfied and sneered coldly, “Boyd is a legitimate child, and his luck is naturally different. Illegitimate children have shallow vision, and they can’t beat to part with 15 billion dollars, let alone give up on it. If he were the one in charge of the Mamet family, he would surely ruin it eventually!”

As he repeatedly called out “illegitimate child, although he did not name names, everyone knew who he was talking about.

The atmosphere seemed to freeze in the banquet hall, and everyone held their breath.

Will Mamet’s face was full of love: “Boyd, don’t worry Your father will support you wholeheartedly. This land is yours, and the position of heir is yours too!”

“Mr. Mamet!!” The high-level executive interrupted anxiously, his forehead covered in sweat. “No! It’s not...

Will Mamet frowned displeasedly, “What do you mean it’s not? Can’t you speak clearly? I said Boyd is the heir of the Mamet family, do you dare to contradict? With Boyd owning the development rights to this land, who dares to look down on him?”

“I haven’t finished yet. This land cannot be developed! The high-level executive’s face was distressed, “So, these 15 billion dollars are wasted!”

The room fell silent at his words.

Undevelopable? Everyone’s minds kept echoing these words, quickly realizing the gravity of the situation.

Spending 15 billion dollars on a piece of land that cannot be developed—how would they make any money out of it? Isn’t it equivalent to wasting it?

Will Mamet’s face darkened: “What? Don’t talk nonsense! How is it possible? We’ve already done the paperwork, and the development rights to this land belong to Boyd. It’s written clearly in the contract, Boyd is the owner of the land!”

“But, but...”

The executive gritted his teeth and finally unveiled the shocking truth in public.

“It was true at first, but a massive ancient tomb has been discovered beneath the land...”

Boom!!

Will Mamet staggered as if all his strength had been drained, quickly sitting back down on his chair.

“No, it’s impossible.”

Seeing that there was no point in hiding the truth anymore, the executive blurted it out-

“The state has already sent professionals to survey the area, and they’ve found a huge ancient tomb beneath the ground. They’ve sealed off the land, and an archaeological team is coming to Libanon tomorrow to excavate. Therefore, this land cannot be developed and now belongs to the state.”

According to the law, if a significant ancient tomb is discovered, the ownership of the land reverts to the state. Occupying or excavating the site privately is illegal, and the treasure left behind by history belongs to the country. What's more, it is not possible to develop or destroy the ancient tomb.

So... did they really just waste 15 billion dollars?

Sir Drew nearly spat out a mouthful of old blood.

"You're talking nonsense! How could there be an ancient tomb beneath that land? That's just a rumor!" Sir Drew still couldn't believe it and roared in disbelief.

The executive, who had worked in the Mamet Group for many years, finally lost his patience and pointed at Sir Drew's nose, cursing, "How dare you! If the Drew family wants to fight for that land, it's none of the Mamet Corporation's business, but the Mamet Group has invested more than 4 billion dollars in this project. Now it's all gone to waste—4 billion dollars vanished without a trace! That money belonged to our company! So, am I not allowed to speak up?"

Boyd Drew's gentlemanly facade finally cracked, "If the state wants to take back the land, I have no objection, but after all, I am the owner of that land. Even if the state wants to take it back, they must compensate me for my loss."

Will Mamet quickly agreed, "Yes, even if it can't be developed, there's still the 15 billion dollars..."

"It's not like that! The land was auctioned!"

The high-level executive quickly interrupted again, resentfully explaining, "The land was valued at only 2 billion dollars. According to the law, the state can only pay Mr. Drew 2 billion dollars. As for the remaining 13 billion dollars, it has nothing to do with the state. That additional amount was generated by Mr. Drew's bidding competition."

II

Will Mamet nearly fainted.

Boyd Drew also gasped, then suddenly reacted to something, turning his gaze sharply to Caleb Mamet.

At this moment, Mr. Mamet was leisurely sitting on the sofa, swirling the wine in his glass. He raised his wine glass towards Boyd, the corners of his mouth brimming with a victorious smile.

So confident, as if he had everything under control.

A storm raged in Boyd Drew's mind, his expression gradually turning terrified as if struck by lightning.

No wonder, no wonder!

It turned out that Caleb Mamet already knew and had set a trap on purpose!

390 Chapter 390: Caleb Mamet Seems More Like Miss Drew's Child

Boyd Drew hastily took out his phone, his hands shaking as he called his assistant.

After a moment, he hung up, clenching his teeth with resentment, "I will find the person in charge, and strive... to minimize the loss"

Sir Drew felt his blood surge and almost fainted,

Did 15 billion dollars just disappear like this?

Everyone was just amazed how Mr. Drew was so capable, how he snatched the land from Mr. Caleb Mamet, and even about to take his heir's title.

Who would have known that there's an ancient tomb hidden under this land?

Mr. Caleb Mamet is fortunate, he gave up early on and did not suffer any loss. But Boyd Drew was unlucky. The land barely warmed up in his hands before he lost 13 billion dollars.

The Drew Company was already shaky, and now the losses are disastrous. Plus, Will Mamet also lost over 4 billion, which must have had a significant impact.

The Mamet Group's senior management all had gloomy faces: "Are you seriously saying that this is

Miss Drew's son? Miss Drew would never act rashly like this. Didn't he survey the land before bidding for it? He blindly followed, saw others bidding and wanted to join in. Now he's dragged us down with him."

"Mr. Mamet, your son doesn't have half of Miss Drew's business acumen."

The faces of Will Mamet and Sir Drew were ashen and their eyes were filled with maliciousness.

At this moment, a voice from the crowd came out: "Are you saying... that's why Mr. Caleb Mamet suddenly gave up the bid?"

Everyone startled.

"Could Mr. Caleb Mamet know something? Is that why he gave up suddenly?"

"That's it!" the crowd responded with sudden realization.

"No one can compete with what Mr. Caleb Mamet wants if he gave up this land must have heard something. Boyd Drew, out of his own arrogance, thought that Mr. Caleb Mamet was scared. Little did he know that he was walking right into a trap. This is truly laughable!"

Boyd Drew's face paled, his body was trembling with anger, and his eyes were murderous,

“I see Boyd Drew is not like Miss Drew’s son at all, fact, Mr. Caleb Mamet has great business talent, like Miss Drew’s biological son. I’ve long suspected, do you think Mr. Caleb Mamet could be Miss Drew’s son?”

At these words, the crowd fell silent.

Jenny Green was immediately scared and looked at Will Mamet with horror in her eyes.

Will Mamet’s face darkened. He was about to blow up, but was stopped by Boyd Drew.

390 Chapter 390: Caleb Mamet Seems More Like Miss Drew’s Child

Then, someone spoke kindly, “Mr. Mamet, the facts are clear. Boyd Drew made a wrong judgment, causing irreparable damage to the Mamet and Drew families. He is not on par with Mr. Mamet....”

“I think the matter of the heir should be more careful Mr. Mamet should consider it carefully before making a decision!”

At that moment, Sir Drew slapped the table hard: “Will! You can’t do this. Back when the Mamet family was in crisis, it was the Drew family that stepped in and saved the day. That’s how we have today’s Mamet family!”

“Boyd is your legitimate son, he has recognized his ancestry and come back to the family. Are you planning to handover the Mamet family to an illegitimate child?”

Everyone lowered their heads.

Yes, when the Mamet family was in trouble, it was Miss Drew who helped them get through it.

Although Mr. Caleb Mamet’s success did not depend on the Mamet family, how would he live up to Miss Drew’s spirit in heaven if he became the heir?

Xaviera Evans' eyes were slightly cold.

Caleb could clearly hear Xaviera Evans' grumbling in her heart.

'The Drew family is really shameless! Knowing clearly that Boyd Drew is the illegitimate child, and Caleb is Miss Drew's son. They're still using Miss Drew's kindness to suppress Caleb!'

– 'It's the Drew family who are ungrateful, killed Miss Drew, and now they want to deal with Miss Drew's biological son, making Caleb carry the stigma of being illegitimate. The Drew family is truly heartless!'

Caleb curled his lips, feeling a warm flow in his heart

Actually, he didn't care about what others thought of him, as long as she stood by his side, it was as if he had the whole world.

Will Marnet feigned grief, "Father-in-law, it was all my fault, I let Winni down. I was foolish once, but it has nothing to do with Caleb, he did not play any part in killing Winni, he knew nothing about it!"

Everyone nodded in agreement.

They all knew that Winni Drew committed suicide due to depression after being provoked by Jenny

Green.

At that time, Caleb was still young and didn't even know who Winni Drew was, so Miss Drew's death has absolutely nothing to do with him. This was something that could only be blamed on Will Marnet and Jenny Green.
