Novel Chapter 391

Chapter 391; Hidden Secrets

“That doesn’t make sense...”

Someone puzzledly said, “If Miss Drew’s death is related to Jenny Green, why are Jenny Green and Mr. Drew so close? And the Drew family is also very kind to Jenny Green.”

“That’s right! Tenny Green is the mistress, the murderer who killed Miss Drew. If it wasn’t for her bringing her legitimate child into the family, Miss Drew wouldn’t have died in despair. Now the Drew family mentions Miss Drew, but they I augh and talk with the murderer?”

Everyone’s expressions darkened, indignant.

Miss Drew, an extraordinary woman, committed suicide because of the mistress’s rise to power and Will Mamet’s pressure.

Now, the Drew family forgives Will Mamet, the biological father, for Boyd Drew’s sake, but how can they forgive Jenny Green, the third party?

Didn’t Miss Drew die in vain?

Jenny Green retreated in fear, tears welling up in her eyes, looking seemingly wronged.

“Actually, there’s another hidden truth behind this.” Vivian Drew calmly spoke up, picked up microphone, her volée filled with helplessness.

“Initially, Mrs. Mamet and my brother-in-law had an accident and had Caleb, but Mrs. Mamet knew my brother-in-law had a family, so she didn’t want to break it. She planned to leave alone with the child, but...”

Vivian Drew paused and looked mockingly at Caleb Mamet, “But someone found out he was the eldest son of the Mamet family, so he sneaked into the Ma net family and accidentally learned the location of my sister's hospital. He went straight to the hospital and caused my sister to become depressed."

"At that time, my father, my brother-in-law, and I all witnessed Mrs. Mamet's tearful accusations toward the child. But that child was like a devil, forcing my sister and brother-in-law to acknowledge his identity, even wanting to become the Mamet family's heir."

"My sister was already seriously ill, and because of his provocation, she took the step to commit suicide..."

Vivian Drew had sorrowful eyes as she looked at Caleb Mamet, "Mr. Caleb Mamet, my sister's death was caused by you. Do you think you have the qualifications to be the heir? That's a human life! What right do you have to compete with Boyd?"

"You really are a devil!"

Boom-!!

Everyone even forgot to breathe, staring at Caleb Mamet in shock, disbelief in their eyes.

The next second...

Clap clap!

Under everyone's heated gaze, Caleb Mamet applauded. His eyes were cold and full of mockery as he asked leisurely, "Has Miss Wendy Drew finished speaking?"

Vivian Drew glared at him hatefully.

Caleb Mamet indifferently said, "Continue"

Everyone gasped, was there more secret? Why did he not stop Vivian Drew from exposing his scandal in public, but let her continue?

Vivian Drew never thought that Caleb Mamet could be so indifferent. She immediately showed a pained expression and accused, "Caleb! You killed my sister at that time and caused her to die in despair! You didn't show any remorse in front of the Drew family. You are really..."

Vivian Drew extended her shaking finger, enraged.

Originally, it was just about the inheritance, but now it involves events from twenty years ago. This was a big story for everyone!

Over the years, everyone thought Miss Drew committed suicide because of Jenny Green's appearance, leading to her depression, They thought it was all because of Jenny Green.

Who would have thought Vivian Drew would reveal the truth, that it was because of Mr. Caleb Mamet that led Miss Drew to commit suicide?

Jenny Green didn't become a mistress, trying not to destroy other people's families, even planning to leave this city?

At that time, Mr. Caleb Mamet must have been only six years old. For the sake of becoming the Mamet family's young master, he caused a scene in front of Will Mamet and Winni Drew, forcing Will Mamet to recognize his identity? This is really terrible!

Caleb Mamet opened his cold eyes, smiling with an elusive meaning.

"Mrs. Riker, are you saying that the Drew family witnessed that scene?"

Although Vivian Drew married Mr. Riker, their relationship was always poor, and they had hardly appeared together. She used to gloat about stealing Winni Drew's fiancé, but now she regrets it and is furious.

Everyone knew the situation, so no one addressed her as Mrs. Riker. They just called her "Miss Wendy Drew." Caleb Mamet's words hit Vivian Drew's weak spot.

Vivian Drew was so angry that she gritted her teeth, Of course, we all saw it. My father and I were in the hospital with my sister. If it weren't for you suddenly breaking in and bringing a few reporters, deliberately provoking my sister, how would my sister's old illness relapse?"

382 Chapter 392. The Truth?

392 Chapter 392: The Truth?

Vivian Drew cried out, "Those reporters are saying that she my sister can't bear children fouts the Mamet family and seemingly doesn't have long to live, she'd better make that a given. They even said that Mr. Mamet has a six-year-old son, and sooner or later he would bug him tumm

"But my sister is the original wife of the Mamet family? You are nothing but an illegitimate child, yet you are forcing my sister to step down with a horde of unscrupulous reporters. You have encha ruthless heart!"

Everyone frowned, feeling sorry for Miss Drew.

Imagine the scene. Miss Drew, seriously ill and hospitalized, suddenly faced a group of people accusing her of being sterile, holding onto the status of Mrs. Mamet, and forcing her to step down Any woman would find it hard to stay calm in such a circumstance

Jenny Green feigned sorrow and squeezed out a few tears, "Actually, I've always kept silent about this, preferring to take the blame for life. But Caleb, you cannot be so wilful anymore. How can you compete with Boyd for the heir's position? You already caused the death of his mother, and how you want to steal his heirship? Caleb, you can't be so greedy!"

Will Mamet accused loudly, "Caleb, the Drew family has been lenient because of your mother's sake You have no idea how much pain you have inflicted on the Drew family, Winni, and your own mother. do you?"

"If it wasn't for your excessive greed, this tragedy wouldn't have happened sighed with regret, "Miss Drew is really pitiful. If this incident is indeed caused by Mr Caleb Mamet, he shouldn't fight for the successor's position."

The guests

"Although Miss Drew committed suicide, Mr. Mamet indirectly caused her death. He was only six years old at that time! Such a malicious child is truly terrifying. Mr. Mamet should apologize to the Drew family!"

The supporters of Will Mamet and Jenny Green all condemned him vehemently

"That's right, he should apologize! You owe an apology to all those you've hurt

"Mrs. Mamet has borne so much slander for you over the years. As your mother, she has been remarkably tolerant. It's time for you to take responsibility for your mistakes!"

At this point, everyone saw Miss Drew and Jenny Green as the underdogs, Jenny never intended to destroy another's family. Everything was just an accident. The real culprit was Caleb. His excessive greed led to the tragedy.

In the aftermath of the incident, as Jenny didn't want her child to bear the stigma, she allowed the mistress to ascend to her place, creating a misunderstanding that lasted for twenty years

Sir Drew sighed helplessly, "I used to overlook your actions because you were young and obedient! even thought it was the instigation of your mother. But I didn't expect you to behave even worse"

Vivian choked, "Mr. Caleb Mamet, we, the Drew family, dare not offend you in your current powerful position. However, I must disclose the truth today no matter what!"

Red Chapter 232 The Truth?

Caleb snorted with derision, "The truth?"

Vivian retorted, "What do you mean? Are you implying that what I've and ten the muth W prepared to keep this a secret forever if it wasn't for food that you've gone tous l

Caleb slowly looked up, sweeping a mockingly condescending glance at Vivian in front of him, refusing to waste his words on her.

Sir Drew felt a twinge of anxiety. He knew that Caleb was no pushover. After all, he didn't achieve his Current status by luck or chance. Did he have some kind of evidence?

Sir Drew softened his tone a bit, "Caleb, I understand that it feels unfair to have you inherit a suddenly taken away. But you made a mistake back then, causing Royal to lose his mother You can't deny this

"I don't bear grudges about past matters. My only wish is for my deceased daughter to test if Boyd's identity is beyond doubt. He must return to the Mamet family and become its heir"

Listening to his words, Caleb cracked a smile again.

Unable to bear it any longer, Xaviera Evans interjected, "Sir Drew, Caleb and Mex Riker have been discussing old matters, but Caleb has never expressed any doubts about Boyd's identity

Evans hinted at something with a meaningful smile, Caleb never doubted a single word of it, why are you so eager to explain? Do you feel guilty, or is there a problem with Boyd's

It suddenly dawned on everyone.

That's right! Mr. Mamet hardly said anything. He never doubted Boyd's identity.

393 Chapter 393: Concealing Only Exposes More

Sir Drew seemed very strange to be so urgently explaining that Boyd Drew was Winn Drew's child, and for what reason?

It seems like he's trying to cover something up!

Vivian Drew's face turned pale, and her father was being impulsive, so she interrupted quickly: "Walch, my father didn't have any other intentions, he was just afraid you would use Boyd's identity to make a fuss because you definitely wouldn't admit that you're my sister."

Xaviera Evans blinked, an innocent look on her face Mrs. Riker, why should I admit something I haven't done?"

"What are you? Do you have a say in this?"

Xaviera Evans was incredibly surprised, "I am Caleb's wife, why can't I have a say? The Drew family is so overbearing, not even allowing others to speak. Are you feeling guilty or something?"

"You... Vivian Drew was momentarily speechless, her whole body trembling with rage, Caleb Mamet waved his hand indifferently: "Mrs. Riker, your performance ends here. I've already lost Interest."

Suddenly, the bodyguards in the banquet hall stood up abruptly, surrounding the entire area without any gaps.

The Drew family and Will Mamet were in a panic, "Caleb, what are you doi

The door of the hall was tightly closed, the atmosphere instantly changed, tense. Caleb was sitting in a chair, his demeanor light as a breeze but his aura was oppressive and overwhelming as never felt before by the people in the room.

The man's thin lips lightly opened: "Uncovering the truth."

"Caleb, what do you mean? I knew you wouldn't admit what you've done in the past. Can my father and I make a joke about my sister's death? The Drew and Mamet families have not been in contact for so many years, all for my sister's sake. Can we still lie?"

Vivian Drew explained hastily, not believing that Caleb could produce any evidence,

Caleb's slender fingers tapped on the chair, raising his eyebrows: "Mrs. Riker, do you really have that much confidence?"

Vivian Drew gritted her teeth, her eyes swirling with rage. No matter what, today she must force Caleb to bear the indirect responsibility for Winni Drew's death.

She wanted to see with her own eyes, Winni Drew's son being forced to give up his position and apologize to the mistress's family. Nothing could be more satisfying to her than this.

Even if that bitch, Winni Drew, died, it could not dispel the hatred in her heart. She wanted Winni Drew's son to suffer endless pain as well.

"Heh."

A moment later, Caleb gave a cold laugh, his voice low, "Mrs. Riker, do you really think I don't have any

Me

Vivian Drew's expression suddenly froze, and she calmed down and immediately rebutted, "What Evidence? With your power and status today, Caleb, would be too easy to fabricate evidence. As long as you say a word, people will testify for you, even taking the blame for you!"

“You must want to say that the doctors and nurses in the hospital at the time can testify for you, proving you didn’t hurt my sister”

“But think about it, everyone, he’s Caleb Mamet!”

Vivian Drew pointed to Caleb, speaking emphatically “He’s the richest man, the master of Libanon, he has power and influence! He wants to fabricate evidence, just spend money to find a few people, and the problem is solved. Let alone a few doctors and nurses, even if he bought all the people in the hospital, he could easily do it!”

Vivian Drew’s face was full of anger, but her heart was filled with triumph.

“You definitely bought off witnesses, had people testify for you, and splashed dirty water on us. You rich and powerful people naturally have many people who want to curry favor with you! Am I right?”

Vivian Drew’s rebuke made everyone suddenly realize they were looking at Caleb Mamet with disdain.

Min Drew was right. Twenty years had passed, and the Drew family had never mentioned this. They had no reason to fabricate the truth now. As for Caleb, it would only take a single word to produce witnesses, Comparatively speaking, the Drew family’s words were more credible. Mr. Caleb Mamet was saying too much, making it seem like he’s making excuses.

Caleb Mamet looked up disdainfully, as if expecting her to have more acts to perform, seemingly watching a clown. He then spoke lightly, “Mrs. Riker, you are too naive. Evidence does not just mean witnesses; there are other ways of presentation.”

Vivian Drew’s face turned pale.

Jenny Green also showed a frightened face. That couldn’t be... when she went to the hospital to provoke Winni Drew at the time, no one saw, and it couldn’t have left any evidence. The surveillance video in the ward had already been deleted.

394 Chapter 394: If You Want to Condemn Someone, You Will Always Find an Excuse

Caleb couldn't possibly have any evidence, even with power and influence, he couldn't find the deleted surveillance footage.

Jenny Green calmed down and tear stains filled her eyes.

"Caleb, even at this point, you still won't admit your mistake? It's my fault for not educating you well. You killed Miss Drew and the Drew family has already dropped the charges. Now they just hope you won't compete with Boyd Drew anymore. Why won't you just listen? Why do you have to..."

Caleb sneered and slowly stood up, exuding a strong aura of authority that sent chills down people's spines.

His eyes narrowed, disdainfully glancing at Vivian Drew and Jenny Green, then a corner of his mouth curved into a smile as he nodded, "That's right, my witness testimony indeed can't serve as evidence.

"Therefore, my evidence is not witness testimony."

Caleb finished speaking and waved his hand behind him.

Sean Price walked out from behind the bodyguards and respectfully said, "Mr. President."

Vivian Drew clearly saw a USB Flash Drive in Sean Price's hand and her heart trembled with fear.

Caleb's mouth curled into a smile, "Vivian Drew... Jenny Green, do you want to guess what's in this?"

Jenny Green backed away a step, "It's just a USB Flash Drive... Caleb, did you fabricate a recording? I am your biological mother, I won't harm you. Stop resisting in the corner!"

Vivian Drew also quickly chimed in, "Yeah, Caleb! Your fabricated evidence won't work, you have power, this kind of thing wouldn't be difficult for you."

Ignoring everyone, Sean Price took the USB Flash Drive to the banquet hall's backstage.

Caleb raised an eyebrow, "Both of you guessed wrong, it's not a recording"

Jenny Green's face relaxed a bit, "Caleb, all you have to do is apologize, the Drew family will forgive you. I've already shouldered this sin for you for so long, you should bear it yourself now, the Drew family already knows the truth, what's the point of continuing to hide it?"

"You're now the richest, you have power and influence, even if the matter comes to light, no one will say anything, how dare they offend you? It won't have any impact on your career."

Jenny Green bitterly persuaded, then squeezed out a few fake teardrops.

Will Mamet also spoke, "Caleb, you're all grown up, why should your mother always bear the brunt of the insults for you? Ever since your mother entered the door, she has been called a mistress constantly, she should clear her name too."

"You have power and influence now, even if you have some stains, it doesn't matter."

"But Jenny," Will Mamet frowned, "She has no shares, no status, only us. She's been criticized by people for twenty years, can you bear to watch her be scolded for the rest of her life? As long as you admit to this, your mother will be cleared"

"Now that Boyd Drew has recognized his ancestry and come back to the family, and Jenny has a relationship with him, seeing your mother's face, the Drew family won't hold you to wait for you, as long as you apologize and give up their position. What more do you want?"

Xavier Evans chuckled, if those things were really done by Caleb, it would be acceptable for him to admit, but that was clearly a crime of false accusation

According to the Mamet family, Caleb held high power, even if he had stains, it wouldn't have any impact. But Jenny Green was different, she had no power and influence, so she couldn't bear such a sin. Why couldn't Caleb take the blame for his own mother?

But was that bitch Jenny Green even worthy of being Caleb's real mother?

Jenny Green continued, "Caleb, please listen, are you trying to kill me?"

"Mrs. Mamet, why don't you let Caleb present his evidence? Why do you insist on making him plead guilty?"

At this time, Xaviera Evans walked onto the stage with her aura fully unleashed.

She held her head high, scanning the malicious faces of Will Mamet and Jenny Green, "Push all the blame onto Caleb, do you two have any shame left?"

"Shut the fuck up! There's no place for you to speak here!" Sir Drew slammed the table angrily, pointing at Xaviera Evans and scolding her. Caleb was about to succumb to the pressure and admit guilt, but a bitch interfered halfway through!

Hearing this, Xaviera Evans didn't get angry but just gave a faint smile, "Sir Drew, what's the rush? If you don't let me speak, is it because you're feeling guilty?"

Vivian Drew's face changed, "Xaviera Evans, this is not the place for you to speak.

You are Caleb's wife, of course, you have to protect him and make excuses for him, but it's meaningless

395 Chapter 395: The Surveillance Footage from Twenty Years Ago

“I’m here to protect Caleb Xaviera Evans stated only

Jenny Creen clenched her teeth, “You don’t have any evidence, talking nonsense doesn’t count!”

Xaviera united meaningfully, “Mrs. Manet, it’s true we don’t have an audio recording, but we do have surveillance video in our possession. I think you should be able to recall something now!”

Jenny Creen’s heart skipped a beat as she subconsciously looked towards Sir Drew.

How could Caleb live the surveillance video? The Law family had already sent someone to delete it at the time, and they had hired a top-notch hacker ensure it could never be recovered.

The person was a top figure in the dark web, who could recover the file. No body else had that ability, at time had promised only hacker Mortimer

But Mortimer was an elusive figure. Even with money one couldn’t hire him.

Moreover, it was said that Mortimer had had a falling out with Caleb, and afterward, they had no further dealings. Mortimer certainly wouldn’t have helped Caleb recover the surveillance video,

So, it was impossible! It must all be a lie!

Xaviera must be trying to scare her. How could the surveillance video ever be recovered? This was just one of Caleb’s usual tactics: to psychologically leak down his opponents and expose their weaknesses.

Jenny Green let out a sigh of relief.

There was nothing to be afraid of. It was all a bluff! If Caleb had real evidence, he would have presented it long ago. Why wait until now? It was clear he was just putting on a show of strength, trying to make everyone believe he had been wrongly accused.

On the other side, Sean Price had already arrived backstage.

Convinced that Caleb had no evidence, Jenny Green continued her act, feigning sadness. "Caleb, how did you become like this? It's my fault, I shouldn't have taken the blame for you, causing you to become so irresponsible!"

Everyone murmured amongst themselves, "I heard Ms. Mamet doesn't like her son too much and always beats and scolds him. As expected of a mistress, even a tiger doesn't eat its own cubs, but she could be no cruel to her own child"

"But, could there be another possibility? That is, Caleb was very naughty when he was a child, and that's why Jenny Green treated him like that, unwilling to let him go astray, using beatings and scoldings as a warning to him?"

When Caleb was just six years old, he was already able to use reporters to provoke Miss Drew and even forced Mr. Mamet to acknowledge his identity. What a terrifying child he was.

306 Chapter 395: The Surveillance Footage from Twenty Years Ago

Sean Price had already inserted the USB flash drive, and at that moment, the big screen suddenly lit up.

Jenny Green and the Drew family were standing on the stage, their backs to the big screen, so they couldn't see the contents on the screen.

Tears filled Jenny Green's eyes, "Caleb, everyone already knows about the past. Don't struggle anymore. Apologize and admit your mistakes, it's better for you..."

“Look at that!” The surprised cry from the audience interrupted Jenny’s words.

The entire banquet hall instantly boiled with excitement.

“This must be the surveillance video!”

“Look, there’s even a timestamp! This... is from 20 years ago? It’s in a hospital?”

The video indeed showed a hospital room. Although the image was somewhat blurry, the faces of the people and their voices could still be clearly seen.

As Miss Drew of the Drew family and Mrs. Mamet of the Mamet family, Winni had been arranged the most luxurious hospital room when she was hospitalized, equipped with complete facilities, and using the latest monitoring devices of the time.

But, logically speaking, why would there be a surveillance camera in the hospital room? Hospitals have no right to monitor patients in their rooms, which seemed rather odd.

However, no one cared about that anymore because a person appeared on the screen.

Jenny Green!

At that moment, Jenny Green on the stage still didn’t understand the situation, still crying tearfully, weakly leaning on Will Mamet, accusing Caleb of being unfilial and selfish.

But the video showed a very different Jenny Green – she was smug as she walked straight to Miss Drew’s bedside and slammed several papers on her face...

On the stage, Jenny Green looked at Caleb, pleading desperately, “Caleb, please admit your wrongs! I know you hate me for scolding and beating you during your childhood, but I only did it because you did wrong things. You killed Miss Drew and never repented. I have to punish you!”

“I’m a woman too. When I think about Miss Drew’s death, my heart aches...”

“Winni! You bitch! You’re about to die! Why won’t you divorce Will? You can’t have children, so what’s the point of occupying Mrs. Mamet’s position?”

The sudden shout from the woman interrupted Jenny Green's pretentious performance,

Why did this voice sound so familiar...?

Jenny choked on her words, violently turned around saw the image in the video, and immediately turned pale.

Everyone lifted their eyes, equally dumbfounded.

"Winni Drew, you're about to die, there's no chance for you to have a child, and if the Mamet family has no heir, you'll be the biggest criminal!"

"You useless woman, you can't have children for the Mamet family, but I'm better than you, I have an excellent son, and it's because of you that he can't recognize ancestry and come back to the family!! advise you to know better, Will is interested in me, you better go die and leave the position of Mrs. Mamet to me!"

These cutting words stabbed deep into Winni Drew's heart.

Everyone stared intently at the video; the woman on the sickbed appeared pale, her beautiful face - filled with sorrow, making those who saw her feel heartbroken.

In the video, a group of reporters swarmed in, pointing microphones and cameras at the critically ill woman.

"Miss Drew, would you consider giving up your position for Mrs. Green?"

"We heard that you and Mr. Mamet have a contracted marriage without any feelings involved. Now that Mr. Mamet has found his true love, can you let them be together?"

"Mrs. Green has given birth to Mr. Mamet's child. The child is innocent. If he can't recognize ancestry and come back to the family, he'll be adrift for his entire life. Miss Drew, you should consider the child's situation as well."

Initially, the crowd was cautious about Winni Drew's critical condition, but they gradually became more aggressive, as if accusing Winni Drew of breaking up a pair of star-crossed lovers. Unable to bear a child herself, she still stubbornly occupied the position of Mrs. Mamet.

When the reporters left, Jenny Green crossed her arms and opened her mouth wildly: "Winni Drew, whether you let go or not, the position of Mrs. Mame will be mine! I will also take your son and torture him in my hands, you cheap woman! Go die soon!"

This last sentence caused the critically ill Winni Drew to completely collapse!

At this moment, Jenny Green on the stage turned pale and trembled all over.

How could Caleb have access to the surveillance footage? At the time, the hacker that the Drew family found said that only Mortimer could recover it, and to one else could possibly do it. Wait a minute....

Now is not the time to think about this, but to find an explanation.

Jenny Green's psychological defense broke down completely, and she screamed frantically: "No! It's not true! I didn't!"

900 Chapter 396, Are you worthy of Caleb Manor's teal piety?

She glared fiercely at Caleb and roared, "Caleb! For your own sake, you even forged a video to frame your own birth mother? You unfilial son!"

"Unfilial?" Xaviera Evans raised an eyebrow: "Mrs. Mamet, do you think you deserve Caleb's filial piety?"

The crowd gasped.

Xaviera sneered: "Since Mrs. Mamet's childhood, she has treated Caleb either with beatings or scolding, and often locks him up in a small dark room without giving food or water. Do you deserve Caleb's filial piety? What kind of birth mother would abuse her child like this?"

"Mrs. Mamet, speaking of forgery, I do have some knowledge."

Xaviera looked composed: "Miss Drew has been dead for 20 years, and there's a date on the surveillance tape. These reporters can also be traced and even high-end technology can't fake such a realistic surveillance video.

"I guess you must want to say that the words were dubbed afterward. That's also possible, but these words and the lip movements in the video match perfectly. Moreover, your actions at the time were clearly provocative."

Xaviera's words directly destroyed all of Mrs. Mamet's excuses for sophistry.

Jenny Green stood there dumbfounded, her body limp.

No! There must be another excuse!

"You all misunderstand, I didn't mean that."

After thinking for a long time, Jenny clenched her teeth and braced herself to say, "I did it all for Caleb. It was Caleb who told me to say those words; he threatened me with his own life, saying that if I didn't say those things, he wouldn't live. At that time, I was also in a difficult situation. I couldn't bear to hurt Mi

Miss Drew, but I couldn't watch my son die either, so I rushed to the ward and said those words to Miss Drew!"

Jenny Green sobbed with grievance: "I was also forced to do it! Caleb, you said that Miss Drew hurt you, and I just couldn't swallow that anger, only then did I say those words... Why is everyone blaming me now?"

397 Chapter 397: You Promised Me, You Won't Die

Everyone looked confused.

Vivian Drew's face turned pale green, and she hurriedly explained, "Mrs. Mamet is right, it's been so many years since it happened..."

"There's even a video!"

No one knew who shouted, but everyone's eyes fell on the big screen, "This? The child in the video is six-year-old Mr. Caleb Mamet?"

Everyone's eyes were intense.

The child who slowly entered the ward was Caleb Mamet, still so calm.

What was Caleb going to do in Miss Drew's ward? Was it true, as Jenny Green said, that he wanted to hurt Miss Drew?

However, the Miss Drew who had been dead for twenty years did not reject him, but struggled to sit up and spoke gently, "Caleb, you're here."

Young Caleb's body was small, but his eyes were full of depth and melancholy between his brows.

For the past few years, he had lived with Jenny Green, enduring her beatings and torment, and had shed his innocence, becoming cold and ruthless.

But in front of Winni Drew, he was a little flustered, at a loss, and worried in his eyes, "I heard you're sick, is it serious?"

Winni Drew's gray eyes gained a bit more color, "God boy, did you come to see me because you knew I was sick?"

Young

Caleb lowered his eyes, "I heard... my mother upset you, and they said you were about to die."

Winni Drew's eyes reddened slightly, and she spoke softly, "Good child, come here."

Caleb obediently walked to the bed, and Winni struggled to sit up, opened her arms and hugged him. "This has nothing to do with you, my good child. I don't know why, but I feel close to you when I see you. Don't always have a cold face, smile, okay?"

Those words made young Caleb's eyes redden, and the always indifferent child suddenly choked up. "Can you... not die..."

Winni Drew was silent for a moment, and her eyes were full of loneliness. Holding back her tears, she gently rubbed his little face and smiled sadly, "Alright, I will try my best to live."

The screen changed, and ten days later, Winni Drew's corpse lay on the hospital bed, already stiff, but her face was still so beautiful.

Caleb huddled in a corner, biting his fingers and sobbing softly. Tears kept falling, but he was the only one crying in the ward, while everyone else was laughing, especially his mother, Jenny Green, who laughed wildly.

After everyone left, Caleb approached and hugged Winni Drew's cold body, tightly holding her hand, "You promised me that you wouldn't die. You lied to me..."

997 Chapter 307: You Promised Me, You Won't

Watching the surveillance video, Xaviera Evans' eyes turned red, and her heart ached. Her throat felt constricted, as if something was about to pour out.

The scene also moved the guests present, and some of the noblewomen burst into tears.

"It's rare that Mr. Caleb Mamet and Miss Drew had such deep feelings for each other."

“Miss Drew was already suffering from depression at that time, and she had to endure the pain of the illness, but she was still so gentle in the face of Mr. Mamet! It’s obvious that Miss Drew really liked Mr. Mamet

“The surveillance video can’t be faked. It’s clear that Jenny Green went to the hospital to provoke Miss Drew, but pushed all the blame on Mr. Mamet? She sacrificed her own son to clear her own name?”

Everyone looked at Jenny Green with disdain.

“What’s Jenny Green pretending for! Those reporters were her doing! If she hadn’t gone to the hospital to provoke Miss Drew, Miss Drew wouldn’t have died!”

“The wicked always condemn first! She obviously killed Miss Drew herself but pushed the responsibility onto her son! How can there be such a disgusting woman!”

“She says she beats and scolds Mr. Mamet for Miss Drew’s sake, but Miss Drew was clearly killed by her! Doesn’t Jenny have a conscience? If she really wants to atone, she should commit suicide and go to the underworld to apologize to Miss Drew!”

People’s scolding voices spread out.

Jenny Green’s body softened, and she almost fell to the ground. Terrified, she looked at them and screamed frantically, “The video is fake! Caleb is framing me!”

“Mrs. Mamet, the evidence is right in front of you, do you still want to argue?”

“Sir Drew, Miss Wendy Drew, now that the truth is clear, isn’t it time for you to apologize?”

398 Chapter 398: Miss Drew Installed the Surveillance Herself

Apologize to Caleb Mamet?

Sir Drew's face changed; he was an elder, how could he possibly apologize to a junior?

Before the Drew family could speak, a person from the audience said indignantly: "Why would Sir Drew apologize? The Drew family and Jenny Green were clearly in cahoots; they conspired to kill Miss Drew. That's why they got along so well, and maybe even the Drew family let Jenny Green harm Miss Drew!"

Sir Drew widened his eyes and roared in rebuttal: "Nonsense! How could I possibly harm my own daughter?"

"Then tell me, where were the Drew family when Jenny Green barged into the ward with reporters?" The person said eloquently: "Don't tell me that you happened not to be there. As far as I know, Miss Drew was staying in a luxurious private hospital in Libanan. There were dozens of security guards at the entrance of the hospital, and even more patrolling outside the wards. How could these people barge in?"

"But not only did Jenny Green come in, she also brought a group of journalists to stimulate Miss Drew. Miss Drew was so angry that she suffered severe depression, and the Drew family did not show up nor did anyone come to stop them?"

"Yeah! Didn't Miss Vivian Drew just say that they saw it with their own eyes when Mr. Caleb Mamet provoked Miss Drew? But Mr. Caleb Mamet obviously had a good relationship with Miss Drew. You are all lying! So we have reason to suspect that Miss Drew's death was caused by you!"

"Why else would you associate with a mistress, and also conspire against Mr. Caleb Mamet?"

Sir Drew's face darkened, and his fists clenched.

Vivian Drew's body trembled. At a loss for words, she could only wail, "Caleb! You're framing us! It's all fake! You're so sneaky!"

"So what if it's revealed? It's fake! He's so rich; he must have found some top-notch technician to make fake surveillance videos!"

Vivian Drew gritted her teeth and howled: "My sister was killed by you! Caleb, you devil!"

Sir Drew knew that the Drew family was now in the spotlight and absolutely could not admit this matter. He could only stubbornly argue, and Jenny Green and they were in the same boat. They had to support Jenny Green and deal with Caleb Mamet together.

If Jenny Green could get rid of the trouble Caleb Mamet, it would be a great thing for the Drew family.

Sir Drew sneered coldly: "I have never installed surveillance in the ward. How could there suddenly be surveillance footage? Caleb Mamet, this is your forgery, isn't it? Why don't you tell us where this surveillance came from?"

"No surveillance is allowed in the hospital wards. How could the Drew family allow others to install surveillance in my daughter's ward? So these surveillance videos are all fake!"

398 Chapter 998 Miss Drew installed the Surveillance Herself

The atmosphere suddenly became solemn.

Everyone looked puzzled; the video didn't seem to be fake, but Sir Drew insisted there was no surveillance. Who was telling the truth?

"Sir Drew, you actually don't care about your daughter"

Caleb Mamet curled the corner of his lips, his eyes full of mockery: "Sir Drew, do you not know the origin of this surveillance?"

Everyone widened their eyes, waiting anxiously for Caleb Mamet's next statement.

Who installed this surveillance? The Drew family or the Mamet family?

Or...

Little did they know that Caleb Mamet said calmly: "Miss Drew herself installed it."

What? Winni Drew installed it herself?

Why would a seriously ill woman like Winni Drew install surveillance in her own ward?

"Unfortunately, the surveillance 'suddenly' broke the day before her death, so the cause of her death. was not recorded."

Sir Drew gasped and his eyelids twitched uncontrollably.

"But in the surveillance spanning several dozen days, it's clear that Miss Wendy Drew and Miss Drew didn't have a good relationship, and Sir Drew never showed up even once when his daughter was seriously ill and about to die."

"Mamet really doesn't understand how the Drew family's claims of loving Miss Drew come from. If they really cared about Miss Drew, why didn't they show their concern? When she was being bullied, where were the Drew family?"

Sir Drew's face turned green with anger, unwilling to show weakness: "What makes you say this surveillance was installed by Winni? Do you have any evidence?"

Caleb Mamet tapped his slender fingers on the table and then pointed to the bottom of the video where there was an inconspicuous name, "Him! Is that enough evidence?"

309 Chapter 399, Mortimer is the Evidence

399 Chapter 399: Mortimer is the Evidence

Everyone stared intently.

Mortimer?

Caleb Mamet's voice was low: "As you can all see, this is the surveillance footage retrieved by Mortimer, including the video of Miss Drew purchasing the surveillance equipment. Do you need me to play all of them? Sir Drew, what other evidence do you need?"

Everyone was shocked.

That was Mortimer!

The legendary number one hacker, he doesn't easily investigate for others. Even if you offer him a fortune, you can't buy him off unless he is willing. No one can force him, and more importantly, he would never forge a video.

Once, a wealthy man sought Mortimer's help to forge evidence, offering a price of one hundred million dollars. But Mortimer didn't even bother to provide a punctuation, let alone the video. The man kept raising the price, annoying Mortimer so much that he directly acquired the man's company.

Since then, Mortimer's name has been known throughout the world.

A man who cannot be bought with money, providing such strong evidence, is enough to prove the authenticity of the evidence.

Sir Drew's mouth twitched slightly.

Everyone nodded, if it was really Mortimer, then the video must be real.

Caleb Mamet smiled meaningfully, holding a glass of red wine and taking a sip, saying nonchalantly: "If Sir Drew thinks the evidence is not enough, I have a lot more, and we can watch all of them."

"But considering you are Miss Drew's father, I still want to leave you some dignity. I don't want to burn all bridges. If I bring out all the evidence, the Drew family may not have the face to live. What do you think?"

Sir Drew glared at Caleb Mamet fiercely, clenched his teeth, and eventually swallowed his pride.

Caleb Mamet was as crazy as Winni Drew!

Everyone could see the embarrassment and forbearance on Sir Drew's face. After Mr. Caleb Mamet brought out the evidence provided by Mortimer, no one from the Drew family spoke up to refute it.

This meant that Mr. Caleb Mamet's evidence was all true.

Xaviera Evans spoke up at the right time: "Actually, Sir Drew and Miss Vivian Drew don't like Miss Winni Drew very much. I heard that Vivian and Miss Drew are half-sisters by the same father, so Vivian's good relationship with Jenny Green is because..."

Because of what? Everyone suddenly realized!

"I remember now, Miss Drew's fiancé was originally Mr. Riker, but for some reason, Vivian ended up marrying Mr. Riker instead, and Miss Drew married Mr. Mamet?"

399 Chapter 399; Mortimer is the Evidence

"Why do you think Miss Drew, who was seriously ill, had surveillance installed in her room?"

Everyone shivered in disbelief, asking: "Could it be that Miss Drew felt she could be killed at any time, so she installed surveillance without the Drew family knowing, so that evidence could be left?"

“So how did Miss Drew die? If she committed suicide then it was Jenny Green who provoked her. Now, not only does the Drew family not blame Jenny Green, but they are also very close to her? I suddenly feel...

Although the sentence was not finished, everyone understood.

Sir Drew trembled with anger. Never had anyone confronted him so openly, leaving him no face at all.

Even if he dealt with Caleb Mamet, he was still Caleb Mamet’s grandfather. How could Caleb Mamet be so ignorant of his place? This was unfilial! Such a junior cannot stay!

However, as both parties were at an impasse, if he continued to refute, Caleb Mamet would surely bring out the remaining evidence. If the matter escalated, the Drew family’s business would definitely be affected.

Sir Drew suppressed his anger and sighed helplessly: “I didn’t know that Winnie had installed surveillance in her sickroom. I misunderstood Mr. Mamet before, and I also failed Winnie, not knowing that she was in trouble.”

Vivian Drew clenched her teeth, refusing to apologize to Caleb Mamet. If she really apologized to Caleb Mamet, all her previous plans would have been in vain.

More importantly, in the future, the Drew family wouldn’t be able to use the excuse of ‘Caleb Mamet killed Miss Drew’ to deal with Caleb Mamet. With a groundless cause, the Drew family’s actions against Caleb Mamet would all become unjustified.

She had planned for so long, and Caleb Mamet had destroyed everything with just one surveillance video!

“Miss Wendy Drew doesn’t want to apologize?” Xaviera Evans wouldn’t let go of this ruthless woman, asking directly.

400 Chapter 400: Dog Biting Dog, Isn't it More Fun?

“Why don't you explain why you claimed to have a good relationship with Miss Drew, yet didn't visit her when she was seriously ill, and instead got close to Jenny Green, who caused your sister's death?”

“Now that the truth is out, Jenny Green is the indirect murderer of Miss Drew. Would Miss Wendy Drew still associate with Jenny Green, or defend her Disdainful gazes fell on Vivian Drew.

Who was it that claimed Jenny Green was innocent, that she was kind-hearted, and that it was all Caleb Mamet's fault? It was Miss Drew's own sister, Vivian Drew!

Vivian Drew knew that Jenny Green had killed Winni Drew but showed no anger because she had known the truth long ago and had hoped for Winni's death. Even if no one else took action, she would have killed Winni sooner or later.

Vivian's face darkened, and her body trembled uncontrollably under the questioning and disdainful gazes.

No, it can't be!

Her hard-earned good reputation could not be ruined by Jenny Green!

Vivian raised her eyes again, glaring fiercely at Jenny Green.

Jenny Green's heart skipped a beat, and she looked terrified, “Vivian, what do you want...”

“It was you who killed my sister!” Vivian roared, interrupting Jenny Green’s words and accusing her sentence by sentence, “I never thought you would be the one who killed my beautiful and kind sister. You’re so cruel, you deceived me, saying it was all Caleb Mamet’s idea!”

With these words, she shifted all the blame to Jenny Green.

Xaviera Evans smirked.

Revealing Caleb Mamet’s true identity and finding the murderer of Miss Drew would require lots of evidence and it wasn’t the right time for that, but dealing with Jenny Green would only require one video.

They didn’t even need to lift a finger—all the fun was in watching the dogs bite each other.

Vivian Drew’s sharp nails dug into her palms, her eyes bloodshot: “I... I was deceived by Jenny Green. She told me that Mr. Mamet stressed my sister out, even giving me specific details. At that time, my father and I were busy with the company and neglected to take care of her, so we believed Jenny Green.”

“My father and I were wrong. We failed to protect my sister. For the past twenty years, I have blamed myself every day. But what I never expected is that Jenny Green not only became a mistress but also deceived our Drew family. She’s gone too far!”

Vivian Drew exhaled, realizing that she could only clear the Drew family’s name by pushing all the responsibility onto Jenny Green.

Jenny Green couldn’t believe it, “Vivian, you...”

400 Chapter 400: Dog Biting Dog. Isn’t it More Fun?

Xaviera Evans smiled, glancing at the man next to her “Mr. Drew.”

Everyone’s gaze fell on Boyd Drew.

Xaviera Evans’ eyes were full of provocation: “Mr. Drew, don’t you want to say something?”

Jenny Green’s heart raced, feeling a foreboding of doom.

Xaviera spoke up leisurely: "You've seen the surveillance video, haven't you? As Miss Drew's biological son, don't you have something to say about your mother's death?"

"Listen to what Jenny Green is saying—she killed Miss Drew, yet it seems that Mr. Drew is on quite good terms with her, doesn't it? If Miss Drew knew that her son was so close to the murderer, she would be heartbroken!"

Boyd Drew appeared indifferent, but Jenny Green looked as if she had been struck by lightning.

"Xaviera! What are you trying to do? Shut up!"

Xaviera didn't pay any attention, calmly saying, "Did I say something wrong? Doesn't it seem strange to everyone? Mr. Drew's mother was killed by Jenny Green, yet he is not grieving or angry. If it weren't for his cold-hearted nature, I'd even doubt that Boyd was Miss Drew's biological son."

the other hand, Mrs. Mamet seems so accusatory of her husband, Caleb... Hiss!"

Xaviera blinked: "Mrs. Mamet has been accusing Caleb from the beginning and even helped Boyd fight for his inheritance. Is it because she feels guilty for killing Miss Drew back then?"

"Mr. Drew, it's one thing for you to fight for your inheritance, but getting so close to the one who killed your mother, it's as if you have no conscience at all!"

Boyd Drew's eyes deepened.

Jenny Green's face contorted with anger, "Xaviera! Don't try to turn Boyd against me!"

Boyd was her biological son!

She had endured for twenty years, not acknowledging her son. Now that they could finally call each other by their rightful titles, Xaviera insisted on labeling them as enemies, forcing them apart.

That damn woman! I won't let her off!
