Novel Chapter 511

511 Chapter 511: Daily Roast of Anna Campbell

Anna's gaze was cold, and although Xaviera was dressed simply, she exuded an extraordinary aura. Her eyebrows and eyes didn't resemble her mother's, but she was strikingly similar to her mother's stunning and talented sister, Nina Hughes.

Women like Xaviera could shine even if they were in the dirt.

Jealousy suddenly surged in Anna's heart. She reined in her emotions and feigned enthusiasm: "Xaviera, welcome home. From now on, we can live together."

Xaviera was speechless; this tone made her feel as if she were the one who had been picked up, and it was a blessing to be accepted by the Campbell family?

She showed a light and indifferent expression, scoffing: "Ha! Let me live with you? Anna, you're not Miss Campbell either. Why should I live with you? Now that I'm back in the Campbell family, I am Miss Campbell. So ... do you still want to stay in the Campbell family?"

As soon as the words fell, it was as though a cold wind blew through the living room. Immediately, the servants lowered their heads in trepidation, realizing that this unfamiliar young Miss was the Campbell family's biological daughter they were searching for in Liban.

Anna was not the real daughter of the Campbell couple.

Mrs. Campbell glared at Xaviera furiously and said: "What are you talking about, Xaviera? Just because you came back, why should Anna leave? After all, she has lived in the Campbell family for so many years and is your sister. From now on, you should respect her and not bring the rogue attitude you've learned outside to the Campbell family!"

Xaviera innocently replied, "Rogue? How am I rogue? Mrs. Campbell, you've said that I am your biological daughter and Anna is the one who was switched and replaced me. Besides, I heard that Anna is just the daughter of a servant!

Mrs. Campbell was burning with anger.

Xaviera continued calmly, “Now that I am back in the Campbell family, Anna should return to her biological parents. Or does Mrs. Campbell believe that Anna will be Miss Campbell forever? Just because the Campbell family is wealthy, will she abandon her real parents and pretend not to know?” Mrs. Campbell’s face turned red with anger, but she didn’t know how to refute it.

Before Mrs. Campbell could say anything, Xaviera nodded and said: “So, the Campbell family teaches their children not to care about their parents’ lives and not to honor their parents. Staying as Miss Campbell is enough, right?”

Mrs. Campbell was so angry that she was almost spitting blood.

This little bitch was really sharp-tongued!

Anna tearfully said, “If my sister wants me to leave, then I...”

“Anna!” Mrs. Campbell urgently interrupted, then continued in a softer tone: “Xaviera, although Anna is not our biological daughter, she has accompanied me for so many years, and we have feelings for her, so we plan to adopt her. You two sisters should get along”

11 Chapter 111 Daily Head of Anna Campbell

With tears in her eyes, Anna said, “Sister, I just want to stay with my parents. I won’t fight with you for anything, all that happened before was a misunderstanding. From now on, I will give in to you and not make Mom sad, so can you stop causing a scene?”

When Anna walked closer, a hint of provocation flashed in her eyes.

What now, Xaviera? Are you angry?

Even if you are then biological daughter, even if you come back, it won’t change the fact that their beloved daughter is still her. Nothing will change!

In her heart, Anna looked forward to Xaviera losing her temper. As long as she made a scene, everyone would think she was unreasonable and not worthy of being Miss Campbell.

But to her surprise, Naviera just smiled slightly: "Sure!"

Anna's smile froze on her face, and she stared at Xaviera in disbelief.

Xaviera said casually, "Miss Campbell, I'm not making a fuss, I'm just stating the facts. Since you're already adopted by the Campbell family, and our parents agree to keep you here, I, of course, won't object. It's just one more person to share our meals. The Campbell family is wealthy, so we can afford it!"

Anna was suddenly furious.

Her anger rushed through her, prompting her to take several deep breaths to suppress her rage before she said. "Sister, let me take you on a tour of the house."

Xaviera nodded, "Alright."

512 Chapter 512: Holy City Russell Family

At this moment, in the Mamet Corporation. 1

Caleb Mamet was holding his phone, watching a video. He had installed a monitoring device on Xaviera's necklace, so he could see everything she saw.

He smiled slightly. The Campbell family had underestimated Xaviera, thinking she would be easy to manipulate.

Moreover...Adrian Campbell's attempts to hire someone for murder wasn't over yet!

At this time, Sean Price knocked and entered, reporting on work matters. Then with a serious face, he said, "President, I have investigated the matter of the Hughes sisters, but many things have been hidden by the Hughes family."

"Hmm."

"However, I did find a few clues. Actually, the relationship between Mrs. Campbell, Nidya Hughes, and her sister Nina Hughes is not good. It's not like the deep sisterly love in the rumors. Although they are biological sisters, they did not live together when they were young."

"Mrs. Campbell grew up in the Hughes family, while Mrs. Nina Hughes lived with her mother in the Holy City's Russell family. After Mrs. Hughes went missing, the Russell family had been searching for her. Unfortunately, Mrs. Hughes died at a young age, and the Russell family never found her."

"Nidya has an indifferent relationship with her sister but still brought her sister into the Campbell family. I think there must be other reasons besides Adrian. Otherwise, why would they all move to Libanan?"

Caleb Mamet's expression was indifferent: "Aristocratic family, Holy City's Russell family?"

At the Campbell Villa.

Xaviera followed Anna to her room and narrowed her eyes slightly.

Although she hadn't lived in a villa when she was young, she had been living in the Lowen Clubhouse since marrying Caleb. Usually, the second and third floors were for the master and guests, while the ground floor and basement were for the servants. Coincidentally, the Campbell family had arranged for her to stay in the basement.

Anna's face was gentle, "Mom and Dad, I had already prepared a room and even personally decorated it. I think my sister will like it."

Mr. Campbell and Mrs Campbell had looks of affection towards her, "Anna is not only clever but also considerate.

When they looked at Xaviera, they had an impatient expression, "If you need anything, just tell the servants, and they will prepare it for you. There are some rules for living here."

Xaviera only smiled and followed Anna to her room in the basement.

The Campbell Villa was huge, and there were many rooms in the basement. Xaviera's room was in a corner of the basement. Although it was a bit remote, the Campbell family thought it was much better than where she had lived before.

Anna pushed open the door, and because the room was in the basement, the lights were always on. However, the lighting was dim, which gave a depressing feeling. Who could have thought that the Campbell family's biological daughter would live in such a room?

Anna smiled, "Sister, Nanny Crabtree's room is right next door. If you need anything, you can just ask her.

"Nanny Crabtree?"

Anna replied, "Yes, she is our family's old servant."

Xaviera raised her eyebrows, a foster daughter lived in the largest room in the villa, but the biological daughter was only suitable to live in the basement?

Anna arranged her room here for her own selfish reasons, but the Campbell couple had allowed it. This showed that they didn't take Xaviera seriously.

No well—educated family would have their daughter live with their servants. Wouldn't this ruin the Campbell family's reputation if it were known?

However, the Campbell family thought everything was as it should be. They seemed to think that allowing her to live in their home was already a great favor.

Anna's mouth curved upwards, "Sister, do you like it here? But don't bring your things from before. Mom said your old place was too dirty. She is afraid of germs, so she had them all thrown away. You won't hold a grudge, right?"

Xaviera scoffed.

Anna thought someone like Xaviera, who came from a slum, would be excited to have a clean and spacious room and would eagerly agree.

However, what could Anna be proud of? In terms of blood ties, Xaviera was the real daughter of the Campbell family.

Xaviera smiled, "It's okay, but I'd like to look at the other rooms."

Anna's expression froze, and she was a little flustered, "What's wrong with this place? There's nothing to see."

Xaviera pretended to be innocent, "Isn't it allowed? Didn't you say before that if I wasn't satisfied, I could switch? Or were you just saying that?"

"You... you can!"

513 Chapter 513: I Want Your Room!

Xaviera Evans rolled her eyes at her, "What are you waiting for? Let's go!"

.... Anna Campbell's face darkened.

This little bitch was treating her like a servant, daring to order her around.

Anna Campbell led Xaviera Evans through the basement, passing by several empty rooms, "Little sister. what do you think of these rooms?"

"Tsk, why do I have to stay in the basement? Even though I've never lived in a mansion, I know that basements are usually for servants. The master's quarters are on the second and third floors. Your Campbell family is really strange, actually preferring to live in the basement."

Anna Campbell furrowed her brows, “Little sister, you’ve misunderstood. Mom and dad don’t stay in the basement. Do you want them to stay there? That’s inappropriate.”

Xaviera Evans glanced at her coldly, “Oh, so mom and dad don’t want to stay in the basement, but why do you want me to? Do you like living in the basement?”

“As the noble lady of the Campbell family, if I were to live in the basement, wouldn’t that imply that all the Campbells prefer to live in the basement?”

The atmosphere suddenly became awkward.

Xaviera Evans nonchalantly said, “If the Campbell family really prefers to live in the basement, big sister, show me if there are any other good rooms down there. I won’t settle for this one.”

“It’s strange that a family like ours would actually prefer living in the basement!”

Anna Campbell’s face became even more ugly as she hurriedly retorted, “Little sister, what nonsense are you talking about? How could the Campbell family possibly like living in the basement?” Xaviera Evans paused in her steps and sneered, “Since you don’t like it, big sister... why did you bring me to the basement? Do you think I’m not worthy to be the Campbell family’s daughter, or are you jealous of my identity and want to target me by putting the real Campbell daughter in the basement?” Anna Campbell suddenly choked up, “...”

Xaviera Evans blinked, “If that’s not the case, why would you put me here?”

Anna Campbell’s gaze turned cold. This little bitch was really hard to deal with. Being able to return to the Campbell family was already her good fortune, but she still wasn’t satisfied?

Anna Campbell suppressed her anger and clenched her teeth, “But... all the rooms on the second floor are occupied.”

“Can’t I have a look?” Xaviera Evans lifted her eyes coldly, “You just said you’d show me around the house. Why not now?”

Anna Campbell suppressed her anger and nodded, “Fine, fine. Little sister, follow me.”

The two of them went upstairs.

The rooms on the second floor were spacious and bright, worlds apart from the basement.

513 Chapter 513: I Want Your Room!

Anna Campbell adopted the attitude of the host and introduced, “Here is mom and dad’s bedroom, as well as the study and walk-in closet, etc. There are also two servant rooms on the side for personal attendants to mom and dad. So, the second floor really doesn’t have any more rooms.”

Xaviera Evans nonchalantly replied, “It’s alright. There’s still the third floor.”

“Uh... well...” Anna Campbell’s mouth twitched slightly, but she thought that even if Xaviera Evans liked her room, she couldn’t take it away. Mom and dad would never agree.

Anna Campbell casually said, “All right, little sister, follow me upstairs.”

When they arrived on the third floor, Xaviera Evans headed straight for a room

. She had seen it during a live stream last time and knew that this was Anna Campbell’s room. The luxurious decoration, princess-like furnishings, and all the expensive ornaments—even the most ordinary desk was custom-made and worth tens of thousands of dollars.

Compared to the basement rooms, this room was on another level—a place worthy of the Campbell family’s daughter. It was apparent that the Campbell couple treasured Anna and pampered her like their own child.

Xaviera Evans looked around, admiring the luxurious decoration and good taste of the room. She nodded. “I’ll take this one!”

Anna Campbell's eyes widened, "Little sister, this... this is my room! The third floor originally had many rooms, but mom and dad thought my room was too small, so they combined the remaining rooms to make a walk-in closet and study for me. The only other room here is occupied by big brother. There are no other rooms."

"You want to stay in my room, but I can't move all those things out of there right away, so..."

Xaviera Evans interrupted her sharply, "Can't you understand human language? I want this room!" Anna Campbell's eyes suddenly reddened, "Little sister, how could you...?"

514 Chapter 514: Successfully Snatching Away Anna Campbell's Room

"What's all this arguing about!" At this time, Mr. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell went upstairs, and Mrs. Campbell spoke impatiently, "Has the room been arranged?"

Xaviera Evans did not say a word, and Anna Campbell spoke out with grievance, "Mom, my sister... she doesn't like the room I set up for her, she... she wants my room, but I..."

The Campbell couple exchanged glances, then glared at Xaviera viciously, "Isn't there already a room arranged for you? Why do you have to take your sister's?"

Xaviera sneered, Anna had just been gnashing her teeth in anger, but now she acted weak in front of the Campbell couple.

If she were just an ordinary child, she would definitely be heartbroken by her parent's disdain and might even leave the Campbell family, but she was Xaviera Evans, whoever tried to harm her would pay the price.

Xaviera raised her eyes, "Mrs. Campbell, do you really disagree with me living in this room?"

"Anna is so considerate, she had already arranged a room for you before you even entered the door, yet you turned around and tried to take her room! How can you be so unreasonable!"

Mrs. Campbell frowned, feeling that her own daughter was really lacking in humility.

Xaviera helplessly said, “Fine, since you won’t let me live here, I’ll go live in the basement right now, but if this gets out, people will know that the Campbell family’s daughter is living in the basement, I don’t know what they would think.”

Mrs. Campbell’s expression changed, and Mr. Campbell was puzzled, “Living in the basement?”

Xaviera had a wronged look on her face, “Yes, the room my sister arranged for me is in the basement, and the maid’s room is next door. My sister says there are no empty rooms on the second and third floors, and those empty rooms have been made into her wardrobe, so I have to live in the basement. I thought you knew, or else why wouldn’t you let me live in Anna’s room.”

“I originally thought it was because my sister didn’t like me, so she hid this from you when arranging my room in the basement, but it turns out you all knew. Maybe this is the rule of the Campbell family, that the biological daughter can only live in the basement, while an adopted daughter can live on the spacious and bright third floor”

“Actually, I don’t really care where I live, but if this gets out, it won’t be good for the Campbell family’s reputation. People will think the Campbell family has no sense of discipline, but since you feel this way, I’ll just live in the basement,

Mr. Campbell hurriedly called out to her, “Walt!”

Mr. Campbell glared at Anna, then spoke sternly, “Anna, pack up your things now, and let Xaviera live here from now on!”

Anna’s eyes suddenly reddened, and she cried with grievance, “Dad! Alright! I’ll move now

This dainn Xaviera' She had been gone for twenty years, why did she take her things as soon as she came back?

She just moved in and took away her room, would it be even more excessive in the future?

Mrs. Campbell looked heartbroken and tried to persuade, "Xaviera, there are no vacancies on this floor, so just temporarily live in the basement, it's still much better than the room you used to live in before, why..

Mrs. Campbell didn't think there was anything wrong with letting Xaviera live in the basement, but rather felt that it suited this daughter well since she came from a slum.

"The basement is indeed better than the old neighborhood where I lived, but...

Xaviera paused for a moment, and continued, "But I'm now the daughter of the Campbell family, if it weren't for the mix-up back then, the person who should have been living in this room would have been me, maybe Mrs Campbell wouldn't even know Anna. And now Mrs. Campbell thinks I'm not worthy of living in this room? Do you think Anna is worthy?"

"Besides, she's just an adopted daughter, living in the largest and most luxurious room in the whole villa, while I, your biological daughter, have to live in the basement, do you think that's appropriate?"

"After all, the Campbell family is an aristocratic one. If people find out that the Campbell family doesn't know the difference between status, won't the other upper-class families laugh at us, and won't it harm the company's interests?"

Upon hearing this, everyone's brows furrowed.

Mrs. Campbell clenched her teeth and raised her hand to slap Xaviera.

Mr. Campbell quickly grabbed her hand, stopping her action, “Xaviera is right, Anna, how could you arrange for your sister to live in the basement? You can’t be so unruly in the future!”

Anna was already angry, and upon hearing Mr. Campbell’s reprimand, her tears immediately fell.

dy angry, and upon hearing Mr. Campbe

515 Chapter 515: The Campbell Family is Really Ridiculous!

Mr. Campbell spoke sternly: “Xaviera is right in every word. If this matter is known by outsiders, they will definitely mock the Campbell family for having no discipline. Wouldn’t it disgrace our family’s reputation?”

Mrs. Campbell still refused to accept it, “What’s there to fear? They don’t even know that Xaviera is our biological daughter. Why should we put Anna through this?”

Xaviera sneered, looking at her own biological mother, who favored Anna before her very eyes.

Is it because she had been lost outside and never received any etiquette training, while Anna was raised as a top noble lady by Mrs. Campbell, that she refused to acknowledge her own biological daughter?

Mr. Campbell spoke sharply: “Although outsiders think that Xaviera is an adopted daughter, allowing her to live in the basement, close to the servants, is this the way the Campbell family educates their children?”

“You should know how developed the internet is right now; even small matters can get widely spread. If it’s known that we let Xaviera live in the basement, people will say we mistreat our daughter! They will also say that Anna is jealous by nature.”

Upon hearing how Anna would also be affected, Mrs. Campbell stopped objecting.

Xaviera leaned against the wall, challenging Anna: “Sister, you’d better start moving out now!”

Anna looked at her with teary eyes, "You..."

"What do you mean 'you'? Hurry up and pack up, I still need to move in!" Xaviera looked around the room, "Take all your belongings with you; I'll throw anything left behind away later. Don't blame me if something's missing!"

Anna gritted her teeth in anger, "Fine, I... I'll pack up now."

"Mr. and Mrs. Campbell." Xaviera suddenly recalled something, "Anna told me earlier that there weren't any rooms left on the second and third floors, so she made me stay in the basement. If Miss Campbell still stays upstairs after moving out, wouldn't that mean she was targeting me on purpose just now?"

Anna's face reddened in anger.

Did Xaviera want her to live in the basement now?

Mr. Campbell furrowed his brow and left, discontented.

Seeing him leave, Mrs. Campbell immediately shouted, "Xaviera! Have you had enough? Since you appeared, nothing good has happened. You're just a wild girl; what right do you have to compete with Anna! Anna, don't cry, come with Mom!"

Anna nodded, hesitated, and turned around, "Sister, don't blame mom. If you need to blame someone, blame me. Mom is just trying to look out for me and scolded you a few times. For the sake of family harmony, can we just stop this and live peacefully as sisters?"

515 Chapter 515. The Campbell Family is Really Ridiculous!

Xaviera rolled her eyes and slammed the door shut.

She took a tour of the room, and the more she saw, the more she liked it. She then instructed the servants to throw out all of Anna's belongings.

After that, she lay comfortably on the bed.

Suddenly, there was a strange sound from the window. Xaviera jumped up.

A man climbed in through the window, entered the bedroom with quick agility, and glanced around the room with a faint smile, “Mrs. Evans seems to be quite content!”

Xaviera gave him a cheeky smile, “Caleb, the respectable CEO of the Mamet Corporation, is actually sneaking in through windows like a common thief now?”

The man appeared indifferent, “The Campbell family has gone to pick someone up.”

Xaviera raised an eyebrow, “So they think Adrian can get out now?”

Adrian had hired thugs to commit murder, but if she appealed, he would surely end up in prison for life. That’s why the Campbell family hastily recognized Xaviera, hoping she’d admit it was only a joke between siblings and that she wouldn’t pursue the matter any further, thus resolving the issue.

Caleb spoke dismissively, “They proved that you are the daughter of the Campbell family, and Adrian is your brother. The two of you were just joking around. With the Campbell family smoothing things over, Adrian will indeed be released soon.”

Xaviera smiled, knowing Caleb must have a backup plan.

“However, there’s still me in that car.” Caleb revealed a meaningful smile.

Xaviera suddenly realized.

That’s right, Caleb was in that car too!

If Caleb didn’t want to settle, Adrian still couldn’t be released!

The man slowly approached and stroked her delicate collarbone, his fingers moving down her slender neck, where the necklace with a hidden camera lay.

He sneered, “The Campbell family is truly ridiculous!”

“Indeed, ridiculous! They dare to show me their power as soon as I step inside. If I leak this out, will they still have face to mix with the upper class?”

516 Chapter 516: Making Decisions for the Granddaughter

Xaviera Evans

sneered, "Only Mr. Campbell could be considered clever, but his kind attitude towards me is just for the sake of the Campbell family's reputation. As for that Mrs. Campbell, she's hopelessly foolish and can't help but be hostile towards me. I can't understand why." 1

Caleb Mamet lowered his eyes.

Actually, he also didn't understand why the Campbell couple favored their adopted daughter more?

When their biological daughter returned home, they didn't show any delight. On the contrary, they seemed to regard her as a burden?

Perhaps

it was because they thought Xaviera was just a wild girl who had been wandering outside, while Anna Campbell was a top noble lady they had painstakingly cultivated, or maybe there were other reasons.

Xaviera pursed her lips, "I must make clear my mother's matters. Thus, I—still need to live in the Campbell family for a few days. Plus, I found that this Mrs. Campbell seems to hide some secrets!"

"The previous investigation showed that although Mrs. Campbell and her sister did not grow up together, they are blood sisters after all; hence, they still have a good relationship. If it weren't for her sister, I wouldn't know where I would have ended up. That is to say, it was her sister who saved her biological daughter, and she should be grateful. But she doesn't seem to think so."

"You also investigated that the Hughes family is a wealthy aristocratic family in Lokio; they are an aristocratic family with a hundred years of history. Before the two daughters got married, they never left the house. But look at Mrs. Campbell's aggressive appearance; is she like a daughter from such a family?"

Caleb Mamet's expression remained indifferent, "The Flack family head and his wife have come to Libanan. It seems that they came because of you."

Xaviera's eyes lit up immediately, "They're here!"

“They came to take revenge for you this time, so they plan to hold a banquet and have also invited the Campbell family.”

Xaviera smiled faintly; the Campbell family didn't take advantage of her. Her elder brother and the others came to avenge her! But she's anticipating the dispirited expressions of the Campbell family at the banquet.

At this time, in the Russell family in the Imperial Capital.

“Madam, the Campbell family has found their biological daughter.”

An elegant elderly lady was half-lying on a couch, with her eyes slightly squinted, looking very comfortable.

She slowly opened her eyes, and although she was old, her face had few wrinkles due to proper maintenance. “Has Nidya's child been found?”

11:47

516 Chapter 516: Making Decisions for the Granddaughter

The old lady's eyes turned red, and her voice trembled, “It's been so many years, and she has finally found her child. Hurry up! Call the young masters in the family and go to Libanan with me!”

The servant nodded and hesitated, “Old Madam, though Miss Nidya found her biological daughter, I heard that the Campbell family isn't treating her well. They even arranged a basement room for her, while the adopted daughter stayed in the largest and most luxurious room in the villa. Look at this...”

The old lady's eyes widened.

The servant took a deep breath and continued, “Miss Nidya herself doesn't treat her biological daughter well. The Hughes family is biased, and no one knows how they'll make things difficult for the child.”

The old lady's face was full of anger as she slapped the table fiercely, “This Nidya! She's gone too far! She can't change her nature. That's her biological daughter! How can she be so blind?! That little girl lost her family at birth, yet she ... she has the heart?”

With the old lady furious, the servant reluctantly said, “Old Madam, I think Miss Nidya doesn’t like the child not because she’s been drifting outside since she was little, nor because she despises the child for not having upbringing, unlike a top noble lady, but because...”

Upon hearing these words, the old lady’s tears uncontrollably fell, “Nina...”

“Miss Xaviera saved Miss Xaviera and had her marry a family in Libanan. Later, Miss Xaviera passed away due to illness. Little Xaviera lost her protector and was bullied by the mistress and their illegitimate daughter during her childhood. She almost died in their hands. Then, she finally found her birth parents, but they still treated her poorly. Sigh! Such a pity!”

“I’m going to Libanan now!”

The old lady abruptly stood up, her face gloomy, “My granddaughter finally returned home. Let’s see who dares to bully her? If Nidya still can’t see clearly, I, as the old lady, will stand up for my granddaughter!”

The servant’s heart felt a pang of sourness.

517 Chapter 517: The Sorrow of Yearning

The servant thought that, years ago, Miss Drew had completely severed contact with the elderly lady. Originally, they thought the elderly lady didn’t want to see her daughter again, but they are, after all, flesh and blood. How could she ever let go?

Upon learning that Miss Drew’s biological daughter had gone missing, the elderly lady was always hoping to find her own great-granddaughter. Now that she has finally been found, how could she not go to meet her?

The Campbell Residence in Libanan.

Anna Campbell sat on the sofa, tear stains all over her face and trembling. Mr. Campbell pointed at her and yelled: “You idiot! It was one thing for your brother to stand up for you, but why didn’t you tell him in advance that Caleb Mamet was in the car? By plotting to kill Caleb Mamet, you’re trying to destroy the Campbell family!”

Mrs. Campbell quickly defended Anna, “Stop yelling, what does this have to do with Anna? It wasn’t Anna who asked Adrian to do this. It was Adrian who wanted to stand up for his sister and hired people. If we were to blame anyone, it would be Xaviera Evans. If it weren’t for her causing trouble, how could things have become such a mess, and how could Adrian have been arrested?”

“Adrian has been obedient for over twenty years and never caused any troubles until he encountered Evans, it’s all her fault!”

Xaviera Evans sat in front of a table in the bedroom, a computer before her. The screen showed the surveillance footage of downstairs. Listening to their conversation, she couldn’t help but let out a cold laugh.

Caleb hooked his lips: “Mrs. Mamet, this is a bit improper.”

Xaviera Evans raised an eyebrow, “Who told them to harbor ill will? What I did was to protect myself. After all, the Campbell family has a criminal who hired a hitman, even though they didn’t succeed in hurting me, I’m still terrified. Is there any problem with installing a pinhole camera to prevent any risks?”

The man took a few steps closer, with a slight smile: “Mrs. Mamet, do you want me to forgive the Campbell family?”

Xaviera gave a sly smile.

at the understanding, Caleb casually said: “They will soon be begging me. To retaliate for Mrs. Mamet, of course, I won’t easily let it go.”

Xaviera’s lips curled up, she lowered her head bashfully.

Caleb’s heart suddenly warmed. Mrs. Mamet always acted like a young lady, becoming all flustered from him doing her a little favor.

The next second...

Xaviera lifted her eyes, arrogantly turned up her head, “You don’t think that would be enough to move me? Even without you, there are many people who would stand up for me. I don't need you. I truly am charming, everyone loves me so much. It can't be helped, being too outstanding is a fault."

Caleb: ".."

Man was silent for a moment, pursed his lips slightly, and finally sighed helplessly: "I'm letting Steve Price stay here to protect you."

Xaviera pretended to be reluctant: "Caleb, I will miss you!"

Caleb looked down at her, her eyes full of smiles, and couldn't help but smile gently, "Okay, I will miss you too."

Xaviera Evans waved at him, just as she was about to leave, Caleb grasped her into his arms, startling her with a gasp.

She blushed, "What are you doing? I said I would miss you, it's our first time living separately after marriage. If you miss me too much, Caleb, why don't we ...

"Mrs. Mamet, I will go first, you can call me."

"I

Xaviera choked up instantly: "How can a phone call make up for your longing for me? Without me by your side, every day must be like a year to you!"

She gave a sly smile: "Or we could scope the nearby house."

"I will come again tomorrow."

Xaviera became stern, staring into Caleb's teasing eyes.

Even if he couldn't hear Xaviera's inner voice at this moment, he knew what she was thinking. She just wanted him to stay so they could regain their sense of taste.

Caleb saw Xaviera frowning, looking troubled, and he gave a helpless smile, "Okay."

Xaviera looked up, a little confused, just as she was about to ask what he meant by 'okay', she felt a warm touch on her lips, "Rest well, the Campbell family won't bother you for now."

Xaviera quickly took a bite of the apple on the table. The sweet taste was exactly wonderful. She had finally regained her sense of taste.

"Caleb, I don't think so. The Campbell family knows that I was in the same car with you and might come directly to me, asking for me to intercede for Adrian Campbell. Therefore, they will definitely cause trouble."

518 Chapter 518: Not Killing People but Setting Fire is Allowed

Caleb Mamet paused for a few seconds and gave an enigmatic smile: "You will know what's going on in a moment"

Xaviera did not understand.

She always felt that Caleb Mamet was up to no good!

Caleb Mamet and Steve Price left the villa. As they were about to leave, they heard a rustling sound coming from the Campbell Villa, followed by Anna Campbell's sobbing voice: "Father, don't be angry anymore. It's all my fault. I took Miss Campbell's identity, which made my sister unhappy. I'll leave right now!"

Then Mrs. Campbell shouted to stop her: "No, Anna, why should you go? If anyone should leave, it's Xaviera!"

Mr. Campbell looked gloomy: "Adrian hasn't been released yet, you must not provoke Xaviera anymore. If she changes her mind, it will be troublesome! Anna, go to the basement for now."

"Father!"

Mr. Campbell was impatient: "You heard what Xaviera said. If you don't go to the basement, it means that the previous arrangement of giving her a basement room was deliberately targeting her. If you anger her and she badmouths us in front of Mr. Caleb Mamet, will your brother be released?"

Thinking of her son suffering in the detention center, Mrs. Campbell quickly shut up.

Anna sobbed: “Fine, I... I’ll move to the basement now. Mom and Dad, I didn’t do it on purpose... I’m sorry.”

Caleb Mamet turned to Steve Price: “Did you hear that?”

Steve Price looked up, hesitated for a moment, and then gave a thumbs up, “Hmm, the lady is really capable!”

Caleb Mamet couldn’t help but laugh, curious about how the Price brothers, who were born from the same womb, could have such a gap in intelligence. So he reminded him, “Anna moving to the basement, you don’t understand?”

Steve Price suddenly realized and was overjoyed: “You’re finally going to deal with this scheming bitch, Anna Campbell. How do you want her to die, boss? I guarantee not to leave a trace!”

“...” Caleb

Mamet frowned: “I’ve told you before, don’t always talk about killing and violence. Can you not be so violent?”

Steve Price scratched his head awkwardly, remembering that he was no longer a deputy officer, and Anna was not an enemy on the battlefield, so he shouldn’t kill.

Then he asked with a flattering face, “Boss, then what should I do?”

Caleb Mamet said leisurely, “Instead of killing, you can set a fire.”

Steve Price: “...”

518 Chapter 518: Not Killing People but Setting Fire is Allowed

So high-minded, saying no to killing and violence, but then wanting to burn someone alive!

Anna sat on the living room couch, crying for a while, and then went to the basement pitifully.

Mrs. Campbell was distressed, “Anna has been pampered since childhood, and I can’t bear to see her suffer. This Xaviera just came back and drove Anna to the basement... This child is really cruel. How did I give birth to such a daughter!”

Mr. Campbell was helpless.

Mrs. Campbell cried continually, “I only asked Xaviera to live in the basement temporarily. Our villa in Libanan is small, and there are no other empty rooms. But as soon as we return to Lokio, I will arrange a new room for her. Xaviera insists on taking Anna’s room. She’s too ignorant!”

“Someone come! Put out the fire! There’s a fire!”

Before Mrs. Campbell could finish her sentence, there was a terrified scream from the servants in the distance.

At this time, Xaviera was watching a TV series upstairs, and she heard the commotion downstairs.

Was there a fire?

If she heard correctly, it was Anna’s room that caught fire. No wonder Caleb Mamet said they wouldn’t bother her just now. It turns out he had found something for the Campbell family to deal with.

Xaviera smiled faintly and walked downstairs with her head held high.

In the living room, a blackened Anna was curled up in Mrs. Campbell’s arms, sobbing.

The servants whispered in a corner: “This is retribution. Who asked her to target the real Campbell family’s daughter? That’s why you should never do bad things.”

The butler hurriedly scolded, “All of you shut up!”

Although he didn’t allow everyone to discuss the matter, he also agreed with the servants’ words in his heart. How could the basement have caught fire for no reason?

And no other rooms were affected, only Anna's room caught fire. This might indeed be retribution.

"Why did you come downstairs? Are you here to watch your sister be laughed at? You don't miss your sister at all in your heart!" Mrs. Campbell scolded.

519 Chapter 519: If She is Unkind, Don't Blame Me for Being Unjust

Mrs. Campbell looked at Anna crying sadly, her heart aching and tears flowing. Much to her irritation, she noticed Xaviera Evans standing at the staircase with a look of indifference.

"You're a jinx! It's all your fault! That room was originally yours, but you insisted on taking Anna's room and forcing her to move into the basement. Anna was harmed because of you!"

The room went silent as her words fell.

Nanny Crabtree, an outsider, could hardly bear to listen. Although Miss Drew had been missing for twenty years, she was still the Campbell family's daughter. Besides, it's not her fault that the basement suddenly caught fire.

But as a servant, she dared not criticize Mrs. Campbell. Afraid that Evans would be wronged, she was about to speak up on her behalf when—

Evans suddenly looked aggrieved: "What does the basement fire have to do with me? Is it okay if my room catches fire, but if Anna's room catches fire, it's my fault? Instead of blaming me, perhaps Mrs. Campbell should send someone to investigate where the fire started to prevent another disaster."

"By the way, Mrs. Campbell, you just reminded me that the room was arranged for me by Anna. Now that it suddenly caught fire, did she do something in the room and want to set it ablaze to harm me? If so, the matter of the adopted daughter plotting against the Campbell family's daughter would become a major issue."

Evans then grinned: "Fortunately, I wasn't the one who got burnt, so Anna doesn't need to bear the blame of attempting to harm the Campbell family's daughter."

Anna's face flushed red with anger.

“It was you who started the fire!” Mrs. Campbell yelled.

Evans feigned innocence: “Mrs. Campbell, what are you talking about? I’ve been upstairs the whole time. Nanny Crabtree and the other servants can testify. How could I have gone down to the basement to start a fire?”

Nanny Crabtree confirmed: “Madam, Miss Drew has been upstairs the whole time and hasn’t down or even been to the basement.”

gone

Upon hearing this, everyone was indignant. The adopted daughter’s room caught fire, but the biological daughter was blamed? Everyone had witnessed Miss Drew staying in her room; how could she be held responsible?

Miss Drew was right – Anna arranged the basement room; perhaps she was envious of Miss Drew’s status and sabotaged the room. She didn’t expect it to catch fire soon after entering, but it wasn’t Miss Drew’s fault – it was her own fault!

Evans glanced at the mother and daughter and sneered: “You two can continue crying. I won’t disturb you.”

“You!”

Mrs. Campbell’s face contorted with hatred.

519 Chapter 519: If She is Unkind, Don’t Blame Me for Being Unjust

“Xaviera! Even if you didn’t start the fire, you’re still the cause of all the misfortune in this house! When you were gone, the family was peaceful. But as soon as you returned, so many things happened – now Anna’s room catches fire! Who knows what terrifying things might happen in the future!”

Evans stopped in her tracks.

It was true that Caleb Mamet ordered the fire, but he wouldn't leave any trace behind. Why make such a scene? If flammable materials were found in the room, wouldn't that make them suspicious?

There was only one reason – the room itself was already problematic. It contained many flammable items, and it was arranged by Anna.

Anna was quite scheming indeed!

Since Anna showed no mercy, Xaviera Evans couldn't be blamed for being ruthless herself. Xaviera turned and spoke coldly, "If Mrs. Campbell insists the fire had something to do with me, why not call the police and have them check why the basement caught fire for no reason?"

As soon as she finished speaking, the fire chief walked over, "Mrs. Campbell, we found residual flammable powder on the floor of the basement room. Moreover, there were many flammable items stored in the corner. If the indoor temperature reaches a certain degree, they will catch fire. Please don't scatter such powder on the ground in the future."

"This time it was just this room that burned, and there were no casualties. If you mess around like this again, the whole villa could be swallowed by the flames!"

Anna's face turned rigid.

Mrs. Campbell was stunned for a moment, then looked at Anna incredulously, "Anna, you..."

"The chief said it himself. Who do you think had the opportunity to scatter flammable powder in the room and pile up flammable items? The fact is right in front of you, whether you believe it or not is up to Mrs. Campbell's own discretion!"

520 Chapter 520: Eyes Filled with the Light of Benefits

Xaviera Evans coldly stared at Anna Campbell, This room was originally meant for me. If I had actually moved in, even if I didn't get burned to death, I w ould be disfigured. Then the Campbells would be all yours, Miss Campbell, how cruel and ruthless you are!”

The servants looked on with contempt.

Miss Campbell was too much. Fortunately, Miss Drew didn't move into the basement, or the consequences would be unimaginable.

“I...I...”

Seeing Anna Campbell stammering and looking guilty, Mrs. Campbell already understood in her heart.

When Anna arranged the room, she sprinkled flammable powder on the floor and placed many flammable items. If Xaviera had moved in, then...

No! It can't be! Anna is so gentle and kind, how could she do such a thing?

Even if it really was Anna who did it, it was because Xaviera provoked her first, so it was all Xaviera's fault!

Xaviera no longer paid attention to them and turned to go upstairs.

At this moment, a male voice came from behind.

Xaviera turned around, and Mr. Campbell looked serious, “I heard that you know Elijah Flack. The Flack family will host a banquet tomorrow, and you should attend with us!”

Xaviera appeared calm. Although Mr. Campbell was polite to her, his eyes were full of interest. It didn't matter to him who was his biological daughter; all he cared about was who could bring him more benefits.

She nodded with a smile, “Alright! I do know Elijah Flack. He even introduced a role to me before!”

Upon hearing this, Mr. Campbell's gloomy face somewhat relaxed. Although he liked Anna more, Xaviera was not entirely useless.

Mr. Campbell: "Alright, prepare yourself and dress up nicely for tomorrow. You are now the Campbell family's daughter, and you must not bring disgrace to us at the Flack family's banquet."

"I heard that Mr. Caleb Mamet will also attend..."

As soon as these words came out, the whole room quieted down.

Mr. Campbell hesitated for a moment, speaking softly, "Adrian plays pranks and jokes with you. Although you don't mind, Mr. Mamet was also in the car that day, so he might have thought that Adrian hired someone to kill him, so..."

"I think you are familiar with Mr. Mamet since you all rode in the same car. Can you say a few good words, have him drop the matter, and forgive your brother?"

520 Chapter 520: Eyes Filled with the Light of Benefits

Xaviera looked troubled, "Of course I want to save Mr. Campbell, but everyone knows that Mr. Mamet is bad-tempered. At that time, Mr. Campbell sent so many people to chase and kill us, and someone even attacked Mr. Mamet. If it wasn't for Mr. Mamet's assistant who helped us escape, we might not have survived. So, it won't be easy to persuade him."

Mr. Campbell's face was grave, knowing that what Xaviera said was true. He gritted his teeth, "Why don't you tell Mr. Mamet that as long as he agrees to reconcile, our Campbell family will give him a gift in return, hoping that he can accept our gratitude."

Xaviera nodded with a smile, "Alright, I'll talk to Mr. Mamet tomorrow!"

Mr. Campbell let out a sigh of relief, taking out a card from his pocket, "Xaviera, this card is for you. There's 200,000 dollars inside. Buy whatever you like, and if it's not enough, just ask dad for more."

Xaviera smiled sweetly, casually taking the card, "Thank you."

She then bounced up the stairs.

As soon as Xaviera was out of sight, Mrs. Campbell couldn't contain her anger, "Why did you give her 200,000 dollars and take her to the Flack family's banquet?! She's just a wild girl! Taking her to an upper-class banquet, do you know how embarrassing that would be?! Can our family even compete with the Imperial Capital Flack family?!"

Mr. Campbell frowned in displeasure, "If we were still in Lokio City, it wouldn't matter. But now that we're in Libanan, everyone knows we've come to find our daughter. If we only take Anna to the banquet and not Xaviera, the Flack family will surely think our family lacks manners. Aren't we lowering our status by not having our biological daughter present but having our adopted daughter at the event instead?"

the event instead?"

Mrs. Campbell reluctantly said, "But... But you still gave Xaviera so much money. She could've just picked something from Anna's old clothes. They're all like new; no one would be able to tell the difference. She's not some top noble lady, so what's the use of dressing so well!"

Mr. Campbell sighed helplessly, "Now we need Xaviera's help. If we don't treat her properly, how do we ask her to plead with Mr. Mamet? Don't you want to save our son?"
