Chapter 1141

"I watched the video, it was an accident."

"Okay, it was an accident. Then let me ask you again, what about food poisoning at school?" Bianca asked.

Seeing that Anne did not speak, contempt flashed across Bianca's face. "There are some things you don't know, but I know, maybe... It has something to do with Anthony?"

"Impossible!" Anne's first reaction was to refute. "Anthony wouldn't do that!"

"Why not? That's your old lover. Anthony feels uncomfortable!" Bianca provoked discord. "And the situation on the internet is intensifying now. I don't believe that there is no one behind it."

"People these days just like to add insult to injury." Anne's face was cold.

Bianca laughed. "Are you so naive? If you insist on seeing things this way, go ahead. It's like you insist on believing that there's nothing between Anthony and me and finally seeing me kissing him."

Anne stood there with cold hands and feet.

After Bianca left, it took her a while to feel her legs, and she sat down on the sofa.

Leonora came in. "Ms. Vallois, are you okay?"

"The next time you see Bianca, throw her out," Anne said.

"Yes." Leonora went out.

Chris ate, but he did not leave. He continued to stand and then asked, "Mama, did something happen at Daddy's school?"

Anne was stunned for a moment when Chris asked this. Charlie also ran over, waiting for Mama's answer.

Although they were two years old, they had access to computers and mobile phones. They were also very smart, so it was easy for them to find out.

"There is a problem, but the principal will take care of it, so you don't have to worry." Anne did not hide it from them and had to communicate with them if there was any problem.

"There is a lot of chatter on the internet about food poisoning. Will anyone die?" asked Charlie.

"There are a lot of big brothers and sisters that I know..." Chloe's little face was worried.

"Mama went to the hospital today, and the dean said that the situation has stabilized, so it's okay," Anne said.

"Is Daddy Lucas okay?" Chris asked.

"He's fine," Anne said.

"How do you know?" A low and menacing voice came from behind.

Anthony looked gloomy. "So you went to look for that man?"

"I said I didn't." Anne felt that his possessiveness had risen to an untouchable level, which would make the atmosphere even scarier. "I told you that we bumped into each other at the hospital. What do I have to say for you to believe me?"

Anthony stared at her with black eyes, paranoid and cold.

Anne felt terribly cold.

Anthony did not calm down because of her explanation, and the hostility spread around.

Just when she felt that her heart was beating so fast that she was about to faint, she heard Anthony's low and cold voice. "Go play football with the children."

After Anne heard those words, her eyelashes trembled uncontrollably, as if her tense nerves were relaxing.

The next second, her hand was caught. She was startled and subconsciously wanted to pull it back.

However, she could not do anything.

Anthony was very strong, and if he grabbed her, as long as he did not let go, she would not be able to break free.

She could not do anything with her weak and fragile hand.

Anne saw that it was Mia and said, “I’m about to go in. Are you on duty?”

“Yes. After Mr. Marwood came out of his study, he went back to his room,” Mia said.

“What time did he get back to the room?” Anne pushed open the door and went in.

“Around eight-thirty.”

It had been more than an hour so far.

Anne bit the bullet, opened the door, and went in.

Mia looked at the closed door, and the trace of respect in her eyes disappeared.

She could tell that there was something wrong with Mr. Marwood and Anne.

Otherwise, why would Anne stand at the door and not go in for a long time? She seemed very nervous.

Anne entered the bedroom, and Anthony was sitting on the sofa, wearing pajamas, obviously just exiting the shower.

He propped his forehead with one hand and closed his eyes tightly as if he did not know that she had entered the bedroom.

She did not expect Anthony’s reaction to be so big.

“Come here. Let me calm down.” Anthony sat on the bed, tilted his head, and looked at her with dark eyes.

Anne understood what he meant by this, and her face turned pale. “No way...”

“Why not? Why?”

“Dr. Brown said that it will take a week to recover,” Anne said.

“Five days, and it’s almost time.”

Anne shook her head in panic and backed away. “No, I can’t take it...”

“Is it too much, or are you unwilling?”

“Wait... wait for a few days, okay?”

“Come here now!”

Anne was going crazy. Why was Anthony so cruel?

Did he not know that her body was still injured?

He could bear it before, but now he could not. Why?

Did she stimulate him? However, to her, it was all trivial matters!

“Didn’t you hear me?”

“Go and calm yourself down! I won’t accompany you!” Anne did not listen to him, but because of his coercion, the resistance in her heart rose.

She turned around and left.

She went around the end of the bed and rushed to the bedroom door.

Out of the corner of her eye, she saw Anthony get off the bed. She was so frightened that she walked even faster!

However, before reaching the door of the bedroom, her arm was seized, and she screamed. “Ah! Let go! Let... Ah!”

She was thrown directly on the bed. It made her dizzy.

Then her wrist was held, making her unable to move.

"Why are you asking so many questions? Just keep observing them."

After hanging up the phone, Mia had a displeased expression on his face. "When I become Mrs. Marwood in the future, let's see if you dare boss me around."

While Anne was working in the office, there was a knock on the door.

It was Leonora who came in. "Ms. Vallois, I brought some snacks. Would you like some?"

Anne raised her eyes and looked over. Juice, snacks, cakes, and various nuts were all her favorite snacks.

It was obvious that the cakes and pastries were not from the office.

"You made these?" Anne asked.

"No, it was sent by the people from the Royal Mansion. Mr. Marwood is so kind to you! When he brought it here, the people at the front desk were all envious," Leonora said.

Anne withdrew her gaze and continued to look at the computer in front of her.

Seeing that she did not respond, Leonora did not know how to react. She was a little embarrassed and left the office automatically.

Anne looked at the afternoon snacks on the coffee table again.

After stabilizing her flustered and nervous self, she headed for the car.

The car left the square and drove into the traffic.

Those roads were already crowded, but when they saw the Rolls Royce approaching, they all moved out of the way. It was as if they were afraid that if they caused a little bit of trouble, they would lose their fortune.

"You look bad. Are you feeling unwell?" Anthony asked.

"No..." After Anne finished speaking, Anthony's big hand grabbed her small hand.

He frowned slightly. "Why is it so cold? Go to the hospital!"

Before Anne could speak, she heard such a cold order.

The driver immediately drove to the hospital.

Anne originally wanted to say nothing was wrong, but she retracted her words.

Anne retreated subconsciously, but she could not hold back. Tears of fear flashed in her eyes. "Don't..."

Anthony withdrew his hand and pulled her into his arms. "What don't you want?"

Anne bit her lip, her lip trembling uncontrollably.

“You don’t like this?”

“No...” Anne’s voice was weak.

“I won’t touch you. Sleep.” Anthony pressed her head to his chest and hugged her.

Anne nestled in his arms, listening to the strong heartbeat from his chest.

She found that Anthony became sensitive and irritable with everything related to her.

She did not dare to ask if it was because of Lucas. She dared not even mention the name of ‘Lucas’.

“Finish your work first before we play. There is no rush!” Charlie said.

“I want to play with Mama!” Chris said.

Anne knew that it had been a while since they came out to play, and Anthony asked them to do various homework in the Royal Mansion. He seemed to have plans to hire someone to come to the Royal Mansion to teach them.

Anne felt that it was too early to do this. After thinking about it, the triplets were so young that homework would not put too much pressure on them.

However, she still promised to play with them.

They went on the street.

Anne could see now that it was much safer and could keep an eye on the three children all the time.

Unlike the last time in the mall, where she was completely passive and helpless.

“Mama, fish!” The triplets stopped in front of a booth.

They looked curiously at the colorful fish inside.

The shopkeeper said, “Thirty dollars per try. If you catch it, it’s yours.”

“This is fun!” Chloe pulled out two hundred dollars from the backpack. “Four people! Change is eighty dollars!”

“Okay!” The shopkeeper gave them eighty dollars in change. While counting the change, he wondered why this child was so good at counting.

"Don't come any closer!" The knife in Lilian's hand glowed coldly, and the tip of the knife poked Anne's neck. "Come any closer, and I'll kill your mother!"

Mia stopped the triplets, not letting them pass.

The three little ones looked at the knife on Mama's neck in fear, their voices trembling with fright. "Ma... Mama..."

"I want to save Mama. Let go of me!"

The three little ones struggled in Mia's hands, and Mia almost could not handle them.

"It's okay, don't be afraid, don't come over, it's okay... Mia, don't let them come over..." Anne was strangled, breathing heavily. "Lilian, you're still alive!"

"I stayed alive, so I could kill you!"

"Don't hurt the children." Anne looked at the struggling triplets and burst into tears.

She felt a pain in her heart.

She could not let them get hurt!

“Don’t worry. The only person I want to kill is you!” Lilian had just finished speaking when bodyguards suddenly jumped out from the side. Some bodyguards protected the triplets and took them away.

“Hurry up and save Mama!” The triplets hurriedly kicked their legs in the arms of the bodyguards.

“Kill her!” Chris called.

“Hurry up and kill her!” Charlie wanted to go up by himself.

Ivan pointed his gun at Lilian. “Let her go, and you might keep your life!”

“Keep my life? When I came to Luton, I didn’t plan on returning alive!” Lilian looked unhinged.

“It wasn’t she who wanted to kill you last time, you should go to Mr. Marwood!” Ivan said.

It was less stressful to talk about killing Mr. Marwood than to say that Mrs. Marwood had an accident.
