Chapter 1211

Why did Anthony have to push Anne so hard?

If she was disobedient, he could use other methods. Did he have to be so ruthless?

Nonetheless, Anthony was the most powerful man in Luton, and his words were final, so who could control him?

Kathryn thought Anne was an exception, and Anthony even got a marriage certificate with Anne directly when Anne lost her memory.

Logically, their relationship should only get better.

No matter what, they should not end up in this situation...

When Kathryn left, Anne was still dwelling in her grief.

She was chained and could not leave the room.

Anthony tried to use forceful methods to restrain Anne and make her completely obedient.

Chapter 1212

When Anne was locked in the apartment and had nowhere to go, the three little ones tried their best to make her appear.

As it was Sunday and there was no class, they used this time in the morning to go out.

The three little ones often went out and were secretly protected by bodyguards, and they were used to it, so they did not take it seriously.

After the three little ones went out, they first went to the residential area, then to Sarah's mansion, and finally to Nigel's company.

After all, if Anne had returned, they would not need to follow the plan.

However, they were shocked to find out that Nigel's company was moving.

Why was the company moving?

The three little ones saw the busy Leonora and ran to her, asking, "Hello, where's the company moving to?"

"Oh, it's you? We're moving to the Archduke Group, Mr. Marwood's company."

Leonora was all smiles when she saw the triplets.

The person from the guardhouse asked, "Where are you going? The bad guys will catch children who run around."

"Don't worry. I'm looking for my brothers," Chloe said and ran out.

Then, she hid in the bushes and walked forward so no one else could see her.

Chloe ran all the way to the sidewalk on the other side of the road and waited at the traffic light with the adults. When the green light came on, she followed the adults.

It was indeed adorable to see the cute little girl walking among the human figures carrying a small pink school bag.

Anyway, Chloe just needed to follow the plan and sneak into Sarah's mansion!

"Ha!" She jumped over the last white line like a little penguin, running along the side of the road with her short little legs.

"Little girl? Little girl?"

Chloe stopped and looked at the middle-aged man hiding in the alley and calling her.

Her big eyes were filled with confusion as she thought, "Is he calling me?"

Chloe thought and walked over.

Charlie and Chris were terrified, and they burst into tears.

Lucas took a step forward. "They're still so young. Why are you doing this? If the child is missing, go and find her quickly! Also, why are the children looking for their mom?

Where is Anne?"

Anthony got up and looked at him coldly. "Mr. Newman, this is my family business, so you'd better leave it alone!"

"What did you do to her?" Lucas could not hold back his anger.

Anthony ignored him and left.

Lucas wanted to rush over but was stopped by the bodyguards.

While Anthony interrogated Charlie and Chris, Ivan already arranged for someone to find Chloe.

The kidnapper drove toward a remote place and only felt at ease when he was away from the busy city. However, he noticed that the ride was strangely quiet.

Why did the child not cry or make noise after getting in the car? This was so unusual!

As soon as he turned around, the kidnapper met Chloe's beautiful big eyes.

"First of all, you shouldn't have immediately said you'll kill me when you called to ask for a ransom."

“So, you’re saying...?” The kidnapper asked shamelessly.

“Besides, Papa didn’t hear my voice, so how could he be sure if you’re not saying nonsense?”

The kidnapper started to have doubts and thought, “She’s right! Would Mr. Marwood believe me since I directly said that? He probably thinks I’m just another lunatic!”

“Call again,” Chloe said.

“B-But, Mr. Marwood answered the call,” the kidnapper said.

“So what?” Chloe did not care. “Papa is not here. What are you afraid of?”

The kidnapper thought about it and agreed, When he picked up the phone to make the call, he glanced at the child again, hoping that she was telling the truth instead of lying to him.

He was a kidnapper, so she should not dare to trick him.

Then, he took a deep breath and dialed the number just now.

The call was connected almost immediately.

The kidnapper said hurriedly, “What I just said is true, so don’t think I’m joking. Your daughter is here with me now!”

Chloe quickly leaned over and screamed

If that were to happen, the house would be seized, the car would be repossessed, and his wife and children would starve.

As John was anxious and desperate, he simply became a kidnapper.

Of course, he knew about the triplets. So, he followed them secretly, looking for an opportunity to kidnap one, and then asked Anne for ransom.

For a child of a wealthy family, they would still be willing to pay 150,000 dollars.

Nonetheless, John never intended to hurt the child. After all, he had his own children, and he just wanted to get some money...

Since Anthony and Anne were so wealthy, it would be easy for them to give him

150,000 dollars.

"Where's your lollipop?" Chloe asked.

John glanced at the little girl, who looked really calm. Then, he took out the lollipop from his pocket and gave it to her.

Chloe looked at the strawberry-flavored lollipop and said, "Help me remove the wrapper."

John peeled off the plastic wrapping from the lollipop.

John had thought carefully before kidnapping Chloe, so he would not be seen on the surveillance.

They appeared passive, but there was a huge net waiting for the kidnapper.

However, after waiting an entire day, no one came to take the box under the bridge.

Ivan stepped forward and reported, “Mr. Marwood, I found the person. He was an employee of Mrs. Marwood’s company. He was laid off because of the acquisition.”

Anthony’s gaze was cruel. “How dare he be so audacious as to kidnap my daughter! He’s digging his own grave!”

“I’ve arranged for people to monitor his neighborhood. As long as John appears, he can’t run away,” Ivan said, and he could not help but sympathize with John.

Indeed, as Anthony said, John’s action was the same as digging his own grave.

“There’s no need to monitor the neighborhood; just control his family.” Anthony turned around and got into the car.

Ivan immediately understood what Anthony meant—Control John’s family and continued monitoring this area.

“Could it be that Ms. Chloe has already planned this?”

“It’s not their plan. They probably improvised it,” Anthony said.

Charlie and Chris had already told him about their plan, and John was not in it.

“Find them as soon as possible,” Anthony ordered.

“Yes, Mr. Marwood!”

After Chloe answered the phone, she sat on the shore angrily, kicking her little feet in the water.

Her chubby legs were like buns.

He kept following her until the entrance of the apartment.

He then watched Kathryn walking in.

Lucas was curious about what this place was. Judging from the area and the type of property, it did not look like it was an apartment that Anthony would pick.

Just when he was suspecting if he had over-thought it, a red car drove out. When the car was waiting for the boom gate to be lifted, he saw a woman on the phone through the half-opened window.

Lucas squinted his eyes a little. 'Isn't that Bianca? Why is she also here?'

"I'm not doing the shoot anymore. Just tell the advertisers directly...I already said I'm not doing the shoot. Do you not understand me? Do you want me to fire you?" Bianca was so pissed that she directly hung up the call.

She had never lashed out at her assistant like that before.

However, could she be blamed?

It had taken her three whole days to restore the apartment to its original state by herself.

Lucas' line of sight landed at the balcony next door, and he was thinking up a plan.

At that moment, Kathryn would certainly be in there, so he could not go over.

If he were to go over, then he could only go over from here.

He turned around and went inside the apartment.

Bianca followed behind him and asked, "Aren't you going to see Anne? Are you already giving up?"

Lucas stood in the living room, took out his phone, and called Levi, "Help me find a piece of steel plate. The length has to be at least three meters long. The width is fine as long as a person can walk on it."

Bianca instantly felt very satisfied when she heard what he said.

After Lucas hung up the call, he turned his head around and looked at her. "You may leave now."

"Alright then. See you." While Bianca walked toward the door, she said, "I don't know what kind of charm Anne has for all of you men to risk everything for her."
