Seeing her afraid, he comforted her, "He won't see me. I sneaked in."

"How...did you come in?" Anne asked, "The door is locked and it can't be opened unless Anthony permits it."

"I came over from the balcony of your apartment. Don't worry. I've placed a steel plate there, so it's very easy to come over," said Lucas.

Anne felt saddened, and tears welled up in her eyes to the point that they were almost streaming down her face.

However, she still pushed Lucas away. "Don't let Anthony find out. Hurry up and leave!"

"I'll take you away with me," said Lucas.

"Unless Anthony were to let me go, I won't be able to leave. Otherwise, even if I manage to get out of this room, can I leave Luton?" said Anne.

"Don't worry. I'll arrange everything as long as you're willing to leave."

Anne looked at him with tears in her eyes. "What about you then? What about the school? Mr. Newman, I can't get you and your parents involved."

“How are you going to leave? Will Anthony allow it? Why exactly is he treating you like that? Is he still human for hurting you like that?! He’s supposed to treat you better for the sake of the children at the very least!” Lucas, who always had a calm personality, was about to burst out in anger.

He thought that since Anthony wanted to have Anne so badly, then at least...he would not hurt her like that!

At that moment, her face was slit so badly. He simply was a madman!

“It’s because of... Tommy.” Anne was in pain. “I bumped into Tommy when I went to the Aesthetic Clinic to enquire about scar removal, and I returned to the company in his car. I spoke to him a little at the entrance of the office and Anthony heard it. It was nothing much. I just said I’ll make him a cup of coffee, then Anthony lost control of his emotions...”

“Then what happened to your face?” asked Lucas.

Anne knew he had misunderstood, so she said, “Anthony didn’t do this to my face. was Lilian, but she’s already dead. It’s fine...”

“How can this be fine? Anthony will only be even scarier than Lilian!”

“Mr. Newman, I’m being serious. I will think of a way to get out of there. Hurry up and leave!”

“Anne...”

“Mr. Newman, I don’t want you to get hurt because of me. Thank you for telling me about my child. Just leave!” Anne pushed him away without any strength.

After that, she drove off.

Anthony walked into the room and looked at Anne with a deep and unfathomable gaze.

Anne was still standing there. She knew when she saw him coming that he did not find out about Lucas.

Only then did she recover her senses and sat at the edge of the bed.

"When are you going to let me out? You said you'll let me out as long as I admit my mistake." Anne looked at him with her face lifted.

"Even if you go out, you won't be able to save your company either," said Anthony coldly and harshly.

Anne's hands, which were placed on top of her legs, curled a little. She lowered her head and misery was showering in her eyes.

Anthony closed in on her even more. He stroked her chin with his rough finger, lifted

“It’s not like that!” Anne was startled and she lowered her head. “I don’t mean it that way...”

Did Anthony have no idea how scary he was?

His rough fingers caressed her face with a scar. “I asked you to take a rest, so you have to listen to me. Alright?”

“But I miss the children very much...” Anne lifted her head, but when she met Anthony’s gaze, which turned cold, her voice immediately stopped.

Anthony released her. “I’ll go get the food.” Then, he walked out of the room.

Anne curled on the bed hugging her legs and touching the scar on her face with one hand.

Was she not very ugly?

She felt she was very ugly when she looked at herself in the mirror.

However...why was Anthony still filled with a strong sense of possessiveness as before?

Anne's sorrowful tears filled her eyes. She did not understand. She truly could not understand...

He even ordered one serving of food from the owner for both of them to share.

After all, John did not have much money. All the money he was left with had been given to his wife and his son.

Chloe said, "I'm hungry. I want milk!"

"What milk? Isn't this food?" John hit the plates with the spoon.

He had already given her half of the food. What more did she want?

"It's not tasty!"

"There's meat, greens..." John thought it made sense as well. She was Anthony's child, so she certainly had been having a feast every meal. She certainly would not fancy all these foods. She could even tell that it was not tasty just by looking at it. Just make do with it a little!"

"I don't want to!"

John had a headache. "Fine, fine, fine, I'll go get you some milk."

He then went to buy a bottle of milk for her from the owner of the motel.

"Can you come back already?" asked Anthony.

"I... want to see Mama!" Chloe plucked up her courage.

"You will see her when you return."

Chloe asked, "Then can you put Mama on the phone?"

Anthony opened the door and handed the phone to Anne.

Anne did not know who was on the other end of the call. She did not even know when Anthony came over. She thought he had left and would no longer be coming back...

"Hello?"

"Mama!"

"Chloe?" Anne was surprised. "Where are you now?"

"I'm in the mountains! Mama, where are you? I miss you so much. I don't want to go home if I can't see you!"

"What do you mean you don't want to go home? Are you not at home now? Why would you be up in the mountains?" Anne asked while pretending to have no clue.

"I...ran away from home!"

"Who's with you now? Are you safe?"

"I'm extremely safe. I'm together with Mr. Walker. Mama, don't worry. I'll go find you when I return!"

Anne only knew that Chloe was missing, so who was Mr. Walker then?

Just as she was confused, the phone was taken away from her.

Anthony put the phone next to his ear. "Have you heard that?"

"I heard it." Chloe pouted her little lips, and she was feeling much better.

"Where are you now? I'll go pick you up!"

Chloe glanced at John. "I'll return on my own!" She hung up the call upon saying that.

Anthony's expression looked terribly darkened.

Anne hurriedly asked, "What did Chloe say? Are you going to pick her up now?"

"No need." Anthony's black eyes were sharp and cold.

Lucas walked up to her and looked at her face and her wrists. "He's not locking you up anymore?"

"Yes."

"You said he will let you out, so I kept waiting. I was worried something had happened to you, so I came over." Lucas' gaze darkened.

“He’s no longer chaining me up. That’s probably already being lenient to me!” Anne mocked herself. “Oh, yes, Chloe is already back at the Royal Mansion. I have nothing to worry about anymore. It’s only a matter of time now. He can’t be locking me up forever. However, you shouldn’t come over. Anthony returned as soon as you left the last time. I don’t know if he was suspecting something...”

He got suspicious when he did not even see anything. Anthony was too sharp.

“Don’t worry. He didn’t see me,” said Lucas. There was a pause before he said, “After you’ve gotten out, I want to take you away.”

Anne shook her head like she was frightened. “No. Anthony will never let me go. He will capture me again at all costs. Your safety, your parents, and also the school....Mr. Newman, don’t say such a thing anymore. I won’t leave with you.”

Unhurried footsteps could be heard coming from the back of her, and the familiar coldness that filled the air made her too frightened to turn her head around.

“Anne, you have truly disappointed me.” Anthony’s deep and cold voice could be heard.

Anne turned her stiffened neck, and when she met Anthony’s vicious gaze, her body turned to jelly and she took two steps back. Under the daylight, her face turned paler and paler.

“It has nothing to do with Anne. I’m the one who came to see her.” Lucas’ expression was cold.
“Anthony, Anne is your wife and the mother of your children. How can you lock her here like an animal?
What are you thinking?”

Anne bit her lips tightly and she held back the tears filled with fear in her eyes.

At that moment, she was not hoping for Lucas to say nice things about her. However, when she heard him saying it, how could she not feel aggrieved deep down?

Anthony looked at him viciously. “Who the hell are you? Beat him up!”

“Master, let this be the end! I’ll do as you say from now on... Master, I don’t want to owe Lucas anything. I’ve already owed him enough...”

Lucas, who was curling his body and lying on the floor, swallowed the bloody taste in his mouth. “Anne, don’t beg him! He is no human. You must stay away from him! Ah!”

Anthony’s gaze was cold as he scolded his bodyguards. “Are you guys weak because you didn’t have enough to eat?”

Therefore, the bodyguards hit Lucas even more aggressively!

“Stop hitting him!” Anne got up and rushed over.

However, she was immediately pulled back by Anthony.

“Let me go! Stop hitting him! Stop it...” Anne was in tears and feeling extremely hopeless. She endured the pain and bit their tongue hard. Blood then came flowing out of her mouth.

Anthony’s body suddenly trembled, then he immediately grabbed her face and forced her to open her mouth.

Her entire mouth was filled with blood.

Anthony’s expression was extremely cold. “Don’t you dare!”

“Let him go. Let him go...” Anne mumbled.

Lucas was heartbroken when he saw Anne like that.

Why must she hurt herself like that? She was too silly...

“Scram!” Anthony shot a vicious glance at Lucas.

The bodyguards stopped hitting him. Lucas stumbled as he got up on the floor, and he looked like he could not bear it as he saw Anne, who was in Anthony’s arms.

In the end, he did not say anything at all. He picked up the broken glasses on the floor, got up the steel plate on the balcony, and went to the balcony next door.

He wanted to look back, but he held himself back and did not do so in the end. He just directly left.

Anne was carried back into the living room by Anthony. He then gave Kathryn a call.” Her tongue was bitten. Hurry over!”

Kathryn was very fearful when she received the call. She kept thinking on her way over about how Anne’s tongue was bitten. Who had bitten it?

When she got to the apartment, Anne was leaning against the couch with her lips pursed, and she could see blood stains at the corner of her lips.

“Open wide,” said Kathryn.

When she took her first sip, her tongue felt so painful that she frowned and she almost threw the spoon away.

However, she knew if she did not have her meals obediently, she would never be able to leave this place earlier, so she did not dare to play any tricks.

Up until that point, she still could not figure out how Anthony found out Lucas came over.

That was too scary, was it not?

“Slow down,” Kathryn reminded her.

Anne held the spoon and stirred the liquid in the bowl. Truth be told, with her tongue injured, her appetite was greatly affected.

The sound of the door opening could be heard coming from the living room.

Anthony came over, sat at the table, and asked, “How’s the recovery of her wound?”

Of course, this question was meant for Kathryn.

Kathryn replied to him, “Not too well.” Seeing that Anthony did not say anything, she took the initiative to leave.
