Chapter 1603

Anne was drugged at that moment, and there were surveillance cameras all over the cruise ship. She saw a surveillance camera over her head when she was returning to the room. Therefore, it was impossible for her to sneak around in the middle of the night if she wanted to.

Tommy had long been guarding against her.

However, Anne still left Anthony some clues before she left him. She believed Anthony would find her very soon, but she never expected that he would do it so quickly.

At daybreak, she seemed to have heard the rumbling of a helicopter above her. Then, the door swung open. Before Anne could make sense of the situation, she was picked up.

"How did you get the message out?" Tommy said. He even searched Anne's body after that.

"Ah! Are you crazy? I don't have a phone!"

"Don't think Anthony can take you away just because he's here. If I'm going to hell, I'm dragging you along with me! Let's go!"

"You..." Anne had no strength, so she was dragged out of the room by him.

He threw her into another room. "We'll stay here and wait for Anthony to come."
