Chapter 234

Anne lowered her eyes. "I'm sorry..."

Lucas reached out and clenched her hand tightly. "Don't apologize. There will always be a solution, trust me."

Anne did not know what to do. Even though Lucas's eyes could not be seen clearly behind the glasses, she just nodded.

Lucas went downstairs alone.

Back at the house, just after the door opened, the little heads of the three little kids popped out one by one. "Mama, is Daddy Lucas leaving?"

"I wanted daddy to stay, but he doesn't want to."

"Daddy must be shy!"

Anne smiled and patted Chloe's little head. "Let's go back in."

Shy indeed.

After Anne coaxed the three little kids, she left the room and saw the nanny cleaning up the toys in the living room.

She followed and cleaned up. "Nanny, is it difficult to take care of three children?"

"It's not hard, to be honest, I've taken care of children before, but I've never seen kids as sensible as these triplets. The first time I saw them bring their plates to the kitchen after dinner, I was shocked. Even the principal said the children were taught well."

Anne smiled helplessly. "I had no choice. I don't see the three children often, so I can only try my best to teach them in advance."

"This is the best education you can give them."
