Chapter 238

Anne was dumbstruck.

That was not from her!

She remembered that when she took a shower and returned to her room, Chloe was playing with her mobile phone.

She did not think much about it. How would she know that she would send something like that, and it just happened to be sent to Anthony's phone?

Her explanations probably were not going to work.

"If it wasn't sent to me, then it was sent by mistake. Who were you going to send it to?"

"It wasn't a mistake..." Anne felt uncomfortable.

"That's what I thought." Anthony approached and directly pushed her against the wall.

Anne's face turned red. "Don't be like this. It's not what you think..."

"I'm waiting for your explanation." Anthony was about to attack her.

"I wrote it casually, and then my hand slipped..." Anne said anxiously.

"Do you think I will believe that?"

Anne wanted to say she did not believe it either!

However, that's all she could say!

It could not be said that it was done by a child!

Seeing that Anthony was getting more and more aggressive, Anne
