

Powerful 262

Chapter 262

The other crews looked over. Bianca immediately pretended to look sorry. She said gently, "I'm sorry, you asked me to exert force, and I did not expect to kick you accidentally, are you okay?"

'Accidentally? You did it on purpose!'

She also felt that Bianca's job was easy. It was something that they could complete within a day, but she had to drag it up to a few days.

The first day, they were not even halfway in, and Bianca already said that she was tired and wanted to rest.

The next morning, she asked Anne to go to her studio and retrieve her jewelry box, saying that she would need it for the shooting on that day itself.

Anne took the jewelry box and headed to Bianca's residence. It was located in a high-end residential area.

After going inside, she found Bianca's unit, pressed the doorbell and waited.

She waited for quite a while, but there was no one opening up the door.

Anne pressed the doorbell a few times more.

She heard the footsteps inside. They were heavy and unlike that of a woman.

The door opened, and the slender figure appeared before she caught her off guard.

Anthony's dark eyes looked at her intensely. "What's the hurry?"

Anne did not expect Anthony to be here. It was awkward.

Especially when he was followed by Bianca, who just came out of
