Chapter 411

Anne hesitated before answering the call, and she heard Bianca saying, “Anne, come to the Archduke Group!”

She was snuffling slightly, and it was apparent that she had just cried.

Anne became anxious. Bianca’s call to ask her to go to the Archduke Group could only mean one thing – Bianca was at the Archduke Group, and Anne would have to face the pressure from Anthony

After hanging up the call, Anne’s mind became foggy. When Sarah noticed that, she asked, “What’s wrong? Who called you? What did the person say?” “It was Bianca. I have to go to the Archduke Group.”

Sarah grabbed her arm. “You’re going to the Archduke Group? Isn’t that Anthony’s company? What are they trying to do to you? You have nothing to do with the incident! Why didn’t they find me? I’ll go with you.” “No. Bianca only asked for my presence. Besides, Anthony will be there, and you’ll only add fuel to the fire,” Anne said.

I can wait, but do you think Anthony’s time can be wasted?” Anne was speechless. She did not ask Anthony to wait for her. Moreover, was Bianca

Chapter 412 Anne glanced at the imposing Anthony and said, “I’m aware...of this.” “You knew?” Bianca was shocked. “Yes. My mom told me...”

“So, I didn’t wrongly accuse your mom!” Bianca was furious, almost unable to restrain herself. She originally wanted to bring out the evidence before acting angry, but there was no need for that anymore.

Since Bianca’s anger was justified, she did not need to mind her attitude in front of Anne.

“Your mom sure is something else. She even told you about this shameless matter! It’s obvious that she has no more self-respect. I wouldn’t be able to do it if it were me,” Bianca said sternly. Then, she turned to Anthony, putting on an upset and aggrieved expression.” Anthony, you heard that. Anne’s mom really did such a thing. I’m sure she seduced my dad, and I can’t imagine how she usually brings Anne up. I didn’t even dare to tell my mom about this for fear that she would be triggered. If I don’t punish them, I’m afraid they’ll do it again in the future. I don’t want my parents to divorce. What will others say then...”

Anne’s face dropped. “What are you trying to do?”

Bianca’s gaze was filled with evil intent. She wanted to make sure Anne suffered! Otherwise, what was the point of all her plans?

With Anthony’s permission, the door opened, and Nigel walked in.

“Dad?” Bianca was extremely surprised. Anne also did not expect that Nigel would be here. How did he know what was happening here? On second thought, maybe Sarah called him...

Chapter 414 The atmosphere became tense. Nigel looked at Bianca, who was stunned but quickly recovered her senses, and asked, "Did you have lunch at Gordon Restaurant?"

"I was. But I didn't know you were there. All I know is that my friend saw you and Sarah going to the hotel. So, you even ate together before that? Did you plan it?" Bianca started to bite back.

"Don't try to change the topic." Anne drew back the attention.

"Who's trying to change the subject? Anne, stop spurting nonsense," Bianca argued.

"Didn't you? You ate at the same restaurant at noon, yet you didn't know Dad was there. Sure, that's not impossible. After that, Mom and Dad went to the hotel. On my way here, I thought it was strange. After all, Dad has always been a steady person. I asked Mom about it too, and she said her mind was blank, and she didn't think about anything else. So, I went to the restaurant to check around and found that the restaurant owner had recently asked Bianca to advertise his restaurant. I can't help but wonder if there's any agreement between you?"

Bianca instantly became anxious. She was so furious that she almost lost control of her temper. "Anne, what the hell are you talking about? Are you saying I asked the restaurant owner to do something to Dad and your mom? That's my dad! Are you crazy?"

Nigel also thought it was outrageous. No matter what, he believed Bianca could not possibly do such a thing.

Chapter 415

Anne saw it all, and her heart sank.

Anthony would really do all that for Bianca!

He really would!

Bianca did not drive, whereas Anne did not have a car and came by taxi. So after they walked out of the Archduke Group, everyone left in Nigel's car as he was the only one who drove over. With his two daughters in the back, Nigel drove away. In the rearview mirror, he saw that both of them were not in a good mood. Nigel said, "Anne, where are you going? Let me send you there." "I'm going back to Mom's." "Okay."

Anne texted the nanny and informed her that she would not be going back for the night, asking her to tuck the children in bed for her.

Chapter 416 However, Sarah did not go over. Nigel looked away awkwardly when he saw Sarah. After all, with such a thing happening between them in the afternoon, it was not appropriate for them to meet even if they were not exposed. "Dad, goodbye..." Before Anne could finish her sentence, Bianca had already gotten out of the car.

Anne got out of the car in confusion, and when she saw Bianca angrily heading for the entrance, she immediately understood what Bianca was going to do.

"Bianca, what are you trying to do?" Anne ran over. "Stop what you're doing!"

Bianca fastened her pace as if she did not hear Anne, looking like she wanted to kill someone.

Anne frowned. When she saw that Bianca was about to slap Sarah, she hurriedly ran over and slammed Bianca away

Chapter 417 Nigel felt something was wrong from the beginning, but he did not give it much thought, and Anne reminded him about it. Moreover, Nigel was unwilling to believe that Bianca was the one orchestrating this incident. After all, Bianca grew up under his care, and he knew she was not a bad person but just stubborn at times. Nonetheless, it was normal for children to throw tantrums in front of their parents. "Even if you can put the words nicely, Mom will definitely lose her temper, and your marriage won't be peaceful anymore," Bianca said.

Nigel stayed silent for a while before answering, "I'll give her a choice. Whether she decides to stay with any conditions or if she wants a divorce, I'll agree to it." Bianca was shocked. As expected, he mentioned divorce. "As for Sarah, you should ask Anthony to let her go."

"Let her go? Dream on! Also, don't tell Mom about this. I don't want her to get hurt. You don't care about her, but I do!" Bianca became unreasonable.

In truth, Bianca was afraid that new problems would arise, causing Sarah to stay in Luton. Nigel's face fell. He did not know how to change Bianca's mind.

Sarah certainly could not leave Luton. She did not need to bear the burden and implicate the innocent Anne.

Later, Nigel changed the topic and asked, "Bianca, do you really think Anthony is a sweetheart?"

Anne fiddled with her phone, swiping to Anthony's number now and then.

Should she call him?

Anthony's location showed that he was in the Archduke Group, so Bianca should not be there, right?

However, what should she say over the phone? Beg him for mercy?

Then again, why would Anthony accept an unjustified plea for mercy?

Would he accept it if it were justified? After all, he was calling the shots for Bianca! If that happened, how would he explain it to Bianca?

Anne let her thoughts run wild and fell asleep in a daze.

The next morning, instead of Dorothy and Bianca coming over and disturbing them, Anthony's bodyguards were the ones knocking on their door.

Anne stood outside, feeling anxious and helpless.

Anthony was really ruthless, and he would not show any sympathy!

Since Anthony was not answering Anne's calls, she sent him a text instead, (Please have mercy on my mom and let her stay in Luton. I can do anything as long as it makes you happy.) However, there was no reply.

She only had this advantage over Anthony, if this could not work, what else could she do?

After waiting for almost an hour, Nigel still did not call. Anne wondered what was going on, but she was getting impatient. Later, she noticed that Anthony had changed location and was now at the Archduke Group, so she immediately took a cab over.

After entering the Archduke Group, Anne wanted to go directly to the elevator but was stopped by the uniformed security guard.

her plan this time was just too perfect. She loved Chapter 420 "Do you know what you've done?" Nigel stood up suddenly, and his expression was extremely unsightly. Bianca, his beloved daughter, actually caused him to betray his marriage, forced Sarah to leave Luton, and caused Anne to be heartbroken and scared.

Nigel was in disbelief, but he had no choice!

Bianca was still stunned, still unable to accept what was happening. "Dad, you've never been so angry at me. Is it because of...Sarah and Anne?"

Let alone being angry at Bianca, Nigel had never even raised his voice at her, and he had always been a gentle and loving father figure.

However, Nigel was furious at Bianca now. It was such a huge and ridiculous thing!

“Who am I doing all this for?” Bianca was aggrieved, almost crying. “Dad, do you think I’m willing to do such a dirty thing? Look at what you made me do!”
