Chapter 551

Sarah asked, "She was going to be discharged, but I went to the hospital today, and her condition has worsened again! Do you know what happened? I suspect that Anthony hit Anne! Anne was unconscious, and I was kicked out before I could ask any more questions, and I couldn't even get in the hospital gate! What's the meaning of this? She's my daughter, and I don't even get to see her? That's outrageous!"

"Til go now!" Nigel left his work and walked out of the office.

'Do you know that we are in Luton Hospital?'

"When did you come back?" Nigel felt guilty because he did not know that.

He called Anne, but Anne never said she was in Luton.

'It's not your fault. No one told you! I wouldn't want to trouble you if this hadn't happened today.'

"Anne is also my daughter. Why didn't you tell me? I'll solve it, don't get mad," Nigel comforted her.

"Til wait for you. Hurry up."

"Sure."

"You are wrong. Anne is like a sister to me, and what I am doing to her should not be considered hurting her."

Nigel was so angry at his words that he almost lost his temper.

What kind of elder brother would rape his younger sister and cause her to become pregnant?

He did not say that out loud though.

"If you are determined to stay here, at least think about Bianca," Nigel said.

"Bianca is very independent and doesn't need to be with me all the time. Besides, these are two separate matters." Anthony did not care.

He would do what he wanted to do, and he would get his way in the end.

Anne really dared to challenge his limits, did she not?

"Nigel, don't worry. I'll sit here and wait for her to wake up. Everything will be fine after that," Anthony said.

"When will she wake up?" Nigel asked.

Did...Anthony touch her phone?

If he did, would he also look at her call records?

She usually deleted her call logs, but she had too many things on her mind to do that today.

Anthony was expressionless as he asked, "Let me guess. Lucas or the nanny?"

Anne's heart tightened. Sure enough, he knew...

He was correct though.

She really wanted to call Lucas because she was worried about the children.

She wondered if they were found.

Should she tell Anthony?

She had mentioned the children before she fainted and wanted Anthony to help her find them.

Compared with the loss of the children, she would rather have this secret known by Anthony.

"What did you say to Bianca? Or did she say something that irritated you?" Anthony asked.

"She used the incident with my father to irritate me... Actually, it didn't really matter. I didn't stand firm and fell to the ground, which caused my wounds to split open again! Your fiance didn't have anything nice to say. You can't blame me for not listening... Whatever the case, Bianca is your rightful soul mate, I am just a third person in your relationship..." Anne felt powerless.

After speaking, she laughed at herself.

Anthony felt attacked.

"That's all you have to say?"

"Yes."

"What do you mean by looking for your children?"

Anne's pupils trembled slightly. "That's a bad habit of mine..."

Anthony understood what she meant.

She was talking about her child, who was kicked to death in her stomach.

Anne turned her face and looked at Anthony weakly. "...Did my mother come to visit? Where's she? I'm a little hungry. Did she bring something for me to eat?"

Anne looked at Nigel. "Dad, did you come here with mom?"

Sarah got angry when she heard this. "If it weren't for that devil Anthony, I'd have come to visit you at noon... my goodness, why is the lunch I brought in the trash can?"

She picked up the food in the trash can.

Sarah was furious!

"Who did this to the food? What a psycho!"

Anne knew that Anthony had done it.

"Don't be angry. Anne can't eat those in her current condition anyway." Nigel tried to appease her.

Sarah held back her temper and asked Anne, "Anne, tell your mother honestly, why are you so seriously hurt?"

Anne glanced at her father and said, "I fell."

"You fell?"

"There." Anne pointed to the table. "It was an accident."

"I will find the kids as soon as possible."

After hanging up, Anne placed the phone back into her bag and lay down weakly.

Her eyes were filled with tears.

Her heart was wrenched.

She could not be discharged now in this condition. Even if she managed to be, how would she go and look for her kids?

Lucas had a much bigger network than she had.

Plus, did Lucas mean he knew who brought the kids away?

Once she has her goals set, she must be able to find the kids quickly!

Moona, on the other hand, called Bianca and told her that Lucas might have already guessed it was her.

She asked her to think of a strategy quickly.

Turned out Bianca asked her to bring the three kids out of Luton immediately.

"Fine, I would not involve you, then you better not involve me either. After all, no one saw you hiding the kids," Bianca said.

"However... My son confessed to the principal that he was related to the missing kids."

"Is your son an idiot?" Bianca was absolutely despising him and stomped around the studio angrily.

"Since he wanted to admit it, let him go to jail then!"

"Ms. Faye, I cannot! I only have one son. He cannot go to jail! Please, think of some ways."

"Fine, as long as you don't expose me, I will not let you and your son go to jail."

"Really? Thank you!"

"However, you must find the kids, then send them far, far away!"

"If I cannot?"

Bianca felt that it was so difficult to speak to this dumbbo. "You have to find them no matter what! Even if you cannot!"

"Yes... I will find them!"

Things are not as simple as that too!

"I agree!"

The lift door opened, and Oliver came in with a stern face that was never before so serious.

Anthony glanced at him and said, "What's up?"

"Mr. Marwood... there are... kids in the office."

Anthony frowned, and his face fell. "Who allowed them in again? Do you not know the mess they made the last time?"

Oliver faced him courageously. "Mr. Marwood, it's better for you to take a look for yourself! I ... I think I cannot judge for myself anymore."

It was Anthony's first time seeing Oliver stuttering like this. It was just the triplets. What else was there for him to judge?

"What mess did they make this time?" Anthony turned and walked to the office.

Charlie and Chris went over. They were like little penguins and were barely reaching their father's knees.

Anthony squatted down, and carried the two of them up, having three babies in his arms all at once, easy peasy.

This feeling felt as though he was carrying three fluffy pets in his arms.

Anthony could not believe that they were his own kids.

He calculated the time, and they were less than three years old.

However, all this while, he had never known about them...

"Do you know who I am?" Anthony asked.

"I do! You are Papa!" Chloe said.

"We have known about you for so long! It's only you who don't know about us." Charlie was adorably angry.

Chapter 560

Anthony’s gaze was as though he had wanted to pierce it right through her. This woman had been around him for so long, but she hid the kids all this while!

He was pretty impressed by how she managed to put up such a good show, fawn at him, and please him.

How dare she do it!

Anne did not know what was on Anthony’s mind when he looked at her intensely. It only made her feel even more anxious and nervous.

Just when the atmosphere almost climaxed, she finally heard Anthony’s monotonous deep voice.

‘Why are you standing here?’

“I... I had spent too much time in bed. It was a little boring. I wanted to go take a walk...” Anne looked down.

She did not manage to zip the bag, and a corner of the phone could be seen.

However, she felt that Anthony would not touch her mother’s belongings.

“I had walked a bit, and don’t need any more walks for now.” Anne then sat by the bed and snuggled herself in.

She noticed Anthony was edging toward her and had her guard up.
