Chapter 1251

Peter lay down. The back of the sofa where Karl was sitting was obstructed by the sight of the back of the sofa. In addition to the fact that Peter was lying down, Tina and Karl did not dare to speak too close, so they did not find Peter. .

Peter sat up slowly: "She said, without Alyssa, there would be no her now, indicating that she had a very bad time during that time."

"What happened during that time?" Karl asked.

"I've inquired, and heard from Tina that during that time, she was rebellious and had a bad temper, so she quarreled with Aunt Tina and the others, and moved out by herself. It should be that time to meet Alyssa."

"It's just because of rebellion and quarreling with the family. Are these reasons?" Karl knew Tina somewhat, and felt that it was impossible for such a simple reason.

"I don't know, the news I got is like this. Although she hasn't made people worry since she was a child, she has a very good relationship with her family. If she has anything, Tina cannot be ignorant."

Peter closed his eyes and leaned back, looking tired and weak.

Karl looked at him with a smile, and put a knife into his heart as soon as he opened his mouth: "Then your daughter ran away after a spring night, do you know Tina?"

Peter opened his eyes suddenly and stared at Karl: "I decide to turn your friend into an enemy from now on! En severance."

"Well, remember that you don't want to look for my wife if you have anything." Karl looked indifferent.

"Do you want to be so cruel?" Alyssa is the closest to Tina. If there is anything wrong with Tina, he must still look for Alyssa.

Karl: "If your heart is not cruel, you can't stand steady."

Peter: "?????"

Karl: "Grace said it."

Peter thought he was showing off his daughter, and sneered: "Get out!"

â€!

In the box, Alyssa gave Tina the bag she had brought.

Tina was so happy that she almost cried: "Alyssa, in this life, among women, except for Mom, I love you the most."

As she said, she hugged Alyssa ostentatiously.

Alyssa patted her hand away: "Then who is your favorite man besides your dad?"

The touched expression on Tina's face took a second, and she said solemnly: "I'm thinking about it recently and want to do a major event in life."

"What's the big deal?"

"fall in love."

"Have you figured it out?" Alyssa showed a relieved look, thinking that Tina had figured out to tell Peter everything.

"Yes, I decided to find a brand new person, start a brand new relationship, and start a brand new life from now on," Tina said with a look of hope.

Alyssa understood that Tina was planning to find someone else to fall in love with.

She asked: "Who?"

"Brian."

Alyssa felt that the name sounds familiar.

She thought for a while before remembering this name, which was the male star who almost had an affair with Tina before.

Alyssa asked, "Do you like him?"

Tina thought about it seriously: "I don't hate him."

The difference between not disgusting and liking is huge.

There are many people who don't hate, and only one person who likes.

Alyssa could feel that Tina really wanted to take this step, but would he be happy to be with someone who doesn't she doesn't hate?

Alyssa hesitated for a moment, and still chose to persuade her: "Are you really not thinking about telling Peter? Nearly ten years have passed. Peter is no longer what he used to be. He is now a big man. He is strong enough and mentally mature enough, he can take on many things

Tina did not speak.

After a long silence, she said: "Maybe it's because of getting older. Recently, I always think of many things from the past, when I was a child, and after I grew up, and I started to reflect on myself."

"When people are young, they will make impulsive and hasty decisions. Thinking about it now, I still don't regret the decisions I made before. You said that Peter is strong and mature enough to take on many things, so why am I?"

"I have been reflecting on myself recently, and I also want to understand many things. Any decision we make will bear the consequences. We were all too young at that time. At that time, I didn't think I was wrong. I blamed him, hate him. However, now I am gradually trying to understand that everything actually started because of me.”

Alyssa looked at her with distressed eyes.

“I’m okay, I’m already an adult, and I can take on my own life, don’t worry about me.” Tina saw Alyssa as she was about to cry, and reached out to rub her face: “Don’t cry. Otherwise Boss Adams will come in later and ask me to settle the account.”

“No.” Alyssa raised her head, took a deep breath, calmed down, then looked at Tina again.

“Tina, at any time, no matter what happens, you still have me.”

With tears flickering in Tina’s eyes, she pretended to be angry and said, “Suddenly saying this, do you want me to cry? You are so annoying.”

Alyssa just laughed and changed the subject: “Have I told you that Karl has been talking about booking a baby kiss for Grace and Smith’s son recently.”

“Did he get any stimulation?”

“No, it’s just that the boys outside are unreliable” Alyssa was also a little impatient.

“Puff” Tina laughed out loud, “Seriously?”

“Extremely serious. He has told me many times, but I strongly oppose it. It is not a feudal society. What kind of baby kiss”

“Hahaha” Tina made up for Karl’s serious face and discussed the baby kiss with Alyssa. When Alyssa refused, she couldn’t stop laughing.

Alyssa looked at her smiling, and relaxed a little.

Everyone drank some wine.

Tina drove here by herself, so she would naturally call a driving when he returned.

Best Day is equipped with a substitute driving service. When she came out, Peter had arranged a substitute driver for her.

Tina didn’t say much, and after saying goodbye to Alyssa, she got in the car.

She just sat firmly in the car when someone opened the car door and got in.

“Why?” Before Tina turned her head to look, she knew that the person in the car was Peter.

Because they are too familiar.

The smell of perfume he uses, his peculiar smell.

She is very familiar.

“The assistant sent me over, and he drove away.” Peter drank a lot of wine, the alcohol on his body was strong, but not unpleasant.

Tina raised her eyebrows and looked at him: “It’s not going the way.”

She and Peter lived in different directions.

“Why don’t you drop me off, or I’ll go to your house tonight.” Peter began to play R@scals.

Tina gave him a blank look: “You are thirty years old, and you thought you were a child, soâ€¹”

Before she finished speaking, she found Peter tilted his head and closed his eyes.

Fell asleep?

“Peter?” Tina pushed him.

But he didn’t respond at all, and fell on her.

Tina was afraid that he would fall, and did not avoid it.

In this way, Peter leaned firmly on her.

Chapter 1253

The driver drove the car into the garage.

Tina paid the money, and the driver asked her enthusiastically: “Do you want to help me take CEO Grant up?”

“No.” Tina declined the kindness of the driver, dragged Peter out of the car, and took the car key: “Thank you.”

It’s not that she doesn’t want the driver to help, but Peter has a strange problem and doesn’t like letting others touch him.

Peter leaned on Tina with most of his body, opened his eyes sleepily, and his reaction was a little slow after being paralyzed by alcohol.

He is taller than her and has to lower his head to see her face clearly.

Staring at Tina’s face for a long time, as if finally confirming that she is Tina for sure, he laughed: “Tina.”

After his reaction became dull, he also looked a little silly when he laughed.

Facing such a Peter, Tina couldn’t get angry, and pulled him into the elevator without saying a word.

“Why do you ignore me?” Peter asked her with tongue out.

Tina stared at him: “Shut up.”

Dead and drunk, she didn’t want to talk to him.

When Peter is drunk, there is no bad virtue, he was not noisy, and he was very good.

Tina asked him to shut up, and he obediently said nothing.

This also reduced the difficulty for Tina to bring a drunk home.

Tina entered the door and threw him on the sofa, planning to turn around and pour him a glass of water.

As soon as she turned and raised her foot, she felt movement behind her, and when she looked back, she found that it was Peter who was swaying to follow her.

“Sit down and don’t move.” Tina deliberately scowled.

“Oh.” Peter glanced at her carefully and sat back obediently.

She quickly poured water for him and returned. Peter was still sitting on the sofa obediently as before. He didn’t even change his sitting posture, with his head drooping, silent as if he was an autistic child.

Tina didn’t think much, anyway, he was drunk and kept doing this.

As soon as she was about to pass the water to him, she saw him suddenly raised his head and fixedly looking at her, with an indescribable grievance in his eyes.

The two looked at each other for half a second, and Peter grieved and said, “Can’t I help you with your homework? Don’t be angry with me.”

“???”

She has graduated from university for many years now, when does she need him to help her with homework?

So silly when drunk.

“Drink water.” Tina didn’t intend to hear him be stupid, so she handed the water glass directly to his lips.

Peter suddenly got angry and turned his head to one side very stiffly.

“Peter—”

“I want to do homework for you.”

The two made their voices almost at the same time, but Peter’s voice was louder, covering her voice.

She remembered that when she was a child, she asked him to do her homework. He didn’t help her every time.

Sometimes, he would be very principled and severely request her to write herself.

But she was spoiled by him. If he didn’t help her with her homework, she was angry and ignored him for several days.

Tina’s eyes softened, squatting in front of him, and said softly: “I’m not angry with you, I have finished my homework.”

Peter’s eyes lit up: “Really?”

“Really.” Tina nodded.

Peter grinned, somewhat silly, and pointed to the cup in Tina’s hand: “Drink water.”

Tina didn’t let go immediately after handing him the water glass, fearing that he would be drunk and could not hold it securely. In fact, Peter did not hold the water glass securely.

Tina had to get up and sit next to him, and feed him personally.

Then, she sent him to the guest room to sleep.

Chapter 1254

Peter lay down on the bed and got sleepy. When Tina covered him with the quilt, he sniffed the quilt and said slowly, “The smell of Tina.”

She took a deep breath, stared at his face for a while, got up, and walked outside.

She was afraid that Peter would get up in the middle of the night to go to the bathroom, and would fall when she was unfamiliar with the place, so she left him a bedside lamp.

Returning to her bedroom, Tina sent Annie a WeChat: “Have you checked everything about Brian? I will directly announce it to him on Twitter tomorrow.”

It can’t go on like this.

There must be a break between her and Peter.

Looking back now, Peter treated her very well no matter when she was a child or after she grew up.

The more so, the more she should cut the mess with a knife.

Two people spent this way, except for wasting time, no one would be happy.

They should have their own lives.

Annie responded quickly: “Meet and chat.”

Tina glanced at the reply, did not reply again, but found Brian’s WeChat and sent a message: “See you tomorrow morning.”

Brian replied after a while: “Okay.”

â€¦

Tina didn’t sleep well at night.

When it was just getting dark, she woke up and couldn’t sleep anymore. She simply got up, changed clothes, and put on makeup.

Before leaving, she went to the guest room and took a look at Peter.

He should have been up last night, the light in the bathroom was on.

He slept very deeply, with a corner of the quilt opened and his arms exposed.

Tina re-covered him with the quilt, and her eyes fell lustfully on his face.

Peter has always been a smiling face since he was a child, he is righteous, he is proud and smart, and he has been like a star holding the moon since his youth, and he is a leader among his peers.

He has many friends and he's very fond of girls.

He also tried to have a girlfriend.

Why are you trying?

Because his love sparks were extinguished by Tina.

She is not a good person.

Tina couldn't help but grinned when she thought about it.

She leaned over, dropped a kiss on Peter's forehead, and turned around without hesitation.

â€¦

Tina and Brian meet in a morning tea restaurant.

There are not many guests for breakfast on weekdays.

Brian handed the menu to her: "I don't know exactly what you like to eat."

"I'm not picky about eating." Tina only ordered tea and porridge after drinking alcohol last night.

The two ate breakfast unhurriedly.

She began to talk about business.

"Last time I said, let's try, have you considered it clearly?"

Brian raised his eyes, and the woman in front of him was calm and serious.

A month ago, Tina had approached him. She was very direct at the time, saying that she wanted to fall in love with him and gave him a month to consider.

Prior to this, he and Tina had only maintained a purely cooperative relationship. They were almost ruined by a scandal before but were also pinched by Tina's company.

Brian slowly said under her gaze, "I think my attitude is clear enough, but, Miss Weber, are you sure you are thinking it through?"

In fact, there are not many clean people in this circle.

But Tina is a rare exception.

She is now a first-line actress, but she is very low-key. Many people are jealous and want to dig her black material, but so far, nothing has been dug.

Some people suspected someone behind her, but there was no evidence.

Actresses like Tina are good, beautiful, and very popular. If she says that she wants to try with him. How could he not be impressed?

But he can feel it, Tina has someone she likes in her heart.

Chapter 1255

"I can't think clearly anymore, I can't agree to a word." Tina leaned back in her chair and looked at Brian lazily.

In fact, this matter should have been resolved long ago.

It's just that Alyssa was newly married and was spending her honeymoon outside. If she suddenly broke out in love, Alyssa might worry about her, and she would come back directly without the mood for her honeymoon.

This month, she gave herself a cooling-off period, and also to make Alyssa a happy honeymoon.

With an eager expression on Brian's face, he said with a smile, "I can't ask for it."

There is a kind of other female stars in Tina who is not ostentatious and proud, she is a very challenging woman.

Tina curled her hands on her lap slightly, and then smiled with relief: "Okay, let's make an official announcement on Twitter together in the afternoon."

â€¦

When Peter woke up, he first smelled the familiar fragrance on the quilt.

Opening his eyes, he stared at the ceiling for a moment, then laughed suddenly.

The hangover is a headache, but he doesn't forget everything.

Tina was willing to let him come to her house to sleep, and she covered him with a quilt last night, and he was going to die of happiness.

When he got up to wash, the whole person was humming a love song happily.

After finishing up, he went out to take a look, quietly in the living room, and went to the quiet door.

"Tina?"

After knocking for a long time, no one responded. Peter opened the door and found that there was no one inside.

Gone out so early?

He remembered that she had a shooting today.

He walked into the room and lay down on Tina's bed cautiously. There seemed to be a cool residual temperature on the bed.

He took out his cell phone and called Karl.

Karl answered the phone quickly, "What's the matter?"

"Guess where I slept last night?"

Peter's feelings are almost overflowing from the phone, and Karl said without emotion, "You should thank Miss Weber for her kindness."

"Oh, it's boring, why did you suddenly guess that I was here with Tina?" Peter's voice was filled with a smile that couldn't be concealed: "You say it, she is willing to let me come to sleep at home, does it mean she is thinking about accepting me?"

"It's still daytime."

"What do you mean?"

"My wife is going to tie me up, goodbye."

"beep—"

Karl hung up the phone.

Peter threw the phone aside, and muttered, "It's great to have a wife!"

After lying on Tina's bed for a while, Peter reluctantly got up. If it weren't for the job, he really wanted to lie here all day.

He took a taxi home, changed his clothes, and went to the company.

He met Annie at the door of the office.

Peter's expression tightened: "Something?"

Annie is Tina's agent. When she came to him, he felt that something was wrong with Tina.

Annie's complexion nodded: "Yeah."

"Come in." Peter advanced into the office.

He entered the office, sat down in no hurry, and asked, "What happened to Tina?"

Annie's expression was a bit hesitant, but under Peter's increasingly ugly complexion, she was heartbroken and said: "She said before that she wants to fall in love."

Tina did not follow the traffic route, and their plan for Tina did not prohibit dating.

Peter seems to have an unusual relationship with Tina, but for so many years, the two have no closer relationship, just a little more care than is normal. Annie also guessed whether Peter and Tina are relatives.

AdamPic has a lot of media affairs. In fact, it is not for Peter to take care of the fact that the artists below are not in love, but she still thinks that this matter should be told to Peter.

Chapter 1256

Peter paused for a while, confirmed that he had not misheard, and asked Annie: "She said it herself?"

Annie: "Yeah."

After receiving a positive answer, Peter smiled.

No wonder she was willing to let him live in her house, so she figured it out.

Can she just say Yes to him if she figures it out? She wants Annie to convey it?

Peter suppressed the ecstasy in his heart, and the corners of his mouth couldn't stop rising, but he still pretended to be calm, and said solemnly: "Okay, I know about this."

Annie also noticed the change in Peter's mood.

Tina wants to fall in love, why does Peter seem happy?

Annie said again: "Tina also said that she will make an official announcement today."

"Make an official announcement today, isn't it too urgent?" Peter turned his back and walked to the window in order to maintain his own face as the boss, actually smiling from ear to ear.

Is it so urgent?

"Actually, Tina told me about this a month ago, but I was too busy before, and I recently took the time to have someone check Brian's!"

Peter felt that something was wrong the more he listened. He interrupted Annie and his tone became cold and stern: "What's the matter with Brian?"

"The object of Tina's official announcement is Brian." Seeing that his expression was wrong, Annie's tone became cautious.

Peter repeated it again: "Brian?"

"Yes." Annie has worked in AdamPic for many years and has dealt with Peter a lot. She can figure out a little bit of Peter's temper. She clearly felt that Mister Grant was getting angry.

Peter was very happy when he heard that Tina talked about the official announcement a second ago. Why was he suddenly angry?

For a while, Peter did not make a sound, but Annie felt that the air in the room seemed to be stagnant, and the air pressure was terribly low.

Suddenly, Peter sneered, his voice gloomy: "That's it."

Annie understood something keenly, but did not dare to speak out.

She could feel that Peter at this time, from time to time, the good-speaking CEO Grant is now.

She was afraid that what she said would make him unhappy and annoy his upper body.

Peter clenched his hands, almost squeezed two words from between his teeth: "She dreams!"

He raised his head slightly, took a deep breath, and let the pressure of anger in his heart lowered for a few minutes, then slowly said: "I don't want to hear any scandals and romance-related things about Tina, her social account will be handed over to me personally for management."

"Okay, Mr. Grant." Although Annie is Tina's agent, the person who pays her salary is Peter. Naturally, she has to listen to Peter.

Peter waved his hand, his tone was already a little impatient: "Go."

Annie breathed a sigh of relief and quickly turned and left.

â€¦

After Tina and Brian separated, they went directly to the recording studio.

She meets Annie in the studio.

After Tina put on makeup, she and Annie were the only ones in the lounge, and they talked about announcing their relationship.

"I have discussed with Brian and will post on Twitter in the afternoon to announce the relationship."

"Yeah." Annie lowered her eyes slightly, not daring to look up at Tina.

At this moment, someone knocked on the door: "Ms. Weber, are you okay?"

"Okay." Tina replied to the outside and handed the phone to Annie: "Hold it for me, I'm going to record the show."

After Tina went in to record the show, Annie turned around and went to another lounge and handed Tina's mobile phone to Peter.

Tina's mobile phone is equipped with a fingerprint lock and a digital password.

Peter entered a string of numbers and turned on her mobile phone, with a "tsk": "There is no new password."

Chapter 1257

Peter still remembered that Tina had a secondary card after she went to middle school, but she always forgot the password. In order for her to change a password that she could remember, he asked her to set the password to her own birthday.

She was a person who was too lazy to use her brain. Later, many passwords were related to birthdays, and there was nothing new.

Peter used Tina's cell phone to log in to the V Plus social accounts on all platforms, replaced all the cell phone numbers bound to her accounts with his, and changed the password.

After changing the passwords of all her social accounts, she has no place to announce her relationship.

As for the media?

Which media dare to go against AdamPic Media?

Annie was horrified when she watched from the sidelines, she couldn't imagine how bloody it would be after Tina knew about it.

â€¦

Tina finished recording the show, it was already three in the afternoon.

She was so hungry, she opened the door and walked to the lounge, and said as she walked: "Sister Annie, let's go to Best Day for a meal, so hungry."

No one in the lounge responded to her.

Tina took a look and found that only Peter was sitting in the lounge.

He was sitting on the sofa, looking at her expressionlessly, his black coat lined his face pale, giving a very gloomy feeling.

"Why are you here?" Tina looked around again, confirming that Annie was not in the lounge, and asked, "Where did my agent go?"

"Something, she went back to the company."

Peter's tone was leisurely, his eyes never moved from Tina's body, unspeakably weird.

Tina frowned, "What about my phone?"

She had an appointment with Brian before and has to announce her love affair on Twitter, after she recorded the show.

Peter took out the phone without saying a word.

Tina stretched out her hand to get the phone, Peter raised his hand and avoided her stretched hand.

Tina caught a moment, and said angrily: "What do you want?"

Peter said slowly: "Mom called and asked me to take you home for dinner at night."

"I have something to do today. I am sorry for Mom Grant, and I will go to her for dinner another day."

Peter's mother likes Tina very much, better than Tina's mother. She always finds Tina hard to be an actress and often calls her to her home to eat.

Peter's previous attitude was very clear. It was to keep spending time with her. She wanted to announce the relationship. She didn't dare to let Peter know in advance. If Peter knew in advance, he would definitely make trouble.

Tina's plan was to announce the love affair unconsciously, and then the news had already been released. No matter how powerful Peter was, he couldn't stop everyone.

Peter saw through the cool thoughts, and retreated: "Then you can have a cup of coffee with me. We haven't been alone together in a long time."

"Peter, did you take the wrong medicine?" Tina was too lazy to listen to his nonsense, and went straight to Peter's hand to grab the phone.

He had long expected that she would grab the phone, grabbed her wrist and pulled her firmly into his arms, and sat her down on his lap.

Tina was dumbfounded, and forgot to react.

Peter clasped her waist tightly, sniffed lightly between her neck, and smiled at the corner of her mouth: "Didn't you say that you have lost the bottle of perfume?"

The last time he went on a business trip abroad, he brought her a bottle of perfume. When he saw her the next day, the perfume on her was not the one he gave. When he asked her, she said that she had lost it.

But just now, he smelled a familiar perfume on her.

"Can't I buy it myself?"

"Row."

The cold cell phone rang suddenly.

Peter glanced at the words "Brian" on the phone screen, and a cold light flashed across his eyes: "Your phone."

Chapter 1258

Tina took the phone over with a suspicious look.

She had contact with Brian on events before, so she kept giving his full name that she remarked, but the last time she participated in the event together almost broke the scandal, Peter suppressed it.

Peter should have seen the name of the caller ID on the phone just now. If it was normal, Peter might have quarreled with her, but at this time he was too calm.

It's abnormal.

Tina hesitated, took a cautious look at Peter, walked to the side and answered the phone.

"Miss Weber, I have thought about it carefully, I think we are not suitable."

Brian's words made Tina stunned for a moment.

Before, she gave Brian a month to think about it. Brian finally agreed. She only met him in the morning. Only a few hours later, he turned back!

This change is too fast.

Intuition tells Tina that something must have happened.

"I see." She didn't ask much, and hung up the phone.

Because Peter was here, she couldn't ask the reason directly, so she decided to go to Brian and ask him face to face.

Peter had been staring at Tina. As soon as she turned around, he knew she was leaving, got up and walked quickly to her and stopped by the door.

His movements were so fast that Tina was caught off guard.

She was taken aback, looked up at Peter, and later realized what had come.

Tina squinted and asked him, "Annie told you?"

"Otherwise?" Peter curled his lips slightly with cold eyes: "Will you tell me?"

No wonder he, who was supposed to be in office, suddenly appeared here!

No wonder he behaved so strangely.

She underestimated Annie's loyalty.

She has signed a contract with AdamPic for several years, and her relationship with Peter has not been lukewarm. In the past two years, Annie no longer has to report everything to Peter as before. She also told Annie before. , She did not need to tell Peter about her relationship.

Unexpectedly, Annie put one on the head.

Annie told Peter of the incident, and it was not difficult to imagine that Peter made a small move to make Brian temporarily change his mind.

"If I talk about love or not, even my parents can't care about it. Who do you think you are? Why do you care about me?" Tina was anxious, a little unscrupulous.

Although she and Peter are always noisy, but they are in a tacit understanding and rarely say anything that really hurts others.

Peter's excitement today is already strong enough, and Tina is about to announce her love affair behind his back. These two ruthless words are not too heartbreaking to him.

"Tina."

Peter seldom calls her name so seriously, and always doesn't tease her, deliberately calling her "Tina".

Tina was startled for a while, and heard Peter sneer and say: "As long as I live a day, you don't want to go outside to find a wild man!"

He had an indifferent look, but his eyes were firm and startling.

"Neurotic!" Tina pushed Peter aside forcefully, opened the door and rushed out.

Peter maintained the posture of being pushed away by Tina. After a few seconds, he clenched his fist and slammed his fist on the wall.

The cleaning staff walked over when they heard the sound, and they were all surprised to see Peter:

"Mr. Grant, why are you here?"

"CEO Grant, your hand!" The sharp-eyed staff saw him smashing blood and had red hands.

"It's okay." Peter dropped these two words and left.

When he chased out, there was no longer a cool figure outside.

It's ok.

She can't run away.

Chapter 1259

As soon as Tina left, the assistant drove over.

"You are off work, go back." Tina dropped these words, turned around and drove away.

After getting in the car, she dialed Brian's phone again.

Brian probably knew that she would call again and answered her phone quickly.

"Miss Weber." Brian was very quiet. He should have found a quiet place to answer Tina's call.

"What's the matter?" Tina's mood has calmed down, and her tone is very peaceful.

Brian was silent for a moment: "I think you know the reason."

Tina's hand tightly holding the phone stiffened. So it turned out to be Peter.

"If he said anything impolite, I will say sorry for him." Peter made Brian change his mind in such a short period of time, he must have threatened Brian and said something bad.

Karl was domineering and authoritarian to Alyssa, and Peter, who was his friend, was naturally not a fuel-efficient lamp.

Peter has been like this since he was a child. On the surface, he looks like a smiley face to everyone, as if he has no temper. In fact, he is not a kind person.

Brian laughed and laughed very softly: "No need to apologize, I'm just a little curious, why you don't want a powerful man, but you want to come to me."

The powerful and influential person he was talking about was naturally Peter.

Tina also laughed, and slowly said, "Because I think you are good."

He is good-looking. Brian was threatened by Peter. There were inquiry and curiosity in his tone, but he did not become angry.

She did not misunderstand the wrong person. Brian is a man with good manners and a good character. If he is down to earth, given time, he will definitely be hot.

"Thank you Miss Weber for your appreciation." Brian laughed low, paused, and continued: "I have another event tonight, I will talk again when I have a chance."

"OK, bye."

Saying that there is a chance to talk again is just a scene.

With Peter's temperament, he might personally take over all her affairs in the future, and he would definitely not let Brian participate in any activities she participated in.

Although Brian is not an artist of AdamPic Media, Peter has such a long hand that he can manage it if he wants to.

Tina thought and felt angry.

She opened Twitter and wanted to scan the trending search list, but found that her mobile Twitter had logged out.

She entered the password, but found that she could not log in at all, indicating that the password was incorrect.

Tina was stunned.

What the hell!

She had to verify the phone number to log in, but the phone number was incorrect!

who is it!

Even changed her Twitter password, even the bound mobile phone number was changed.

This is her personal mobile phone. Annie doesn't even know her mobile phone lock screen password. Even if she knew it, she wouldn't do such a thing.

Peter!

Only Peter can guess her password!

Since childhood, her computer password and bank card password are all fixed numbers. Peter knew it. She also tried to change other passwords, but she couldn't remember, once she changed them.

Peter must have done it!

"Go to AdamPic Media!"

Tina was full of anger, and her eyes were full of anger. The driver glanced at her in the rearview mirror and shrank his neck in fright: "Okay."

Tina realized that she had come out in a hurry and didn't wear a mask, and didn't know if the driver had recognized her. A gentle smile appeared at the corner of her lips, trying to save her image: "Thank you."

Chapter 1260

Seeing that Tina's complexion improved, the driver couldn't help but laughed, and said with a smile, "You are welcome."

Tina turned her head and looked out the window, and heard the driver carefully ask her: "Are you, Miss Tina?"

Tina's complexion changed, and the driver actually knew her!

She sorted out her emotions, and when she turned to look at the driver, she was already smiling: "Yes."

She really wants to pretend that she is not cold, but she is going to AdamPic now, and she can't pretend to be.

The driver's eyes lit up and he smiled embarrassedly: "I've watched your TV show. I'm a fan of yours. Can you help me sign my name and take a photo later."

"Yes." Tina also felt a little surprised, as she could meet fans in the car.

Soon she arrived at AdamPic, and the driver was afraid of causing her trouble, so he said that he could take a photo directly in the car.

After the group photo, Tina wanted to pay, and the driver waved his hand again and again: "No need."

Of course Tina would not ride in another car for anything, and got out of the car after putting down the money.

She didn't walk a few steps when she got out of the car, when her phone rang.

It was a call from her mother Melba.

"Mom, what's the matter?"

She has been stocked since she was a child, which makes her parents feel at ease. They spoil her, but they will not interfere with her affairs. If she suddenly called, there must be something wrong.

Melba said, "What are you asking me? What day did you forget?"

"What day?" Tina tilted her head and thought, but she really didn't remember what day it was today.

Melba snorted coldly: "You should take care of your mother's birthday."

"Gosh!" Tina said in shock, "I forgot."

"You haven't come back yet, I know you forgot, don't come back quickly." Melba hung up the phone after speaking.

Is this hanging up?

Although she had forgotten that it was her birthday, she was wrong, but she hadn't been home for a few months, so please shut her off as many calls.

Really mom.

Tina sighed and continued to walk in.

Peter said earlier that his mother called and asked him to take her home for dinner because of her birthday, right?

Peter must go home too.

There are so many people in the company, it is better to go home at night and find a chance to clean up Peter.

Tina had already reached the elevator door at this time. After she made up her mind, she turned and walked outside, and decided to buy a birthday present for her mother and go straight back.

As soon as she turned around, there was the sound of the elevator arriving behind her.

She didn't look back, but she heard footsteps behind her.

The people behind walked fast and soon walked behind her.

"Tina."

It was Annie's voice.

Tina didn't look back, but speeded up her pace.

After getting outside AdamPic, Annie blocked her way.

Tina gave Annie a cold look, as if she hadn't seen her, she took the mouth cover from her bag and put it on.

"I'm sorry." Annie said reproachfully: "I didn't expect things to turn out like this, I thought you and Mr. Grant were just..."

She thought about it, but couldn't find the right wording.

Tina Peter didn't seem to be close either. Annie had been Tina's agent for several years, and she knew better than anyone that after Tina signed a contract with AdamPic, she and Peter were innocent.

At first, she just wanted to talk to Peter on a routine basis, but she didn't expect it to be like this. She couldn't clearly understand the relationship between Tina and Peter, and now she can't understand it at all.

Tina embraced her arms and said casually, "You finished? Nothing else?"
