Chapter 1271

When they were young, they lived in the compound, and everyone called her "Tina".

Peter was two years older than her, and she just went to kindergarten. He thought her name was "Tina Weber", so he called her "Tina Weber" with her first name and last name.

Only he called her that.

And now he called her full name.

Tina didn't look back, and the corners of her lips reluctantly rose, and she said coldly, "Let go!"

Peter didn't let go, but pulled tighter.

His voice was tense, with a hint of tension: "As long as you say it now, and what you said just now is a joke, I will treat it as if nothing happened and nothing happened."

Tina opened her eyes wide in disbelief, the corners of her lips were bitten so that blood oozes, and she didn't feel any pain. She restrained the urge to look back at him, calmly and indifferently said, "Are you cheap?"

Everyone has their own pride in their bones, which is something they have in nature.

Although Peter has always been good to her, it is not so good that there is no limit.

Good feelings should be developed in a healthy way, rather than retreating and letting go of self-esteem.

Even if she looks back now, what shall she do in the future?

Peter was shocked and couldn't believe that this was what he heard from Tina's mouth.

The little girl in his memory not only had a beautiful skin, she was also very smart.

She would be a little headstrong in front of her close people, but she also knew how to measure.

Smart and well-measured, she should know what she said at this time.

She had made up her mind to get rid of his disgusting trouble.

Self-deprecating flashed across Peter's face, he squeezed her wrist tightly, and then suddenly let go of her hand.

Tina didn't look back, but from this simple movement, he felt her determination and determination.

Tina hadn't moved yet, and the two were still very close.

But she knew that they were already far apart.

After today, they are separated by a bottomless gulf, and it is difficult to cross mountains and rivers.

"Let's go." Peter's voice seemed to come from a sea fishing, cold and indifferent.

Tina didn't stay a bit, so she lifted her foot and walked out.

She walked faster and faster, trying to escape this suffocating place.

Peter's eyebrows were heavy, without a trace of anger in his eyes.

She didn't even want to stay with him for an extra second.

â€¦

Tina got out of the box and took the elevator downstairs without stopping.

When she walked out of the gate, a cold wind blew over her and wrapped her in a dense manner. The cold was soaked in her limbs. She reached out and hugged her shoulders, trying to make herself warmer.

But this cold wind is pervasive, coming from all directions, icy and soaking the bones.

"Tina!"

Alyssa's voice suddenly sounded, and Tina looked up and saw her running across the road.

A black car parked behind Alyssa. At this time, the door opened, and Karl stood leaning against the car, standing quietly waiting for Alyssa to return, but did not come.

It's just a small thing, but it makes people feel considerate and gentle.

Peter will be so considerate and gentle.

It's just that from now on, this thoughtfulness and gentleness are other people's, and it has nothing to do with her.

From the moment she saw Peter, the tight string suddenly broke, and tears flowed outward like a broken string.

Alyssa was taken aback: "Tina, don't cry."

"I didn't cry, the wind is too strong." As soon as Tina's voice came out, it was blown away by the wind.

Chapter 1272

Alyssa and Tina have known each other for so many years, and almost never saw Tina cry.

She didn't know what Tina and Peter had talked about in the box, but she also knew how serious Tina had talked with Peter this time.

Alyssa didn't even dare to ask more, but said softly: "It's too cold here, can you come to the car and say it?"

Winter in Rostenvel is very cold, and the new year will be half a month later, which is the coldest time in winter.

"I'm a little tired, I want to go home and rest." Tina shook her head and rejected Alyssa's proposal.

Alyssa said anxiously, "Then I will take you home."

Tina still refused: "I came by car, and I can drive back by myself."

"How do you drive when you drink?"

"I can call someone for driving." Tina took out her mobile phone and called for a driver.

Alyssa couldn't help her, so she could only go with her.

Watching Tina's car leave, Karl walked over.

Alyssa turned to look at him: "I feel a little worried about her."

"Get in the car first." Karl pulled her to the place where the car stopped.

After getting in the car, Alyssa still looked sad.

Without a word, Karl drove in the direction where Tina had left.

After a while, Alyssa regained consciousness and found that the road was not right, and she said in confusion: "This is not the way home."

"Aren't you worried about being cold, then follow over and take a look." Karl said unhurriedly while looking ahead without squinting.

Alyssa stared at him for a moment, pursing her lips and calling his name: "Karl."

"Ok."

"you are so nice."

Karl snorted, "I don't think that if you say a few nice words, I will forget about your drinking."

Alyssa: "â€¦!"

â€¦!

Tina got off at the gate of the community.

The driver dutifully drove the car into the underground parking lot, and then took out the car key to her.

"Thank you." Tina took the car key and walked into the community.

The driver suddenly stopped her: "Miss Weberâ€¦!"

"There was a car following us on the road just now." The driver pointed to a car parked not far away: "That's it."

When Tina heard this, her heart jumped and her eyes lit up.

But when she looked in the direction pointed by the driver, the light in her eyes gradually faded.

This is a high-end community, with luxury cars going in and out.

But that car was not an ordinary luxury car, it was a global limited edition, and she often saw it.

It's Karl's car.

She couldn't help but laugh at herself.

She asked Peter if he was cheap.

She should be the cheap one.

It was her who wanted to draw a clear line with Peter, and she was also the one who had hopes.

Just now, she thought it was Peter who followed.

Peter had done this kind of thing before.

It turned out that he couldn't do the free and easy things she imagined. She was just a layman, vulnerable to feelings.

"Miss Weber, otherwise you go in and I'll watch it for you?" The driver was very kind, thinking that Tina was being targeted by a bad guy.

Tina is now a first-line actress. She is popular and beautiful. It is hard to guarantee that irrational fans will follow her quietly.

"It's okay, they are my friends."

After hearing what Tina said, the driver left without worry.

Alyssa on the other side noticed Tina's sight, and knew that Tina had discovered it, and was about to get out of the car.

But her cell phone rang at this moment.

It was from Tina.

She had to close the opened car door again and then answered the phone.

Tina watched Alyssa closing the car door, and Alyssa's voice came from the phone.

"Tina."

"Go back, I'm fine."

Chapter 1273

After Tina finished speaking, she hung up the phone.

Alyssa did not get off the car again.

Soon, their car drove away.

Tina watched the car go away, turned and walked into the community.

She felt cold and walked into the unit building with her arms around her.

A male celebrity walked towards her.

"Miss Weber."

Tina reluctantly pulled the corner of her mouth and smiled at him as a response.

The male star looked like he wanted to say something but stopped. When Tina was about to leave, he hesitated slightly: "Are you okay?"

"I am very well."

Does she look bad?

She just felt a little cold.

The male star didn't ask any more, and said with concern: "The temperature has dropped drastically today, Miss Weber must pay attention to her body.

"Thank you, so do you." Tina didn't know why this male star had to greet her, did she look miserable?

â€¦

Back home, Tina did not turn on the light.

When she made her first money, she bought this house.

She is very familiar with the layout of the house, even if she does not turn on the lights, she will not bump into it.

She lay down on the sofa and took out her mobile phone to go online.

There is a topic in the trending search: the coldest day in winter.

She clicked in and took a look and found that some experts said that today may be the coldest day of this winter.

No wonder it's so cold, it turned out to be the coldest day.

â€¦

Tina couldn't remember when she fell asleep.

When she woke up, she only felt a headache, light feet, cold and hot.

Experience told her that it was a sign of a cold and fever.

It's just a minor illness, not a fever.

The phone was still in her hand, unlocked, and found that the screen stayed on the Twitter trending search page.

Tina pulls down to refresh and refreshes the new trending search topics.

But when looking at the top topic in the trending search, she was slightly surprised.

[Peter Cathy]

There was a word "explosive" behind the topic.

This means that there is a lot of heat and a lot of discussions.

Several related topics immediately follow.

[CEO AdamPic's romance exposed]

[Peter's girlfriend Cathy] ã€Peterã€

ã€Cathyã€

â€

The entertainment industry is a place where you can eat with your face.

Peter's looks are outstanding even among top-notch niches, not to mention the extravagance raised by rich people's homes that ordinary stars do not have.

Netizens often ridicule, if Peter wants to make his debut, he will definitely be popular.

His popularity is obvious to all.

Tina clicked into [Peter]'s trending search topics and found that someone had taken pictures of Peter and Cathy having breakfast together.

The photo is very clear.

After the photo was posted, Peter did not come forward to refute the rumors, which represented a love stone hammer.

She quickly found Cathy's Twitter.

Tina took a look at the time when the first tweet was sent. By now, in just over an hour, Cathy had already gained hundreds of thousands of followers.

The more Tina watched, the more dizzy she felt, and she put the phone aside.

This is also good.

It should be so.

Tina calmed down, feeling less dizzy, and wanted to get up to take a shower.

She fell asleep on the sofa when she came back last night. She didn't remove her makeup and was drunk. She didn't like it.

If she remembers correctly, there seems to be an advertisement to shoot today.

When she was lying down before, she only felt dizzy. As soon as she stood up, she felt the sky spin and fell back to the sofa.

Tina stretched out her hand and pressed her temple, then gritted her teeth and stood up again, shaking to walk towards the bathroom, the phone on the sofa rang.

She leaned over, and as soon as she touched the phone with her finger, she collapsed to the ground when her eyes went dark.

Chapter 1274

“Isn’t it just a fever? Why didn’t you wake up after the fever went down?”

“I should wake up soon.”

“How long is it soon?”

“Sir, don’t worry”

“How long has it been, and haven’t woken up yet, aren’t you in a hurry to change?”

In a daze, Tina heard Peter’s voice.

But the eyelids were too heavy, she wanted to wake up, and fell asleep deeply.

When Tina was fully awake, the first thing she smelled was the aroma of porridge.

“you’re awake?”

Before she could see the surrounding environment, she heard a surprised female voice.

Turning her head, she met the girl’s youthful face.

The look in her eyes is also clear, which doesn’t make people feel offended.

Tina searched in her mind and made sure that she didn’t know this girl.

The girl seemed to see her doubts and introduced herself: “I am Stephanie Grant, your new agent.

Seeing that Tina had no reaction, Stephanie smiled and added, “Part-time assistant.”

Tina remembered that because she had to announce her relationship with Brian, Peter changed Annie and wanted to take over her affairs personally.

But now, after experiencing what happened yesterday, it is natural that Peter can’t care about her.

“You took me to the hospital?” Tina just woke up, still very weak.

“Yeah.” Stephanie nodded: “I called you, but you never answered, so I got worried. I came to your house to look for you, but you never opened the door. I was worried about you, so I went to Boss. Got your door lock”

Speaking of the lock, Stephanie’s voice became quieter.

She slid the door lock when she first met with her artist, which would definitely leave a bad impression.

Stephanie is too young to see through any emotions.

Tina smiled and said, “Thank you, if it weren’t for you to come home, I might still be lying at home now.”

She also remembered that she had heard Peter's voice when she was confused.

After hesitating for a moment, she still didn't hold back, and asked aloud: "Did anyone come to see me when I was asleep?"

"No." Stephanie said, turning around to get her porridge: "You have been asleep for so long. You should be hungry. I bought you porridge. Would you like to eat some?"

Tina was startled and did not speak.

Is she the one who heard it wrong?

â€¦

She had gone from fever, and she was indeed a little hungry.

But when she really ate, she felt that she had no appetite, and she didn't want to eat after a few bites.

Tina put down her spoon and looked at Stephanie, "I am full, let's go."

It's a little bit faster, and her commercial is shot at three o'clock.

Stephanie said nervously, "The doctor said you need to rest more."

"I have an advertisement to shoot in the afternoon." Tina frowned slightly, this agent didn't even match her schedule, it was too unprofessional.

Stephanie's face was full of embarrassment, and she pressed her lips without speaking.

Tina saw this and asked: "What's the matter?"

Stephanie whispered, "Someone went to shoot your commercial."

Tina had a meal: "Who?"

The resources she got were robbed by others.

She has never encountered such a thing in the past few years in AdamPic.

Stephanie paid attention to her expression and said, "Cathy Lee."

It's Cathyâ€¦

The commercial that Tina wanted to shoot in the afternoon was an international brand.

No matter how round, Cathy couldn't get to the 18th line that she hadn't even filmed a star TV series.

It must be Peter's handwriting.

The CEO of AdamPic Media wants to hold his girlfriend, what a normal thing.

Thinking of this, Tina felt a little funny, and she really laughed out loud.

Chapter 1275

The more Tina smiled, the more she couldn't stop it. Stephanie was taken aback and asked cautiously: "What are you laughing at?"

What's so happy about being robbed of resources and laughing like this? Isn't it a burnt brain?

"It just feels funny." Tina barely stopped her smile, stood up and walked to the bedside: "Since I don't have a job, I will sleep for a while."

Tina lay down on the bed to rest, leaving Stephanie sitting at the dining table with a dazed expression.

After a while, she collected the takeaway box on the table and went out.

The room fell silent all at once, so quiet that she could hear her own breathing.

Tina pulled the quilt down, revealing a sickly pale face.

When she was in the first brokerage company, she had competed with people for resources, but she had never been robbed by anyone.

Peter was the first to steal the resources from her.

Isn't that funny?

No matter how I think about it, I find it extremely funny.

â€¦

Early the next morning.

Tina stood in front of the mirror and looked at herself who was still pale in the mirror. She gave a light "tsk" and began to make up for herself.

She was a little impetuous, so she applied it twice and put on a light makeup.

Tina is a very plastic actor.

Just talk about the looks, when the heavy makeup is applied, even in the entertainment circle where the flowers are full of beauty, it is also a publicity and beauty that can make people shine, and the aura is extremely shocking.

With light makeup and no makeup, it looks weak and simple.

"Ms. Tina, shall I come in?"

Stephanie's voice came from the hallway.

Tina turned around and walked out: "You came early."

"Today is my first day at work, of course I have to come earlier." Stephanie said as she took out the breakfast in her bag and put it on the table.

Seeing Tina walking towards this side, Stephanie said again: "Ms. Tina, I will give you makeup after you eat, and then we will go to the company."

"I'm done." Tina sat down and looked at the breakfast on the table, giving Stephanie a surprised look.

Coincidentally, the breakfast bought by the agent who went to work on the first day was her favorite.

"I don't know what your taste is, so I just bought some on the road, and don't know if you like it or not." Stephanie rubbed her hands and said embarrassedly.

"Thank you, but you don't have to bring me breakfast in the future. I don't eat breakfast much."

But Stephanie bought breakfast today because of her heart, and Tina still picked up her chopsticks.

"It's not good to skip breakfast, it's bad for your health."

Stephanie sat down opposite her, looked at Tina, and quickly said in disapproval: "Ms. Tina, you can't do this makeup. You have to put on that kind of heavy makeup and the aura is full. The makeup you made at the KT fashion dinner last time was so good-looking that it was so fascinating. Today, when you return to the company, you will definitely meet the Cathy who robs your resources. We must crush her! Step on the ground. That kind, and"

"Stephanie." Tina couldn't help but interrupt her.

Stephanie: "What?"

Tina said slowly: "If I remember that's right, you just graduated and you are only 23 years old."

"Yeah!" After Stephanie said in a daze, she came to understand and said grievously: "Ms. Tina, do you think I am wordy?"

Tina was very direct: "Yes."

When Stephanie heard it, the whole person became even more depressed.

But she is a young girl who has just graduated, she is very enthusiastic about her work, and she is a nice person.

Tina glanced at her: "You don't worry, I can crush Cathy without putting on heavy makeup."

After all, the real opponent is not Cathy.

Instead, it is Peter.

Chapter 1276

When Stephanie heard the words, she immediately felt her spirit: "I believe you, Ms. Tina."

Tina didn't speak anymore.

After a while, the two organized and went out.

After getting in the car, Tina sat in the back row, Stephanie drove in front.

Tina glanced forward, and asked casually, "Stephanie, did you know me before?"

"I know, I used to!" Stephanie seemed to react suddenly and Tina was asking her, and then she paused before continuing: "Then you must know, you are becoming popular. I will follow you, and I will definitely make money. A lot of money."

“You can be popular, or you can pass it, right?” Tina leaned back in her chair lazily.

Stephanie started the car and said, “Bah, baah, no, you will always be popular!”

“You have more confidence in me than I do.”

Stephanie “hehe” smiled: “Yes.”

â€¦

Today, she returned to AdamPic, mainly because Tina changed to a new agent and needed to re-plan, which required a meeting to discuss.

“Ms. Tina, I’ll go to the car park and come here right away.” Stephanie sat in front and looked back at Tina.

Tina nodded: “Yeah.”

After getting out of the car, Tina walked slowly inside, waiting for Stephanie to come over.

Her former driver’s assistant was all found by Annie. After Annie stopped being her agent, the driver’s assistant followed Annie. It was difficult to find a suitable driver for a while, so she had to work hard first.

As soon as Tina walked to the door of AdamPic, she heard the sound of a car coming from behind her.

A white nanny car rushed towards her, she stood still and didn’t dodge without a trace of panic on her face.

Stephanie, who had stopped the car, was so scared that she was almost gone.

“Ms. Tina, get out of there!”

Tina stood still on the spot, and the white nanny car suddenly stopped ten centimeters away from her, and the emergency brake made a sharp sound against the ground.

“Are you okay?” Stephanie raised her heart.

Before Tina could say anything, the door of the nanny car opened, and a girl came down first. The girl Tina knew who was Cathy’s assistant.

After the assistant got down, he helped Cathy down.

When Stephanie saw this, she whispered: “Who is this, the pomp is so big.”

After Cathy got out of the car, she took care of her skirt and looked at Tina in surprise: “It’s Miss Weber? Excuse me, my driver drove more recklessly. Did he scare you?”

“For such a reckless driver, I advise Ms. Lee to drive herself. Today almost hit me. Tomorrow, he might drive the car and fly down the overpass. It is a trivial matter that you fall to death by yourself.”

There was no trace of anger on Tina’s face, and she looked calm and stable, as if she was really kindly reminding Cathy.

Cathy deliberately asked the driver to drive directly to Tina just now. She wanted to give Tina a stab, but Tina, a lunatic, stood in the middle of the road and refused to let go.

Not only that, Tina also sneered at her.

Today is different. She is now Peter's girlfriend in name, and Tina is still saying that she doesn't like her.

Why should Tina look down on her!

Eyes glanced and found that several artists from the same company were coming. Cathy's heart burned, bit her lip, and said with an injured face: "Miss Weber, I helped you shoot the commercial yesterday. That was because you were hospitalized with a fever. You couldn't go, I know you feel uncomfortable, but you can't curse me to death like this, I still treat you as an idol!"

Chapter 1277

Cathy said so emotionally, it naturally attracted the attention of the passing artists.

Stephanie understood that Cathy wanted to deliberately discredit Tina, and was so angry that she wanted to go forward and argue with her. She had just taken a half step forward, before she could speak, she was grabbed by Tina's wrist.

Stephanie asked in her tone: "Ms. Tina!"

Tina didn't take care of her, and looked at Cathy with her arms around her: "Whoever got the resources snatched by others can still feel comfortable? But I can't blame you. I gave you my resources. This is also true. The company's decision. Fortunately, I still have other commercials to shoot and other scenes to act. I am luckier than others on this point."

Tina couldn't pick out the mistakes in her words, but there was a mystery hidden in the words.

Cathy, an eighteenth line, earned enough traffic and popularity yesterday because of Peter's girlfriend, and turned around to steal the company's first-line actress Tina's advertisement.

Tina said that this was a decision made by the company, which meant that Peter had opened the back door to Cathy.

Tina's last sentence was to imply that Peter could grab Tina's resources for Cathy today, and that he could also grab others' resources for Cathy tomorrow.

Tina is still a well-resourced actress in the company. She was robbed of an advertisement and other advertisements, but others are not as lucky as her.

Everyone wants to be an entertainer. Because Cathy is Peter's girlfriend, she can take shortcuts and grab other people's cakes. In this way, everyone will naturally not wait to see Cathy.

Those few passing artists originally wanted to watch the show, so they walked very slowly, and their complexion became a little difficult to look at after hearing Tina's words.

But Cathy didn't hear the deep meaning of Tina's words. She felt that she had finally raised her eyebrows. Listening to Tina's tepid words, she thought that Tina was softened, and she was proud of it.

“Miss Weber doesn’t blame me, I always act according to the company’s arrangements.” Cathy lifted her hair, and her chin was almost up to the sky.

Tina raised her eyebrows and looked at Cathy.

Suddenly it was a little unclear whether Cathy was really stupid or fake.

If she is really stupid, what does Peter fall in love with?

If she’s fake and stupid, she’s too real.

Tina was too lazy to waste time with her, turned around and walked inside.

Stephanie followed Tina to the company slowly, and the artists who originally wanted to watch the show also followed Tina to the office.

The elevator just came down, and after Tina entered, the artists also came. Cathy was a certain distance behind. Seeing so many people in front of her, she deliberately slowed down and didn’t take the elevator with Tina.

Several artists entered the elevator and called her politely: “Mr. Weber.”

“Just call my name.” Tina smiled, looking approachable.

But Tina was unique in her aura, and her aura was too strong, giving people an indescribable sense of distance. Several artists were cautious and didn’t dare to get too close.

One of the girls asked Tina, “Miss Weber, your complexion is so bad, are you okay? Just now I saw Cathy’s car about to hit you.”

Tina explained: “It didn’t hit me, my face is bad because I had a fever yesterday.”

These artists are all newcomers from the company. There are two second- and third-tier artists, and some are just debuting. For them, Tina is beyond their reach. Compared with Cathy, who has little ability but grab people’s resources, they naturally have a more favorable impression of Tina.

Chapter 1278

When they parted, they said to Tina caringly: “Ms. Weber, you have to pay attention to your body.”

“Thank you, so do you.” Tina’s attitude is not considered warm, nor deliberately indifferent, extremely frank.

In this way, it makes them feel more comfortable.

The floor they were going to was not higher than Tina’s. After they went out, the elevator door closed.

After holding back all the way, Stephanie finally had a chance to speak.

“Ms. Tina, I understand why you can crush Cathy without wearing heavy makeup.” Stephanie snorted disdainfully after speaking, “That Cathy doesn’t look very good, don’t know. What excitement.”

“Shut up.” Tina’s expression was a little heavy.

Stephanie realized that these words were wrong, and obediently shut up, and stretched out her hand to make a zipper action on her lips.

To be honest, Tina doubted Stephanie's professional ability.

Don't know if she should apply for another broker.

The elevator stopped on the top floor.

Tina and Stephanie went directly to the meeting room.

Several senior executives were already sitting in the conference room, and when they saw Tina coming in, they nodded to her.

Tina said hello one by one and sat down.

As soon as she sat down, Annie also came in. As Tina's former agent, she still had to do some explanation and handover.

Annie walked to Tina's side and sat down and glanced at Stephanie. Upon seeing it, Stephanie narrowed her eyes and smiled: "Hello, I am Miss Tina's agent, Stephanie."

Annie nodded slightly and said very concisely: "Annie here."

Annie frowned imperceptibly, and whispered to Tina, "Too young."

Tina knew what Annie meant, and Stephanie looked like she had just graduated from university. She looked too young to bear the burden.

She turned her head to look at Stephanie. Stephanie was not sure, so she smiled at her. The young face was clean and fresh and looked quite comfortable.

Tina turned around and said faintly: "I think she's pretty good."

Annie wanted to say something more, the door of the meeting room was pushed open again.

The person who came in was Rubin, Peter's assistant.

Rubin helped the door and leaned aside, then Peter walked in.

The black suit was meticulously dressed by him, making the whole person more slender and taller. After getting closer, Tina realized that his face was also a little pale.

Is there no rest?

Perhaps Tina's gaze was too direct, and Peter looked up at her.

Tina reacted quickly, and when Peter looked up, she turned her head aside.

Peter looked at her side face blankly, quickly retracted his gaze, and leaned back in the chair: "Go ahead."

“Then let me talk about Miss Tina’s original plan for the next six months.” Annie stood up: “Miss Tina has two dramas to be released in the next six months, one of which has already been finalized, and the film “Lost City” signed after the New Year. Shooting is about to start, and there are still several commercials negotiating.”

Stephanie listened while taking notes.

When Annie finished speaking, Stephanie raised her hand: “There is another one. It was yesterday’s commercial. It was originally meant to be shot by Ms. Tina, but the company gave it to someone I can’t remember the name. I heard it was Mr. Grant’s girlfriend.”

“Puff—” Tina was drinking water, and when she heard Stephanie’s words, she sprayed out all of a sudden.

It is said that newborn calves are not afraid of tigers, and Tina has seen it today.

Stephanie is really no ordinary person.

Such things dare to speak out in front of Peter.

This little girl is interesting.

Chapter 1279

The meeting room suddenly became silent.

It was so quiet that even a needle could be heard on the ground.

Tina took out a tissue and wiped the corners of her lips silently, and glanced at Peter with a smile, wanting to see how Peter reacted.

At this glance, she found that Peter was staring at Stephanie with a bad look.

Stephanie was stunned when she finished speaking, looking towards Tina, pitiful little with a look of help.

Tina raised her eyebrows, and there was no one word on her mouth. She regretted it when she finished speaking. Is this expecting her to wipe her b.utt? When she is a good person?

Stephanie saw the cool thoughts, folded her hands together, and made an imploring gesture.

At this time, Peter’s voice sounded: “Ms. Weber, if you have any dissatisfaction with the company’s arrangements, you can raise it directly. After all, we have been working together for so many years and we are considered old friends.”

The meaning is that Tina was dissatisfied with the company’s advertisement to Cathy, and did not speak herself, deliberately let Stephanie speak out in public so that she would not be able to come to the stage.

This pot is simply clasped.

If this is put on other artists, it is only a small matter.

But Tina just broke up with him. If she carried the pot, wouldn't it be equivalent to admitting that she couldn't afford to lose?

"Mr. Grant is right. We have been working together for so many years and we are already old friends. If someone like Mr. Grant is well-rounded in business affairs, if he is interested in my resources, just let me know, and I will naturally let it out."

"As for what happened yesterday, it must have been someone in the middle who didn't do the job well, and didn't notify me in advance. My advertisement has been taken by others."

The calm tone was tepid, with a shallow smile on her face, very reasonable.

The high-level colors in the sitting are also a bit strange.

Although Tina is also praised, she has the strength. Each of her works has achieved certain results. The company has made a lot of money from her. In addition, she is not a demon and has a good reputation in the circle. Not bad, everyone in the company also sold her face.

But this time, she temporarily gave the advertisement to Cathy. It was indeed not kind, and several senior executives were a little embarrassed, so they didn't say anything.

Peter gritted his teeth with anger.

She said such a long paragraph, and to sum it up, she was saying that he did not distinguish between public and private, and because he was dumped by her, he deliberately grabbed her resources.

But he couldn't refute Tina.

Because he did it intentionally.

After having a fight with Tina that night before, he drank and gave the advertisement to Cathy out of anger. He deliberately went to breakfast with Cathy in the morning.

Doesn't she think he is sick?

He would show her disgustingly.

However, her calm reaction at this time told him that she didn't care at all.

This made Peter feel that she was just a clown. She watched all the jokes on the sidelines and might still laugh at him in her heart.

The more he thinks about it, the more difficult it is to get rid of the depression in the heart.

Peter stretched out his hand to loosen his tie, curled his lips, and showed a warm smile, with a mocking tone: "Since Miss Weber is so generous, it's better to give all your resources to Cathy. You know, she is My girlfriend, I want to hold her up."

Everyone present was human spirits, and upon hearing Peter's words, something was wrong.

Two people whispered:

"Miss Weber and Mr. Grant have a€?"

"I don't know, Ms. Weber is a pretty good person. Mr. Grant paid much attention to Ms. Weber before."
"â€¦"

Chapter 1280

Annie vaguely felt that something happened between the two of them, but Peter was too much. She couldn't help but said: "Mr. Grant, Tina's resources are planned according to her personal characteristics, Miss Lee'sâ€¦ The route is different from Tina's. If Tina's resources are given to Miss Lee, the expected results may not be achieved."

Annie's words are already very euphemistic, and they are also what other executives present have to say.

Tina is already a first-line actress, she has good resources, she is worthy.

However, Cathy only had the eighteenth line in a web drama that didn't even smash the splashes. She could not carry the cool resources to her at all.

There is an authority in the entertainment circle: it relies on support, red relies on life, strong support is condemned by God.

If Peter were to forcibly squeeze good resources to Cathy, and Cathy took it, it would ruin the resource, and it might be backlashed in the end.

"If you have such an idea, the boss will give it to you?" Peter raised his eyes and glanced at Annie, his face covered with frost.

Annie was completely shocked by Peter's expression. She was taken aback for a while before lowering her head, not daring to speak again.

In the past, Mr. Grant was also very serious in meetings, but he was not as scary as he is nowâ€¦ But I haven't seen him for a few moments. What happened to Mr. Grant?

The rest of the people also felt that Peter's decision was a trifle, but no one dared to refute it.

Peter cast his gaze on Tina, with an indifferent tone: "How do you feel Miss Weber?"

Tina smiled: "I have no opinion."

"Ms. Tinaâ€¦" Stephanie whispered to her next to her.

Tina seemed to have not heard, still looking at Peter with a smile on her face.

Peter's face became colder, and his hands on the table slowly tightened.

"The meeting is over! Miss Weber stay." He almost squeezed this sentence through his teeth.

Several executives got up and Annie both got up and walked out, but Stephanie sat still.

Peter asked Stephanie in a cold tone: "Your surname is Weber too?"

Stephanie was so scared that she shivered, turned her head to look at Tina, Peter's complexion was so scary, she was afraid that Tina would have trouble staying here alone.

“Go.” Tina gave her a relieved look.

This little agent looks unreliable, but she is not bad.

Stephanie turned around one step at a time and went out.

Peter’s assistant, Rubin, finally went out and helped them close the door of the meeting room.

Only Peter and Tina were left in the conference room, which suddenly became empty.

“Tina, I didn’t know you were so generous before, and you are willing to hand in the resources.” Peter’s eyes were locked in Tina, and his tone was full of mockery.

Tina leaned back in her chair lazily, with an indifferent appearance: “That’s also divided. After all, we have been in friendship for so many years, so I am naturally willing to let you dole it out to others.”

Yes, because Peter proposed it, she would be willing to let it out.

And let it out without complaint.

She didn’t give the resources to Cathy, she was willing to give the resources to Peter.

The anger that was forcibly suppressed in Peter’s heart suddenly filled up again, and Tina’s nonchalant appearance was really an eye-catcher.

Tina knew him too well, and she could easily feel his emotional changes.

Peter is actually a very stable person, but in the brief meeting just now, he has repeatedly become angry.

She originally wanted to get together and stay away, but now it seems that she still can’t be kind.
