

Predestined 1301

Chapter 1301

As soon as Tina left the banquet hall, she saw Alyssa.

"Alyssa?" Tina was a little surprised, Alyssa would also be here at this time.

Alyssa saw Tina's doubts, and said, "Adams' annual meeting tonight is also in AdamPic. I heard that your AdamPic media is also holding an annual meeting here. I planned to come and join in the fun."

After Alyssa finished speaking, she glanced at the door of the banquet hall behind Tina, and said with some confusion, "Why did you come out? Did you leave so early?"

"Don't mention it." Stephanie came out of the room, just hearing Alyssa's words, and voluntarily explained: "My cousin's girlfriend is too annoying, and deliberately came to our little Tina sister to have trouble."

"Your cousin? Who is it?" Alyssa didn't know that Stephanie was Peter's cousin.

Tina explained: "Peter."

"No wonder I thought you were a bit familiar before, because it turns out that you look a little like Peter." Alyssa suddenly realized.

"Is it?" Stephanie touched her face: "I don't want to look like that big pig's hoof."

Peter's current girlfriend is Cathy.

Cathy is not a fuel-efficient lamp. She is here to pick things, and it is not a good thing to be sure, but Tina has never been an irritable person. She was angered out of the meeting place, and other things happened.

"Since you are all out, then I don't need to go anymore. Let's go, let's go to play elsewhere." Alyssa held her cool shoulders: "Where do you want to go?"

Stephanie hurriedly came up to explain: "Ms. Tina has a cold. She is going home to rest."

"I'm fine." Tina glared at Stephanie pretentiously.

"Little cousin is very concerned about our Tina." Alyssa laughed and teased Stephanie.

Stephanie was a little embarrassed: "I am just an intern agent. Ms. Tina doesn't dislike me, she is kind to me. Of course I have to be nice to Ms. Tina."

!

Finally, the three of them opened a private room for singing together.

As soon as Stephanie entered the room, she looked around with curiosity.

"I haven't sung in Best Day? This equipment is too advanced?"

“Wow, there is this!”

Alyssa looked at Stephanie with some amusement, then turned to Tina and said, “You little manager is very interesting.”

“People are serious agents, you call other people’s small agents again, be careful that they get angry.” Tina couldn’t help but laugh.

Alyssa laughed and shouted to Stephanie, “Stephanie, order a song for your sister Tina, it’s very difficult.”

Ten minutes later.

Stephanie shrank pitifully in the corner of the sofa, covering her ears with her hands, her expression unlovable.

After Tina sang a song, she looked back and saw Stephanie’s appearance, and raised her eyebrows: “Stephanie, what is your expression?”

“Ms. Tina, I have decided. From now on, you will focus on filming and making commercials. Don’t sing.” Stephanie said with a worried expression on her face.

“You don’t like my singing?” Tina squinted and walked over, looking dangerously at Stephanie.

Stephanie pursed her lips, opened her eyes and said nonsense: “No, that’s all because you sing so well. If you go to sing, don’t you just grab someone’s job as a singer?”

“You are right.” Tina cleared her throat: “I will sing one more song.”

Stephanie was so scared that she fell off the sofa.

Before long, the box door opened.

The person who came in was Karl, followed by Peter.

Chapter 1302

Tina sang intently, but no one came in.

Alyssa frowned when she saw Karl and Peter coming in. When Karl approached, she gave him a dissatisfied look.

“I met at the elevator entrance.” Karl lowered his head and explained softly by leaning against her ear, with a hint of flattery.

Alyssa’s face was slightly stunned.

Just now Karl sent a message to her asking where she was. She was afraid that Karl was worried, so she said that she was singing with Tina in the private room.

After Karl’s annual meeting was over, he would definitely come to her, but she didn’t expect that Peter would come with him.

After Tina left, Peter was a little restless in the banquet hall, always thinking of the indifference in Tina's anger before leaving.

Indifference made him scared.

He was restless, so he wanted to come out to find Tina. Naturally Tina wouldn't answer the phone call, but he heard the waiter say that Tina and Alyssa were together.

He knew that Adams' was also holding the annual meeting in Best Day tonight, and Alyssa came with Karl, and Alyssa would definitely not leave first.

That also meant that Tina was still in Best Day, so he wanted to look for her layer by layer.

As a result, he ran into Karl at the elevator entrance.

As soon as Karl saw Peter, he understood what was going on. The two tacitly said nothing and walked all the way.

"Alyssa." Peter called to Alyssa with a smile.

Alyssa sighed, "Yes."

After Tina sang a song, she turned around and saw that Peter and Karl were both coming.

She threw the microphone in her hand and walked to Peter: "What are you doing here?"

Smart and cold, she knew that Peter was here for her, just by looking at his uneasy expression.

"Tina, I didn't mean to be in the banquet hall just now, nor did I want to help Cathy, I just"

Just what?

Peter didn't know how to explain.

Just say that I am deliberately competing with her?

Tina sneered: "Cathy is your girlfriend, you should help her."

"It's not! Cathy and I are just!" Peter wanted to explain that he and Cathy were not real boy and girlfriends.

"Cathy is your girlfriend. You have admitted this matter yourself. Everyone thinks so. What she does and what you do are related. I hope you can mature a little and control your emotions. Handle your feelings and relationships well."

Tina finished speaking in an extremely calm tone.

Peter's heart suddenly fell cold: "Tina, don't do this."

After he came in, he called her Tina.

It's a long-lost title.

Tina smiled: "I have reflected on it. I said those things to you before, because I didn't think about it. I apologize to you. I don't think you are sick. I just don't want to be with you."

Peter's face was tense, and he looked calmly at her.

Tina continued: "I liked you that year, you were 20 years old, I was 18 years old, ten years have passed, I am 28 years old, I still like 20-year-old Peter, but I don't like 30 years old Peter."

Peter shook his whole body, and his expression looked at Tina with an anxious expression.

"Do you understand what I mean?" Tina's tone was very calm, as if she would explain to him again as long as Peter said that he didn't understand.

Peter did not speak, he was completely speechless.

These words Tina said made him feel more sad than she said he was disgusting.

Chapter 1303

None of the people in this box were outsiders, and Tina didn't hesitate to say anything.

When Stephanie was at the annual meeting, she felt that the atmosphere between Peter and Tina was a bit strange. After listening to the conversation between the two, they probably knew that the two had an emotional entanglement.

She felt strange before, why two people who are so well-matched weren't together, it turned out that these two people had already secretly passed through levels.

Alyssa came over and pulled Stephanie out.

The music in the box did not know when it stopped.

Under Tina's gaze, Peter gritted his teeth and said, "I don't understand."

"Then I will!"

As soon as Tina spoke, she was viciously interrupted by Peter: "I didn't understand before, and I don't understand it now. I never wanted to understand why you say you like me, you can do whatever you want and stir my heart. It was a mess, and then left."

"I really don't understand why you can be so free and easy."

"I'm sorry." Tina lowered her eyes slightly, concealing her emotions: "I used to be too impulsive and did some bad things, but I won't be anymore."

Peter suddenly felt a sense of powerlessness.

It seemed that in an instant, the strength to fight for and speak was lost.

"In that case!" Peter paused, and said with a long sigh of relief: "Never mind."

Tina raised her head and looked at the man who had loved and hated before her. For a long while, she slightly curled her lower lip: "Thank you."

!

There is no annual leave for entertainment companies.

After the annual meeting, there is only one day before New Year's Eve.

Peter went to the company early in the morning, and there were many things to be busy at the end of the year, not free time.

"Rubin, help me make a cup of coffee," Peter said as he took off his coat and put it on the boss chair.

After he sat down, Rubin walked over and put a copy of the same city express in front of Peter.

"There is an express delivery early in the morning, what is it?" Peter glanced at it, and reached out to open the express and look at the files inside.

But Rubin did not let go, still holding the express tightly.

Peter looked up impatiently, and Rubin explained with a grimace: "I have opened this express, and it contains a contract."

"Yeah." Peter snatched the courier directly: "I am not blind. What can be such a thin courier without documents?"

Rubin looked at Peter reaching for the documents inside, swallowed, and explained in a low voice: "It's a contract termination."

After speaking, he left another sentence: "I will make your coffee first."

Rubin quickly turned around and went out, as if a ghost was chasing after him.

Peter's expression sank when he heard that the contract terminated.

No matter what the project is, it is not a good thing to cancel the contract.

When Peter took out the contract termination, he knew why Rubin ran so fast just now.

Because this is Tina's contract termination.

Tina's contract was actually about to expire, and only half a year remained.

It was only half a year, and she was so impatient to leave.

Peter laughed at himself, unconsciously exerting force, and the originally flat contract was crumpled because of his exertion.

He threw away the termination contract in his hand and lit a cigarette for himself.

After taking two sips, he felt more irritable the more he smoked. He extinguished the cigarette and took out his mobile phone to call Tina.

She wanted to terminate the contract with him when he sent a contract. After he thoroughly talked about it, Tina was really unscrupulous, and she didn't want to see him anymore.

Chapter 1304

Tina thought it was pretty beautiful, but he wouldn't let her do it.

After the call was made, no one answered.

At the very beginning, Peter thought that Tina might not have her mobile phone at hand at any time at home, so he should wait a little longer before answering the phone.

But no one answered the phone until it was automatically hung up.

Peter sent a WeChat message to Tina with a black face:

“not answer the phone?”

“If you cancel a contract, you just intend to send me a contract?”

“I’m telling you, it’s nothing if you don’t talk about it in person!”

After Peter finished speaking, he threw the phone aside.

After waiting for a long time, Tina did not return him.

Only then did he realize that Tina was determined not to care about him, just trying to cut the relationship between the two people clean.

That kind of powerlessness came up again.

He couldn’t be angry with Tina, and couldn’t do things to keep her, because he didn’t know where the problem was.

In the past few years, although Tina was quarreling with him, the two were still close. The two were not together, but they did not find anyone else.

He thought that they would continue like this, and then at a suitable time, they would naturally be together.

Afterwards, the matter of getting married and having children will go with the flow.

He even went to the dictionary from time to time, thinking about the name of a child in the future.

But everything stopped abruptly, and was suddenly cut off.

There is a bottomless abyss before him.

He didn’t know what to do or what else to do.

When Rubin came in, he saw Peter sitting on the back of the chair with his arms around him, but his eyes were staring straight at the phone on the table, as if waiting for someone’s call or news.

“CEO Grant, your coffee.” After Rubin put down the coffee cautiously, he turned to leave.

“stop!”

Unexpectedly, he was stopped by Peter.

Rubin turned around and said cautiously, “Mr. Grant still has ordered?”

“Who else read this contract?” Peter stared at Rubin.

When Peter broke the contract just now, he discovered that it had been broken before.

Rubin explained: "The secretary's office has always helped collect and unpack express delivery!"

There are many official couriers every day, and some fans send them to Peter's courier, so the secretary's office will usually help Peter to open it and help him filter out some couriers that don't need to be handed to Peter.

After listening, Peter got up and walked outside without saying a word.

"Mr. Grant!" Rubin didn't know what Peter was going to do, and looked at him with some doubts.

Peter didn't turn his head back: "Don't follow me."

Rubin had to take back the feet he had stepped out.

Peter went straight to the secretary's room.

"I heard that Tina sent an agreement to negotiate?"

"Which is cool?"

"How many sinks are there in our company?"

"No, she actually terminated the contract? It wasn't because of what happened at the annual meeting last night."

"That's definitely not the case. I have contacted Ms. Weber several times. She is not that kind of person. Maybe she didn't want to stay in our prosperity for a long time. To be honest, she should go out and stand on her own. Better to mix than in AdamPic!"

"That's right. Mr. Grant also seems to have been caught in an evil recently. He actually grabbed all the cool resources for Cathy's sake. It's too much. Mr. Grant was not like this before, but she is quite popular among passersby. Yes, my parents like to watch her TV series, and her personality is also very good, so rigid, beautiful and lingering!"

Chapter 1305

Peter originally wanted to warn them and tell them not to talk about it.

Regardless of whether Tina interviewed him or not, it was impossible for him to let Tina and AdamPic terminate their contract.

In the past few years when Tina was in Prosperity, they had very few chances of encountering them by chance. Most of the time, he went to her. Otherwise, he and Alyssa had an appointment to meet or eat together, and he would admire Karl by the way. The light can also have a meal with Tina.

In private, Tina would not look for him when he was fine, and rarely when there was something.

If Tina is no longer in AdamPic, she goes out to stand on her own, or goes to another company, and he wants to see her again, I am afraid he can only be at an event where both of them participate.

And this kind of opportunity is rare.

Because he knew that Tina didn't really like to participate in those activities. She loved acting. For the longest time, she stayed in the crew for more than half a year and never left.

"Grant! Mr. Grant!"

Behind him came a sound as thin as a mosquito.

When Peter turned around, he saw a secretary standing behind him, looking at him tremblingly, but didn't dare to look at him. When he turned around, she bowed her head.

Obviously, she also heard what the secretaries discussed in the secretary's room, and worried that Mr. Grant might get angry.

Peter stepped aside without any expression, "Go in."

The secretary looked at Peter tremblingly again, and quickly stepped into the secretary room.

The people in the secretary's room had already seen Peter at this time, and they all calmed down and did not dare to speak.

Peter had originally planned to leave, but since they found out, he walked in directly.

"I think you have too little work, and you still want to talk about these things during working hours?"

Peter is a good boss. It is rare for the secretaries to lower their heads one after another when he is so strict.

"If this matter goes out, it will all go away." Peter swept across their faces calmly, his tone was not fierce, but it made people feel chills in the back.

AdamPic Media is the leader of the industry, and the salary is naturally the highest. Artists are also the most famous and valued. If they are expelled from AdamPic, they will not find such a good company again.

"CEO Grant, we know we were wrong, and we will never spread this incident."

"continue working."

Peter turned around and went back to the office.

He was in a bad mood and looked at nothing pleasing to his eyes. As soon as he entered the office, he saw Rubin and said in a bad tone: "Why are you still here?"

"Filing files!" Rubin sighed in his heart, this matter has nothing to do with him, but the bad thing is that he stays with Peter every day, which is like a walking punching bag.

Peter stared at Rubin, and somehow remembered that when his mother celebrated her birthday, Rubin asked Cathy to give him a mobile phone.

The relationship between him and Tina became worse and worse after that, and then it became like this.

However, that incident cannot be entirely blamed on Rubin.

But this did not prevent him from seeing Rubin not pleasing to his eyes.

“Clean up all these files.” Peter pointed to the bookshelf opposite.

Rubin turned his head and glanced at the ten-story bookshelf full of documents on the other side: “Mr Grant, thisâ€¦”

“I believe in your strength.” Peter thought of something again: “By the way, your wife should be resting, right?”

“Yes.” Rubin was about to cry. For the sake of his hard work and the reason that his wife had just given birth to a child, can he let him go?

Peter smiled: “I will personally come to condolences.”

Rubin: “â€¦”

Didn’t know whether to be moved or cry.

Chapter 1306

As soon as Tina walked in, she heard Melba say: “Tina, your cell phone has been ringing just now, you can see who is calling.”

After Tina left the annual meeting last night, she returned home overnight.

In addition to having a villa in the urban area, the Weber family bought a plot of land two hours away from the urban area, mainly to satisfy Melba’s interest in growing vegetables.

Melba grew up in the countryside when she was a child, and now after seeing it for half a hundred, she still wants to return to the rural life, and the countryside where she grew up has long been a city.

Mr. Weber bought a piece of land and built a house in the countryside not far from Rostenvel. They would come to live for a period of time when they had time and grow some vegetables in the field.

And Tina said before that there will be activities during the New Year and will not go home for the New Year. Melba and George thought about going back to the countryside for the New Year. They just happened to be able to collect vegetables. They didn’t expect Tina to come back overnight before leaving.

Tina slept at home that night, and went directly to the countryside with her parents the next morning.

As for the termination contract, she had already made it up, but it was only entrusted to Stephanie to help her send it to Peter.

“Okay, I get it.”

After Tina finished, she walked over and took a look at the phone.

As expected, it was Peter’s call.

She sent the contract, and Peter would call her, which was normal.

Tina thought for a while, but decided not to call back.

Peter is probably in anger right now, his temperament is just like that. On the surface, Mr. Grant can handle everything. In fact, when he is angry, he can't be willful, and comes with temper.

Even if she called back at this moment, Peter would not communicate with her calmly and rationally, and simply stopped calling. It would be better to call back after Peter calmed down.

Besides, tomorrow is New Year's Eve, and Peter is very busy.

It was estimated that this matter could not be dealt with a year ago, only to wait until the end of the year.

"Who called?" Seeing that Tina didn't answer the call, Melba walked over curiously.

"It's nothing, a colleague at work, and no one answers my call, he should call my agent!"

After Tina finished speaking, she changed the subject again: "Mom, the vegetables in your garden are well taken care of. I will pick them at noon today."

"You said, you are too busy with work, do you remember when the last time you came?" Melba asked her helplessly.

"Last time!" Tina thought for a moment. The last time she came here seemed to be when they were buying land.

She is indeed too busy.

It feels a bit embarrassing to think so.

"Okay, come over and eat some fruit, it's really!"

Tina followed Melba to the restaurant.

When she went home suddenly last night, her parents didn't ask much, but happily prepared food for her and gave her bathwater!

It seemed that no matter what time, no matter how old, they would tolerate her infinitely.

But she has been in a hurry with them all these years, she is always busy, always busy.

"Mom, don't you ask me why I came home suddenly?" Tina raised her head and asked Melba.

"It's a good thing to be able to return home, why do I need to ask the reason?" Melba smiled and said: "You don't know how much your dad and I want to have a New Year's Eve dinner with you and celebrate the New Year together. Your child is really outside. Why have I been living and going back all these years, talking nonsense!",

"Mom, it's not!"

Chapter 1307

New Year's Eve.

Tina was pulled into the WeChat group of the crew of "Lost City" by Alyssa.

The movie “Lost City” was in preparation before Alyssa and Karl got married. Now a team has been established and the script is being revised.

Tina sent a message to Alyssa: “Suddenly pulled me into the group?”

Although “Lost City” has already been formed, the actors are usually the last to come.

Alyssa replied to Tina: “Peter said that he would give out red envelopes in the group during the New Year.”

Tina slowly typed a “?”.

Alyssa: “Grab the red envelope together.”

Literally, Alyssa’s serious tone can be vaguely felt.

Tina couldn’t laugh or cry: “I see.”

After Tina and Alyssa had a chat, they went to the group and sent a message to greet everyone: “Hello everyone, I am Tina.”

As soon as she sent a message, a crew member came out.

“Miss Weber is here!”

“Sister Weber is here!”

“â€¦”

The director who called her “Miss Weber” is the director. A 34-year-old young director who is very thoughtful and talkative after work. He has worked with her several times and is considered familiar. When she was on the crew, he caught her. He is also called “Miss Weber”.

This director has his own team, and other people under his staff have naturally been in the same crew with Tina. They are a very young team, and they basically call her “Sister Weber.”

In fact, Tina thinks she is quite young, but in the past two years, she has been called sister everywhereâ€¦

Tina replied in the group: “Long time no see.”

“Yes, the last time I was in a crew, it was more than a year ago. I didn’t expect to be able to collaborate again so soon.”

“It’s just that it will be over a year before I can see you againâ€¦”

Because Tina came in, everyone chatted in a rush.

At this time, Peter emerged and sent a message: “It’s very lively.”

“Mr. Grant is very busy, too.”

Peter is the producer of this movie, and he is also in this group.

When Tina entered the group, she flipped through the list of group members and saw Peter at the top.

When chatting with the director and them just now, she was a little worried that Peter would come out and send a message to catch her.

But after chatting for a while, she didn't see Peter coming out. Besides, Peter was really busy, so she didn't think that Peter would join the group chat if he had nothing to do.

The result came out.

Tina held her mobile phone, resting her cheek in one hand, watching them send messages.

In fact, Peter only sent two or three messages, so he didn't speak much.

The other crew members chatted and found that Tina hadn't sent any messages, so they asked, "Why did Sister Weber and Mr. Grant do not send any messages?"

Tina saw that they mentioned her, but did not send a message, staring at the phone screen and pretending that she was not there.

Alyssa sent her a private message and asked: "As soon as Peter comes out, you will not speak."

Tina hooked the corners of her lips and typed back: "Yes, because I have a guilty conscience."

Alyssa: "?"

Tina: "I went home that night after the annual meeting. The next morning, Stephanie also mailed me a contract termination contract to Peter."

Alyssa: "???"

Alyssa sent three question marks in a row, indicating that she was completely puzzled about Tina's behavior.

It's no wonder that Alyssa was puzzled. Tina's contract was about to expire, and there was no need to raise the cancellation of the contract at this time, and she would also enter the crew of "Lost City".

At this time, it is really not very wise to mention the termination of the contract.

Chapter 1308

Tina deliberated for a while before replying to Alyssa: "I just want to be decisive and understand this matter earlier."

As long as she is still prosperous one day, Peter will be unclear.

After the termination of the contract, she and Peter were also cut off.

Although she will have to enter the crew of "Lost City" again, it is only the relationship between the actors and the producers.

It's just a simple, work relationship.

Alyssa: "I understand."

â€¦

It was eleven o'clock in the evening.

Only one lamp on the desk was turned on in the spacious office.

Peter sat at the desk, finished processing the last document, moved his aching neck, and wanted to ask Rubin to pour him a glass of water.

"Rubin!"

When he called Rubin's name, he later realized that Rubin got home from work on time today for New Year's Eve dinner, and he was the only one in the empty office.

Peter leaned back on the chair for a while, then picked up the phone and swiped the circle of friends.

On New Year's Eve, the Moments of Friends not only show food but also show smiling faces.

Oh, some people are different.

Karl showed his wife.

"Mrs. Adams is the most beautiful.[Picture]"

Behind are two photos of Alyssa, one is cooking, the other is looking up and smiling at the camera, there is a small fuzzy back in the corner, it should be Grace.

Both are secretly photographed.

This quiet circle of friends for the family reunion years made Peter feel a bit an eye-opener. He gave everyone's circle of friends a thumbs up, and deliberately passed Karl.

Swiped a few more, and reached Alyssa's circle of friends.

Alyssa's circle of friends posted photos of the New Year's Eve dinner, and Grace, Karl had only a profile face, not a front face.

Peter hooked his lips and gave Alyssa a thumbs up.

After he liked, he found that Clayton had also liked Alyssa. They were all mutual friends, so he could see Clayton like Alyssa.

He continued to decline.

There were too many people on his WeChat list, and he slid to the end. He scribbled out the circle of friends from yesterday, but did not see the circle of friends of Tina.

He remembers that Tina also liked to post to Moments. Why didn't she post it this year?

At this moment, a call came in on his cell phone.

He glanced at Karl's number. Karl is still in the mood to call him and wish him a happy New Year at this time?

Peter answered the phone slowly: "What are you doing?"

"Where?" Karl's voice was steady and calm.

Peter: "Company."

"Heh." Karl laughed at him mercilessly: "You are so miserable."

"What am I miserable? I just don't bother to drive home." Peter finished speaking. In order to prove that he was really too lazy to go home, he gave a disdainful "squeak".

Karl: "Goodbye."

Peter: "Eh? I said you called in the middle of the night just to say, "You are so miserable"? Didn't you come to care for me, a widowed old man?"

Karl was quiet for a while, and after a while, his voice came from the phone faintly: "Yes, who told you not to like my circle of friends."

Peter didn't choke for a while, and said in a more serious tone: "Naive! Boring!"

"My wife said I am cute." Karl retorted Peter solemnly.

Peter was annoyed by Karl's arrogant gesture, and snorted coldly, "I won't give you a thumbs up! I'm so angry with you!"

Karl: "I'm not angry, I'm very happy, Tina is on a video call with my wife, I want to go over and say hello."

Chapter 1309

As soon as Karl said this, Peter fell silent.

And he said he was going to say hello to Tina, but he didn't go, because Peter didn't hear the voice.

Still, Peter couldn't help asking: "Did you deliberately?"

"Yes." Karl's tone was light and fluttering, and his tone was somewhat cheerful.

Peter hesitated: "Where is Tina?"

Unexpectedly, Karl said: "Like me."

"Fine! I'll give you a thumbs up right away." Peter really felt that Karl was getting more and more boring after getting married. Not only did he post to his circle of friends, but he also had to like him.

Peter has to go back to the circle of friends to like the one that Karl posted.

After clicking the like, he came back to answer the phone: "Click it!"

Karl said quietly: "I'll go and see."

Peter: "?"

After Karl was quiet for a few seconds, he said, "At home."

Before the ending sound of the word "home" disappeared, Karl hung up the phone impatiently.

Peter twitched his mouth. Who said he would be a good brother for a lifetime?

This is probably the legend, brothers are like clothes, wives are like brothersâ€¦

Tina went home for the New Year.

he didn't answer his phone calls for these two days, deliberately hiding from him, even in the WeChat group, and stopped talking when she saw him appear.

Can she hide past the fifteenth grade if she can avoid like this?

Peter stood up, picked up his jacket and put it on his body, grabbed the car key, and walked outside. He didn't even notice him, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly.

When he reached the elevator entrance, he found that an elevator was going up.

Those who work overtime in the company tonight, except him, will be off work by ten o'clock at the latest, so why will someone come up now?

The floor kept rising, and the floor he was on was coming.

Peter wandered for a moment.

He remembered that on New Year's Eve in the past few years, he and Tina didn't have time to go home, but the two would have been together. Although he usually went to find Tina, Tina also came to him once.

Thinking of this, a flash of joy flashed in Peter's eyes.

Will it be her?

—Ding!

The elevator doors opened before his eyes.

The dressed-up Cathy appeared in front of Peter's eyes. Almost instantly, Peter's expression sank.

Cathy carried a thermos barrel in her hand, and said softly: "I knew you will be working in the company tonight, so I made a special meal for you. I am here to deliver it to you as soon as I make it. You can eat it while it's hot."

Cathy looked at him with a smile on her face as if she hadn't seen the displeasure in Peter's eyes.

Peter didn't say a word, turned around and walked to another elevator, pressing the down button.

The elevator came up very quickly. When he was about to go in, Cathy walked over and held him: "Peter, youâ€¦"

Peter pulled her hand away from his body expressionlessly, and said coldly: "I pulled you out of the premise because I think you are hardworking and have potential. I also think you are a smart woman."

"Iâ€¦" Cathy could already vaguely guess what Peter would say next, her expression slightly changed, as if she wanted to explain.

But Peter did not give her a chance: "After the New Year, I will announce to the media that we broke up."

“I know I’m not good enough, but can you give me another chance?” There were tears in Cathy’s eyes, and she seemed to cry.

Chapter 1310

Peter’s response was that he didn’t look at her any more, walked straight into the elevator, and left her alone.

Cathy maintained the crying expression on her face.

Until the elevator door was closed, her expression changed in an instant, and there was no need to cry, and only the ambition that was bound to win.

Peter wanted to dump her, which was expected.

However, it doesn’t matter, she has already thought out the countermeasures in advance.

Peter wanted to get rid of her, but it was not so easy.

She wouldn’t be like that idiot Tina, who could hand over all the resources she got.

But what are those resources?

Even if the resources are good, it is nothing more than an actor in the eyes of others. If you can marry Peter and become the wife of the CEO of AdamPic Media, you will be very successful.

She had tried her best, and finally had such an opportunity, and she would definitely seize it firmly.

â€¦

Peter drove home all the way.

When he got home, it was past zero.

The parents did not have the habit of keeping the year old. Peter had said in advance that he would not go home for dinner on New Year’s Eve, and they would go to bed early. The lights at the entrance of the villa and the lights in the courtyard were still left.

Peter glanced at his villa, opened the car window, and looked at Tina’s house not far away.

The Weber’s villa was dark and there was not a trace of light.

Peter couldn’t help feeling strange. Even if the Weber family were asleep, the street lamp at the door should still be on. How could there be no light?

Could it be that Karl lied to him?

Not so much.

Karl is still very reliable.

Peter took out his mobile phone and sent a WeChat message to Tina: “Come out.”

After thinking about it, he felt that Tina might not reply to him, so he sent another sentence: “If you don’t come out, I will shout your name at the door. It doesn’t matter if I wake up others.”

The tone was full of threats.

After sending WeChat, Peter got off the car and walked to the door of Weber's villa.

As soon as he walked to the door of Tina Villa, the phone vibrated.

"At my door?"

Seeing Tina's reply, Peter was pleased: "Give you three minutes, come out."

Tina lay on the warm bed, watching the texts from Peter, and lazily replied: "I can't get out in three minutes, but I can come back in three hours."

How did Peter know that she was home?

Did Stephanie betray her?

However, this news is not accurate.

"Are you not at home?" Peter finally remembered when she said that, Tina was not at home at all.

But Tina didn't answer him anymore.

Peter was so angry that he called Karl.

"If you want to say a happy new year, it will be the same tomorrow morning."

Karl's voice sounded like he was in a good mood.

But Peter was in a bad mood.

"You said Tina is at home? I'm at her door now, she said in person, she is not at home!" He was so angry that he could spit out fire.

He originally planned to stay at the company for one night and return home tomorrow morning, but he stayed up late and drove back and found that Tina was not at home.

"This matter." Karl said unhurriedly, "Maybe I didn't tell you clearly. I said Tina was at home, but I didn't say which home she was at. They weren't in the country before. Did they buy a piece of land? Tina is in the country house."

"â€¦" Peter has lost his temper: "If I can be your brother in this life, I really owed a debt in my previous life."

Karl laughed: "Each one another."