Chapter 1331

On Sunday, Tina was invited by the brand to attend a fashion show.

Tina took the plane at night and arrived at the destination on Sunday morning.

After getting off the plane and getting into the car directly, she squinted for a while on the way to the hotel. After she went to the hotel to take a shower and changed clothes, Stephanie had already ordered the takeaway.

Tina sculpted while eating.

After more than ten hours of flying on the plane, even in a first-class cabin, it was still too much.

Tina took a look at her languid complexion in her glasses, and said to the makeup artist: "Make-up should be thicker. I've been too tired these days, and my complexion is a bit bad."

"OK, Ma'am."

After Tina resumed work in the new year, it was almost spinning. For twenty days, work ended in the early morning and set off again in the next morning.

Stephanie is also a little distressed: "Hold on, after tomorrow's script reading meeting is over, before entering the group, you have only three activities, and there is a break in between."

"It's okay." Tina closed her eyes and said slowly, "I love work. Work makes me happy and makes me rich."

Before Peter gave her resources to Cathy, she felt happier at work after a period of rest.

Her busy work makes her feel fulfilled, and her daily schedule is full. There is no time to rest, and no time to think about other things.

This is also good.

â€¦

After attending the fashion show, Tina rushed to the airport.

She ate dinner at the airport. Tina ran around for days. Although her mentality was still good, her body was a little overwhelmed, and she had no appetite to eat.

Stephanie knew that she couldn't eat because she was too tired, so she didn't persuade her.

When she returned to Rostenvel, it was still dark.

Stephanie drove Tina home: "You take a rest, I will call you before we leave."

Tina woke up after sleeping for an hour.

Woke up and looked at the WeChat group and found messages about all the members of Film.

"The script reading meeting begins in the afternoon."

Tina sent a message and asked in the group: "Why did you suddenly change the time?"

The director's assistant replied: "Something is going on, Mr. Grant."

Peter attaches great importance to Alyssa's script. The previous preparations have been paying attention to it, and the script will not be absent.

Tina: "I see."

"Ms. Tina, we can rest in the morning!"

Stephanie probably also saw the text in the group, and also saw the message sent by Tina in the group. Knowing that Tina was awake, she ran in.

"Yes." Tina leaned against the bedside: "I'm a little hungry, please order takeaway."

Stephanie turned around and left.

Tina was a little puzzled in her heart. Peter's work style was almost the same as Karl's work style. He always said that there was no difference, and he rarely changed the schedule temporarily.

The date of the script reading meeting was also set two weeks ago. Don't know if Peter has something important, so he will temporarily change the schedule.

â€

Adams's House.

Karl frowned slightly looking at Peter, who was sitting opposite, drinking coffee and flipping through the magazine, "AdamPic has a problem?"

"No problem, it's okay." Peter raised his head and glanced at Karl: "After signing the script to AdamPic, AdamPic's stock has gone up."

"Then why did you come to the company to find me early in the morning?" Karl hugged his arms and looked at Peter carefully.

Peter said solemnly: "I haven't seen you for a long time? So I came over to chat with you for a cup of coffee."

Karl raised his eyebrows: "Very idle?"

Chapter 1332

"It's okayâ€" Peter silently picked up the magazine in his hand and blocked him.

Karl smiled without emotion.

Peter was scalp numb when he laughed, and threw the magazine in his hand onto the coffee table.

“Okay, let me be honest. Originally, today was a script reading meeting, but Tina has been spinning around recently. She flew back from abroad overnight last night. A qualified boss like me naturally has to give her half a day to rest. Click, isn’t it?”

Karl looked at him meaningfully: “Indeed a good boss. If Tina knew your hard work, I wonder if she would be very moved.”

“Don’t you, absolutely don’t let her know about this, and don’t tell Alyssa, if Tina knows, she will definitely laugh at me for my feelings for her”

“” Peter was speechless for a while.

There was a knock on the door, and Smith just came in to deliver the documents. Peter quickly drank the coffee in his cup and said to Smith, “Smith, help me make a cup of coffee again.”

Smith put down the file and walked over: “Mr. Grant is not busy today?”

Peter gave a dry smile: “I’m here to find Karl for something.”

Smith nodded slightly and took away the coffee cup in front of Peter.

in the afternoon.

Tina arrived at the company conference room on time.

Several staff members were putting water and snacks in the meeting room, and when they saw Tina coming, they greeted her.

“Sister Weber, came so early.”

“Sister Weber is good.”

Tina found a seat and sat down: “Thank you.”

Not long after, Alyssa also came.

As a screenwriter, she will naturally be there.

“Alyssa, here.” Tina waved to her when she saw Alyssa coming in.

Alyssa knew that she had gone abroad two days ago, so she sat down and asked Tina, “When did you come back?”

“It’s four or five o’clock in the morning. I don’t remember the details. I’m so tired.” Tina took Alyssa’s arm and leaned against her shoulder.

Alyssa patted her on the head: “Then you can rest for a while, everyone will come and I will call you.”

After the successive staff members and other leading actors arrived, Peter was late.

“Everyone is here.” Peter looked around with a smile on his face, and when his eyes swept down to the cold, he stayed a little longer.

After all morning rest, her complexion was pretty good.

Peter retracted his gaze, leaned back on the chair, and slowly said, “Go ahead.”

“That’s it for today, continue tomorrow.”

It was late at night when the script reading meeting ended. Because it started in the afternoon and took less time than originally planned, we will continue tomorrow.

Tina leaned back in her chair and lazily asked Alyssa, who was collecting things, “Is Karl coming to pick you up?”

Alyssa turned her head and smiled at her: “Yes.”

Tina also laughed, and looked at her watch as if: “It’s only eleven o’clock, so you can’t worry about going home alone.”

“Nothing.” Alyssa was also a little embarrassed: “He is like this, always making fuss. You don’t know if you are worried about this and that.”

Tina smiled meaningfully: “I know, I know.”

At this time, Rubin came over: “Miss Weber, Mrs. Adams, Mr. Grant treats guests to supper in the evening, do you want to go together?”

Tina hesitated, she wanted to go home directly to rest.

Rubin saw her hesitation, and said: “Everyone is coming.”

Chapter 1333

Rubin said this delicately.

If everyone goes, it won’t work if you don’t go in the cold.

After all, in the same crew, everyone has to stay together for several months. Of course, it is necessary to understand each other to get along more harmoniously.

Tina naturally had no reason to refuse.

“Okay.”

“Mrs. Adams” Rubin turned to look at Alyssa.

Alyssa nodded: “Well, I will go too.”

Naturally, Alyssa also wants to go.

Tina and Alyssa and this group walked at the back.

When the two went out, Karl had already arrived and was standing in front of the car talking to Peter.

When Alyssa saw Karl, she ran towards him.

Karl also saw her, his expression softened suddenly, his eyes fell on her, watching her walk towards him.

Tina slowed down and did not follow.

From the corner of her light, she caught a glimpse of Stephanie shrinking not far away, looking towards Karl.

After Tina made sure that she was looking at Karl, she slowly walked over to her, but she took it too seriously and didn't realize that Tina had come.

"Who are you looking at?" Tina walked behind her and asked in a low voice.

"Look at Karl, he's so handsome." Stephanie flushed with excitement: "This is too handsome."

"â€¦" Tina paused, and said earnestly: "But people are already married, and children can drink soy sauce."

"I have other thoughts. I simply think that he is handsomeâ€¦" Stephanie reacted fiercely, "What are you talking about? Karl's children are there??"

Because of Tina's relationship, Stephanie had also seen Karl several times, but this was the first time she knew that Karl had a child.

Although there had been news that Karl had a child before, Karl had never responded positively, and Stephanie regarded these as rumors.

"Yes, super cute." Tina smiled and patted Stephanie's head.

Stephanie was still in shock, unable to recover.

â€¦

Everyone unanimously decided to eat Hot Pot, and the group went to the Hot Pot restaurant.

Tina went to the bathroom and came back, but before approaching, she found that only a vacant seat was next to Peter.

She just looked around and walked towards the position beside Peter.

Peter was talking to the director sitting on the other side, and he didn't seem to see Tina, but when she walked next to him, he reached out and pulled the chair away for her.

After a cold pause, when she turned to look at him, she found that he was still intently talking to the director next to him, and it seemed that it was just an unintentional act to pull the chair for her.

Tina lowered her eyes and sat down without saying a word.

At this time, Peter finally turned his head to look at her and pushed a cup of warm water to her.

Tina was about to speak, and he turned his head to talk to the director beside him. If he hadn't just pushed her a glass of water, she would have suspected that Peter hadn't seen her at all.

She took a sip from the water glass and looked up at Stephanie who was opposite.

Stephanie lowered her head, shrugged her shoulders with a guilty face, trying to avoid the cold eyes.

She couldn't help it. He pulled it back for her and she sat down. She had to ask her for advice. In front of so many people, she couldn't lose her face, so she could only sit down together.

As a result, only the seat next to Peter was left behind.

This is something she can't control.

Chapter 1334

Midway, Tina got up and went to the bathroom.

Before she got up to go to the bathroom, she gave Stephanie a look.

Stephanie knew instantly. Although she was guilty, she still followed Tina to the bathroom honestly.

Tina hugged her arms and leaned against the wall of the bathroom, looking at Stephanie in her spare time: "Here."

"Ms. Tina, I can't help it either. People directly took me to sit down, and I can't help it!" Stephanie said quietly.

"To find an excuse, let's go ahead of time." Tina naturally knew that Stephanie had a reason, and this kind of trivial matter had not been taken care of.

"What excuse?" Stephanie didn't react for a while.

Tina said, "Stomach ache, headache, leg ache, heartache, you just think of a reason."

"Understand!" Stephanie said with a smile, "I promise to complete the task."

"You go ahead first." Tina lifted her chin and signaled Stephanie to go first.

Tina and Stephanie drove away. After Stephanie had gone for a while, she turned and left the bathroom.

Since it was late at night and there were not many people in the Hot Pot restaurant, the crew were all sitting in the lobby.

As soon as Tina got out of the bathroom, she heard the voice of the crew talking and laughing in the hall before he even approached.

"Next to Grant is empty, Miss Lee sit on Mr. Grant's side."

"Miss Lee is not worried, Mr. Grant, who will come here in person this night!"

"I was just worried that Peter would drink too much when he was happy, so I drove over to pick him up."

Cathy's voice was soft and calm, and it was particularly eye-catching among a group of laughter.

Tina stopped to look forward and saw Cathy sitting beside Peter at a glance.

Peter has been like a high-ranking monk in the past few years, not to mention his girlfriend, he didn't even have a scandal. Cathy was the first girlfriend he officially admitted in the past few years.

No matter what Cathy is, the director and producer are willing to give Peter face. If it weren't for Peter, these people would probably not even look at Cathy.

Tina was sitting next to Peter, but now Cathy has taken this position, and there is no more room on the table.

Tina saw that Alyssa called a waiter and added a place next to her.

Upon seeing this, Tina couldn't help but grin.

She is still warm and reliable at home.

When Tina walked over, she walked straight to Alyssa and sat down.

After she sat down, she felt a line of sight falling on her body. She raised her head slightly and met Peter's eyes.

There are complicated emotions in his deep eyes that people can't understand.

Alyssa's voice came in her ears: "She came as soon as you went to the bathroom with your front feet."

This "she" naturally refers to Cathy.

"Hmm." Tina replied.

Cathy looked over here: "It turns out that Miss Weber is also here."

Someone explained: "Sister Weber is the lead actor in "Lost City"."

"It turns out that this is the case. A big IP like "Lost City" really requires people like Ms. Weber to be able to support it."

Cathy had a smile on her face, as if she was really complimenting Tina, but her tone always gave people a kind of mixed feelings, which seemed weird in human ears.

Alyssa has always disliked Cathy because of what Cathy wanted to use Karl to speculate.

She listened to Cathy's words, and said casually: "The heroine of "Lost City" is inspired by Tina.

Chapter 1335

Alyssa's unhurried tone did not hide her closeness with Tina.

The script of "Lost City" was conceived when she was in college, and the female lead was indeed derived from Tina.

"Really?" Cathy's face changed slightly, but she quickly returned to nature, her smile deepened, and she appeared gentle and moving: "It's no wonder that when I watched the "Lost City" web drama before, I felt that the heroine's personality was set I have a very familiar feeling."

It's so affectionate, and even the heroine of the web drama is not Tina, how good can this relationship be?

After Cathy finished speaking, she gave Tina a look calmly.

But she too underestimated the friendship between Tina and Alyssa. This level of provocation and separation was nothing but a joke.

Moreover, this question is also very subtle.

The same script, web dramas, and movies, will definitely be compared.

Cathy mentioned the heroine of the web drama here, and she was also digging holes for Tina and Alyssa. If one accidentally said something wrong, she might be caught by someone and can go to death.

Tina chuckled and rushed to Alyssa to speak: "Because the show itself is very real, and the protagonist's personality is also very real. They are like any ordinary people around you, and I listen to Alyssa. I said that when Ms. Scott made the online drama "Lost City", she worked very hard and worked very hard, so she finally showed such good results."

Alyssa was afraid that Tina's words would be picked out by someone to cause black spots.

After listening to Tina's praise of Scott, the heroine of the "Lost City" web drama, Alyssa felt that she was thinking too much.

After all, she is a person who mixes in the entertainment industry, and she is just a small screenwriter behind the scenes, and she is not enough to watch intrigue or something.

"That's right, Miss Scott," Cathy paused slightly, considering what else to say to dig pits for Alyssa and Tina. She didn't believe that these two people really did not leak.

But this table is the main creator of "Lost City", and this team is also a very dedicated team. Hearing her understanding of the heroine of "Lost City", Tina was completely distracted.

"Miss Weber has always had the most thorough understanding of the role. I like you. Come and go." The director is a lover of personality, and when he is happy, he raises a glass of wine.

Others also talked about what happened when they worked with Tina before.

Cathy just couldn't find a chance to speak, everyone else was chatting enthusiastically, as if she was the only outsider.

She had to turn her head and looked at Peter with a gentle expression: "Peter, what do you want to eat? I'll get you some food."

Peter stared at her solemnly, with a strangely cold voice: "I don't have long hands?"

Cathy choked: "Peter, you..."

"As long as you shut up, I will have an appetite and I can eat everything." Peter's voice was not loud, only two people could hear it, so getting close to her was enough to give Cathy a face.

And this scene fell in the eyes of others, as if a couple were whispering.

Alyssa looked left and right, feeling puzzled, and whispered to Tina, "Tina, based on your understanding of Peter, do you think he really likes Cathy?"

Alyssa was a little suspicious of life, feeling that this was not the Peter she knew.

In the past, she always felt that Peter was not serious, but now she has known him for many years, and she also knows that Peter is a principled person.

Tina glanced at the two people who were close to each other, "It might be true love."

He said he would break up before, but now he is so close again, it's not true love?

Alyssa twitched the corner of her mouth: "Maybe it is."

Chapter 1336

Tina gave a look at Stephanie, who had been watching the show, indicating that she could start.

Had it not been for Cathy, Stephanie would have "played dead" and fled the scene.

Later, she saw Cathy's green tea look provocative and cool. Stephanie was busy watching a good show, thinking that it would be a big tear. As a result, Cathy's combat effectiveness was too weak and she didn't enjoy it at all.

Stephanie was a little disappointed, and threw herself on the dining table with a "bang" sound.

Rubin on the side was taken aback: "Miss Stephanie, what's the matter with you?"

Stephanie lay down on the table, her voice as soft as a mosquito: "I'm sorry, my head hurts, it hurts."

"Stephanie, what's the matter with you?" Tina got up and looked at Stephanie's situation with a nervous expression, but no one noticed something wrong, except for Alyssa and Peter.

"Headache?" Stephanie was full of weakness, pretending to be very laborious and opened her eyes, as if she was leaving this beautiful world in the next second.

"I'll take you to the hospital now." Tina frowned slightly and looked up solemnly and said: "Sorry, I'm going to be separated first. I will still attend the script reading meeting tomorrow."

Rubin asked, "Ms. Grant is okay? Would you like to help?"

Stephanie was so scared of Rubin, for fear of Rubin's bad things, she quickly said weakly, "I'm getting sick."

"I'm leaving first, see you tomorrow." Tina helped Stephanie and left in a hurry.

Until the two left the Hot Pot restaurant, no one noticed the abnormality.

Alyssa bowed her head and sent a WeChat message to Tina: "Your agent's acting skills are equal to you."

Tina replied quickly: "I have conveyed your words to her. She said thank you for the compliment."

Alyssa pouted her lips and knew she was acting.

Tina had a lot of ghost ideas, and Stephanie was not a fuel-efficient lamp. The two people got together, it must be a good show.

Alyssa would come to eat supper, but just wanted to get acquainted with the crew. Now there is Cathy who doesn't look pleasing to the eye, and she doesn't want to stay anymore.

"I want to go now." Alyssa turned her head, gently leaned against Karl, and whispered.

Karl nodded imperceptibly, and then said aloud: "There are children at home, so I don't feel relieved, we have to go back."

As soon as this remark came out, everyone looked different.

Listening to this tone, it seems that this child is still the child of Karl and Alyssa.

When they heard that Karl had a child earlier, it seemed that it was not with Alyssa, but with a woman surnamed Palmer.

When everyone has questions, they can only be hidden in their hearts, and no one dares to ask.

"In that case, Mr. Adams and Mrs. Adams should also go back earlier."

"That's right, I have to get up early tomorrow, and I should leave tonight."

"Yes, speaking of it, I am a little worried about my child!"

Karl said that he was going to leave, so he turned and left with Alyssa.

The leading actress and screenwriter were gone, and the rest of the director team did not continue to linger, and soon left.

â€¦

"Ms. Tina, how was my acting skills just now? The screenwriter Adams praised me, I must have performed well." Stephanie spoke to Tina proudly while driving.

Tina unceremoniously poured cold water on her, "If you have such good acting skills, can Alyssa find out?"

Stephanie was silent for a moment: "Although I don't want to admit it, I think what you said seems reasonable."

Chapter 1337

The script reading for the next day went smoothly.

Everything else is ready for a long time, and after the script is completely finalized, it is just waiting for the boot.

The start date is three days later, and the middle three days are the time for the crew to prepare.

And Tina still had activities every day for the next three days, but not as many as usual.

Three days passed in a flash.

Everyone was there on the day of the boot.

On the same day, the topic of “the movie “Lost City” is launched” became a trending search.

Because the male and female protagonists are both first-line actors, and because the web drama “Lost City” is very popular, it has aroused widespread discussion among netizens.

The topic of “Lost City” started up on the trending search all day.

The scene on the first day of Tina was fairly relaxed. When she returned to the hotel in the evening, it was eight o'clock.

As soon as she got off the nanny car, she saw Cathy standing in front of the hotel.

Tina didn't look at her again, walked past her, and ignored her.

But Cathy was the most uncomfortable with Tina's attitude of not putting her in her eyes.

“Tina!”

At this moment, there were no other people besides them at the hotel entrance, and Cathy no longer faked and politely called “Miss Weber”, but directly called her name.

Tina ignored her, Cathy ran forward and stopped directly in front of Tina, “I called you, didn't you hear me?”

“Do I have to pay attention to you if I hear you?” Tina has been filming the scene for a day, and now she is very tired, has no time to deal with Cathy, and her tone is very poor.

“Sure enough, you are exposing your nature. I know that you are pretending to Peter. I warn you that you consciously stay away from Peter. You can't beat me.”

Cathy raised her chin confidently, her proud look as if she had taken a shadow queen.

“Are you blocked by the entertainment industry? You can't receive the show, and there is no announcement, so you just follow Peter every day?”

As the chief producer, Peter doesn't need to be with the crew. He can assign his work to the executive producer, but he seems to have made up his mind to make “Lost City” a big hit. Followed closely in person.

It stands to reason that Cathy should be quite busy, but it is incredible to have so much time to run the crew with Peter.

This is for men, not even a career.

Cathy didn't hear the irony in the cool tone at all, but was even more proud: “You are anxious, you are afraid that I will follow Peter every day, so that Peter has a deep love for me.”

“Go to the hospital to the brain department when you have time.” Tina sneered and walked around her and left.

“Go to the Department of Brain Science?” Cathy murmured and repeated.

Knowing that Tina was scolding her for being ill, he ran after her: "Tina, youâ€¦!"

When she caught up with her, she found a young woman standing in front of Tina, and swallowed the word "Sh*t" when it reached her lips.

"Long time no see, Tina."

Tina looked at the woman in front of her, and the expression on her face became cold little by little: "I am not Tina, I am Tina Weber, Maria."

Facing Tina's indifference, Maria George didn't care, but smiled and said, "But, didn't Peter always call you Tina?"

Tina sneered: "He is going to eat sh!t, are you going too?"

"Tsk, you still hate me so much." Maria looked distressed: "You are almost thirty, too, why are you still like a child."

Tina was stunned and went back: "You are already thirty, but you are still as annoying as you were when you were thirteen."

Chapter 1338

Maria originally had a relaxed expression on her face. When Tina mentioned her age, she suddenly changed her face as if she had revealed pain.

"Tina, after so many years, I didn't expect you to be so acrimonious. What happened to you at thirty? Should a woman die when she is thirty?"

Although Stephanie didn't know Maria, or who Maria was, listening to her conversation with Tina, she could feel a bltch.

She couldn't help it now, and she gave Maria a cold snort and glanced at her: "You said it first, okay, it's no big deal for a woman to be 30 years old. If you forget about it at the age of 30, that's a big problem."

"I'm talking to your Ma'am, what does it matter to you?" Maria was so stunned by Stephanie that she couldn't hold on to her face, and her tone was not as calm as before.

"What age is it? You returned from the Paroh era?" Stephanie whispered to Tina after speaking, "Is this woman sick?"

"Youâ€¦!" Maria's face turned blue and purple for a while, and she couldn't find the words to go back and forth, standing there even more embarrassed.

In fact, Tina also thought that Maria was ill, but she said that she cursed people first, which is not good.

Since Stephanie had already spoken out, she still had to end well.

Tina took a half step forward, looking straight at Maria, and said with a serious expression: "Maria, don't you always think that you are a very stylish person? That is the case, if you think I have something I'm sorry for the things that offend you, you can say it upright. This kind of weird innuendo is too petty."

Tina suddenly leaned forward, attached to her ear and said in a voice that only two of them could hear: "There are not many men who can see it."

Maria's eyes widened suddenly: "What are you talking about? I really don't understand what you are talking about."

Tina was so close to her. Seeing her eyes flickering and looking behind her, she turned her head suddenly and saw Peter who had come by without knowing when.

Peter was standing not far away, with Cathy standing beside him.

don't know how long he stood there listening.

"Peter." Maria joyfully walked in the direction where Peter was, and started trotting as she walked.

Stephanie was clever, seeing something vaguely, and then asked Tina in a low voice, "This is also the wind-liquid debt my cousin owes outside?"

"Who knows." Tina curled the corners of her lips, showing an emotional sneer.

Stephanie looked at Tina, then looked over to Peter, and muttered to her: "My cousin, this is a real cowâ€¦!"

There were only four women present, including her. Apart from her, the other three seemed to have emotional entanglements with Peter.

Maria walked over and hugged Peter directly.

"long time no see."

Before Peter moved, Cathy dragged Peter back, which directly caused Maria to pounce.

"Puffâ€¦!" Stephanie laughed directly.

Tina glanced at her: "Funny?"

"Uh-" Stephanie stretched out her hand to cover her mouth, and was about to say "I was wrong" when she heard Tina say: "Then I have to go back to the room and laugh again."

Tina had already seen the scene she wanted to see, and there was nothing wrong here, so she turned and left.

Stephanie reluctantly followed up: "Are she and my cousin in the kind of relationship I imagined?"

Chapter 1339

The relationship between Maria and Peter?

Some things from the past flashed in Tina's mind, and her expression was indifferent: "If you want to know, just ask your cousin, where do I know."

Tina speeded up her pace while speaking. Stephanie's legs were not as long as hers. She trots to keep up, and whispered, "But after hearing you talk to Maria just now, you seem to have known each other very early."

Tina paused, but seriously thought about it, and then said, "We have known each other for many years."

"How did you meet?" Stephanie approached gossippingly.

Tina leaned against the elevator wall, looked up at the lamp, and forgot it in her heart: "It's almost 20 years, she and your cousin are classmates since elementary school."

When she was young, Peter loved playing with her, and Maria loved playing with Peter, so she knew Maria when she was very young.

However, she and Maria have always been at odds.

Maria doesn't like her, and she doesn't like Maria's pretending to be noble.

Seeing each other is wrong.

Stephanie widened her eyes in surprise: "They were classmates since elementary school? You mean, are they classmates in junior high school or high school?"

"More than that, after graduating from high school, they went to study abroad together." Tina finished speaking, curling her lips and showing a mocking smile.

Seeing her look, Stephanie felt a little puzzled, but at this time the elevator reached the floor where they lived.

Tina took the lead to go out, and Stephanie followed, called the laundry service of the hotel for her, asked her to go to bed earlier, and left.

â€¦

In the hotel lobby.

Maria looked at Cathy pretentiously, and asked Peter, "This isâ€¦!"

The story of Peter and Cathy was very popular on the Internet, and she naturally knew it.

But she never believed that Peter would be with a woman like Cathy.

"I'm Peter's girlfriend," Cathy spoke, and stretched out her hand to take Peter's arm.

Peter frowned slightly and took his hand out of Cathy's, but he did not deny Cathy's words.

"When did you come back, and why are you here?" Peter and Maria are classmates from elementary school. After knowing each other for so many years, they still have some friendship, so their tone of voice is also milder.

Cathy was still happy that Peter didn't deny it, but seeing him and Maria talk so softly, the bottom of her heart was even more angry.

Maria glanced at Cathy casually, with a hint of provocation hidden in her eyes, and when she talked to Peter, a smile appeared on her face: "Which question should I answer first? It's too late today. Why don't we find another day? Have a meal together at a time and talk while eating."

Peter lowered his eyes, not knowing what he was thinking, suddenly turned his head and rushed to the side of Cathy and said: "There is nothing wrong with me here. Go back to your room."

"I'm with you!" Seeing Peter's expression getting colder, Cathy had to give up: "Then I will go up first."

When Cathy left, she looked back while walking.

Just now she noticed that the clothes worn by Maria are the latest models of the season, and the bags are also limited editions.

Being able to go to a school with Peter is naturally a person in the same circle as Peter. She has a good family background, a good background, and a good temperament.

Although she doesn't want to admit that Maria looks very good, but the facts are in front of her eyes.

Every woman around Peter is very good.

This made Cathy more and more of a kind, that she and Peter are people in two worlds, but the more so, the less she can relax.

Chapter 1340

After Cathy's figure disappeared, Maria looked at Peter and said in a mocking tone: "Among us, what else can we say without your girlfriend?"

Peter couldn't help but smile when he heard this, "If you let the paparazzi hear it, it will be a trending search again."

Although he never contacted Maria after returning to the country, she was an old classmate from childhood to adulthood. After a few conversations, the kindness came back.

"What's the big deal on the trending search, you will definitely handle it." Maria knows how to get along with Peter, otherwise she can't be friends with him for so many years.

For example, at this moment, Peter also sent his girlfriend away to chat with her, which shows that he still trusts her.

A love prodigal like Peter will not really love anyone, and will find the most suitable person to marry in the end.

At that time, she, a well-knowing old friend for many years, was naturally Peter's first choice for marriage.

Peter said in a calm tone: "You know what kind of temper Tina has. Don't provoke her if you are fine."

"What?" Maria's face changed slightly. She didn't expect that Peter only sent Cathy away just to tell her this.

She quickly adjusted her emotions and said with a smile: "I don't have one, but I just happened to meet Tina. You think too much."

"That's good."

When they were young, Tina and Maria didn't fit together. As long as the two met, they were sure to fight.

Peter didn't know what was going on between the two of them, until they grew up, they were still wrong.

This circle is so big. The George family and the Grant family have also worked together. Peter also knows that Maria played with him when he was a child, just to squeeze into his circle.

This kind of thing is very common around Peter.

And Maria is also a well-measured person, and doesn't cause trouble, but is a bit at odds with Tina, so Peter also opened one eye and closed one eye to make friends with her.

Peter stayed true to Tina, and Maria couldn't hold her smile anymore: "Didn't you deal with her in the same way?"

"You are not me." Peter pursed the corner of his lower lip, which was a sign of his impatience.

"That's right, after all, you and Tina are childhood sweethearts, here is how ordinary people can compare." Maria was very unconvinced, but before Peter, she could only follow his words.

Peter's expression was slightly relaxed, and even his tone eased a little: "When I finish here, I will return to Rostenvel to form another meet out, so that everyone can get together."

Maria concealed the loss of her eyes: "Okay, you can just let me know when the time comes."

She originally wanted to eat alone with Peter, but listening to his meaning, he wanted everyone to have a party together.

The next day, Tina played earlier and got up at four o'clock.

The hotel has a breakfast buffet. After she sorted out, she went to the restaurant with Stephanie.

It was still early, and the people who had breakfast in the restaurant were basically from the crew of "Lost City", all of them were sleepy, and a few had their eyes closed to eat.

Stephanie glanced at the breakfast area, rubbed her hands and said happily, "Wow, there are meat buns."

Tina glanced at her disgustingly: "I'll go and say hello to the director first."
