

Predestined 1351

Chapter 1351

After listening to Alyssa's words, for a moment, her cold eyes lit up.

But soon, the gleam of light in her eyes gradually faded until it was completely extinguished.

The sullen eyes were as silent as an ancient well: "But Cathy is pregnant."

"I definitely can't tolerate Cathy. Do you want Cathy to knock the child out?" Tina said to himself.

Alyssa didn't know what she was thinking, and it took a while before she tentatively said, "What if Cathy's child is not Peter's?"

Peter usually doesn't pay attention, but he is just a playboy with a mere name. There has been no scandal in the past few years. Although Cathy and Tina are three-pointed, he is not so confused.

"It's not his child, why is he nervous? After Cathy fell, he walked over and took her away. He saw her all in his eyes, Cathy!"

Tina's tone became firmer: "It's his child. He also said that he is innocent. He just doesn't want to be responsible and doesn't want to pay for his mistakes. He used to be like this; nor, before, he actually didn't do wrong."

Alyssa realized that Tina was already on the horns, and she couldn't hear what others said now.

"You are too tired today, do you want to rest first?"

Tina looked at Alyssa for a moment, and relied on holding her hand, and said, "You stay with me."

"Okay, I'll accompany you." Alyssa smiled softly at her: "Take a bath first."

â€

After taking a shower, Alyssa lay on the bed with Tina.

Before long, Tina fell asleep.

Feeling Tina sleeping a little deeper, Alyssa went to get the phone.

Karl sent her WeChat.

"When are you coming back?"

Tina looks like this, Alyssa must be with her.

But as for the reply on WeChat, Karl was definitely not happy.

Alyssa got up lightly and tucked the corner of the bed for Tina. After making sure that Tina was not awakened, she turned and walked outside.

She stood at the door of Karl's room, and only knocked, the door was opened from the inside.

The person who opened the door was Peter.

Alyssa was taken aback, and Karl stood behind Peter: "I'm back."

"Why are you here?" Alyssa asked Peter.

Peter's face was slightly tired: "I just came back, and I heard that you are here, so I came to see you."

After Peter finished speaking, he paused for a few seconds and asked in a low voice, "Are you coming from her?"

Alyssa remembered her cold look just now, and she no longer looked good at Peter: "Who?"

Peter asked for this now.

If he didn't provoke Cathy himself and gave her hope, she would not do the following things.

Like Cathy, a young girl who had no brains in the entertainment circle at the beginning, what she loved most was dreaming, thinking that she wanted to be in position by relying on that inexperienced means to maintain her beauty.

Peter lowered his head slightly and continued to ask, "Is she okay?"

"What can Tina do? You should go back to take care of your Cathy." Alyssa stopped looking at him after speaking, and squeezed into the room from his side.

Peter didn't mind Alyssa's attitude, and said to Karl, "I'm leaving now."

He was planning to leave, but just as soon as he reached the door, Alyssa knocked on the door.

Karl closed the door, turned back to the room and saw her sitting on the sofa. He walked over and touched her head. He said a little funny: "Why are you so angry? Who made you angry?"

Chapter 1352

Alyssa snorted softly: "I'll come back to get something. I will sleep in the small cool room tonight."

Don't look at the smile on Karl's face instantly frozen: "No."

Alyssa ignored him at all and went directly to get her own toiletries.

"Alyssa, do you have a sense of being a wife?" Karl stopped her in dissatisfaction.

"But I am not just your wife, I have many other identities, such as the child's mother, other friends."

Alyssa touched his face: "Okay."

"I can't sleep alone." Karl's expression did not change, but his tone softened a little, faintly revealing an aegis.

"Just work if you can't sleep. Didn't you bring a lot of work over?" Alyssa kissed the corner of his mouth: "Good night."

He watched Alyssa leave with a cold face.

He felt more and more that the decision to not let Alyssa follow the group was right at the beginning.

â€¦

The next day.

She could hear the sound of water in the bathroom.

Feeling empty next to her, she hummed in her heart, suddenly awake, got out of bed and walked to the bathroom door.

“Tina?” Alyssa stood at the door listening to the movement inside.

The next moment, the bathroom door opened.

“Did I wake you up?” Tina was wearing a bathrobe with a mask on her face. Although she could not see her face clearly, her voice sounded very energetic.

Alyssa looked at Tina and shook her head: “No.”

“Why are you looking at me like that?” Tina pressed the mask on her face: “Since you wake up, hurry up and clean up. We will go to the studio together later.”

While talking, Tina walked to the window and began to stretch her arms, without any sadness.

It was as if the loneliness that held her and made her cry had never appeared last night.

Tina felt Alyssa’s gaze, and said slowly: “Okay, don’t look at me, sister is fine.”

When you are sad, you are really sad.

But after being sad, you still have to do what you are meant to do.

The word slack has never existed in her dictionary.

â€¦

Tina originally wanted to go to the studio with Alyssa, but when she was about to leave, Karl also followed.

“Karl is early, did you sleep well last night?” Tina wanted to laugh a little. The two have been together for so long, and Karl still sticks to Alyssa.

Karl looked indifferent: “Not very good.”

Snatching his wife, it’s strange that he slept well.

Tina coughed slightly with a guilty conscience: “It’s your first time to accompany the Alyssa group. When work is over today, I will invite you to dinner.”

Karl didn’t refuse, his tone was so cold and indifferent, “OK.”

The group went to the studio together.

Seeing Alyssa and Tina, the director laughed from ear to ear: “The screenwriter Alyssa is here.”

Tina originally said that she would take time off. Stephanie told the director. The director thought it was going to be delayed, but last night Stephanie said she would not take time off and filming as usual.

The shooting progress is not delayed, and Alyssa also came to join the group when she said that she would have an online meeting. This is a good thing.

But after seeing Karl who was following them, the director's smile suddenly stopped: "Mr. Adams?"

"Lost City" is Alyssa's script. Karl didn't even read the project book, so he invested a lot of money without thinking, and became the biggest sponsor of "Lost City".

Coupled with Karl's reputation, the director couldn't help but feel jealous.

Chapter 1353

Karl nodded slightly towards the director: "You don't care about me, I just came here with my wife."

Just put the two words "show affection" on his forehead.

Alyssa squeezed his arm secretly, and his unshakable backhand caught Alyssa's hand.

The staff is almost there, Tina said, "I'll go make-up first."

After putting on makeup and changing clothes, Tina started filming. After some time, it entered the state and the filming went smoothly.

At twelve o'clock, the crew closed their work and set off for lunch.

Stephanie trots and brought water to Tina.

When Tina raised her head and drank water, she noticed that Stephanie's face was not very good, and her small face was a bit abnormal.

"What's wrong?" Tina drank the water and asked with her head down.

Stephanie shook her head: "It's okay."

Such an obvious reaction, Tina is not stupid, naturally, it is impossible to believe what she said is okay.

After Tina reviewed the water plug in her full hand, she reached out and took out the phone Stephanie had stuffed in her pocket, and directly opened Twitter to read the trending search.

Stephanie's expression must have happened.

"Ms. Tina!" Stephanie wanted to stop, but she was not as tall as the cool one.

Tina held her mobile phone and turned around flexibly, and she had already opened Twitter and saw the seventh trending search:

“Tina in the Studio Beating People”

As soon as Tina saw this title, she understood what was going on.

She shook her head, with a look of regret: "Tsk, isn't this topic violent? How come it is ranked seventh, it should be ranked first, and there should be a word 'explosive' behind it."

Stephanie had no choice but to truthfully say: "I notified the public relations department to withdraw the trending search, but if we withdraw directly, I am afraid it will cause a greater rebound, so I chose to reduce the heat."

"Our company's public relations department is too conservative." Tina refreshed the trending search list again and found that this topic had fallen from seventh to tenth.

She swiped it several times, dropping once every time she swiped, and the ranking was getting lower and lower.

Tina found a place and sat down: "Bring me the meal."

Stephanie originally didn't intend to tell Tina, it was because Tina's condition was too abnormal yesterday. She was afraid that Tina would be stimulated, but now looking at her reaction, she feels relieved.

Tina clicked into the trending search topic and took a look. There was a video in it, it was the part where she beat Cathy and then Cathy fell to the ground.

This sneak shot technique is very low-level and routine.

However, the routine has been popular since ancient times.

Without the part where Cathy hit Stephanie earlier, this video could kill Tina.

The first tweet in the topic, whether it is reposting likes or comments, has exceeded 100,000, and this Tweet was only sent an hour ago.

The lowly people say everything.

"This video is too hammering, right?"

"My God, I usually think that Tina is a very sturdy person, but this is too cruel, she beats people to the ground."

"Fans have been blowing her name, and now it's just fine, now it's really going to be cold."

Of course, in addition to these cool talkers, there are also fans who choose to believe in Tina.

"I believe Sister Weber!"

"This video has no cause and effect, who knows what happened."

"If you don't understand the cause and effect, you will be full of dung, and others will believe what they say. Don't you have a brain? Are they all waste that can't think independently?"

Chapter 1354

"What are you looking at?"

When Alyssa came back from the bathroom, she saw Tina staring at her cellphone blankly.

She sat down next to Tina, and Tina handed the phone over to let her see it by herself.

Karl came with Alyssa, and when he saw it, he also leaned over. Seeing from above, Karl frowned slightly.

“How could this happen?” Alyssa scrolled down and became very angry.

Tina took the phone back and refreshed the list again, and found that the topic of her beating had almost dropped off the list.

At this time, Stephanie also took the meal back. Seeing that they were discussing the trending search, she said, “I have never seen such a disgusting person.”

“Blame me too. Ms. Tina had let me get in the car yesterday and told me to leave Cathy alone. If I hadn’t been beaten by Cathy, Ms. Tina wouldn’t do anything to her, let alone be photographed!”

Stephanie was a little frustrated. Not only did she fail to protect Tina, but she also troubled her.

“Even if Cathy didn’t succeed yesterday, she will do this today, tomorrow, or someday in the future.” Tina sneered, “I’ll call it back again.”

The rest of the crew should have seen the trending search and look here from time to time.

The director who doesn’t usually surf the Internet, probably heard from others, and walked over to Tina, “Are you all here, haven’t you eaten yet?”

Stephanie replied, “Just about to eat.”

The director rubbed his hands and said tentatively: “I heard someone say something went wrong online?”

Stephanie smiled and said: “Something has happened, but please don’t worry director. Our AdamPic management team is very professional and will handle this matter.”

“Naturally, I believe you are right.” The director said that he chatted with them for a few more words, then turned and left.

As soon as the director left, Stephanie whispered: “Ms. Tina, don’t worry about this. I have already talked with the public relations department. Before there is any strong evidence, I insist that this video has no cause and effect. Definition, to guide public opinion and control the speed of fermentation.”

“Is there no surveillance where we parked yesterday?” If there is surveillance, Stephanie must have found the complete video to fight back. Tina just wanted to check again.

Stephanie gave a negative answer: “No.”

“Are there any witnesses?” Alyssa asked.

“Even if there are, they are also from our crew. Even if our own fans buy it, the opponent will continue to attack Ms. Tina on the grounds of ‘crew cover’. If we can’t fight back strongly, then this video will become a black spot on Ms. Tina’s body that cannot be washed off.”

After Stephanie finished speaking, she noticed that Tina had been looking at her thoughtfully, and asked, “Did Ms. Tina think of any solution?”

Tina shook her head and looked at Stephanie with relief: "I thought you could only eat, but I didn't expect you to be quite clever."

"Ms. Tina!" Stephanie couldn't laugh or cry: "When is this, you still have the heart to say this."

"Then eat first."

Tina took apart two boxes of lunch and put them in front of Alyssa and Karl, "I have to work hard for Mr. Adams and Mrs. Adams. I will invite you to have a big meal in the evening."

Karl's face was visible to the naked eye, but Alyssa had already picked up the chopsticks and started eating. In addition, Tina's "Mrs. Adams" sounded quite pleasant, so she was willing to give it a go.

Chapter 1355

It's not the first time that Tina has been hacked. Although this video looks very serious, but before the last moment, who knows if she can definitely fight back.

Tina's mentality was relaxed, eating the box lunch and the Alyssa couple were talking and laughing, like a okay person, the drama-level staff passing by couldn't help but look more here.

Looking at Tina and the mood joking, a little curious whether the Tina team had a countermeasure.

However, Stephanie was so anxious that she didn't concentrate on eating. She swiped her phone while eating, keeping an eye on the trends on Twitter.

Tina and Alyssa were chatting, and Alyssa winked at her suddenly and motioned her to look at Stephanie next to her.

When Tina turned her head, she saw Stephanie biting her chopsticks in her hand, her eyes falling straight on the phone, and her other hand sliding on the phone continuously, her brows frowned into a knot.

"Eat." Tina's long arms stretched out and took Stephanie's mobile phone.

"Eh, cell phone!" Stephanie looked up and found that the one holding the phone was Tina.

Tina put her mobile phone next to her where Stephanie couldn't get it: "I'll give it to you after eating."

"The phone is my life, give me my life!" Stephanie looked like she was about to cry.

Tina knocked her head unceremoniously before Stephanie lowered her head to eat honestly.

Tina finished eating and was about to rest for a while to start work.

Stephanie ran over and looked at Tina hesitantly: "I have something to tell you."

Tina raised her eyelids and motioned to her.

"The director said that you may not be in a good state today. In order to show the best results, he asked you to take a break this afternoon. He moved your scene to the back."

Tina had a meal: "That's it."

"Ms. Weber!"

At this time, the director also came.

This time the incident happened suddenly, and if it is not resolved, the investor is likely to ask for a change of heroine. For a project such as "Lost City", I dare not use actors with black spots.

After all, the director had cooperated with Tina before. He arbitrarily transferred Tina's scenes to the back, and he was still a little bit sad, so he personally came over to talk to her about it.

"Ms. Weber, I have heard about the Internet. We have cooperated so many times and we have known each other for several years. I must believe you, but your company said that it made you temporarily suspend work!"

Listening to the director's words, Tina frowned slightly and interrupted him: "My company said?"

"Yes, during the meal before, AdamPic called and talked about this." The director saw that Tina's expression was wrong and asked, "Did your company tell you?"

Tina went to visit Stephanie, Stephanie shook her head, saying that she didn't know.

Stephanie was also called by the deputy director to talk about the suspension of work just now. At the bottom of her heart, she was still dissatisfied with the director, but now it seems that she blamed the director.

The director is also a veteran. Looking at this situation, we know that the company did not notify Tina, but directly contacted him to temporarily suspend work.

In this way, things become a little more subtle.

Tina is AdamPic's head artist, and they are supposed to protect her like a national treasure. When something happened this time, they didn't think about solving the matter first, but instead let Tina stop work.

After a moment of deep contemplation, he asked the director in a serious tone, "Mr. Martin, who called you to talk about this?"

The director's name is Martin Dixon.

Martin Dixon admired Tina and didn't hide it. He told the truth: "He said he was CEO Grant's assistant!"

Chapter 1356

Martin came into contact with too many people in one day. If he was not someone with a particularly memorable point, he might not remember his name.

He frowned and thought again: "I saw him at a meeting in AdamPic before, but his name was a bit hard to remember, and it was a bit hard to remember."

After listening to Martin's words, Tina and Stephanie looked at each other and saw surprise in each other's eyes.

Stephanie reminded Martin: "Is it called Rubin?"

Peter actually had many secretaries and assistants, but the right-hand man he trusted the most was Rubin.

Martin clapped his hands: "Yes, that's him, that's the name, and that's Rubin. He called me and told me to ask Ms. Weber to suspend work, saying that it was an order from CEO Grant."

Tina's hands hanging on her side slowly tightened.

She thought it was an order from the top of the company, but she didn't expect it to be a direct order from Peter.

Martin patted Tina's shoulder: "It's okay, things are being dealt with, hurry back to film, I believe in your ability!"

In fact, Martin had a clear heart. Peter personally ordered Tina to temporarily stop the work, which can be regarded as showing his attitude, which means that Peter may not be so scrupulous about Tina in this matter.

There is always a lot of right and wrong in the entertainment industry, and it is difficult to distinguish between true and false.

No matter why Tina beat Cathy, this matter has started now, and it does not end well.

In fact, it's not difficult to understand, that Cathy is Peter's girlfriend after all, and he heard that she went to the hospital!

Martin still felt a little regretful: "I am also confused about this matter, but your temper is not the violent of the actors I have ever seen!"

It is precisely because Tina has her own temper that she will not be swayed by the big dye tank of the entertainment circle and focus on acting, so her acting skills are getting better and better, and her personality is becoming more and more attractive.

Tina said solemnly: "Thank you, Mr. Martin, for the compliment."

"You girl!" Martin glared at her angrily: "Okay, you take care, I have to go to rest for a while, I may have to stay up late at night, if there is anything I can do, I can help you. Come to me."

"Thank you, Mr. Martin." Tina thanked him sincerely.

Martin waved away.

"Cousin, how could he be like this!" Stephanie's tone also had a hint of anger: "He has really fainted. He didn't figure out what was going on, so he stopped work. "

Seeing Tina's indifferent appearance, Stephanie hated iron and steel and said, "Ms. Tina, are you not angry?"

"If anger is useful, will I still be suspended?" Tina leaned back on the recliner, her eyes unfocused and looked not far away, her bright eyes were covered with mist, which made people look at them. The true emotions in her eyes.

"Ms. Tina, how do you want to deal with this matter?" Although Stephanie is a novice agent with inexperience, she also knows that her own artist is the first reason for everything.

No matter how you deal with it in the end, you must maximize Tina's benefits, and Tina's own ideas are also very important.

Tina was satisfied that Stephanie was able to carry it so clearly, so that she didn't hurt her in vain.

Tina adjusted her clothes and stood up slowly: "Then go to Mr. Grant for a while, after all, he is also the person's boyfriend, isn't he?"

"Wait for me here, I'll talk to Alyssa."

Chapter 1357

The matter of Tina, said it was big or not, said it was not trivial, as long as she was willing, just talk to Alyssa, Alyssa could let Karl help to solve it.

But Tina has never been such a person to avoid problems.

So after eating, Alyssa was about to gather with her for thoughts, but Tina rushed to rest.

But she did not expect that she would be suspended by the company.

Just after lying down, Alyssa was talking to Karl about the sorrow, and was not sleepy.

At this time, she heard a knock on the door.

"Come in." Alyssa turned over and sat up from the bed, raising her voice.

The simple lounge on the set could not be locked, and Tina pushed the door directly in.

"Tina." A smile appeared on Alyssa's face when Tina came in.

The room was small and Tina stood by the door and did not come in: "I'm going out in the afternoon to do errands, and I will come back to you in the evening."

Hearing Tina's words, not only Alyssa was surprised, but Karl who had been staring at the phone also raised his eyes and looked in Tina's direction.

Alyssa asked her, "Don't you still have a role in the afternoon?"

"I'm temporarily shutting down, and I just have something to deal with this matter." Tina saw that Alyssa wanted to speak again, and immediately interrupted: "You don't worry, if I really can't handle it, I will take the initiative to ask you for help."

Knowing Tina's temperament, Alyssa nodded after hearing this.

"By the way, I'll give you the keys to the caravan, and go to rest when you are tired." Tina put the car keys into Alyssa's hands.

The set was messy, and Tina was afraid that Alyssa and Karl would not adapt.

Alyssa did not refuse.

Alyssa stood at the door, and after watching Tina leave, she turned her head and said to Karl a little irritably, "What on earth does Peter want to do?"

Karl recently learned a word from his daughter: the desire to survive.

When a woman asks some unreasonable questions, she doesn't want you to correct her, but to get a sense of identity from you. For women, learn to think backward.

For example, Alyssa was angering him at this time, very unreasonable.

Karl blinked his eyes and said confidently, "I don't know what this idiot is going to do."

Alyssa was amused by him, and she couldn't help but laugh: "Isn't he your good brother? Are you calling him an idiot?"

"But it can't hide the fact that he is stupid."

Karl was righteous and stern, Alyssa couldn't complain anymore, she just wrinkled her nose and snorted at him.

â€¦

Cathy had a baby in the city hospital, and Tina and Stephanie went directly to the city hospital.

Driving for two or three hours on the road, when she was almost at the hospital, Tina asked Stephanie to buy her a cup of iced coffee to refresh her mind.

Tina finished drinking in one breath and threw the disposable coffee cup into the trash can. When she was about to get in the car, she inadvertently looked up and saw a group of people gathered not far away.

Basically they were all in black clothes, and a few had cameras hanging on them.

"Reporter?" Stephanie also saw the group of people.

Tina said calmly: "Park the car here and take a taxi."

"Okay." Stephanie went to the car to stop.

Tina tucked her hair together, trying to hide her face as much as possible. Although she was wearing a mask, it was better just in case.

Stephanie quickly got into the car. After Tina got in the car, the driver glanced at her in the rearview mirror. Although she was wearing a mask with disheveled hair, she was a little strange, but she was a pretty girl from her figure.

The driver confirmed again and asked: "Just go around the hospital?"

Chapter 1358

With a positive answer, the driver's expression became even more puzzled.

The two little girls look clean and beautiful, but does he feel that their brains are a little abnormal?

Whoever is okay will take a taxi around the hospital.

The driver thought about it in his heart, but he still didn't show it on the surface. It looks gentle, and it shouldn't be a bad person.

Tina noticed that the driver kept looking at her from the rearview mirror, and could vaguely guess his thoughts, but she didn't say much.

After going around the hospital, Tina found that reporters were waiting at every exit of the hospital.

"These people are too!" Stephanie's expression was depressed, and she was worried about the driver's presence, so she couldn't say anything.

Tina chuckled, "This is called dedication."

Stephanie: "!"

Tina pulled her hair aside, and said with an awkward expression: "Sir, I have a request please!"

"Huh?" The driver had been paying attention to her for a long time, and he had heard her clearly.

"Can you accompany us to the hospital? We just came out of the JV Hotel, and someone has been following us, asking you to circle the hospital, but also to make sure that the person is still there. If you accompany us in, follow us People who are supposed to be afraid!"

The sullen tone was imploring, and her eyes were sincere, not like being fake.

The driver, who has been with sports cars around here for a long time, naturally knows that JV Hotel is the best hotel in the city. The ordinary guest rooms in it cost several thousand a night, and the presidential suite is even tens of thousands.

Those who can get in and out of JV Hotel are either rich and influential.

At first glance, Tina and Stephanie were little girls, and they lived in such an expensive hotel. It was indeed easy to be targeted by uneasy and unkind people.

The driver was a helpful person, nodding his head hurriedly: "Okay!"

"Thank you, Sir," Tina said gratefully.

"Just tell me if you have something, really, walking around the hospital scared me!" The driver finally breathed a sigh of relief, and brought Tina and Stephanie into the hospital.

The reporter squatting at the door saw the taxi driver and two women entering the hospital, but didn't think much.

Entertainment is a circle, and there are no secrets in it.

The people in the circle knew about Tina's change of agent, so they kept staring at the door, waiting for two women to enter together, and rushed to stop them.

Tina and Stephanie successfully entered the hospital. Stephanie paid the driver the fare. The driver was looking for money, but Stephanie pushed him off and left with Tina.

After entering the elevator, Stephanie complained in a low voice: "I didn't expect such twists and turns to come to the hospital."

Tina didn't say a word, and hugged her arms with a thoughtful look.

Soon, the two arrived at the door of Cathy's ward.

Unlike that day, there were two more bodyguards at the door this time.

They were all people who had followed Peter for a long time, and they recognized Tina immediately.

"Miss Weber?"

The people inside heard the movement outside, and the door was opened at this moment.

"What's the noise?"

Peter's tone was a little impatient, but he was slightly startled when he saw Tina, and then he straightened his expression again: "Here."

He seemed to have expected her to come.

Tina looked at her coldly: "I'm looking for Cathy."

"She is resting, tell me if anything." Peter stood in the middle of the door, blocking Tina.

Tina laughed like she heard some joke: "You want me to tell you, do I have to tell you? Did you tell me when you let me stop work?"

Chapter 1359

Hearing Tina mentioning the suspension of work, Peter's eyes flickered, and his voice suddenly rose a little: "It is the company's decision to make you temporarily stop work."

"Even if it's the company's decision, shouldn't I be notified?" The company was very unkind about stopping her from work. It made a decision without authorization to bypass her and notify the crew. This did not stop her at all. Keep it in the eye.

In the past few years in AdamPic, Tina walked steadily and hard, and now she has a certain right to speak.

Even other companies will give her three points of the face. She should know that her contract is about to expire. She is now in the best period as an actor, and more people want to sign her.

Tina is an entertainer with great commercial value. The video problem is not completely irreversible. A normal company must first keep her, instead of just letting her shut down without notifying her at this time.

AdamPic has raised so many employees, and they are all brainy people, so they naturally know how to deal with Tina.

A normal person would not mention this kind of opinion that first let Tina stop work.

Moreover, the executor is Rubin, who directly called Martin, and there is no so-called company decision.

“thingâ€™!”

“It’s the company’s decision or yours. It’s a man who has to be frank and straightforward. Don’t shrink like a woman and dare not admit what you have done!”

The two spoke almost at the same time, but Tina still took the lead, interrupting what Peter was about to say, questioning loudly.

The atmosphere was stagnant for a while.

The bodyguard on the side followed Peter for many years and knew that Tina was close to him. Hearing Tina’s questioning, he did not dare to speak out. They all stood upright, looking straight ahead, pretending to hear nothing.

Stephanie didn’t have a long time with Tina. Some time ago, Peter basically suppressed Tina and gave Tina’s resources to Cathy. Tina said nothing. This is the first time Stephanie saw Tina like this. Talk to Peter.

According to reason, she does not carry any personal feelings. If she hadn’t seen the conversations between Tina and Peter in the box before, she would really believe that the two were just in a simple relationship of the boss and the artist. With no other feelings.

The atmosphere was suppressed to the extreme.

Stephanie didn’t dare to speak out, and silently retreated to the side to make room for Tina.

In this matter, it is true that Peter was not kind, and she was also on the side of Tina.

When Tina finished speaking, she stared at Peter, Her face was cold.

Peter lowered his eyes, his complexion was no better than Tina’s, his voice was cold and indifferent: “Tina, I just gave you a lot of tolerance because of growing up together, you don’t want to give away an inch!”

“Do I have to make an inch of it, or do you not distinguish between public and private?” Tina raised her chin slightly, a flash of sarcasm in her eyes.

Peter was a little irritable: “Okay, the company will take care of this. You have been too tired these years, and now you can take a break after work has stopped.”

Tina sneered, her tone of disdain: “Mr. Grant is really good at planning for his artists. Since you have said so, then I have to be respectful instead of fate.”

Peter raised his eyes slightly, seemingly a little unexpectedly calm and so easy to talk.

Suddenly, Tina said, “Peter, the official business is over, we can now talk about private affairs.”

Chapter 1360

Speaking of personal affairs, Tina called Peter by name.

“Oh? There is still a private matter between us?” A very faint smile flashed through Peter’s eyes, which was so subtle that it was difficult to detect.

“There is no personal matter between us, it is your girlfriend who is guilty of being cheap!” Tina had no scruples at all. Peter is still her boss, and directly cursed Cathy for being wicked in front of him.

Peter narrowed his eyes and sneered with anger: “Tina, speak well.”

Tina smiled: “Speak well? Okay.”

When Stephanie saw Tina’s expression, she knew that Tina was going to do something.

She wanted to stop Tina, but after thinking about it, she felt that she could not stop what Tina had to do, so she simply gave up.

“Let your Cathy not beat people around like a shrew. No one is her parents and must tolerate her. Next time, it will not be as simple as a slap back. I also see that we grew up together. For the sake of that, I was so polite to her.”

Tina’s tone was not rushing, and it was arrogant that he couldn’t tell. What she said was not to put Cathy in her eyes, and it meant that she didn’t even put Peter in her eyes.

“Peter”

A weak female voice sounded behind Peter.

Tina raised her eyes and saw Cathy.

Cathy was wearing a hospital gown, standing behind Peter with a pale face, thin and fragile, as if the wind could fall down.

“Why did you come out?” Peter hurriedly reached out to support her, watched her expression nervously, frowned and said, “Just go back to bed and lie down.”

The voice was soft and coaxing.

Stephanie couldn’t help but turn her head to look at Tina, but only saw Tina staring at Cathy expressionlessly. This intimate scene didn’t seem to affect her at all.

She secretly admires Tina in her heart, and she really can afford it.

Since Cathy came out, all Peter’s attention has been on her, not looking at Tina at all.

Cathy raised her head to look at Tina, her eyes were full of pride, and she exaggerated and said: “Miss Weber, I also looked at the relationship between you and our family, Peter, who grew up together, so I didn’t plan to care about what happened yesterday. You have been so aggressive, and I can’t bear it anymore.”

“you”

Stephanie was inexplicably slapped yesterday. Cathy was already the number one enemy in her heart. Hearing Cathy's words like this, she was so angry that she wanted to go forward and argue.

Tina's slender arms blocked her in front of her, motioning her to stay calm.

Although Stephanie was angry, she listened to Tina's words very much.

Cathy was very satisfied with Tina's reaction. It was just that she should be so jealous of her, she was the future young lady of the Grant family!

When she turned her head to visit Peter, Cathy changed her expression again, with tears in her eyes, and a look of weeping: "Peter, I have never wanted to hurt the relationship between you and Miss Weber, but she is too much. Yes, I just went to the crew yesterday to deliver a coffee. She didn't want to get off from the car. I was going to leave. She even got out of the car and slapped me!"

The tears in Cathy's eyes fell, and she felt sad as if she was about to lose her breath at any time: "I really didn't plan to care! Although our children are almost gone! but I don't blame her! But she really can't do this, so she can't go on in the entertainment circle!"
