Chapter 1411

After David and Lester sat down, Tina felt that they had been watching her.

She turned her head and met the gazes of David and Lester, and both of them smiled embarrassedly.

Janie also noticed here, smiling and joking: "You have been staring at Miss Weber as soon as you come in."

David smiled a little shyly: "I was watching Miss Weber's drama recently, and I think Miss Weber herself is much more beautiful than on TV."

There was a decent smile on Tina's face: "Thank you."

"Understand!" Janie sighed, pretending to be serious: "Just now Glen told me that Miss Weber is more beautiful than me, but I have sent a WeChat to my assistant to buy durians for Glen."

Glen immediately retorted: "Did you just say that David was handsome?"

"David is handsome, what's the matter?" Janie turned around and called Tina, "Miss Weber, you say David is handsome?"

Tina continued to smile: "Handsome, my younger brothers are all handsome."

The boys present were all younger than Tina.

Tina's words are also very subtle. If she only answers "handsome", as soon as this line is broadcasted, Tina will arrange a trending search for "Tina, praise Lester and David".

And what she said was "All brothers are handsome", which means that seniors appreciate younger generations.

The younger brothers also follow.

"Thank Miss Weber."

"Miss Weber has a few more words!"

"I am the man whom Miss Weber praised!"

Because of this small episode, the relationship between the few people has pulled in a bit, and the atmosphere has become more and more heated.

Just as they chatted in full swing, the door was pushed open again.

Everyone looked at the door in unison. With the show crew's disposition to do things, they calmly guessed that Peter and Cathy should have entered this time. The suspense of the last group of mysterious guests must be kept until the end.

She understood this in her heart, but when Peter and Cathy came in, everyone had to make a surprised expression.

After all, Peter is the boss of AdamPic. In the entertainment industry, most stars are just commodities operated by capital. No matter how popular the stars are, they still need to be respectful when they meet the boss.

Everyone stood up.

“Great Mr. Grant!”

“Mr. Grant, lucky to meet.”

“â€¦”

Peter would best deal with this kind of occasion and responded with a smile.

After they greeted Peter, they turned to say hello to Cathy.

But everyone invariably watched the cool reaction.

Tina stood up slowly and called out: “Boss.”

Peter didn’t look at Tina when he came in just now. He heard this “boss” and turned his head to look at her.

His gaze paused for a while on Tina, and then he came to a conclusion: “You didn’t call me just now, I almost didn’t recognize you, how come you became black charcoal.”

Tina: “???”

She has been in outdoor scenes recently. Sometimes she’s in very good condition, and she forgets to replenish her sunscreen after a few consecutive shots. It’s a bit darker than before, but it’s a good foundation. A little bit of darkness does not affect her beauty. The degree of charcoal.

Peter did it on purpose.

When she appeared on this show, she was ready to be found fault by Cathy, but she did not expect that the first person to find fault with her was Peter.

Tina smiled: “When you sit down later, don’t sit next to David and the others, lest you feel inferior when watching the replay later.”

After she finished speaking, she turned her head and asked David: “I remember that, if you are right, Miss Lee is twenty years old this year, right?”

Chapter 1412

No one expected that Peter and Tina were the first to pinch.

Janie and Glen were both frightened. The preparatory plans they made before they came were aimed at Tina and Cathy. Now Peter and Tina are fighting, and they don’t know how to control the field for a while.

David, who was called innocently, could only bite the bullet and said, “Yes, it’s just after my birthday.”

Janie took the opportunity: “Wow, so young.”

“Yeah.” Tina answered, looking at Peter, with a big smile: “Boss, you’re all rushing, or don’t sit with them, I’m also good for you.”

Peter also smiled: “Then I thank you, elder Ms. Weber.”

“You’re welcome, Old Boss Grant.” Tina deliberately returned the word “old”.

Although both of them are smiling, the smell of gunpowder has spread throughout the room, and the people around them dare not show up.

Only Cathy lowered her eyes slightly to conceal her pride.

Janie tried to control the field again: “Mr. Grant, sit down, sit here!”

Peter didn’t go over immediately, but stretched out his arm to support Cathy. This thoughtful little action was captured by the camera, and Janie pushed the road beside him: “Look at Mr. Grant, it’s so sweet.”

“Me too.” Glen grinned and held Janie’s arm.

Janie “cut”.

Whether intentionally or unintentionally, Cathy sat beside Tina.

Tina looked up and found that a photographer had moved the camera, facing her and Cathy, and Cathy naturally found out.

Cathy slightly twitched the hair near her ear, and said softly, “Tina, it’s been a long time.”

Tina?

Tina curled the corner of her lips and looked at Cathy with a smile, “Yes, Miss Lee.”

Cathy’s face changed slightly.

She deliberately called Tina “Tina” because someone on the Internet said that Tina did not like her. She expected that Tina would not let her step down in front of so many people, so she deliberately called to get close. She wants everyone to think that she and Tina have a good relationship.

Then, look for opportunities to do some small actions to deal with her, which will easily make Tina annoying.

But she didn’t expect that Tina didn’t give face in front of the plane, and called her “Miss Lee” directly. This was telling the audience that Tina was not close to her.

Cathy was very angry, but she still had to keep smiling, and continued: “The last group of guests has not arrived yet, so the finale must be the heavyweight guests.”

When Cathy said this, she didn’t actually see the last pair of guests in her eyes. No matter how heavyweight they are, they are not stars at the mercy of capital. Can they be more powerful than Peter’s identity?

Tina saw through her thoughts with a glance: "That's for sure, otherwise it's just for fun to make it so mysterious?"

Cathy gritted her teeth: "You are so sure, do you already know who the last group of guests is?"

"I want to know too, but the program team won't tell me." Tina said casually.

In fact, the previous one had told her that it was someone she was familiar with, and she had vaguely guessed in her heart. Coupled with the fact that she was shooting in Best Day, she was even more sure of her guess.

Tina has been filming recently. Cathy went to AdamPic to find Peter when he was fine. People around her were respectful, and life went smoothly.

Suddenly by Tina, Cathy's anger reached its peak. She was afraid that she would lose her temper if she talked to Tina, so she turned her head and acted like a baby to Peter: "Peter, I want to drink water."

Chapter 1413

After hearing Cathy's words, everyone's eyes looked over.

Because the water cup was placed in front of Cathy.

And Peter didn't have any impatience, and directly brought the water cup over to Cathy's hand.

Cathy took the water glass, held it to her lips and was about to drink it, and had a sudden meal, as if to find that everyone was looking at her, pretending to be shy and explained: "I'm sorry, I am used to it at home."

Then she looked at Peter with affection, and said, "I blame you, you're so kind to me!"

Peter smiled, his eyes were unusually gentle: "Drink water."

"Yeah." Cathy picked up the water glass and drank.

Janie was also shocked by Cathy's series of behaviors. For the first time, she met a couple who was more exaggerated than her and Glen. Fortunately, she has been mixing variety shows for a long time. Even if it is such an embarrassing show love festival, she can Hold.

"Mr. Grant is great, he is an awesome filial boyfriend, I am so envious!" Janie held her hands together, holding her chin on her face with admiration, except for a slightly stiff smile, she really couldn't see any disguise. Look like forced happiness.

Tina wanted to laugh a little.

But it's not so good to laugh out on such occasions. It's not easy for Janie to join in. They are all colleagues, so be considerate.

Tina lowered her head, and put her hand to her lips to hide her smile.

David on the side poked his head, "Miss Weber, are you okay?"

“Huh?” Tina turned her head, before the smile on her face had time to stop, her eyes were a little surprised, and the whole person looked dumbfounded.

David was inexplicably poked to a cute spot, smiled and said: “It’s okay, do you want to drink water?”

Hearing the words “drink water”, Tina finally held back a smile, nodding solemnly and said: “Well, it’s time to drink some water.”

When she reached for the water glass, she almost choked again, and David quickly handed over the tissue.

Janie didn’t know when she stared at Tina and David, and said with a deep smile, “Brother Lee learns very quickly.”

David is also upright: “Although the company does not let you fall in love, you can learn it first.”

As soon as she said this, Lester nodded in agreement, and Janie and Glen were also amused.

Tina was a little curious, so she asked: “Can you never fall in love?”

In the past few years, domestic talents have introduced overseas talents, and many idols who eat the fan economy have emerged.

And this kind of idol has a closer connection with fans, focusing on fans. One of the most important points is not to fall in love.

Because these idols are all good-looking, strong in business ability, very good, and full of the fantasies of many girls, there will be many girlfriends, and if they are not single, they will lose many fans.

David explained: “For the time being, falling in love is not in the plan.”

“Oh.”

Tina understood that as long as he was still red, he couldn’t fall in love.

Janie took the opportunity to ask: “What are the ideal girlfriends of David and Lester?”

The eyes of everyone fell on the two younger men.

At this moment, there was another knock on the door outside!

There is no doubt that the knock on the door at this time must be the last group of guests.

Everyone’s eyes moved to the door unanimously. In the eyes of everyone’s expectations, the door was opened, and the waiter pushed the dining car in.

Several people sighed together, obviously disappointed.

The director appeared at the door at some point: “The last group of guests is coming right away, and now they have entered the elevator.”

Chapter 1414

“Director, it’s still sold out at this time.”

“My curiosity is almost out of hiding.”

“Director, if you don’t say anything, I will go to the elevator to see myself.”

“director”

The director closed the door indifferently and left, leaving a room of guests crying without tears.

Janie shook her head repeatedly: “Our “My Life and Me” program group is the most serious program group I have ever seen.

David and Lester nodded in agreement: “So do we.”

Everyone is at the elevator entrance, and they don’t want to reveal any news.

Tina knocked thoughtfully on the table twice, then turned to look at Peter.

If it is the two people she guessed, is it possible that Peter knows something?

Peter felt her gaze, turned his head and glanced at each other, not knowing what he thought of, and nodded at Tina.

Without any verbal communication, what did he nod at her?

Did Peter really understand her thoughts?

Tina didn’t have time to wonder for too long, because the door was knocked again.

Janie rubbed her hands and said, “Is it really here this time? Oh my god, I’m so nervous!”

With a creak, the door was slowly pushed open.

After seeing who was pushing the door, the seven people in the room were all surprised and incredulous.

Janie and Glen stood up first: “Mr. Adams”

Karl glanced indifferently, then stood sideways and let Alyssa come in first.

Alyssa wore a beige windbreaker with a gentle smile: “Hello everyone, I am Alyssa.”

Alyssa looked around, and finally fell on Tina’s face, and then took the opportunity to blink at her.

The corners of Tina’s mouth rose uncontrollably, giving Alyssa a look of “you are waiting”.

Alyssa blinked innocently, turned her head to look at Karl. She was telling Tina that Karl was going to participate.

Except for Tina and Peter, the remaining few people just got up to greet them, but no one dared to step forward to shake hands with Karl.

After Tina finished laughing, she walked straight to Alyssa and said with a smile: “Alyssa, screenwriter, long time no see.”

“It’s not that long. I only saw you on the set a few days ago.” Alyssa said, reaching out to hug her.

After Tina gave a hug, the smile on her face deepened uncontrollably: “Yes, I have a bad memory when I am older.”

Although it was just a simple greeting, everyone else could feel the closeness of Tina and Alyssa.

At this time, Cathy also stepped forward and greeted Alyssa: “Hello, screenwriter Alyssa.”

“Miss Lee.” The smile on Alyssa’s face faded to the naked eye, and after a brief handshake with Cathy, she released her hand.

Peter also walked to Karl: “I thought you were joking, but I didn’t expect you to come.”

Only then did Karl retract the gaze that fell on Alyssa’s face, and said emotionally, “It’s been boring these days.”

Peter snorted softly: “I can see it.”

If it is not really boring, how could Karl come to this kind of show?

Karl glanced at him: “Aren’t you?”

Peter choked: “It’s not because you invested in this show to support. Do I really have nothing to do when I’m full.”

“Are you still doing few things when you are full?” Karl has always been good at stunning Peter, and he can definitely make him speechless.

Chapter 1415

Karl is also a legend.

Ordinary people couldn’t even think of things like sitting and chatting with Karl.

Unlike Peter, although Peter is the boss of AdamPic, because he is often active on Twitter and attends various activities, many people can still meet one another from a distance, so he seems not so unattainable.

As for Karl, he just stood there, making people feel unattainable and afraid to approach him.

Different from Karl’s powerful aura, Alyssa looked gentle and beautiful, and very approachable.

“Alyssa, screenwriter, hello, my name is Janie.” Janie is a person with emotional intelligence, and everyone in front of her called Alyssa screenwriter, and she followed.

Alyssa looked at Janie with a kindly look in her eyes: “I’ve watched your show, you are more beautiful.”

“Honor, my honor!” Janie shook Alyssa’s hand and bowed: “I also watched your “Lost City”. I like it very much.”

Cathy looked around and found that everyone was talking and laughing. Tina stood by and watched Alyssa talk to Janie, which was considered an order, and walked to Tina.

“Your good friend’s popularity is much higher than you.”

“Yeah, beautiful and talented, it’s hard for people not to like her.”

Tina was in a good mood, even if he heard the provocation in Cathy’s words, she didn’t frustrate Cathy.

Cathy underestimated the relationship between her and Alyssa.

She and Alyssa have known each other for more than ten years, and they have come to this day step by step. Seeing Alyssa getting happier, she is too happy to be happy, how could she be jealous of her.

Cathy’s tone was sour: “It’s not luck yet.”

Tina curled her lips: “Good luck is not for everyone.”

â€¦

Everyone finished introducing themselves and sat down.

Alyssa sat on the opposite side of Tina, the two looked at each other in the air, and then moved their eyes away tacitly.

Janie’s voice sounded: “Since everyone is here, let’s take a look at our lives now.”

The first one played was the video of Janie and Glen. The two have a sense of variety and the whole video is very funny.

Janie stood up and bowed solemnly: “Let everyone laugh.”

The second is Lester’s video.

Lester’s video shows the life of ordinary boys.

Janie pointed her finger in the direction where Peter and Cathy were: “Next, is our life with Mr. Grant and Cathy.”

Alyssa couldn’t help but glance at Tina.

Tina squeezed the water glass and turned it in her hand, looking lightly at the big screen.

The location of the video seems to be in Peter’s office.

After watching a video, Peter didn’t say a few words, the whole process was Cathy’s voice.

“Peter, I want to drink water.”

“Peter, I want to eat cake.”

“Peter, I want to eat fruit.”

“Peter, I want to go for a walkâ€¦”

And Peter took his “20-40 filial piety and good boyfriend” to the extreme. Regardless of Cathy’s ability, he always said “OK” with a gentle face.

The video ended, and the room was silent.

It was Janie who broke the silence in the room: "It's so sweet, Mr. Grant is too kind!"

Glen picked up the water cup and handed it to Janie: "Baby, come on, drink water."

Janie pretended to snort angrily, ignored the sound, and asked Tina with a smile: "Miss Weber, after seeing Grant and Cathy's life, do you feel envious and want to find a boyfriend?"

Chapter 1416

Tina sighed in the bottom of his heart.

She knew it was not easy to make money.

Dig holes for her everywhere.

Tina replied decisively: "I don't want to."

Janie's eyes widened in surprise: "Why? Look at Mr. Grant and Cathy, how sweet, I envy it."

Tina glanced at Peter: "You have to ask for anything before you give it to my boyfriend. I don't want it at all."

"!"

The smile on Janie's face froze, and she couldn't take these words. Although this show does not have a script, it can't be played to this degree freely, right?

No one can understand Janie's suffering. The program crew is too happy. What they want is this kind of strangulation atmosphere. Only her boyfriend Glen patted her on the shoulder for comfort.

Peter turned his head to look at Tina, and retorted in a serious manner: "What do you know as a single dog? This is fun!"

Tina raised her chin and did not back down, "What's wrong with the single dog? You are on a personal attack."

"Are you not convinced?" Peter smiled meaningfully, then turned his head and said loudly: "Anyone here hasn't been in a relationship in seven or eight years?"

Tina graduated from the School of Film and Television, and it has been seven or eight years since her debut.

Everyone's eyes fell on Tina's face.

Janie also seriously shook her fingers and counted: "Miss Weber, have you never been in love since your debut?"

Tina now wants to fight Peter, but still smiles: "I love work, and work makes me happy."

Everyone talked about it.

Only Alyssa turned her head in confusion, and asked Karl in a low voice, "What's the matter? Didn't it mean that there is no script for this show? Peter took the wrong medicine?"

Karl leaned back on the sofa lazily, and said casually, "Maybe it is."

Over there, Tina and Peter were stunned again, and Alyssa said to Karl with a worried expression: "Are you sure that after this show is finished, these two people will not become enemies?"

Let alone reconciliation.

Karl said with a profound expression: "It takes fate to become an enemy."

Alyssa couldn't laugh or cry, and secretly kicked Karl under the table.

Karl moved his feet, with a slight smile on his lips.

At this time, Cathy suddenly raised the volume and said, "Peter, you are too arbitrary. Although Tina is your artist, she also has privacy. It is impossible to let the company know everything. , Tina is so beautiful, how can no one chase her."

She had a smile on her face and a soft voice. After speaking, she asked Tina, "Right, Tina?"

Cathy was young, even if she deliberately made her voice gentle, she still couldn't hide the smell of gunpowder in her words. She deliberately targeted Tina.

Janie was afraid to speak.

If one says badly, it can offend others.

Although Tina is low-key, she has almost no scandals. From this point, it can be seen that she has a background.

Cathy is Peter's girlfriend. Although the two show off in the video is a bit embarrassing, they are also the ones that Peter is holding.

In the entertainment industry, there are not many things that rush into the crown.

Therefore, Tina and Cathy can't afford to offend either of them.

In the silence, Alyssa's voice rang.

"I heard that Miss Lee is a newcomer in the entertainment industry, not long after her debut."

Cathy smiled: "Yes, it's been more than a year since my debut."

She wanted to see if Alyssa, a good friend, could help Tina to say something about it.

Chapter 1417

Alyssa and Tina have a close relationship, and Cathy even hates Alyssa.

So she asked Alyssa again: "screenwriter Alyssa, you asked me this question, have you ever been in a relationship with Tina?"

Alyssa smiled, and said in an unhurried manner: "Of course it does matter. You are a newcomer. You probably don't know a mature artist like Tina. There are constant invitations and announcements, often in the new year. It is arranged by the company, and the company naturally knows the artist's schedule clearly. It is impossible for the company to know about major events such as dating, let alone a large professional company like AdamPic.”

Alyssa’s words were gentle and simple, but Cathy’s expression suddenly changed.

Tina is very popular. Various invitations and announcements continue, and the schedule is full. The company will make a special plan for Tina’s entertainers. This plan can be accurate to several points in the day. What does she do?

In this way, Tina has no time to do other things, which indirectly shows how red Tina is.

And Cathy debuted for more than a year, and only made a tepid web drama.

Alyssa used the words euphemistically, and did not explicitly say how hot Tina was, nor did she clearly say that Cathy was the eighteenth line.

However, as long as it is an individual, it can be understood from her words.

Janie turned to look at Glen, and sat up silently.

The screenwriter is the screenwriter. There is nothing wrong with what he said, but the meaning to be expressed is also clearly expressed, and it also leaves Cathy no step to step down.

Cathy’s complexion changed and changed again. She is now Peter’s girlfriend. If she bites on Tina again, she may have secretly talked about love affairs. She is saying in a disguised form that AdamPic is unprofessional. This is also fighting Peter’s face.

She turned her head and gave Peter a cry for help.

Peter lowered his eyes, and after clearing the disgust under his eyes, he raised his head and looked at Cathy with a gentle expression: “Miss Alyssa is right, but our family Cathy is very young, let’s talk about it. With me, she doesn’t need to understand this.”

In one sentence, Cathy’s embarrassment was easily resolved.

Janie’s embarrassment was also resolved, and she finally had something to say.

Janie was afraid that Alyssa would speak again, and that Tina would yell at Peter, and quickly said, “I have become a lemon.”

She turned her head and pushed the sound of Glen: “Sir Grant, is a learned person.”

Glen tacitly accepted the stalk, pulled out the chair and got up and walked outside: “I can’t shoot this show, so you won’t let me survive. If I knew Grant was always like this, I won’t come, I will really go. It’s&”

He said that he was leaving, but he kept reaching out in Janie’s direction, and his whole body was expressing the meaning “Come on and pull me, I don’t want to go.”

Alyssa knew that Tina couldn’t say these things, and she took the initiative to speak because she was afraid that she would be caught. Since this matter had been revealed, she stopped speaking, lest Janie is embarrassed.

It's not easy for everyone.

The following clip was made by Karl and Alyssa.

The time between Alyssa and Karl was very short, only five minutes.

This length is a bit perfunctory, and the content of the video is also perfunctory, that is, when two people eat together, there are no more than ten sentences that the two people say together, and it is not clear where the filming location is.

Even Tina couldn't tell where they took it.

Chapter 1418

Although the footage of Alyssa and Karl seemed very perfunctory and didn't say a few words, they felt particularly warm.

Speaking of which, among the three couples of guests, only Alyssa and Karl's feelings are the most real.

The looks of both people are exceptionally good. Alyssa has experienced so many things over the years. What time and suffering left on her is not the vicissitudes of years, but a gentle but unignorable aura. And the very contagious temperament that does not move.

There is no dazzling edge on her body, but people can't help but keep their eyes on her.

Not to mention Karl. He grew up in the Adams family. He was educated very well before his mother died. Although the Adams' family hid the dirt, but after all, it is a wealthy family. That extravagance is how ordinary people learn.

Although he has reduced his sharp edge, he still doesn't seem to be a good-tempered person, full of distance, but sitting with Alyssa with a gentle smile, he fits perfectly.

There is no intimate movement and language, but anyone who looks at it will feel that they are a loving couple.

After watching Alyssa and Karl's clips, the studio suddenly became extremely quiet.

Tina has watched them come over these years, but watching their lives from the video still has some unspeakable emotion.

It's not easy.

Tina looked up and looked in the direction where Alyssa was. Alyssa blinked at her and said two words silently: "Eat."

Tina understood. Alyssa asked her to wait for a while after recording the show to have dinner together, and then slightly nodded.

At this time, Janie suddenly said: "It's so warm."

Then, the others also seemed to react suddenly and began to applaud.

Janie added: "Unfortunately, the video is too short, I haven't watched enough."

Alyssa and Karl will come to this show. They didn't come for the effect of the show. Naturally, they won't take too much private life for others to watch.

Janie was also there with Glen, and she understood that there was only this point in this segment, it should be the arrangement of the program group, and she finished it with Glen.

"Then we'll see you next time!"

As soon as it was over, almost everyone slumped on the chair with relief.

Janie looked around and said, "Let's have dinner together later? How about? I wonder if everyone is free."

Tina looked at the clock not far away, it was a little bit faster, and after recording the catalog for the whole morning, it was no wonder she felt a little hungry.

Generally, when the show is recorded, everyone will basically go out for a meal.

Get to know each other, expand your friend's list, and maybe exchange resources or something.

However, after Janie's voice fell, no one immediately responded.

Although David and Lester are popular, they are both newcomers in the entertainment industry, and the other people in this scene are more identifiable than them. They look at each other and dare not speak easily.

It is not easy for Janie to liven up the atmosphere, and her temper is quite pleasing. Tina didn't want her to be embarrassed, so she smiled and said, "I can. I only have an announcement at night."

Janie didn't expect Tina to respond to her initiatives. A touch of gratitude flashed across her eyes: "What does Miss Weber want to eat?"

Cathy hadn't planned to pay any attention to Janie. After hearing Tina's words, she snorted with disdain, then turned her head and said to Peter, "Peter, let's go."

Chapter 1419

Cathy was flat today, but Peter helped her save her face.

Peter loves her now, and everything takes her first. She relies on Peter to spoil her and has high self-confidence. Except for Karl, she doesn't pay attention to everyone present. This disdainful hum is not big. It's not small, and everyone present has basically heard it.

Tina ignored Cathy, and Janie said: "It must be light. Recently, the diet is not very regular and the stomach is not good."

"That's okay, Glen and I have also been healthy recently, and can't eat heavy flavors!" Janie is worthy of a variety show, and she can speak vividly even after a meal, especially lively.

Alyssa watched Tina want them to eat together, and said, "Then eat in Best Day."

"Will the screenwriter Alyssa be there?" Janie's eyes widened, she was really surprised.

Although Alyssa seemed to be gentle and easy to get along with, she didn't speak much when she recorded the show just now. She probably didn't speak much to someone she didn't know, and suddenly said that she was going to eat together, which surprised Janie.

Janie is very discerning, Alyssa and Karl are so affectionate, Alyssa said they want to eat together, is it possible that Karl will not be together?

"Well, I also want to get together with everyone." Alyssa said it was everyone, but actually wanted to get together with Tina.

The filming of "Lost City" was very intense. There were many and complicated scenes, and a lot of play and lines. Although there were opportunities to meet on the set, the two basically didn't have time to get together.

Moreover, Alyssa doesn't need to follow the group anymore, so there will be a long time without seeing the cold.

Janie turned around again and asked, "Where are David and Lester? Do you want to be together?"

David and Lester nodded together: "Together."

As soon as Cathy saw that everyone was going, if she didn't, it would make it seem like she was not in harmony with everyone.

Peter could see through the expression on Cathy's face, knowing that Cathy also wanted to follow along, he said, "Let's go, you are tired after recording so long a show today. You eat dinner with us. Then go home and have a good rest."

He said this deliberately, and there were so many things in Cathy's mind. He urged her to leave, and she would want to stay more instead.

And Peter himself naturally wanted to stay and eat with everyone, after all, Tina was also there.

Even if Tina is not there, it is just a few artists who recorded the show, Janie and David, he also thinks that it is better to eat with them than with Cathy.

It's just a matter of doing DNA comparisons for the fetus.

"Since everyone is going, let's go too. After all, they are all from the same program group." Cathy raised her chin slightly, with an arrogant expression.

â€

The boxes were arranged by Karl's orders.

David and Lester are newcomers. Although they are very popular at the moment, the schedule is full, and there should be no time to eat, drink and have fun. It was probably the first time they came to Best Day. After they sat down, they didn't talk much and looked a little restrained.

Janie and Glen sat more calmly. The two of them say something to them, just to make the scene not embarrassing, but occasionally it was cold. After all, Tina and the group are not talkative people in front of unfamiliar people.

On the contrary, Tina and Alyssa were sitting together, thinking of anything they could talk about, they just said something.

Janie and the others probably also noticed that Tina and Alyssa were very familiar with each other, and they also knew Karl, but they seemed superfluous, so they left early on the excuse of something.

Chapter 1420

After Janie and her party left, except for Cathy in the box, they were all their own.

Irrelevant people are almost gone, Peter doesn't have so many scruples, and looks at Karl: "You guys are hiding tight enough. There was really no wind before. I came here today to guess the last. A group of guests maybe you?"

Cathy immediately echoed: "Yes, Mr. Adams, Peter and I have been guessing who it is before, so curious."

Karl didn't even look at Cathy. He raised his head and glanced at Peter: "I didn't hide it, but the show team wanted to hide it."

The program group never dreamed that Karl and Alyssa would also participate.

At that time, when they knew that Karl and Alyssa were going to participate, the whole program group was boiled, and then they planned the mysterious guest.

It was never announced that the last group of guests were Karl and Alyssa.

Take this as suspense.

And this indeed aroused the curiosity of the audience.

Tina nodded: "I can understand, if I am a member of the program group, such a big trick, I will definitely release it until the end."

Karl and Alyssa used to be hot searchers.

Karl is not like Peter in surfing the Internet all year round, but he is also a legendary man.

Everyone has a desire for voyeurism.

Will be curious about other people's lives.

Karl glanced at Tina and said in a low voice, "Only the show is effective."

After he finished speaking, he lowered his head to peel the shrimp for Alyssa.

Tina tilted her head in doubt and went to see Alyssa, with something like "Karl still cares about the effects of the show" in his eyes?

Alyssa smiled: "Of course he has to pay attention to the programs he invested in."

"Yes." But Tina didn't believe it very much in her heart, always feeling that this thing was strange.

Cathy on the side was so angry that her teeth broke.

She had just agreed with Peter and talked to Karl, but Karl didn't even give her a look, but he actually paid attention to Tina.

Karl clearly looked down on her!

She is already Peter's girlfriend, why can Karl look down on her, and Tina is just Alyssa's friend!

But no one cares about Cathy's expression or mood.

Tina and Alyssa murmured, Karl and Peter chatted one after another, only Cathy sat there alone.

â€¦

At the end of the meal, Tina wants to go home to rest, and then go back to the studio after an announcement in the evening.

Stephanie drove to pick her up, and left as soon as she received the person. Karl stayed in Best Day to look up his books by the way, and Alyssa accompanied him.

Peter went to the parking lot and drove the car over, lowered the window, and shouted to Cathy who was standing outside: "Get in the car."

"The door is not open, how could I get in the car!" Cathy was still alive at the moment because she was coldly treated during the meal, and she just vented her breath at Peter.

Peter's hands on the steering wheel were slightly loosened, and his index finger with distinct joints gently tapped the steering wheel, one by one, full of impatience.

Cathy's temper has grown stronger recently.

She even dared to lose her temper.

This kind of woman is as stupid as a pig. She just spends a little money on her and pretends a little, she doesn't even know who she is.

Seeing that Peter hadn't moved, Cathy yelled at him impatiently: "What are you doing in a daze? Come down and open the door for me!"

Tina came back to pick up things, and as soon as she stopped the car, she happened to hear Cathy's words.
