

Predestined 1421

Chapter 1421

There was only one parking space between the place where Tina parked and the place where Peter parked. Therefore, she heard Cathy's words clearly.

The car was parked in the parking space between them, but the car parked irregularly, just staggered, and Tina could see the front of Peter in the car.

She saw Cathy yelling at him in the car with an angry expression. After two seconds, Peter opened the door and went to the other side to open the door for Cathy.

Cathy was still not satisfied, and shouted: "My legs are numb!"

Peter was not angry either, he seemed to grin with his lips curled: "Get in the car."

Cathy got into the car now, but she still looked angrily.

Tina naturally didn't know what the two said in the car, and it didn't take long before Peter's car passed by.

They did not see Tina.

Tina watched Peter's car disappear completely before lowering the window completely.

She came back to get her coat. Just now, she left her coat in Best Day. Stephanie had something wrong, so she drove home by herself.

She saw this scene unexpectedly.

She herself has a bad temper and doesn't have a good face to Peter, but she has always targeted him, and will not send the anger received from elsewhere to Peter.

Cathy.

Even yelling at Peter like that!

Peter wanted to have everything since he was a child, but now he has to be so angry.

But he really endured it like that.

Tina took a deep breath and spit it out again, trying to suppress the irritability in her heart.

What does this have to do with her?

It has nothing to do with her, this is Peter's matter, he is willing.

After doing psychological construction for himself, Tina got off the car and walked into the Best Day.

As she walked, the cell phone rang.

Alyssa called.

“Tina, you forgot to take your coat. If you are not in a hurry, I will take it home and wash it for you. I will give it to you next time you come back, or you can come to my house to get it.”

Alyssa has always been so caring.

“I’ll get it, just arrived at Best Day, where are you, I’ll find you.” Tina said.

Alyssa told Tina where she was, and Tina looked for it.

“I didn’t sleep last night, so I even ran a trip specially.” Alyssa looked at the green mark on Tina’s eyes, feeling distressed.

Tina smiled: “I prefer to wear this coat, I’m used to it.”

“Well, I’ll send you out, go back and rest quickly.” Alyssa took her arm and sent her out of the Best Day.

When Tina arrived at the parking lot, she remembered what had happened before, and her expression became a little irritable.

Alyssa noticed that her expression was a little strange, and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Tina hesitated for a moment, and then told Alyssa what she had seen in the parking lot.

Alyssa listened carefully, and said leisurely after listening: “Are you distressed for Peter?”

“I feel sorry for Peter?” Tina suddenly exploded her hair: “Where does he need someone to feel distressed?”

Alyssa showed a slight smile.

She held her cold hand, her voice was soothing tenderness.

“Because of that child’s matter, he has walked into a dead end and got into a horn. You have suffered from it all these years. But even so, you did not tell Peter about your child. You don’t want him to suffer as much as you. , You still love him?”

Tina subconsciously retorted: “I don’t!”

Chapter 1422

Regarding Tina’s rebuttal, Alyssa was not eager to argue, but just looked at her with a smile, silent, but made Tina feel helpless.

Tina dodged her eyes, and finally lowered her eyes, giving up the useless struggle.

Alyssa continued: “Emotions are not something that can be controlled at will, otherwise, there will not be so many sad people in this world.”

Tina still didn’t speak, her eyes lowered, her expression sad but helpless.

“Tina, look at me and Karl. You said before that you were envious of us, but you also know that Karl and I were not suddenly happy. We have experienced many bad things before we became what we are today. Happiness, happiness also has its negative side. The negative side may be a bad thing, but don’t be afraid, love can conquer everything.”

Now Alyssa seldom thinks of the past events anymore. Maybe she was too happy. She has to think carefully for a long time to remember how those things happened, when they happened, and who they happened with.

Tina pursed the corners of her lips, and her voice was slightly muted: "You have always been braver than me. From the beginning, you rescued me from those people."

Alyssa has a good temper and looks like a person who is easily bullied, but many times, when they encounter problems, Alyssa pulls her forward.

She and Alyssa became best friends not only because Alyssa saved her in the old school building, but because Alyssa possessed the tenacity and bravery she yearned for.

Alyssa laughed: "That's also because you are behind me, and I completely trust you. No matter what happens, you will help me cover it up. Even if you can't help, you will bear it with me, so I will Only if you have confidence will you become brave."

"You really think so." Tina raised her eyes suddenly, she didn't expect that she would have such a big effect on Alyssa.

Tina at this moment looked like a helpless and self-suspicious child, Alyssa looked at her firmly: "Yes, because I know I am not alone, so I am so fearless, I know that behind me are you."

"Similarly, you obviously love Peter in your heart, but you choose to end everything. That is because you subconsciously feel that Peter will not give you a lot of money, because he left that year and you can no longer trust him. Over the years, you have built a solid barrier in your own heart, and this barrier is specially designed for Peter. Even if you are moved in your heart, you are more afraid of repeating the same mistakes, so you choose to drive away. Peter's way to protect himself."

Tina's head suddenly pressed lower.

Because Alyssa was right.

The two have known each other for more than ten years, and they have gone through a long period of youth together. Together they have grown from a reckless girl to a stable adult. Alyssa can feel her temperament clearly and see her thoroughly.

She found so many reasons for herself.

What do you say is to end everything, look forward, say to end with the past, and say you should have your own life!

A summary of these many excuses is just one word, that is-fear.

She was too afraid to repeat the same mistakes.

Too scared to do it again.

How confident she was, how self-questioning she was after that incident.

On her 18th birthday, she tricked Peter into a hotel to get drunk.

At that time, it only took her one day to make this decision.

It took the next ten years to pay for this decision.

Chapter 1423

The moment Tina tricked Peter into the hotel, he was thinking about their future.

But when he woke up the next morning, the person beside him was no longer there.

Peter left her nothing. She even heard the news of Peter going abroad from Maria. When she knew the news, Peter was already on the other side of the ocean.

This development is beyond Tina's expectations.

She never thought that this would be the result.

Just as Alyssa said, human courage requires confidence as the background color.

She deceived Peter into the hotel because she was the only favorite that Peter gave her during her childhood.

As Maria said, she also thought that she was irreplaceable in Peter's heart, so she dared to trick Peter into the hotel and do such ridiculous things.

Recalling this, Tina narrowed her eyes and chuckles, with a self-deprecating laugh: "Yes, I've always been scared, but I don't dare to admit it. It's just a bluff in front of Peter."

Alyssa's heart was slightly astringent, and she heard Tina continue to say: "But sometimes I feel unwilling, especially after knowing that Cathy is pregnant, and seeing Peter treat Cathy so nicely, I am so jealous. I will calm down again for a while, repeating so repeatedly, endlessly trapped beasts fighting on their own."

"Then let go of yourself." Alyssa looked at Tina's eyes, and said seriously: "Emotions are originally two people's affairs, and Peter should have shared it with you."

For a moment, Tina was moved by Alyssa's words, but soon she shook her head and said: "It's not like that. I lied to him to go to the hotel in the beginning. I will take care of what I did myself."

Alyssa shook her head and denied Tina's words: "You don't be stupid, do you think Peter is so stupid that you don't understand why you lied to him about the hotel? If he was really that stupid, AdamPic would have gone bankrupt. In the relationship, he is not innocent at all."

Alyssa's words hit the nail on the head.

When Tina opened her lips, she swallowed again.

She was trapped by this incident for ten years.

She always wanted to come out, but she couldn't.

At the very beginning, she looked for problems from Peter and resented him. Later, she began to look for problems from herself and took all the mistakes to herself, just wanting to be free from this matter.

But neither method seemed right, so she couldn't get out.

In the end, she gave up struggling and picked Peter from the incident. It is better to be trapped alone than to suffer for two.

"Perhaps what you said is right, but what can be done? When Peter was able to leave back then, doesn't he turn around and be with Cathy soon, he is still the same as before."

She really drove Peter away, and Peter turned around and was with Cathy.

Peter hasn't changed, he can leave her easily.

"You don't worry about what Peter does, follow your own heart."

Alyssa originally planned to tell Tina that Peter wanted to prove his innocence. Now it seems that she can't tell Tina. Tina has completely distrusted Peter. If she said it, it might cause new misunderstandings.

Tina laughed: "Alyssa, are you letting me get involved as a third party?"

Alyssa gave her an angry look, "You know I didn't mean that."

Chapter 1424

Tina hasn't chatted with people like this for a long time.

She was afraid of being seen through her heart, but after Alyssa broke her deepest thoughts, she found that everything was not that bad.

On the contrary, she felt a lot easier, and felt a sense of sudden enlightenment.

Once a person has figured it out, his mentality is different, and his state is completely different.

After finishing the announcement in the evening, when removing makeup in the lounge, Stephanie couldn't help but look at her curiously: "Ms. Tina, I think you seem to be different. What did you do while I was away? Is it something?"

"I just figured out something." Tina said with a smile.

When she laughed, the whole person looked very relaxed, unlike before, there was always an unspeakable sadness in her eyes.

Stephanie didn't know what it was, but vaguely felt that it was something Weber didn't want to say, so she consciously didn't ask too much: "It's fine if you are happy anyway."

â€¦

Tina took off her makeup and walked out with Stephanie.

"I'm going to drive, you're waiting for me here." Stephanie turned her head and talked to Tina, only to find that Tina suddenly stopped.

"What happened?"

Stephanie looked over with a cool gaze, and saw Peter walking here not far away. She was a little surprised and said, "Cousin? Why here?"

"Go drive." Tina left these words, and walked in the direction of Peter without looking back.

Eh?

With a question mark on her head, Stephanie faintly felt that this development was not right.

The two of them were incompatible with fire and water before. Looking at Tina's reaction, she feels that there is a lot of inexplicable harmony between the two.

As Stephanie walked toward the parking lot, she looked back in Tina's direction.

Seeing Tina approaching him, Peter took another quick step and met her under the street lamp on the side of the road.

He is still wearing the suit from the previous recording of the show. He is tall and straight, his tie has been removed, and there is a bit of fatigue between his eyebrows and eyes, and the dim light halo over him, which looks like a dreamlike Gentleness.

His state at this time is like returning home from work a day to see his family. Although tired, he is naturally gentle.

"Smoked?"

Tina stood two steps away from him, keeping a polite and not misleading distance, but still smelled the faint smell of smoke from him.

Peter was slightly startled when he heard the words, and then chuckled lightly: "The nose is so good."

"Isn't Cathy still pregnant? Expectant fathers don't smoke, it's not good for pregnant women and children."

Tina's tone was serious.

Serious enough to make Peter feel sad for a moment.

He bowed his head and kicked a pebble by his foot, his voice muffled: "I see."

Although Cathy's child had nothing to do with him, he was still willing to listen to what Tina said.

Peter had a passionate face, and he was used to his undecent teasing appearance. The sudden obedientness was the most irresistible.

Tina felt a little softened inexplicably, and asked him: "Why did you target me when recording the show?"

As Alyssa said, Peter is not stupid, so he must have targeted her for a reason.

Peter turned his face away and looked aside: "You are not familiar with other people. I will interact with you to make the program more effective."

Actually not.

Compared to letting Cathy stumble at Tina, it would be better for him to be the villain, and he could say a few more words to her.

Chapter 1425

Tina glared at Peter with an angry look: "Then you really bothered for this show."

"No way, Karl invested in the show, I still have to support it." Peter showed the usual casual smile.

"Give me things." Tina's eyes fell on the bag that Peter was holding.

The packaging bag is the bag that Jodi always keeps, or Tina bought it for her. Peter will come to her, and it must be Jodi who has made something for her.

"Snack made by Mom." Peter glanced at the bag in his hand, picked it up, and handed it to Tina: "I don't have any. You are the only one for a while. Maybe you are Mom's daughter."

"Thank, Auntie for me." Tina took the bag over.

drop-

Stephanie drove the car over and blew a whistle to signal that Tina could get on the car.

"I go first."

As soon as Tina was about to turn around, she heard Peter say anxiously: "Wait."

"Is there anything else?" Tina asked him.

What else is there?

But don't know when he will have the chance to see Tina next time, and Tina's patience is very good today, so just wants to say a few words with Tina.

Peter suddenly remembered: "I heard that you signed an advertisement with Tom?"

"Yeah, did you know?" Tina looked at him with a puzzled look.

"The potential for easy-drying is pretty good, and the boss is very young. They didn't advertise before. Why did they suddenly find you? I heard that the advertising fee is discounted." Peter said, the more he felt something was wrong.

He doesn't care about Tina directly anymore. She and Tom signed the advertisement for which he knew only after the newspaper came up. He just glanced at it quickly, Stephanie. Although it seems a little brainy enough, not still reliable to do things.

He later learned that even the advertising fee had been discounted, and it was not that simple.

"You said this. NextBit's boss helped me. I am thankful for giving him a discount on advertising."

Tina told the truth openly, but it made Peter feel like he was a villain.

Peter knew what Tom had helped Tina.

At that time, the matter between Tina and Cathy was raging. He also found that Tom's car was parked there, but Tina found Tom first.

Peter originally had a lot to say.

Tina is too patient today, she even wants to tell him, wait for him.

But this incident reminded him that if he didn't solve Cathy first, he would not have any qualifications and standpoint to say such things to Tina.

Peter's eyes flashed sadly, but soon smiled again: "You have to go back to the set tonight, pay attention to safety."

"Ok."

Tina nodded, turned, and walked towards the parking place where Stephanie was waiting.

When Stephanie saw her coming, she immediately went down and opened the door for her, and took the bag in her hand.

She looked at the bag and felt a look in her eyes: "What is this?"

"Snack made by Auntie." Tina got into the car shortly.

"Auntie's dumplings are the best." As Stephanie said, she reached in and ate a piece, and got into the car chatting and laughing with Tina.

Peter watched the cold car disappear before pacing slowly back into his car.

Auntie's phone came in at this moment.

"Peter, did you give Tina the snack?"

"Yes."

"That's fine." Auntie was silent for a while and asked: "Son, what's the matter with you?"

Chapter 1426

His mother heard that Peter's tone was different from usual.

Although she usually not discussed things with her son, it was a piece of meat that fell from her body, and she naturally knew him best.

Peter paused and sighed slightly: "It's okay, just a little tired."

"When you are tired, go home and rest."

"Okay, come back when you have time!"

After hanging up the phone, Peter took out the cigarette case again, drew a cigarette in his mouth, even lit the lighter, but suddenly remembered Tina's words.

As soon as the hand holding the fire button of the lighter was released, the flame went out, and the cigarette that was in his mouth was taken down, and after being rubbed into a ball in his hand, he threw it aside.

â€¦

A few days after Tina returned to the crew, a trailer for “My Life and Me” came out.

The trailer is short, but it’s the essence.

The fragment of Alyssa and Karl having a meal, Tina and Peter fought each other, Cathy found the differenceâ€¦

The program team has a lot of ideas, and has a thorough understanding of the audience’s psychology. As soon as this trailer came out, it directly rushed to the top of the trending search.

Several trending searches in the front row are all related to this show:

“Me and My Life Trailer”

“The last group of guests Alyssa and Karl”

“Tina, Peter fight”

“Tina Cathy”

“Me and My Life Program Group”

“â€¦”

The official account of “My Life and Me” is also full of excitement.

“Karl and Alyssa??? Can’t believe my eyes!”

“It’s really a long time to see Karl on a variety show in my lifetime.”

“This show is too exciting, I like it!!”

“This program group is too dare!”

“When will you arrange it?”

“If you have the ability to play the feature film directly, what kind of ability to play the trailer!”

“Are you there? My roommate wants to watch an issue of “My Life and Me” before his death. I beg you to fulfill his wish.”

There are countless comments after this comment:

“Brother, it’s not necessary.”

“I have two roommates who also want to see before they dieâ€¦”

“roommate:???”

“He’s a cruel man.”

“Please, look here, have mercy on this roommate.”

“â€¦”

A trailer that keeps the discussion of “My Life and Me” high.

Before it officially started broadcasting, some people have already cut a lot of videos based on the trailer.

When Tina finished work, she took the time to read Twitter, and then asked Stephanie, “Is the program set?”

“Not yet, but it should be coming soon. Now that the heat is booming, the program group should take advantage of it to broadcast.”

Sure enough, two days later, “My Life and Me” was officially announced on April 18.

Before the first episode officially aired, Tina recorded the second episode of the video.

During the second recording, it happened to be when she filmed the commercial for Tom. After obtaining permission, the program team went to Tina to record the commercial.

When the commercial was almost finished, Tom actually came.

He was in a neat suit, without the shrewdness of a businessman, and as gentle and elegant as a scholar. He was surrounded by busy staff. In contrast, he seemed even more eye-catching.

Tina saw Tom at a glance.

People around greeted him, and he nodded, polite and approachable.

Tom also looked in Tina’s direction. After gazing at her from the air, he smiled at her as a greeting, and then he walked to Stephanie’s side.

Don’t know what he said, making her full of anger and turning head and turning her back to him.

Chapter 1427

With a slight smile on Tom’s face, he went to the other side to face Stephanie and continued talking to her.

Tina watched this scene, curled her lips imperceptibly, then retracted her gaze and continued to focus on the commercial.

After the filming, Tina walked over to greet Tom.

“Mr. Allison.”

“Miss Weber, you have worked hard.”

Tom nodded at her and smiled.

"It's not hard to do things with money. I'll change my clothes first." Tina turned to look at Stephanie, who was standing aside blankly, and patted her shoulder: "Talk to Mr. Allison."

Stephanie twitched the corners of her mouth and smiled stiffly: "Haha."

Tom glanced at Stephanie with a smile, "I have a very happy chat with Miss Stephanie."

"That's good." After Tina said, she turned and left with a smile.

â€¦

After Tina changed her clothes and came out, Tom proposed to go to dinner together.

Stephanie immediately stood up and objected: "No, we have to rush to announce, there is no time."

Tina ignored Stephanie's words: "There is still time for a meal."

Tom nodded slightly when he heard this, "Okay."

Stephanie: "Youâ€¦!" Who can listen to her voice?

When Tina and her party walked out, they found that the people from the "My Life and Me" program group were still following, and they asked, "Will you still shoot?"

The director chuckled: "If we shoot more, we get more material."

"We're going for a private dinner, so let's not take it." Tina turned her head and glanced at Tom.

Tom said nothing.

The program group did not reluctantly.

However, Tina was still followed by the reporter. The reporter maliciously edited it. The three of them were eating together. The reporter intercepted Stephanie, leaving only Tina and Tom.

Recently, Tina is almost a frequent visitor on the trending search list. As soon as this photo was posted, it suddenly "boiled" on the trending search list: "Tina is suspected of being exposed."

When it started trending, Tina was still eating, but Stephanie discovered it first.

She immediately took a picture of the three of them eating together to clarify.

Immediately, the official Twitter of AdamPic also retweets Tina's clarification tweet.

Tina's fans all expressed disappointment.

"I thought Miss Weber could finally get out of the order."

"Empty and joy."

"No brother-in-law, [crying]."

Stephanie was a little bit dumbfounded to read these comments: "Ms. Tina, your fans are really different. Others are afraid of falling in love. Our family is a fan, eager for you, to fall in love."

Tom smiled and said, "I have been single for seven or eight years, and it is understandable for fans to be anxious."

Stephanie looked at Tom with weird eyes, and Tom faintly smiled: "I also watched the trailer for "My Life and Me". I am one of the sponsors."

Tina's face was calm, showing a dignified smile.

In the bottom of his heart, Peter was scolded upright.

Well now, the whole world knows that she is single when she debuts.

The program group is really good at playing, leaving the most slotted clips.

When the trailer came out, Tina was on the trending search because she had been single for too many years, and this time someone brought it up again.

â€¦

Soon it will be April 18.

The day when "My Life and Me" is broadcasted.

Generally, when a program is broadcasted, the artist will forward it to create momentum.

The popularity of "My Life and Me" is too high and it seems unnecessary to build momentum. There are many viewers who spontaneously watch the show.

The number of broadcasts that night hit a record high in variety shows, reports, trending searchesâ€¦ never stopped.

Chapter 1428

And Tina's discussion degree is the highest among all people.

In the first episode of the broadcast, the part of Tina was learning to cook at home, and spent a whole day thinking about it in the kitchen.

This is in great contrast to her usual bright and beautiful image. The usual desolation is surrounded by fresh flowers, flowers and applause.

Every role she has played is different, and what fans and netizens know about her is limited to a good play and a beautiful person.

And she also rarely posts personal life-related content on Twitter, just occasionally posts a selfie, reposts events, and promotes new dramas.

In this time, "My Life and Me", the short video of Tina is actually nothing special, but the contrast between normal times is too great, and it naturally makes the audience shine.

The dishes Tina learns to cook are also ordinary home-cooked dishes, which make people feel grounded.

Real and grounded, it doesn't seem to have a sense of distance.

Tina cheered up and listened, and said: "I thought I would be forced to search trending search because of tearing."

After speaking, she glanced at Stephanie's phone on the center console again: "Why does your phone keep vibrating?"

Stephanie's tone was a little helpless: "I asked you to make appointments for variety shows and various advertising campaign announcements. I have turned off my mobile phone before, and I have changed and made various calls again. It is shutting down again."

Chapter 1429

As soon as Stephanie's voice fell, her mobile phone was dead and turned off.

Stephanie motioned Tina to look at her phone: "Look, it's turned off again."

Tina laughed: "Is it so exaggerated?"

"It's not an exaggeration at all, you have exploded, unprecedented exploding! I have already contacted the company, and I will send you more bodyguards!"

Stephanie's tone was very serious.

Tina was stunned for a moment: "David and Lester are both famous, they should also circle fans and go popular, why is my data the best, I have nothing to do!"

Stephanie smiled: "Many of their fans have also climbed the wall, and you are the hottest new celebrity on the Internet."

Tina not only keeps various invitations, but also the number of Twitter fans.

The Commerce Department of the company also called to communicate with Stephanie, to inform Tina about it.

Tina now concentrates on filming "Lost City 2", and only when the crew is on vacation or when the scenes are adjusted can she have time to record "My Life and Me".

Obviously it is too busy.

But Tina's popularity and enthusiasm are too high now. Of course, the company tried its best to use her to make money.

Peter is the boss, but he is not required to intervene in everything. Each department has its own arrangements.

Because of this incident, Tina deliberately took the time to have an online meeting with the company. Her contract with AdamPic is about to expire. The company still wants to use her to make more money.

Tina was too tired from filming for a day, and she didn't have any extra energy to argue with these people. Stephanie tried her best to reject all the opinions and insisted on not letting Tina overload her work.

But finally received a few announcements.

Before going to bed, Stephanie was still telling her how to arrange the itinerary and how to find time to come and participate in the announcement. Tina listened to them, and was relieved that everything would be arranged by Stephanie.

Fortunately, the next day was an afternoon scene, and she didn't wake up until ten o'clock.

As soon as she woke up, she heard Stephanie's low voice.

Tina sat up from the bed, looked around, and saw Stephanie standing on the outside balcony answering the phone.

The balcony door was not closed tightly, leaving a gap, so Stephanie's voice could be faintly heard.

"She's not awake yet!"

"I will deal with this matter, I understand!"

Stephanie's tone sounded a little serious.

What's the matter?

Tina got out of bed and walked towards the balcony.

Stephanie's ears are pointed, and Tina just walked to the balcony door, before pushing the door, Stephanie turned around.

Seeing her, she stunned for a moment, and said to the person on the other end of the phone: "I know, let's do this first."

Afterward, she hung up the phone and smiled at Tina: "Ms. Tina, you woke up."

Tina asked her: "What happened?"

"It's okay, isn't your popularity skyrocketing right now? Some people are jealous. They spread rumors on the Internet and put your so-called black material on the Internet. They are all trivial things. You hurry up and wash. I'll order breakfast for you."

Stephanie pushed Tina into the bathroom.

"Okay." Tina had no objection, but when she entered the bathroom, she took her cell phone with her.

She turned on the phone while brushing her teeth.

There is no need for her to search the Internet especially, as soon as she turns on the phone, she gets a push.

"The cool road to fame!"

“The capital behind Tina”

There are several feeds like this, and all of them have signs of “fire”.

Chapter 1430

Tina cleared these pushes one by one.

You don’t need to click in to see the content, just look at the title, and Tina will know what’s written in it.

The so-called road to fame, the so-called capital behind her

No one knows these things better than her client.

When she first debuted, she signed a contract with a very small agency with no resources. Many of the scenes she took at that time were all tried out and won by herself.

Even the unnamed supporting role, but also because of her excellent looks and excellent acting skills, people noticed her.

She also admitted that she has the element of relying on her face to eat, but in the final analysis, looks are also part of the talent of actors.

Therefore, Tina never denied that, at the beginning, she left a name in this circle because of her good looks.

Later, the company began to tilt resources toward her, but what about the tilt, the small company had no resources at all, and the boss also sold her contract to Peter.

And Peter is really admiring her calmly. In the past few years, she has taken every step steadily, without any mistake, and she has become popular.

With several well-known masterpieces, there is also an increasingly solid fan base.

As for the invisible part of the entertainment industry, she has seen it, but fortunately, she has not experienced it.

Therefore, even if these people really want to pick up her black spots, they are afraid that they will not be found at all, so she is not worried at all.

The unread message “99+” is displayed on the WeChat icon.

She opened WeChat and browsed through the unread messages one by one.

Some people wanted her to cooperate, some asked her about things online, and some were comforting her

These comforts and concerns are true and false.

Tina still responded to the messages of concern and comfort one by one, expressing her gratitude and concern.

Because she was busy replying to WeChat, she stayed in the bathroom for a long time.

Outside, Stephanie's meal was delivered. She walked to the bathroom door and knocked on the door: "Ms. Tina, are you alright?"

"Coming now." Tina put down the phone, quickly washed, ran to the door, and went out.

Stephanie stood by the door and saw her coming out with her mobile phone. She knew that Tina had understood what had happened.

"Come here to eat first."

Tina walked to the table and sat down.

Now that Tina knew what was going on, Stephanie no longer hid it and said, "I don't know where a group of people came out, saying that they want to start your road to fame. It's because you have a mysterious man behind you. The trending search was posted in the middle of the night yesterday, and it's still there, but they haven't picked up useful black material."

It was almost noon, and Tina felt hungry. She was eating, and after hearing Stephanie's words, she just nodded to show that she knew.

Seeing Tina's indifferent appearance, Stephanie became more relaxed: "The company's meaning is to ignore it for the time being. These people are simply thunder and rain, and nothing in their hands. The heat will pass in a day or two. Besides, your fans and most of the netizens don't believe this. We just need to be more cautious in the coming days."

Tina only responded: "Hmm."

It is also correct to ignore this kind of obscure matter for the time being.

There is no perfect person in the world. Any artist will have black dots. If every query has to respond to, the public relations team will be exhausted.
