Chapter 1531

As soon as Peter's Twitter was posted, it became a trending search.

Today, when Cathy's private incident came out, many people were pulled into the water, and Tina was also affected.

Peter posted this Tweet at this juncture, undoubtedly responding positively to the rumors about Tina and Cathy.

Although netizens are not too big to watch the excitement, they also like the relationship between Peter and Tina as a childhood sweetheart.

"Let's tell everyone, I've knocked the CPs of Mr. Grant and Miss Weber before! Am I going to knock down a real person? Is anyone coming to wake me up?"

"I knock! It's a lifetime series! I want to knock this too!"

"Growing up with childhood sweethearts, the two are still family friends! One is a popular first-line actress and the other is a media company boss. Who can stand this charm!"

"Ahhhh, so romantic, today is also a day to cry for others' love."

"No, the people upstairs should be more sober. There is no official announcement about the love from anywhere (although I also want to knock it out (âŠ™oâŠ™)â€¦!)"

"This is the kind of legendary 'Although we love and kill each other, but we have deep feelings'?"

"Sour sour, who sent me such a beautiful and rich bamboo horse."

"Hello everyone, where do I get such a bamboo horse?"

"I've said it a long time ago. Miss Weber's temperament is really not like ordinary people's. Those marketing accounts that are darker than Miss Weber come out and get beaten!"

"[Lemon][Lemon][Lemon][Lemon]."

Many people in the circle who have interacted with Tina and some celebrities who have worked with her commented on her tweet as well.

Director X: "Ms. Weber, hide it deep enough."

Scottia: "Miss Weber and Grant always get small, you are too low-key, you can't tell at all. [Lemon]"

Scottia acted in the drama version of "Lost City" before, and her popularity was not bad, and she accumulated a lot of fans. Her fans also followed and commented on Scottia's comment.

"Scottia is not sour, you still have us."

"Ah, Scottia."

"I'm just like Scottia, I'm so sour tooâ€¦!"

Tina saw Scottia's comment, thought about it, and replied: "[Mugs his mouth and laughs], don't be envious, he wasn't like this when he was a kid."

Peter was a mountain king when he was a child, she didn't want to be beaten to chase him.

â€¦

This evening, the whole network was envious of Tina and Peter.

Some people envy Tina for having a bamboo horse like Peter.

There are also people who envy Peter for having green plums like Tina.

There are some people who knocked their charm, but there are also some people who sensibly remembered what Peter had done to Tina because of Cathy.

"I don't understand, what kind of confusing behavior is Mr. Grant showing? Didn't you still slap Miss Weber in "My Life and Me" before?"

"Ah, it's just a normal PR behavior."

"What's the point? The two have such a good relationship. I haven't seen it at all before. Maybe the relationship is not very goodâ€¦"

Another group of people said that it was very outrageous. They said that the relationship between Peter and Tina is not good. Peter will post this Tweet. It must be pressure from his parents and cannot refuse.

"Tina is too cheap. If you don't dare to admit that you have done something, you can force Peter."

"No one in the entertainment industry is cleanâ€¦"

This part of the extreme comments only appeared in the second half of the night, and in the second half of the night, she was asleep and did not use Twitter again.

After the fermentation in the second half of night, by the next morning, the topic of "Grant was pressured" had been on the trending search list, but the position was not very high.

Chapter 1532

People in the public relations department discovered the trending search early in the morning.

Although the position of this topic is not very high, but now it's dawn, many people will find this trending search. If there are more people viewing it, it will naturally be at the top of the list.

At that time, a large area of fermentation will occur.

The Public Relations Department quickly launched an emergency plan and went down this trending search public relations.

When Tina got up, the incident had already passed.

Then, the official Twitter of "My Life and Me" posted a Tweet about whether the show should be re-shot.

“The program team will resume shooting as soon as possible. Thank you for your support.”

Although it’s just a short sentence, it was very popular when “My Life and Me” was broadcast. As soon as this Tweet was posted, it was topped and ranked in the trending search within a short time. The front row of the list.

The amount of discussion continues to grow.

“Gosh, will you really continue filming? I thought the show went cold.”

“Ah ah happy!”

“Although the rebroadcast date has not been announced yet, I have already begun to look forward to it. I want to watch Mr. Grant and Miss Weber’s love and killing each other.”

“I feel Peter will not be on this show again, right?”

“No, I want to see them!”

The topic of “My Life and Me” continued to rise in popularity, and it soon made it to the top of the list.

Karl said yesterday that he would invite them to dinner at noon today, so Tina would not go out. After she finished her Twitter TL, she cleaned the house, and when it was noon, she drove directly to Best Day.

Before she finished her hygiene, Peter called her.

“I’ll drive back to pick you up.”

“I can come here by myself.”

Tina hung up after speaking and took the key to go out.

She drove to Best Day and drove directly to the parking lot.

Today is a working day and it is noon again. There are almost no people in the parking lot.

Tina looked around for a while, quickened her pace and wanted to leave the parking lot.

As she walked, she felt someone following behind her. She turned her ears slightly and could hear footsteps.

Tina speeded up her pace, but the sound of footsteps behind her became denser and louder. Tina’s heart slammed, slowly slowing down, and grasping the bag in her hand.

Slowly walked forward two more steps, calmly stopped suddenly, grabbed the bag and slammed it back.

When Tina went to school, she didn’t fight less. This one was fast and accurate, and she hit several times in a row.

The person who was smashed said “Oh,” “Tina, it’s me, it’s me!”

Hearing this familiar voice, she stopped. She took a breath, looked down, and said in surprise: “Mr. Scott?”

The person following Tina is not someone else, but Cody.

Cody straightened up, shook his head, and said, "Miss Weber, your path is still as wild as before."

When Cody talked to her, he didn't know whether it was intentional or unintentional, and only half of his face faced Tina.

Tina frowned: "I haven't seen you in a few days, your face is gone, only half of your face can be seen?"

"Tina, I'm here to apologize to you." Cody sighed, pressing his head a little low: "I didn't expect to almost drag you down, sorry."

His tone sounded a little self-blame, and a little frustrated.

Tina just hugged her arms and stared at him without speaking.

Cody didn't hear the movement and couldn't help but raise his head. When he raised his head, he didn't care about covering the other half of his face, and Tina saw the bruised other half of his face.

Chapter 1533

Tina was taken aback: "When were you so delicate? I just hit it twice, and your face is swollen like this?"

Tina just hit the bag with a lot of force and strength, but his face didn't swell up so quickly.

An uncomfortable touch flashed across Cody's face, and he tilted his head slightly to cover his face: "My dad hit it."

The reason why he was beaten by his father was naturally because he appeared in Cathy's private videos.

After Cody finished speaking, a trace of embarrassment flashed across his face.

Tina also fell silent for a while.

When the topic got here, it was blocked all at once.

Cody's father is also a very old-fashioned person, and Tina has rarely seen him in the past few years, and her impression of Scott's father still stopped when he was a child. He was a very strict uncle.

Cody's father must be very angry when something like this happened to him, so he could start beating him.

Cody laughed mockingly: "I never thought that I would be beaten by my father in my thirties."

Tina's face was indifferent, and her tone seemed a little cold: "Anything else to say?"

What Cody said was not what she wanted to hear.

When the incident came out, Cody never showed up at all, this incident was suppressed by Peter.

Until now, the matter had passed, Cody came out secretly, and his attitude was unclear.

Cody also fell silent.

Tina waited for two seconds, without responding, turned around and left.

At this time, Cody caught Tina's arm: "Tina, I was kept at home by my dad these past two days, and the phone was also confiscated, so he wouldn't let me out."

Tina turned her head and looked at Cody carefully.

Just now she looked at the half of Cody's hidden face and didn't pay attention to anything else. Now she took a closer look and found that Cody's clothes were wrinkled, and mud was stained on his shoes and trouser legs.

Looks a little embarrassed.

Tina asked slowly: "Did you escape?"

"My dad's company has something to handle, so I'll..." Cody silenced when he said that, but Tina understood what he meant.

He did escape.

"Why shut you off?" Tina didn't quite understand for a moment.

Cody's complexion became even more embarrassed, the corners of her lips moved, and finally she shook her head: "Anyway, I'm sorry about this..."

"Om"

The phone in Cody's pocket rang.

He took it out and took a look, a panic flashed quickly under his eyes, and hung up the phone: "I'm going now, I'll look for you when I have time."

After Cody finished speaking, he hurriedly turned and left, still walking fast.

Tina felt that Cody was weird, and walked two steps forward to catch up with him.

"Mr. Scott!"

"Tina!"

As soon as Tina's voice fell, Peter's voice sounded behind him.

Tina had to stop, and when she turned around, she saw Peter striding over from not far away.

She stood there waiting for Peter to approach: "Why are you here?"

"You said you were going to arrive before, and I haven't seen you up there, so I came down to look for you." Peter glanced in the direction where Cody left: "What happened?"

When he came over just now, he didn't see Cody's figure clearly, he saw Tina looking towards that side, vaguely as if she was looking at someone.

At this time, Cody's figure had long since disappeared, and she hadn't seen anything.

Tina explained: "It's Cody."

Peter's face was slightly dark: "What did he do with you? He has the face to come to you?"

"Don't be angry, I think Mr. Scott seems to have something wrong." The calm tone was a little worried.

Chapter 1534

Tina could feel that Cody had something to say to her just now, but after the call came, he changed his mind and didn't continue speaking, but left in a hurry.

Peter raised his eyes again and glanced in the direction Cody had left, with a deep tone in his words: "What can he do? You think too much."

"No, he obviously just"

Tina wanted to continue, but Peter interrupted her aggressively: "Karl and Alyssa have already arrived, let's go up first, they also brought Grace."

Tina heard that Grace was also here, her eyes lit up: "Little Grace is also here? I haven't seen her in a long time!"

Peter hooked his lips: "Let's go."

"Auntie!"

When Tina arrived in the box, she heard Grace calling her.

Tina heard the sound and found that Grace was standing at the door of the box, looking at her with her head.

"Little Grace!" Tina ran to the door of the box, hugged Grace and kissed her.

Peter followed behind, watching the two people hug each other, his heart panting.

He has never had this kind of treatment.

Gee.

As soon as Tina and Grace met, they seemed to meet an old friend they hadn't seen for a long time, and the two of them murmured and went inside.

Alyssa watched Tina and Grace come in together, and couldn't help smiling, "Tina, come sit here."

Grace took Tina and ran to Alyssa and sat there.

Alyssa asked Tina through Grace, "Why did you take so long to come up?"

"I met a friend." Tina said lightly.

There is no need for Alyssa to worry about such things.

Alyssa was too familiar with Tina. When she heard her say this, she vaguely felt that she was not as simple as an ordinary friend, so she didn't ask more.

After serving the dishes, Karl and Peter both drank.

“Congratulations, I’ll fill you up.” Peter toasted the wine to Karl first.

Karl’s brows were indifferent: “Thank you.”

Peter pulled the corner of his mouth and poured the wine more full.

The two men got on the bar, drank one cup after another, and finally put two bottles directly in front of them.

Peter was also a little embarrassed. Originally, he and Tina had dinner, but he didn’t expect that Karl and Alyssa would have a second child!

After all, he lost.

Alyssa and Tina didn’t bother to care about them. When they were eating slowly, Peter and Karl were obviously drunk, but they were still holding on.

Peter’s eyes were somewhat distracted, but she did not forget to provoke Karl: “Are you okay?”

Karl’s complexion was calm, but his face flushed unnaturally, “It’s you, right.”

“I, Peter, will it work?” Peter sneered before taking another sip from the wine glass.

Karl snorted coldly, “Just having a drink, do you think you can do it again?”

Peter glared at Karl, and staggeringly poured another glass: “Who said I can only have one? I can still drink!”

Seeing Peter had a few drinks, the wine in front of Karl still didn’t move.

Tina felt that he didn’t have a look, turned his head and said to Alyssa, “Let’s go out and take a walk, ignore these two crazy men.”

She was not afraid that they would drink too much, Karl was much more reliable than Peter, and he knew it.

Alyssa nodded, and when she left, she did not forget to tell Karl: “It’s almost enough.”

Karl saw that they were going out, grabbed Alyssa’s hand and asked, “Where?”

Chapter 1535

Alyssa said softly: “Going out with Tina, don’t disturb you drinking.”

Karl frowned slightly, and as soon as he opened his mouth, he was interrupted by Alyssa’s soft tone: “Okay, I see, I will be careful, I won’t run around, I will come back soon.”

Alyssa had already figured out Karl’s temperament, and knew what he was going to say, so she rushed to the front of Karl, and said everything Karl wanted to say, leaving him with nothing to say.

Karl really had nothing to say.

He chuckled helplessly: “Just know.”

Tina took Alyssa and Grace's mother and daughter out of the box.

After strolling around in Best Day, Alyssa suddenly remembered that she had never had time to buy the picture book she had promised Grace to buy for her.

Grace's ears were very pointed. Hearing Alyssa and Tina mentioning this, she ran over and took Alyssa's hand: "Mom, when we came over, I saw a bookstore on the road. It's over there, not far away."

As she said, she pointed to the outside.

"Okay!" Tina touched Grace's head, "Let's go there and have a look."

The bookstore that Grace said was indeed not far from Best Day, and it only took seven or eight minutes to walk over.

The bookstore is not big, and basically they sell some children's books.

You can feel it as soon as you enter the door, the decoration is very textured, the facilities are very high, and they are all imported.

It is impossible to make any money to open a bookstore like this in the central area of Rostenvel. The owner is really arrogant.

The store is not large, and the layout is very delicate. At noon, there are other people. The storekeeper is sitting behind the cash register and slightly raised his eyes to look over: "Just look."

The store is small, but the children's books are very comprehensive. Alyssa quickly found the one that Grace wanted, picked two more, and then paid the bill and prepared to leave.

Grace loaded the book and walked ahead happily, and Tina and Alyssa followed.

"Mom!"

Suddenly, Grace's exclamation sounded outside.

With a cold complexion, she reacted very quickly. She raised her foot and ran out: "Let me see, Alyssa, don't move!"

Alyssa is pregnant, so there must be no mistake.

As soon as Tina walked outside, she saw Grace being held with a dagger by a person wearing a peaked cap and a mask. Her face turned pale, but he did not cry.

At the moment when she saw Tina, Grace seemed to be unable to collapse, and the corners of her mouth were pulled down, as if she was about to cry, but she managed to resist tears.

"Grace don't be afraid!" Tina forced himself to calm down, softening her tone and comforting Grace.

Then, she looked at the person holding Grace, her voice calm: "Who are you? What do you want?"

The person holding Grace nodded his chin to signal Tina to pass.

Tina walked over, and the man directly threw Grace away, pulled Tina over, pressed her neck with a dagger, and led her into a nearby car.

Obviously, he came prepared.

When they came just now, they didn't notice a parking lot at the door.

Tina calmed down quickly, thinking about how to delay time, but the person who held her didn't give her a chance at all, and when a hand knife was cut down, she completely lost consciousness.

Everything happened too fast.

Alyssa called Karl the first time, and when he came, only the car was driving away.

"Mom!" Grace was a little frightened, and suddenly plunged into Alyssa's arms.

Chapter 1536

Alyssa's hand holding the phone was a little trembling, she turned on the camera and took a picture of the car's license plate number, and then hugged Grace, with an urgent tone: "Is there any pain? Is there any discomfort?"

Grace shook her head and looked back in the direction where Tina had left: "Auntie!"

"I have called the police and called your dad. Your dad and Uncle Grant are so good, Auntie will be fine." Alyssa's ending trembled a little. These words were to comfort Grace and comfort herself.

Just now Tina told her not to come over, she knew something bad must have happened, and she also knew her current physical condition. She called Karl the first time and then called the police again.

From when Grace was caught to Tina being held hostage and taken in the car to leave, all this happened within a few minutes, and there was no time for any reaction.

On the other hand, it also shows that the gangsters are extremely vicious and have long been eyeing them, so they can start so quickly and accurately.

Karl and Peter came quickly.

Both men ran over, still smelling strong alcohol.

Peter drank like that before, but as soon as he heard the news of Tina's accident, a chill rushed into the limbs in the blink of a blink, and his whole body was cold, and he was mostly awake.

"Where is Tina? What's the matter?" Peter ran in a hurry, his whole body was panting, his eyes were a little red.

"Sorry, Tina was robbed. She was trying to protect me. I took the license plate number!" Alyssa blamed herself, and she understood Peter's mood at this time.

She mentioned that she was going out to buy a picture book for Grace, but now it is useless to say more, Tina has already had an accident.

Peter wiped his face and calmed down: "It's okay, don't blame you, give me the license plate number."

Alyssa showed Peter the photo she had just taken.

After Karl answered Alyssa's call, he arranged for someone to find him, so he came here a little bit later than Peter.

He came over and gently embraced Alyssa's shoulders, Alyssa looked back at him, the two looked at each other speechlessly, everything was silent.

His eyes noticed Grace, who was very frustrated with her head down. Her head was lowered, her small hands were clenched into fists, and she didn't say a word.

Karl raised his eyebrows, walked over, and hugged Grace.

Alyssa told the story briefly on the phone just now.

That gangster, Grace was held hostage at first, and Tina replaced Grace.

Lifting Grace up, Karl saw her tearful eyes, Grace sniffed and sobbed.

"It's me who is not good, Auntie was taken away by bad guys!"

Peter had just finished calling and asked to check the license plate.

Grace is not usually a crying girl, she is really afraid of self-blame now, she endured it for a long time before she couldn't help crying.

Peter was anxious, but how could she be willing to blame Grace.

Peter stretched out his hand and rubbed his stiff face, and walked over to touch Grace's head: "Don't cry, you won't be the best-looking baby if you cry, don't blame you, don't cry."

Grace pursed her lips and endured crying, "I'm sorry."

She looks pitiful and cute.

Peter reluctantly pulled out a smile to amuse her: "You don't have to say I'm sorry, if Auntie is in trouble, Ms. Grace will definitely take the initiative to help, right?"

Grace nodded without hesitation.

Peter showed a pleased smile and said to Karl: "Ms. Grace was scared, take her back to rest."

Chapter 1537

Karl called Smith and asked him to take someone to pick Alyssa and Grace home.

When Alyssa got into the car, she held Karl's hand and looked at him with some worry.

"You don't worry, even if I have turned the Rostenvel upside down, I must find Tina." Karl solemnly promised her.

"Yeah." Alyssa believed Karl, because he had always kept his promises, and he would be able to do what he said.

After sending Alyssa and Grace back, Karl returned to Best Day.

The ashtray in front of Peter was full, and some cigarette butts even fell out of the ashtray, and half of the coffee table was covered with dust.

Karl had quit smoking for a long time, and under the supervision of Alyssa, he had lived an old life ahead of time. He couldn't bear the smell of smoke, and he coughed for a few times before he eased.

Hearing Karl's coughing, Peter jumped up from the sofa and walked up to him in a stride, "How's it going? Any update?"

He originally wanted to go out with him to find Tina, but he was stopped by Karl. The Rostenvel was so big, so following out like this, it was useless like a headless fly.

In case there is news, he is waiting here, and he can rush to it as soon as possible.

Looking at Peter's red eyes, Karl couldn't bear to say the answer that disappointed him. He could only comfort him: "I have used all the people and relationships that can be used, and there will be an update soon."

After Karl took over the Adams' family again, the situation of Adams' family improved day by day. Today, the Adams' family is almost a dominant family in Rostenvel and in the vicinity, with money and power. It is very simple to find someone or something.

"How fast is it soon?" Peter lost control, his voice hoarse: "It has been an hour, do you know what can happen in an hour?"

Peter lost his temper, Karl didn't say anything, just listened silently.

He knew that Peter's nerves had been strained to the extreme, if he didn't vent it, he might not be able to hold it.

"After so many years, Tina finally agreed to try again with me. I wanted to public my relationship at the end of the year!"

As Peter was talking, he couldn't continue.

There was something blocking his throat, sour and astringent, so he couldn't make a sound.

Although Tina was with him, he could feel that she didn't trust him as much as before.

And he was the same, without any sense of security.

He always felt that Tina will leave him.

He wakes up every day and feels that he is still in a dream. Only when he sees Tina can he be sure that he is not dreaming, but in real life, and Tina is really his girlfriend.

He took a few deep breaths before he came back to his senses.

He picked up the lighter and wanted to light himself a cigarette.

Karl stopped his hand to light a cigarette and snatched the lighter from his hand.

Peter's anger came up all at once, and he yelled at Karl: "You won't let me go out to find, and you won't even let me smoke? Do you really think I dare not beat you?"

Karl didn't say anything, but just poured a glass of water for him.

Peter was moved for a moment, and Karl said in time: "Alyssa bought me a lot of insurance. How much you want to lose depends on how you fight."

All the emotions disappeared in an instant, and he even wanted to spit out the water he had drunk.

But he drank it, and it was too disgusting to vomit.

Chapter 1538

Peter drank halfway through the water, had a sudden thought, and quickly turned around to get his mobile phone.

"What's the matter?" Karl came over and asked him.

Peter pressed the phone to turn on the screen, his tone was depressed and lost: "I just heard my phone ring."

"No! I can't stay here anymore, I'm going out to look for her!" Peter put the phone in his pocket, reached for his jacket, and hurried out.

When he walked to the door, he looked back and found that Karl had followed.

Without waiting for him to ask, Karl said, "You can find her, I will drive."

Let Peter sit here and wait for the update. Such waiting is tantamount to extreme torture. It would be better to find something to do for him, but Karl was not relieved when he was driving in his current state.

â€

Karl drove the car while calling his men to ask about the situation.

After talking on the phone with his subordinates, Karl turned his head and said to Peter: "The person holding Tina has changed many cars along the way. It will take some time to track it."

In fact, what the subordinates said on the phone was that the car was lost, and now they can only wait to adjust the surveillance of various roads and cooperate with the police to find a clue.

And if they cooperate with the police, there will be many procedures to go through, and the time may be extended.

Karl measured it from the bottom of his heart, and finally chose to conceal some facts, and told Peter about it.

If it was normal, Peter would definitely hear Karl concealing it, but at this time he was so anxious that he could no longer think rationally as usual, and he had no doubts.

After a while, he laughed at him: "I really didn't expect that you will be my driver one day in this life."

Karl said, "As long as the money is in place, I am willing to be your driver."

At this time, Peter's cell phone rang again.

Karl stopped speaking, waiting for Peter to answer the phone.

But Peter never answered, as if he hadn't heard.

Karl frowned, "Peter, your phone."

"Is it really ringing?" Peter's expression suddenly became tense: "From before to now, at such a meeting, my mind is buzzing. I always think my phone is ringing. I thought it was my hallucination again."

The phone rings, it means there is something, whether good news or bad news.

Peter grabbed a handful of his own clothes and wiped the sweat off his hands before connecting to the phone.

He turned on the speakerphone: "Is there any news?"

"We have tracked down three locations now, one in the west of the city, the other is the east, and the other isâ€¦!"

"Where is it?"

"South Bay Villa."

Peter looked startled, and then sneered: "You go to West City and East City, South Bay Villa, I will go."

"South Bay Villa?" Karl looked at him, "Isn't that your home?"

"Yes." Peter looked grimly: "In my life, I haven't met a few people who are more rampant than me, and those who held me ran to my house."

Karl stepped on the accelerator and drove towards South Bay Villa.

South Bay Villa is a villa area developed by Adams' in the early years. Its architectural style and garden landscape are among the best in the architectural world. Many villas in the later real-estate developments follow the style of South Bay Villa.

It was also the first pot of gold that Peter and Karl made when they founded AdamPic.

Today's South Bay villas are also priceless in the upper class.

There are many people who want to buy these villas, but very few people put them for sale.

Chapter 1539

Wow!

When Tina woke up, the first thing she heard was the sound of pouring water.

The back of her neck was so sore that she couldn't even lift her head. She wanted to reach out and touch the back of her neck, only to realize that her hand was tied up, and she couldn't even lift it.

The memory returned, and Tina quickly remembered what happened at the door of the bookstore.

The mind has also become clearer.

“Wake up.” The familiar female voice sounded slow, echoing in the empty room.

Tina’s consciousness was completely awake, she opened her eyes and looked around for a while, and she saw a luxurious crystal chandelier.

She was completely tied up, lying flat on the hard floor. She couldn’t even finish the simple movement of getting up, so she could only turn her head and look around.

“Thirsty?”

The familiar female voice sounded again, followed by the sound of high heels stepping on the ground.

Tina turned her head, and after seeing the person, her eyes narrowed, and she coldly snorted, “It’s you again!”

Holding a glass of water in one hand, Cathy squeezed Tina’s chin with the other hand, forcing her to look at her: “You don’t even look at what the hell you look like now, so you dare to be tough?”

There was crazy hatred in Cathy’s eyes, and her voice was extremely cold.

“You dare to kidnap me, there is nothing I dare not to.” Tina’s tone was light and plain, but in Cathy’s ears, there was an indescribable arrogance and cold attitude.

What Cathy hates most is the appearance of Tina.

Her eyes were mixed with hatred and jealousy, and an originally beautiful face became distorted. Her fingers holding Tina’s chin also worked hard, and her sharp nails sank into the cold skin, instantly oozing. Bleeding marks.

“Death is approaching, and you dare to be so arrogant. Who gives you the confidence? Peter?”

Tina’s always calm expression changed slightly when she heard Cathy mention Peter.

Cathy saw the change in her expression in her eyes, and when she saw it, she sneered as if she had heard some extremely funny joke: “Yes, Peter will definitely come, but what after he comes?”

Tina’s heart tightened before she realized that something was wrong.

It is impossible to catch her by relying on Cathy alone. Cathy has a helper, and this helper is not Henry.

Henry had long been hollowed out by the wine, and he would not have such a vigorous posture, nor would he have such a quick reaction power.

At that time, the man held Grace, and when Tina passed by, she secretly gathered her strength, thinking about shooting him when he let go of Grace.

However, that person didn’t give her a chance at all, he completely suppressed her unilaterally, caught her in the car, and stunned.

Obviously professional.

With Cathy's current status, she hasn't had the ability to find a professional killer.

"It seems that you have found the backing." Tina's heart didn't show up on her face, and the whole person was still calm.

Cathy hated her calmness, raised her hand, and slapped Tina's face.

This slap used her full strength, and half of her face was numb, and her ears buzzed.

"Peter can't save you!"

Cathy's voice heard the distortion in her ears.

There was a salty sensation in her mouth, Tina spat out blood, still did not have the flustered expression Cathy wanted to see.

"It seems that the backer you are looking for this time is very remarkable." If it weren't, you wouldn't say "Peter can't save you".

Chapter 1540

Upon hearing this, Cathy smiled triumphantly: "It's not that great, but you can definitely do it by speaking out for me."

Cathy lived with Henry during this period, her face was haggard, and she lost a lot of weight, her pale face with a crazy smile on it became more and more terrifying.

"Cathy, why do you hate me so much?" Tina couldn't figure it out, she never provoked Cathy, but Cathy always treated her like an enemy.

It seemed that Cathy had become like this, it was all her fault.

"Why?" Cathy was immediately irritated: "Look at how I look now, so you dare to ask why? I'm all thanks to you now. I won't make you feel better. I won't let you bear it, what I have suffered!"

Tina looked at her coldly: "It's not thanks to me, it's all you asked for!"

Cathy slapped her down again.

Snapped!

The crisp sound echoed in the room.

Tina closed her eyes, and opened them again after the pain subsided.

It doesn't matter if you get hit.

Cathy is a crazy woman and can do everything.

She had to delay until Peter found her, otherwise, she might really not be able to get out of this room today.

"Does it hurt?" Cathy looked at Tina, her voice was extremely soft, but she smiled like a snake.

Tina did not speak.

She has never been a merciful person. When she speaks, she is bound to stimulate Cathy again.

Cathy could also vaguely feel her cool thoughts.

She smiled with satisfaction, and gently touched her swollen face: "Although I always hate you and feel that you are soft and pretentious and hypocritical, I have to admit that you are actually a very real-time person. unfortunately!"

"You have to fight me everywhere, as long as it is mine, you have to grab it!" Cathy's smile gradually solidified, her expression sulking.

"Heh." Tina really held back and laughed.

There was a hint of sarcasm in her laughter.

This laughter touched Cathy's nerves again, and a fit of raging anger ignited in her eyes, and she raised her hand again.

Tina was ready to receive another slap, but Cathy's hand did not come down.

Tina didn't foolishly think that Cathy was suddenly kind and generous. She looked at Cathy carefully and didn't miss any of her subtle expressions.

Cathy's eyes were hesitating. After thinking for a while, she slowly lowered her hand and revealed a weird smile: "I can't hit anymore. If I hit your face again, it will be swollen into a pig's head."

The alarm bell rang in Tina's heart. She didn't think Cathy would care if her face was good or not. She wanted her to be disfigured and turned into an ugly monster.

At this moment, there was a loud voice outside the door.

She can't hear what she is talking about, but she can feel that someone is coming.

Tina looked at the door, then turned to look at Cathy, and found that the smile on Cathy's face was much deeper.

Tina had a bad feeling in her heart.

She looked up at the window not far away, which was open.

If she got up from the ground at this time and then jumped out from the window, she might escape.

As for the chance of running away, she couldn't think so much.

The visitor fought outside the door for a while, but he never opened the door.

Cathy's complexion became difficult to look at, and she cursed secretly: "This stupid pig!"

Then she got up and walked towards the door.

And Tina took advantage of this opportunity, turned over and lay on the ground, knelt on the ground with bent legs, and got up with strength.
