Chapter 1581

Although Tom has been busy with his career and has no time to fall in love these years, there is never a shortage of women who take the initiative to contribute.

There are all kinds of women who are dedicated.

Gentle, passionate, unrestrained, implicit

He has never encountered Stephanie's brain circuit, which is unusual.

"You don't you don't like this name?" she asked carefully when she noticed Tom's face change.

Tom took a deep breath, then slowly spit it out: "What do you think?"

Stephanie: "â€"

Why is this man like this.

Either "what do you think?" or "what do you think I think?"

If she knew, would she still have to ask him?

Fortunately, Stephanie is only straightforward, not stupid.

She could also tell that he didn't like this title.

But is it too rude to call a name?

"Allisonâ€ Tom?"

Stephanie felt that calling his name would never go wrong, but she squatted as soon as she spoke.

Because Tom always looks like a business elite who never makes mistakes, this gives Stephanie a sense of distance. She is not very able to call out his name frankly, and she always feels that calling his name directly is destroying him. The momentum of business elites.

Tom sighed.

It's better than "Old Allison".

"Go home early when you are done, and call me if you have something to do." Tom exhorted her and drove away.

Stephanie stood there for a while, feeling that it was worth making friends with Tom.

In the beginning, she thought that he was not very easy to provoke, and she was angry because he took advantage of Tina, and felt that he was not a good person.

Unexpectedly, they have become friends now.

Stephanie thought, couldn't help feeling happy.

She has a very good friend-Tom.

â€¦

The fake news about Tom and Tinaâ€™s date on the Internet was dealt with by Stephanie before it had time to get on the trending search.

As soon as she finished processing the fake news, she received a call from Tina.

“The reaction ability is good, and the handling is good. I will give you a bonus this month.”

“It’s all I should do, the bonus won’t be neededâ€¦”

Stephanie felt that Tina was good enough for her, and there was no need to add bonuses to deal with this little thing.

Tina is very overbearing: “I am the boss, I will add if I say.”

Stephanie didn’t know what to say.

“What good food did you and Mr. Allison have?” Tina asked again.

Stephanie answered truthfully: “Just ate some fast food.”

“What?” Tina thought she had misheard.

“He said he was in a hurry, so he could just eat somethingâ€¦” Stephanie was also a little embarrassed: “He still queued to buy it. I said I would invite him to dinner next time.”

“Oh -” Tina stretched the tone, which seemed meaningful.

Stephanie has been following Tina these days, and has some understanding of her character. She knows what Tina’s tune means.

“It’s not what you think, Tom and I are just ordinary friendsâ€¦” Stephanie defended.

“Yes, they have all started to call Mr. Allison directly. They are indeed ordinary friends.” Tina’s voice was full of teasing.

“Ms. Tina, you are so annoying, I won’t tell you anymore, I’ll go to your interview assistant.”

“Okay, our house is full of hard work.”

Tina hung up the phone and found that the bowl in front of her had already piled up a hill, all of which were the dishes that Peter had picked up for her when she answered the phone.

“Don’t put so many dishes for me, I can’t eat so many,” Tina said that she was disgusted, but she still finished eating.

Chapter 1582

Peter finished the meal before her, and after he finished eating, he watched her eat.

After she had finished eating, he said leisurely: “Tina, a generous boss like you who needs a bonus for a small matter, the studio will sooner or later be defeated by you.”

“Crow’s mouth, what you have is money!” Tina glared at him.

Tina has signed with AdamPic for these years, and Peter is very concerned about her. How much money she made and how much money she spent, Tina may not know him yet.

She has never been short of money since she was a child. She spends money lavishly. Even if she doesn’t make money herself, she can gnaw at home for a few lifetimes, and there is no need to save money.

But she is now opening a studio and being her own boss. If she is still the same as before, she is afraid it will not work.

But Peter didn’t plan to tell her that being a boss and an actor are two different things.

because

He also has money.

Peter pretentiously smiled and said: “Come on, Brother Peter, ten million, you can figure out how much you want.”

“Who do you look down on? Am I such a spineless person? Will I give in for a mere ten million?”

Tina spoke with integrity, and he might have believed her when he was not familiar with her face.

In the next second, Tina lifted the hair near her ear, and shouted with a shy face: “Brother Peter.”

This dog man, she must call him bankrupt!

Peter couldn’t help laughing: “Ten million.”

Tina took the posture of calling Peter poor, and called out again, “Brother Peter.”

“Yeah!” Peter nodded in satisfaction: “Twenty million.”

When Tina saw his complacent look, her hands were itchy and she wanted to hit someone.

At this moment, Peter’s cell phone rang.

Listen to the ringtone, it should be a text message. If you listen to it a lot, you will remember it.

Peter, who was still full of pride, suddenly became serious.

He just opened the phone and tapped on the screen, looking like he was reading a text message.

A text message that could make him change his face on the spot?

Tina had some doubts in her heart, and tried to say in a calm tone: “Is it a text message? What happened?”

“It’s okay.” Peter quickly turned off the phone screen, and said with a smile: “Scam SMS, the trick is too low-level.”

“Really? Let me see what kind of low-level deception, maybe I have encountered it.” Tina’s eyes fell on his mobile phone, with a look of curiosity.

“Nothing to look good.” He put the phone back in his pocket and glanced at the table: “Are you full? Let’s go if we are full.”

Tina saw Peter’s reaction in his eyes, but did not continue to ask: “Yes.”

Intuition told her that he was weird.

But she couldn’t tell what was wrong.

At least, the text messages he received just now was definitely not fraudulent text messages.

â€¦

At night.

Tina lay on the sofa eating snacks and watching TV, but she was absent-minded and looked in the direction of the bedroom from time to time.

After a while, there was no movement in the bedroom, she vaguely heard the sound of water, and got up and walked towards the bedroom.

When she walked to the bedroom door, the sound of water became clearer.

Peter went to the bathroom to take a shower, and his mobile phone was on the bedside table.

Tina glanced at the bathroom warily, walked gently to the bed, and picked up Peter’s mobile phone.

She wanted to see what kind of text message Peter received. It was so mysterious and he didn’t show it to her because it was a fraudulent text message.

Chapter 1583

Tina was with a guilty conscience, took Peter’s mobile phone and looked in the bathroom for several times before starting to look at his mobile phone.

Peter’s mobile phone, she couldn’t be more familiar.

It’s of the same brand as hers.

He didn’t like to use this brand of a mobile phone before, and he didn’t know when she secretly bought it, or the couple’s color.

Tina thought of the couple color he secretly bought the same phone with her, and couldn’t help laughing.

However, when she turned on Peter’s mobile phone, she was instantly dumbfounded.

His mobile phone had always been with a digital password before, and the password was still her birthday, so there was no need to guess at all.

Why did he suddenly change to a gesture password?

How can she be so bad?

It can only rely on gambling.

Tina made two strokes on it, both showing errors.

When she tried the fourth time, she didn't dare to try again.

Try again to lock it.

When Peter came out again, won't he know she touched his phone?

Tina was unwilling, but the sound of water in the bathroom stopped at this moment, and she had to put down the mobile phone reluctantly and turn around and go out.

Sitting on the sofa, Tina had no intention of eating snacks.

For so many years, Peter's mobile phone has always used her birthday as a password. Why did it suddenly change to a gesture password?

In the past, she had to look at Peter's cell phone, and she could open it anytime.

He didn't guard it either.

Combined with the mysterious look of him reading text messages before, could it be that he didn't want her to look at his phone?

Is there something invisible in his phone that he is afraid of showing it?

Tina thought so, not only couldn't eat snacks, but she was even desperate.

Peter's heart

Why did he do this?

She raised her head and looked at the ceiling for a while, took out her mobile phone, and sent a WeChat message to Alyssa:

"Alyssa, I'm so annoyed."

Alyssa was reading a book with Grace at the moment, and when she saw the WeChat, she responded in seconds: "What happened?"

Tina stared at the phone in a daze for a moment, typed a line, and sent: "I think Peter maybe with someone outside."

Seeing the message from Tina, Alyssa couldn't laugh or cry: "Tina, if you say that you have someone outside, I think it would be more credible?"

Tina was shocked: "Are you my sisters, or Peter's sister? Or are you Peter's agent?"

Alyssa knew that Tina couldn't be suspicious for nothing, so she asked: "You can be clear about what happened."

Tina told Alyssa about the text message: "He received the text message today, he didn't show it to me. I went home at night and wanted to see it secretly, but I found out that his mobile phone had changed the password. Do you say he changed his heart?"

Alyssa's complexion also became serious. Peter looked unreliable, but she was really with nothing to say to Tina.

It's strange to change the password suddenly.

But she still persuaded Tina: "It is a bit strange to change the password, but why shouldn't you suspect that there is someone outside? You feel your conscience and ask yourself, what is Peter doing to you?"

Tina sighed: "Of course I don't really suspect that there is someone outside of him. The main reason is that his behavior is too abnormal. I really can't think of any other reasons. Let him do this. He clearly doesn't want me to see his cell phone."

Alyssa: "Maybe it would be better to ask directly?"

Chapter 1584

Peter came out of the shower and wiped his hair while holding the phone on the bedside table.

As soon as he picked up the phone, he noticed that there were some small particles on the back of the phone.

He reached his lips and smelled it, as if it was the smell of biscuit.

He remembered that before he came in to take a bath, he had just opened the cookies for Tina.

Peter stopped wiping his hair, wiped the phone on the towel, put it aside, slowly wiped his hair half dry, and walked out with the phone.

Tina sat on the sofa, didn't eat snacks or watched TV anymore, was playing on the phone, and kept tapping her fingers on the phone screen, as if she was typing, intently, and didn't know who she was chatting with.

There were snacks on the coffee table, and the drawer fell to the ground.

Peter walked over and picked up the paper box, only to tell Tina that he was here.

She had just told Alyssa on WeChat that there was someone outside with Peter. Now that she saw him, she was unavoidable, and hurriedly put the phone lock screen aside.

"You have finished washing."

When Tina had a guilty conscience, she looked particularly well-behaved.

He knew something was going on when he looked at her, but he didn't reveal it.

He glanced at the snacks on the coffee table and asked, "Stopped eating?"

"I'm still eating." Tina quickly took the package of biscuits that Peter had unpacked for her just now, and hugged it in her arms.

The biscuits have been eaten so that only half is left.

"Is it delicious?" Peter asked her.

"It's delicious, do you want to try it?" Tina picked up a biscuit and asked him.

Peter leaned over and motioned to her to feed him.

Tina smiled and fed him a piece: "How do you feel? Is it delicious? This cookie is delicious."

Peter couldn't tell the difference between biscuits and cookies, but he still nodded.

"Forget it, you don't like to eat these things." Tina picked up a biscuit and put it in her mouth, remembering something, and said: "By the way, can I use your mobile phone. I will call Alyssa. I don't know what's wrong with my cell phone, I can't make calls."

After Tina finished speaking, she wished to crush her teeth.

Alyssa asked her to ask him directly, but as soon as she spoke, her tongue was not under her control.

What she thought in her heart was asking about the phone, but when she said it, she wanted to borrow his phone to use.

She herself felt unreliable for such a clumsy excuse, and Peter naturally didn't believe it.

"Your mobile phone has been used for almost two years. I will buy you another one tomorrow." Peter handed his mobile phone to her, with no doubt in his tone or expression.

When it comes to acting, Tina is professional.

She took the mobile phone that Peter handed over, and still didn't forget to put another biscuit in her mouth, looking natural and casual.

"I'll go to the balcony to call Alyssa." she was very cautious, and did not reveal that she already knew how to change his phone code.

She couldn't even help but give herself a compliment in her heart.

What a cautious and logical actress she is.

In this way, Peter couldn't hide the password change of his mobile phone. She then asked him why he changed the password of his mobile phone. Wouldn't everything be solved?

It's perfect!

As soon as Tina stood up, Peter's voice came: "By the way, my phone password has been changed."

That was what Tina was waiting for.

"Huh?" She looked at Peter with a puzzled look: "Why did you suddenly change the password?"

Chapter 1585

"Before, Rubin's mobile phone was lost, and some important documents in it were almost lost, so I thought about changing the password so that I would not lose my mobile phone."

Peter answered naturally, and this sounded like nothing wrong.

But Tina still felt something was wrong.

For such a simple reason, he changed the phone password?

The key is that this is not just a simple phone password, it has been a habit for many years, just because of such a small thing?

Has he never worried about losing his phone before?

Besides, even if he loses his phone, doesn't he still have a password?

Tina still asked, "Because of this?"

"Of course not only." Peter's expression became more serious.

Tina's breath is lightened, he is going to confess to her, right?

Isn't it the reason she doesn't want to hear?

After a few seconds, Peter slowly said, "Actually, I doubt Rubin."

"He didn't he follow you for many years? What's wrong? He betrayed you?" Tina knew that Rubin had followed Peter for a long time, and he had always trusted Rubin.

If it is to prevent Rubin, then Peter suddenly changed the phone password, it is justified.

Because Rubin has been with him for many years, Rubin knows everything about Peter and Tina very well. If he wants to do something with Peter's mobile phone, his identity is the most convenient.

Peter: "Just doubt."

Peter, when speaking, the fewer words, the more serious.

Tina had already believed his words.

Peter said "doubt", that must be a basis.

"You don't be too sad, Rubin may also have his own difficulties, I think his nature is not bad." Tina and Peter's close relationship has caused her to have more contact with Rubin, and have a certain sense and understanding of him.

Peter nodded: "Aren't you going to call Alyssa? Hurry up and come back to watch a movie with me after the call."

"Okay!" You have to go back to the lie you lied to, so you have to make this call.

Don't know what Peter has done recently. He is obsessed with watching movies and always takes her to watch movies.

Tina went to the balcony to call Alyssa.

Alyssa saw a call from "Peter" displayed on the screen of her mobile phone and was about to answer it, and Karl's cool voice came from behind: "Why did he call you in the middle of the night?"

Alyssa was taken aback.

But she felt that Karl's words made sense.

Thinking of the previous chat history with Tina, she felt that this call might be from Tina.

Looking at Karl's expression, if Peter really made this call, he might be going to send Peter directly to the sky.

"It should be Tina. She chatted with me on WeChat before and said that there seems to be something wrong with the phone." Alyssa was worried that Karl would accidentally leak wind to Peter, so she relied on a tacit understanding to separate Tina from it. Make a confession empty.

According to her understanding of her friend, she used Peter's cell phone to call her, mostly for this boring and unreasonable reason.

But Peter spoiled her, naturally, she said what she said.

When Karl heard the words, he didn't speak again, and silently sat aside looking at her, motioning for her to answer the phone.

Alyssa pressed the connect button and answered the phone.

"Alyssa." A cool voice came from the phone.

Sure enough, she guessed it right.

Chapter 1586

Alyssa smiled and said, "As soon as I saw that it was Peter's number calling, I told Karl that it must be you."

Tina was about to talk to her about Peter's mobile phone password. Hearing this, she suddenly stopped: "Karl is next to you?"

"Yes, we are in the study room. I haven't finished reading one of the materials. He stayed with me in the study room." She is currently preparing a new script and needs to check a lot of information.

Tina said "Oh": "Then did I bother you?"

"What nonsense." Alyssa knew what Tina was thinking.

Seeing that Tina was really calling, Karl didn't bother them here, so he got up and went to the other side to read.

As soon as Karl left, Alyssa whispered to Tina, "He's gone."

When Tina heard that Karl had left, she told Alyssa what had happened just now.

"Just now, Peter told me. He said that he changed his phone password to prevent Rubin. He thought that Rubin might betray him."

When Tina spoke, she lowered her voice and turned her head to look carefully into the living room. Peter was looking for a movie with the remote control, looking very focused, and didn't look at her.

As a result, Tina felt more at ease, and more relaxedly told Alyssa of the conversation between her and Peter.

Alyssa listened carefully, but she felt that Rubin didn't seem to be that kind of person. He had been with Peter for so many years. Peter treated him well, and he had no reason to betray Peter.

"It made me think about it, that's true." Tina sighed, "Maybe I have been too idle lately, so I think about these messy things. This time I have rested long enough. I have to find some work to make it full. Pick up all those activities and movies!"

"Maybe so." Alyssa's doubts persisted in her heart: "Why did Rubin betray Peter? What does he want?"

Tina froze for a moment: "I don't know, it's just that Peter said so. I think he will doubt Rubin, there must be his reasons."

Alyssa didn't say more.

Both chatted for a while, and then they heard Peter calling.

"Tina!"

When Tina turned her head, she saw Peter pointing his finger at the TV screen. He had already selected the film and urged Tina to go to watch the movie with him.

"I won't tell you anymore, Peter called me, I'll go there first."

"OK, bye."

She hung up the phone, and did not go in immediately. She held Peter's cell phone and hesitated whether to read his text messages.

If she secretly read his text messages, would she distrust him too much?

Besides, if he has a ghost in his heart, how dare he give her the phone?

She thinks too much.

Probably it was a sequela of filming "Lost City". After filming the suspense drama, she always felt that nothing was right.

Tina felt relieved at this thought.

"What movie did you choose?" Tina returned to the living room, sat on the sofa, and returned the phone to Peter: "Here you are."

Peter whispered, "I have to call this time for anything. If I didn't know that Alyssa is a woman or a woman with a family, I would!"

"What are you saying?" Tina heard Peter's words on the tip of her ears.

Peter smiled: "I didn't say anything."

On the other side, Alyssa hung up and kept thinking about what Tina said.

When Rubin was on the crew of "Lost City", she always went to AdamPic for meetings and dealt with him. She didn't think Rubin was that kind of unrighteous person.

Chapter 1587

When Karl looked up inadvertently, he saw Alyssa sitting there with a pensive expression, as if thinking about something.

“What are you thinking about?” he asked aloud.

Alyssa got up and walked towards Karl.

When she approached Karl, as soon as Karl stretched out his hand, he pulled her over and hugged her in his arms. He was holding her in one hand, and holding the book in the other, and his eyes fell on the pages of the book. , A serious look at the folk book.

One mind and two purposes.

Alyssa deliberately tilted her head to block his vision, making him unable to read the book.

Karl turned his arm with the book, chose an angle where he could see, and continued to look.

Alyssa turned to block again.

Karl was not angry at all, chuckled lightly, covered the book in his hand on the desk, and asked her aloud, “What’s the matter?”

“It’s okay, I just want to disturb your reading.” Alyssa looked up at him mischievously.

She recently discovered that Karl didn’t seem to be angry anymore. Many times when she deliberately annoyed him, he wouldn’t be angry.

Karl pointed at her face.

“Huh?” Alyssa touched her face, “Is there anything on my face?”

Karl’s finger lightly tapped her face a few times: “It’s written on it, you have something on mind.”

“No.” Alyssa said, about to get up: “I don’t have any concerns.”

She didn’t think she was a liar, she was really upset, but she just felt a little confused.

She just got up, but was pulled back by Karl.

“What are you doing, I said that you have nothing to worry about!”

“Then read a book with me for a while.”

“heat.”

In the summer, when two people hug each other, it is strange that it is not hot.

Karl: “You are not hot.”

Alyssa: “!” Well, she is really not hot because the air conditioner is turned on.

She nestled in Karl’s arms and read two pages of books with him, and her eyes rolled.

After a while, she pretended to ask casually: "What kind of person do you think Smith is?"

"What kind of person do you think he is?" Karl asked back.

His eyes didn't leave the book, he still used two things.

"Just work seriously, very well, very thoughtful, but also very attentive, and very gentle to his family." Alyssa has seen Smith and his wife when she gets along.

Smith's temperament is relatively restrained, but when he faces his wife, he still shows a gentle look unconsciously.

"Yeah." Karl responded indifferently.

Alyssa realized that the question she had asked was answered by herself.

She was a little angry, her tone a little bit fierce: "Karl, am I asking you, or are you asking me?"

Karl finally put down the book in his hand, looked at her solemnly, and said, "I think the same as you."

Alyssa snorted and ignored him.

Karl bent over to kiss her again, then touched her lower abdomen, whispering in her ear: "Mom is angry, and the baby is coaxing her."

Karl, who is usually very serious, said that, Alyssa couldn't help being amused: "You are so boring."

Alyssa: "You said that good friends have been together for a long time, do you look at people with the same vision?"

Karl: "Huh?"

Alyssa: "It's like you are looking for an assistant. It feels like you are all of the same types. I think Rubin is the same person, reliable!"

"Rubin?" The surprise in Karl's tone was obvious. It seemed that Alyssa would suddenly mention this name.

Chapter 1588

Alyssa heard the surprise in Karl's tone, a little guilty, but still pretended to be casual: "Yeah."

"I don't understand." Karl said, reaching for the book again.

Alyssa saw his intentions, picked up the book first, and hid it behind.

Karl reached out to her back, and Alyssa took the book to her and hugged it tightly in her arms: "You perfunct me!"

"When did I peruse you?" Karl said, going to get the book again.

But Alyssa clung to her arms and refused to let go. Naturally, Karl was afraid of hurting her and would not force her to grab it.

Karl stopped robbing the book, and looked at her seriously: "Have you quietly gone to AdamPic with me behind your back?"

Alyssa immediately shook her head: "No."

So many things had happened before, and she was not in good health. Later, she and Karl returned to Rostenvel and took a rest for so long before they were better again.

Karl actually didn't plan to have another child. The child came suddenly and was an accident.

The doctor also said that Alyssa's body is okay, but her physique is not the best, after all, she still has to take care of. She naturally won't run around for the sake of her children.

"Then when did you meet Rubin?" Karl frowned slightly.

Alyssa felt that Karl's problem was inexplicable.

She didn't understand why he asked like this at first, but soon, a bright light flashed in her mind, and suddenly she wanted to understand the deep meaning of Karl's words.

She blinked and asked tentatively, "I just talked here casually. I'll just ask. Do you think I went to AdamPic to see Rubin in private? If I really meet Rubin, Do you still think I am empathizing?"

Karl just looked at her, showing no expression.

In general, his expression means that she has met his ideas.

"Iâ€¦!" he really didn't know what to say.

After she and Karl looked at each other for ten seconds, she sighed, "Karl, I will tell you again, it's true that no one will like me, and I am not money."

To talk about Karl's changes, he felt more and more that everyone liked her.

She didn't know how many times she had told him, she was really not that likable, but he just didn't believe it.

Karl lowered his eyes and said nothing.

Making it clear that he doesn't intend to listen to her.

Alyssa snorted coldly: "I sleep in the study at night, and reflect on it."

Karl said quietly, "I can't sleep alone."

"If you can't sleep, you can deal with documents and read books. I think you are too idle, thinking about messy things all day long." Alyssa felt that her and Karl's identities were completely reversed.

Generally speaking, in a relationship, women are more suspicious, but she and Karl are better off, and Karl has become the one who loves to think about things.

Karl argued: "I'm not busy, I will build a cabin for Grace tomorrow."

Speaking of the wooden house, Alyssa was so angry that she wanted to laugh: "You have shoveled a large piece of flowers and gardens in the backyard, and circled them to feed Grace's chickens. You have to help her build a wooden house for the chickens. Get used to her!"

Karl was justified and confident: "Just one daughter, I'm used to what's wrong."

Alyssa reminded him coldly: "There is one more in my stomach."

"It's just two children, what's the matter." After Karl finished speaking, he said seriously to her belly, "Baby say yes?"

Chapter 1589

The relationship between Karl and Grace is getting better and better. Grace has been learning from Alyssa recently and talking to the "baby" in her stomach.

Listening to the mother and daughter calling baby, Karl also called baby.

When she first heard it, Alyssa was also shocked to know that Karl was possessed by something strange, but after getting used to it, she watched him call "baby" with a serious face. It still felt cute.

But this did not prevent Alyssa from teaching Karl.

"Tell me, how long have you not been to the company? Is your company really okay?" Since knowing that Alyssa was pregnant, Karl had hardly been to the company.

He usually sees her at home and doesn't do much with the company. Basically, as soon as Grace returns home every day, he follows her.

Alyssa even began to worry whether Adams was going bankrupt.

The older this man is, the heavier he is to play, and he looks more and more like a child who has not grown up.

"It's okay, it is handled by Smith." Karl said indifferently.

"Smith doesn't need to go home, doesn't he need to rest?" Alyssa didn't expect him to push everything to Smith.

Karl thought about it for a while, and said, "I have given him shares. He is very happy and is very active in his work."

Alyssa didn't know whether to laugh at Karl rashly or say he was sensible.

Adams's is so big now, let alone share shares, even if it just shows something out of the fingers, it can save many dying companies.

No matter how many shares Karl gave to Smith, the benefits he could get at that time were also several times his salary.

Over the years, Smith has indeed followed Karl through thick and thin birth and death, and has given a lot.

“That’s how it should be. You don’t look at how much Smith has paid for you over the years.” With that said, Alyssa herself is a little weak.

Because, she suddenly felt that she was actually better than Smith.

She stayed with Karl for as long as he stayed Smith.

What she had done for Karl was not as much as what Smith had done for Karl.

“Yeah.” Karl replied in agreement.

Alyssa felt a little sleepy, and yawned, then leaned back into Karl’s arms: “Let’s go to sleep.”

Karl spent more and more time at home, and she became more and more lazy.

Karl helped her do a lot of her own affairs.

For example, at this moment, she didn’t bother to walk back to the bedroom by herself.

Karl understood, holding her up and walking to the bedroom.

As for letting Karl sleep in the study, Alyssa was so dizzy that she couldn’t remember it, let alone Rubin.

Back in the bedroom, she quickly fell asleep.

There is no discomfort in her body when pregnant with this child, which is the luckiest thing.

Karl saw that she was asleep, so he picked up the phone and went out.

â€¦

Peter and Tina leaned together and sat on the sofa to watch a movie.

Seeing the most sensational and emotional place, his phone vibrated.

Peter picked it up and saw that it was a WeChat sent by Karl.

Hey, this man loves to use WeChat more and more, and recently he keeps posting the gadgets he made for Grace in his circle of friends.

Karl’s speech is always concise: “What’s the matter with Rubin?”

As soon as Peter’s mind turned, he knew why Karl would suddenly ask about Rubin.

Peter: “It’s okay, you know.”

Karl sent an expression over: “I don’t understand .jpg.”

Chapter 1590

Peter read the message sent by Karl and was about to reply. Suddenly he realized that Karl was sending an emoticon, and he sat up straight: “f*ck, what is this stuff?”

“What?” Tina turned her head and asked him.

Peter quickly deleted the “What’s the matter with Rubin” sent by Karl, and then showed Tina the “I don’t understand” emoticon sent by Karl.

“Just one emoticon pack, I still have this emoticon pack, I sent it to Alyssa.” Tina only glanced at it, then turned to watch the movie again.

“Little boy, look at who sent it to me.” Peter leaned over again.

“Who?”

Tina looked away from the movie reluctantly and looked back at Peter’s mobile phone, and saw Karl’s name above.

She was stunned for a moment, and then her eyes widened: “Who is this? Karl sent this? Karl would use emoticons? Who bluffs?”

Tina looked up at Peter suspiciously: “Frankly confess, do you have two mobile phones, take out the other mobile phone.”

Peter stretched his hands, indicating that he hadn’t done this.

“That must have been sent by Grace using Karl’s mobile phone.” Tina felt that her thinking was not wrong, so she took Peter’s mobile phone.

She typed very fast, tapped her finger quickly on the screen, and then sent a message.

“Grace, it’s late, go to bed early, stop playing with your father’s phone, remember to delete the chat history, or your father will find out. Auntie taught you how to delete it last time, remember? be good.”

Peter took the phone and frowned, “If it’s not Grace who sent the message?”

“Impossible.” Karl would not express his love via emojis.

The next second, Peter’s cell phone rang.

It is an invitation to WeChat video.

“Did Grace send it here?” Tina was already sure that Grace was playing with Karl’s mobile phone. She reached out and clicked to connect: “Come, I haven’t seen Grace for a few days, I’ll “

The smile on Tina’s back, after seeing the person who appeared in the video, suddenly froze, and swallowed all the words that he hadn’t finished.

She stared at the familiar face in the video, her bowels were blue with regret.

Peter hurriedly took the phone over and said to him, “Karl! Haven’t slept so late? Is this the first time I have opened a video with you, so fresh?”

Tina heard Karl’s voice coming from the phone: “Grace often uses my phone to send you messages?”

“No!” Peter looked at Karl’s expressionless face and changed his words: “Just once or twice.”

“I see, goodbye.”

After Karl finished speaking, he hung up the video.

“Ah!!!” Tina threw it into the sofa and screamed.

Peter rubbed his ears and tried to comfort her: “It’s okay, Karl won’t mind this, didn’t he say nothing?”

“If he doesn’t mind, what is he doing over the video call?” Tina cried a face.

Peter felt that Tina’s words made sense. Based on his understanding of Karl, Karl’s purpose of making this video call was probably the same.

He also couldn’t find words to comfort her: “Hey, everything will pass.”

When Tina heard the words, the whole person was not good: “I think I have died socially, and I will not be happy anymore. I can no longer look directly at Karl’s face.”
