

Predestined 1601

Chapter 1601

Peter's voice was low, and he talked about Tina's Studio after all.

She listened quietly without interrupting him.

Until, his voice gradually decreased.

Seems to be asleep again.

She turned her back to him and was held in his arms, so she couldn't see his face and couldn't confirm whether he really fell asleep again.

She stared at the ceiling in the darkness and asked, "Can you not work overtime?"

In the dark and empty room, unanswered questions seemed silent.

Tina waited for a while, but did not wait for his response.

She felt steady and even breathing around her ears.

He really fell asleep again.

Or, this is the answer.

She believed that Peter's kindness to her was all from sincerity.

But being nice to her does not mean that he loves her.

It may just be because of habit.

You know, habit is more terrible than anything.

â€¦

The next day.

When she woke up, she heard the sound of flowing water in the bathroom.

With a squeak, Peter opened the door and came out of the bathroom, and saw her sitting on the bedside, grinning, revealing white teeth, the sunshine like a teenager is invincible.

"Woke up?"

Time has left a mark on him, but it hasn't left a mark on him that hard.

"So early?" Tina asked him.

She didn't seem to have much energy, Peter thought she had just gotten up, so he didn't think much.

Tina was already getting up.

"There is a lot of work in the company, do you still wait for a while? If you wake up now, I will drive you to the studio. If you get up later, I will let Stephanie come over and pick you up."

Peter walked over to the bed and sat down, talking and going to kiss Tina.

She turned her head slightly to avoid it, Peter only treated her as if she was getting up, and didn't mind or get angry.

"That's all right, sleep for a while?" He thought she hadn't woken up, and he reached out and gently fiddled with the hair near her ear.

She did not say a word, then retracted into the quilt and pulled the quilt over her head.

Peter's voice came again: "I'll make breakfast for you and put it in the refrigerator. Remember to eat when you get up."

She got out of the quilt after the door was closed and sat on the bedside in a daze.

Don't know how long it took, Stephanie called her over.

"Ms. Tina, I'm at your door, I'll pick you up to the studio. Can I just open the door and come in?" Stephanie has the key to Tina's house, which she gave herself.

"Yeah." Tina hung up the phone and got up to wash.

After Stephanie entered the door, she warmed up breakfast for Tina, then took a look in the bedroom, and helped her to match the clothes she was going to wear today.

When Tina had breakfast, Stephanie looked at her with her chin on her face, and said with envy, "When will I find a boyfriend who can make breakfast for me like my cousin?"

When I was young, I always had an infinite yearning for love.

Tina glanced at her and said faintly: "You may have time to let Tom learn to cook now."

Stephanie was shocked immediately: "(âŠ™oâŠ™)â€!"

Tina added: "However, with Tom's temperament, if you want him to learn to cook, you might have to think about it."

"No, I and Tom, weâ€!" Stephanie tried to defend.

Tina put down the spoon and looked at her in her spare time, with an expression of "you make up, I will watch you make up".

When Tina looked at her like this, Stephanie couldn't say what she intended to, as if she was arguing no matter what she said.

Chapter 1602

Stephanie was speechless, sulking with her.

Tina took her breakfast slowly, and then continued: "That doesn't matter, you can make your own breakfast for Tom."

"Who makes breakfast for him, he can't afford itâ€!" Stephanie's eyes rolled around, obviously because of a guilty conscience.

“But he hasn’t eaten what you made.” Tina paused: “But, can you make breakfast?”

“No.” Stephanie was also a young lady, so how could it be possible to make breakfast? She didn’t need to do it.

“You don’t know how to do it, and you expect others to make it for you.” Tina teased her mercilessly.

“” Stephanie felt that she had suffered a powerful crit.

After laughing at Stephanie, Tina felt much happier.

“”

On the way to the studio, Tina was in a good mood and was still humming along the way.

As soon as they arrived at the entrance of the studio, Stephanie’s cell phone rang.

She glanced at the call and found that it was from the studio. She frowned slightly and glanced out of the car window and found that someone was standing at the door waiting.

“What’s the matter?” Stephanie hung up and asked when she got out of the car.

Tina got out of the car and looked at the entrance of the studio.

“Miss Weber is on the trending search again.”

“What trending search?” Stephanie asked.

“Just last night’s activity, didn’t Miss Weber nearly fall? David helped Miss Weber, and today this clip was intercepted and posted on the Internet”

“Really?” Tina didn’t expect such a small clip to be on the trending search.

“Do you want to deal with it?” the staff member asked.

“Let me see.” As soon as she stretched out her hand, the staff handed her the phone.

The hot topic on the Internet is “Tina David feeling close”.

Under this topic, the next topic was “David succeeded in chasing a star.”

David once publicly said in “My Life and Me” that he loves watching Tina’s dramas, and he can be regarded as her fanboy.

It is normal to have such topics.

“This trending search” Stephanie felt that this trending search came a bit suddenly.

“It should have been bought by David, and he wants to borrow your popularity for marketing,” Stephanie answered.

Such topics are obviously bought, because a little bit of entry is a series of marketing accounts, and the degree of discussion is not particularly high. After buying, the popularity and discussion continue to rise.

The staff asked: “Do you want to press it down?”

Stephanie was about to say “press,” but she heard Tina say: “No, don’t worry, so be it.”

David’s company is still good at doing things, and he didn’t step on it, but it was quite regular and not a mess.

Tina’s impression of David was okay, since they have already bought it, let them go.

“However, if this is the case, let them taste the sweetness, they may be followed by someone in the future, so as to rub their enthusiasm.” Stephanie said worriedly.

“What’s next, let’s talk about it later, let’s discuss work first.” Tina had already raised her foot and walked into the studio.

The staff on the side was also a little confused: “Miss Weber, this isâ€¦”

“Go in first.” Stephanie smiled.

â€¦

Towards noon, Tina’s studio issued an announcement.

The content is to cooperate with Scott’s Group in Rostenvel to establish a long-term cooperative relationship for its new series of products.

As soon as the news came out, the discussion went up all at once.

Chapter 1603

As for why the discussion went up all at once, it was because someone had revealed that the current person in power of the Scott family was previously related to Cathy’s dirty videos-Cody.

At that time, the incident of Cathy’s dirty videos was raging on the Internet. After netizens picked Cody, they almost dragged Tina into the water as well.

Although Peter let people suppress all this news at the time, the Internet has memories. As long as someone is willing to look for them, traces of these things can still be found on the Internet, but the truth is difficult to distinguish.

As soon as this notice was issued, netizens turned over the previous dirty videos.

Looking at the situation on the Internet, Stephanie couldn’t help worrying: “Ms. Tina, are you too impulsive? I know you want to help your friends, but this is not the way to help.”

Tina smiled faintly: “Stephanie, what do you think is the most important thing in a person’s life?”

“Huh?” Stephanie was full of doubts on her face, and she talked about work. Why did she start to talk about life again?

“Is it career, love, or friendship? What is the most important thing?” Tina thought, as if she was really thinking about this issue seriously.

“It’s all important. After all, these things are an important part of life. Because of career, love, and friendship, life will become very exciting.”

Although Stephanie didn't know why Tina asked this suddenly, she still answered her question very seriously.

"Yes, they are all important parts. I want to help the friend I care about. Is this the right thing?" Tina asked again.

"Yes, right!" Stephanie felt that Tina's words made sense, but after thinking about it, she still felt strange.

So she said: "Ms. Tina, I can understand you, but I think there must be a limit to help, that is, you know it yourself."

"Yeah." Tina nodded, her eyes still on the schedule in her hand.

don't know if she listened.

However, Ms. Tina is so smart, she must have her own ideas in doing things.

Stephanie talked to her about some recent work arrangements, and went to work on her own business.

As soon as Stephanie left, her cool gaze left the schedule in her hand, staring forward without focus, in a trance.

The phone placed aside began to vibrate continuously.

Tina turned her head and glanced, and saw Peter's name on the screen.

This time he called, naturally because of the announcement.

It's really embarrassing for him, he is so busy, there is still time to care about her.

Tina stared at the phone vibrating all the time, and didn't want to answer, and didn't move her fingers.

Until the call was automatically hung up because no one answered.

"Ms. Tina, was your phone vibrating just now?" a staff member passed by and asked.

Tina picked up the phone and lazily said, "It seems that someone called me."

She picked up the phone and turned it to silent. Before putting the phone back, another call came in.

It is still Peter.

She thought for a while, and was about to press the Connect button when the phone was hung up.

Just a little bit, she received this call.

She sneered and put the phone aside.

Her studio has not been refurbished yet. Now, this studio is also temporarily rented. It is not complete. She is going to participate in an activity in the circle in the afternoon, so she goes out to do styling.

Chapter 1604

There are still many things to deal with in the studio, Stephanie can't do without, so Tina went by herself.

It is an activity within the circle, the environment is relatively free and relaxed, there are no outsiders, there will be no media reporter paparazzi, etc., it is fine if you don't bring people there.

Stephanie had accompanied her once before. Knowing the environment there, she felt relieved that Tina would go alone.

Not long after Tina's front foot walked, Peter came on the back foot.

"Stephanie!" Peter entered the studio, looked around, and finally only saw Stephanie.

"Cousin?" Stephanie was stunned when she saw Peter, then looked at the time on hand: "It's not time for you to finish work, why are you here?"

"Where is Tina?" He looked for Tina's figure in the room, frowning slightly, looking a little worried.

"Ms. Tina went to attend a symposium, just the one before." Seeing that he was so anxious, Stephanie directly told him where she was going.

Peter's frowned brows did not relax because of Stephanie's words.

She asked him: "What's wrong?"

He took a deep breath: "Tell me about the announcement."

"Don't you know? Didn't Ms. Tina did not tell you?" She was a little surprised. She knew that Cody and Peter were also young, thinking that Tina had discussed this matter with him.

When asked by Stephanie, Peter's complexion also became difficult to look at.

For such a big matter, Tina should indeed discuss with him, but the problem is that Tina did not discuss with him, so she insisted on cooperating with Scott's family.

When Stephanie looked at Peter's face, she knew that Tina had not told Peter about it.

At this point, her expression also became a bit solemn, she lowered her voice: "Cousin, come with me."

He saw that she had something to say, and followed her to the small garden outside the studio.

"I think Ms. Tina is also very strange today. I haven't heard her mention this before. She suddenly proposed to cooperate with the Scott Group today."

"You feel strange, something is wrong, can't you stop her?"

Peter became furious when he heard this.

Stephanie shrank her shoulders: "I don't make such a big fire, but I think Ms. Tina is so smart and so powerful. She must have her own reasons for doing things. How can I stop her."

"Youâ€¦!" Peter opened his mouth, and Stephanie bowed her head.

Seeing her like this, Peter was not so angry at her anymore, so he was so angry that he calmed down: "She is great? She has a great temper, and likes nonsense the most!"

Tina is indeed smart, but she is also willful.

It's just that her little temper is what she used to.

Stephanie stared at Peter in a daze: "Cousin, if Ms. Tina knew you said this to her, do you think you still have a wife?"

"You don't you say who knows?" Peter knocked Stephanie's head hard.

When she saw the staff in the studio looking over here, she whispered to him, "Give me some face."

Peter's tone eased a little: "You also give me a long snack. If you have this kind of thing in the future, you must tell me in advance."

"Do you think this is feasible?" Stephanie felt that this would not work.

With a cool temper, she would secretly tell Peter if she knew what decision her boss made in advance. It would be strange not to be angry.

Chapter 1605

Peter cast a "you are a fool" look at Stephanie: "Isn't it all you need to let her know?"

"But Ms. Tina is no longer a child, she is my boss, and you are not my boss." she whispered.

Peter: "Repay the money."

After Stephanie escaped from marriage and ran away from home for so many days, she has been relying on Peter for relief, but she has not given out any money from Peter back.

If you really want to calculate the bill, how could she even afford it?

She will have to sell herself to be able to afford Peter's money.

She curled her lips and said angrily: "When you need me, you say that I am your own sister. When you don't need me, you ask me to pay back. Your turning over is faster than turning a book, and there is no demeanor at all!"

"Want demeanor? Go to Tom." Peter dropped these words, turned, and left.

"What's the matter with Tom? How come you and Ms. Tina are like this, you will mention him from time to time, as if I have something to do with him."

Stephanie said as she followed up: "Cousin, where are you going now, are you going to find Ms. Tina? You didn't know to call her before you came, so next time you come, remember to call in advance!"

He turned his head and stared at her coldly.

Stephanie was silent immediately, and stepped back a few steps to escape.

But it was too late.

He has already begun to lose his knife: "Do I look like I have no brains?"

She immediately shook his head.

â€

At the symposium that Tina attended, the people who came were all more experienced colleagues in the circle.

Ordinary actors, or newcomers, still cannot receive this invitation.

When the event ended, it was evening.

Because some of them were busy with the announcements, the evening party was canceled.

This area is relatively quiet, with strict access control, and it is not easy for entertainment reporters to get in.

Although entertainment reporters can't come in, it doesn't mean that other people won't come.

As soon as Tina came out, she saw an acquaintance standing not far away.

"Tina."

Cody walked towards her, his face was as bad as when she saw him last night, but he looked much better in spirit.

"Why are you here?" Tina squinted slightly, without the slightest smile on his face, his whole person seemed to be slightly alienated.

"I happened to have a meeting here. I heard from the assistant that you also have an event here, so I came to try my luck. I didn't expect it to happen."

"Oh."

The somber complexion was a little loose.

Cody half-joked and half-seriously said: "Otherwise, do you think I am following you?"

"That may be true." Tina also looked at him with a smile.

The smile on Cody's face gradually faded: "Tina, you can't make this joke."

She was noncommittal: "Yeah."

"Let's go, invite you to dinner, we will have a long-term cooperative relationship in the future." Cody chuckled and walked over to open the passenger's door for her.

Tina sat in.

Fastened her seat belt, and when she looked up and looked out of the car, a car drove towards her. As it passed by, she saw Peter driving.

Her back could not help being straight.

Peter also came here.

But she was already in Cody's car.

He was a step late.

The car drifted away, Tina looked in the rearview mirror and saw Peter driving to the door to stop, got out of the car, and walked inside.

Then, he disappeared out of her vision.

Chapter 1606

Cody took Tina to Best Day.

She is too familiar with Best Day, just like her own home.

There were a lot of people during dinner, and the parking boy was too busy. Cody went to the car by himself. Tina didn't wait for him, and walked straight inside.

As soon as she entered the door, the lobby manager greeted her.

"Ms. Weber, are you here with Mr. Grant?" the lobby manager said while tilting his head and looking behind her.

"No." Tina's voice was slightly cold.

No wonder the lobby manager asked like that. Usually, she usually comes to Best Day with Peter.

Even if it wasn't with Peter, it was Alyssa.

At this time, Cody walked in. The lobby manager was embarrassed, but he quickly returned to nature: "Please inside."

After Tina and Cody went up, the lobby manager called Peter.

Peter has taken care of Best Day for Karl for so long. Most of the staff here are brought up by him, so he naturally knows a little bit about his relationship with Tina.

It's just that, in such a place, serving the rich is not so strict, otherwise, you will lose your job.

However, Peter can be regarded as a half boss, this is different.

â€¦

Tina didn't have any appetite, so she ate a little and put down her chopsticks.

"Doesn't suit your appetite?" Cody saw that she hadn't eaten much, and asked, "Would you like to change to something else?"

"No, I'm just not hungry." She leaned back lazily on the sofa, showing a lack of interest.

Cody looked at her for a moment and said, "You don't seem to be very energetic."

Tina raised her eyes: "You too."

"I can't help it. There are too many things that need me to deal with, and there are too many annoying things. I want to be happy but can't be happy."

He sighed, his whole body looked sad.

Tina didn't want to talk too much, fiddling with her mobile phone, in fact, it was all the software that was swiping around and doing nothing.

"Tina, actually"

"Tina."

As soon as Cody spoke, he was interrupted by Peter.

Tina heard the familiar voice and was startled for a moment, then slowly raised her head.

Peter stood in front of the dining table with no expression on his face, his eyes filled with anger that only close people could see.

She laughed, with an occasional lightness in her tone: "Are you eating here too?"

After her voice fell, Peter's expression became even more ugly.

No matter how slow Cody was, he could vaguely feel something wrong in the atmosphere.

Cody smiled and said, "Peter? What are you doing while standing? Sit down."

It's just that he smiled awkwardly.

In the past, he did not do very kindly, but this time Tina said she wanted to cooperate with the Scott Group, she was actually a little guilty.

She has never done business and has no business experience, so she may not quite understand what the Scott Group is now, but Peter is a businessman, he knows.

"Sit?" Peter's voice was sneered.

Cody's expression darkened suddenly: "Peter"

Peter ignored him. He turned his head to look at Tina with a rare and stern expression: "Tina, can you help him? Do you know how he made such a big hole in the company?"

"He participated in an underground gambling game abroad and took the entire Scott Group into it. Now those people have come to the door, and he is so devastated that he put his idea on your head!"

"Tina, use your mind before you do something. If you can really help, can I not help him? Am I that kind of person in your eyes?"

Chapter 1607

She felt puzzled at the time, why the Scott Group had such a big hole suddenly.

Now that Peter said this, she suddenly understood what was going on.

She actually believed that what Peter was telling was the truth, but she still couldn't accept it psychologically.

She wanted to confirm it from Cody: "What he said is true?"

Cody's face was terribly pale, and he moved his lips. He wanted to speak but didn't know what to say to argue for himself.

His expression already gave Tina an answer.

She asked and answered, murmured: "It seems to be true."

Tina was really determined to help Cody, although she also blocked Peter's anger, but Cody had grown up with him since he was a child.

She has no reason not to help such a relationship.

Unexpectedly, this is actually the case.

It wasn't the Scott Group that had a problem at all, but Cody had a problem.

She had guessed that Cody had encountered something early, but she still chose to trust him again and help him once again.

But the result?

She was cheated.

She asked Cody quietly: "In Cathy's dirty videos, the footage about you is also a warning from the underground casino."

"Yes," Cody responded vaguely.

Tina asked again: "As soon as you came back, you confessed to me, did you want to marry into our family, and rely on our family to fill the hole you made for the Scott Group?"

Cody denied: "I really like you!"

"Like me?" Tina laughed at him: "That's how you like me?"

"Tina!" Peter sensed that Tina's emotions were not right, as if she was about to break down at any time, so he walked over and stretched out his hand to pull her into his arms.

She patted Peter's stretched hand away, her voice was a bit sharp: "You don't touch me!"

Peter didn't expect Tina's reaction to be so big, and he was stunned for three full seconds before his complexion returned to natural.

Tina still looked at Cody: "Talk!"

Peter frowned slightly. Tina felt strange to him at this time. She was clearly questioning Cody, but he felt that she was questioning him.

Is he too busy lately, thinking too much?

Tina is a clever woman. Cody thought through all the so-called reasons, and finally said two words: "I'm sorry."

"Okay." Tina pursed her lips and nodded, seeming to have calmed down a bit: "Let's do this, how about the friendship that we grew up together?"

Tina stood up, didn't even take the bag, and walked out holding the phone.

She was angry, and Peter wanted to reach out to her, but he couldn't help it.

He lowered his head and glanced at his hand slowly, then turned his head and warned Cody: "You don't show up in front of her again in the future."

Then, he went after her.

â€

Tina took the elevator downstairs, her steps moving her body quickly forward.

When she walked to the door, she met Karl and Alyssa who walked up front.

"Tina?" Alyssa didn't expect Tina to be in Best Day, and smiled when she saw her.

No matter how deep Tina's temperament is, she won't lose her temper at Alyssa.

She pulled out a smile, looking like an okay person: "Came to eat."

"Yeah, did you come with Peter?" Alyssa felt that Tina and Peter came together subconsciously.

After she asked, she felt Karl gently squeeze her arm.

She turned her head to look at him in a puzzled way, just as he shook his head very slightly at her.

Chapter 1608

Karl hinted at this, and Alyssa realized that Tina looked a little wrong.

"I've finished eating, and there are other jobs, so I'll leave first, eat slowly, and look back for you." When Tina and Alyssa spoke, their tone was still gentle.

Tina wants to leave, Alyssa no longer asked, "Okay."

After Tina left, Alyssa and Karl continued to walk inside.

"Tina, what happened?" Alyssa was a little worried.

Karl: "Nothing big."

"Do you know it again?" Alyssa gave him an angry glance.

He laughed lightly and said softly, "If something big that she can't take care of really happens, she will definitely tell you, won't she?"

Alyssa felt that what Karl said was reasonable: "Yeah, right."

“Peter?”

After Karl finished speaking, he looked up and saw Peter.

“Are you here for dinner?” Peter stopped, a little absent-minded, his eyes kept looking out the door.

Obviously, he came out after Tina.

“Yes.”

Just as Alyssa wanted to tell Peter that Tina had just gone out, Karl suddenly stopped him: “It’s such a coincidence, let’s eat together.”

Again! !

She didn’t believe that Karl couldn’t see it, Peter was anxious to chase Tina.

Is there a friend of his doing this?

Sooner or later, Peter will break up with him.

“I’m in a hurry, I’ll eat together next time.” Peter said, he was about to take Karl’s hand away.

Karl smiled and said, “There won’t be such a coincidence next time.”

Peter recalled: “Karl, did you deliberately?”

“Yes.” Karl let go: “She just went out in front of you, chase after.”

Peter pointed at Karl. It was really a poor word, or it was important to chase Tina.

Tina hadn’t lost her temper like this for a long time, and he was very worried.

Peter hurriedly chased her out, Alyssa glared at Karl: “You will be beaten like this.”

Karl’s eyebrows moved, and a smile spread across his eyes: “It’s okay, Peter can’t beat me.”

! !

When Peter chased out, there was still Tina’s figure.

He was so angry that he kicked the street light pole next to him, and then took a breath of pain.

Took out the phone and called Stephanie.

“Cousin? Did you find Ms. Tina?” Stephanie was eating, her voice was not clear.

Peter patiently said, “You can call her now and ask where she is.”

“Not together? You irritated her and she ignored you?”

The question Stephanie asked was also what Peter wanted to ask.

It is clear that Cody lied to her, why does she seem to be angry with him?

Except for working overtime last night and not having dinner with her, he really can't remember what has offended her recently.

This morning, before he went to the company, he specially cooked breakfast for her.

Speaking of breakfast, Peter asked Stephanie: "I made breakfast in the morning, did she eat it?"

"Ate it, you are going to die, I'll call Tina."

"Hurry up."

He hung up the phone and stood there, waiting for Stephanie to call him back.

After waiting for a while, he couldn't help but dial her back again.

"Sorry, the number you dialed is currently on a call"

During the call, she should be calling Tina.

Peter circled the place twice, and Stephanie finally called.

Peter picked it up in a second: "Where is she?"

Chapter 1609

Stephanie sighed, this is really her cousin.

"Ms. Tina didn't say where she is, so she said she wanted to go shopping outside, relax, and go home at night after shopping." She relayed the original words to Peter.

"You" Peter lost his temper: "I asked you to ask where she is! That's what you asked?"

"She doesn't want to say that I can't help it. Besides, she will go home at night. Don't worry about it all day. She is a mature adult, so don't worry." Stephanie felt that Peter was a bit too much anxious.

How can he rest assured if he can't see her?

He felt that there was no point in talking to Stephanie anymore. It would be better for him to go home and wait now, so he hung up Stephanie's phone.

Stephanie also wanted to comfort him with another sentence, so that he would not be overly nervous. Who knows, Peter hung up the phone before she could speak.

Really" cousin.

He didn't bother to go to the company to deal with affairs. He called Rubin and asked him to call him if he had an emergency document, and sent it to his home.

He drove all the way home, and as soon as he entered the door, it was dark.

Tina has not returned yet.

He was too lazy to turn on the light, changed his shoes, and sat down on the sofa.

After sitting for a while, he remembered that when he was in Best Day before, he saw that the food in front of Tina didn't seem to move.

She didn't eat much food, so she would definitely be hungry when she comes back from a stroll outside.

He thought about this, so he went to the kitchen and made some cool favorites, and she could have something to eat when she comes back.

He tossed in the kitchen for an hour or two, prepared the dishes, and when he came out, he found that it was already ten in the evening.

However, there was still no movement by the door, and she had not returned.

He knew that Stephanie's words were not reliable.

He decided to go out and look for her by himself.

He couldn't take care of that much, so he picked up his jacket, grabbed the phone, and walked outside.

He hurried out the door and walked to the elevator entrance, only to find that he was wearing slippers and came out.

Tina didn't like him to go out wearing slippers. He turned back and changed his shoes before coming out.

Made a few calls to her, this time it was not that she didn't answer, but it was turned off.

He had the urge to smash the phone.

He called Stephanie again.

"Cousin? What's the matter? Tina has already gone home!" Stephanie complained.

Peter froze there by the elevator's hand, and Stephanie's words suddenly changed his expression:

"What did you say? She has gone home? When did she tell you? Call, or WeChat?"

Peter's tone was anxious and cold. Stephanie was taken aback and did not dare to complain. She quickly said seriously: "Just half an hour ago, she called her and she told me on the phone."

"Are you sure it's her?" Peter asked again.

Stephanie said in doubt: "Of course it's her, or who else can I have? Cousin, what's wrong with you? You are so weird."

In Stephanie's view, this was just a very simple matter, but Peter seemed too anxious.

She didn't understand the urgency of this.

Tina is just showing a little temper!

Why was Peter so nervous? As if something had happened to Tina, he became nervous along with her.

"beep—"

However, Peter paid attention to her when he didn't have any spare time and hung up the phone.

Chapter 1610

Peter stood at the elevator entrance, feeling up and down.

Stepahine said Tina went home, but he saw no one at home.

He forced himself to calm down, and suddenly thought of something, and called his mother.

As soon as the call was connected, Jodi's voice came: "Oh, Mr. Grant? Taking time out of your busy schedule to call me, what's the matter?"

Peter said directly: "Mom, you go to Weber's house to see, has Tina gone home."

Jodi also found it strange that Peter would have to say a few words with her in normal times, but today he didn't respond at all.

Not only that, but also asked about Tina.

As a keen old mother, she has realized that things are not easy.

"Why are you looking for her? You don't know how to ask her." Jodi said slowly.

"Mom, I beg you, what kind of bag do you want to buy, what kind of house, what kind of speakers you want to buy for square dancing, I will buy you all, you hurry up to see her, she is not at home."

If Jodi is at this time Before him, she was afraid that he would directly kneel on the ground and beg her.

Although she always felt that her son was not worry-free, it was just a few small things that didn't make people worry-free. In big things, he could call the shots and have his own ideas.

It is rare to beg her in such a low voice.

"At home, I have been back for a while. When I went out with Rusty, I ran into her, and she praised Rusty for cuteness." Jodi said of Tina with a smile unconsciously.

Upon hearing that Tina had returned to her own home, Peter's hanging heart also fell back.

"That's good." he let out a long sigh of relief, and then he had the mind to chat with Jodi: "Who is Rusty you just mentioned?"

Jodi: "Your brother."

"What??" Peter was silent for a long time before reacting: "You and my dad gave birth to a second child behind my back?"

Jodi's tone sank: "It's that dog, you forgot it!"

"Oh." But he thought about it and felt wrong: "Which 'brother' is Rusty?"

"Your brother, of course, he is a "fellow" with you." Jodi was very happy when talking about the puppy: "Be obedient, everyone will praise it as cute, I will tell you, I am going to bring it. It goes on a blind date!"

"Mom, my signal is bad, goodbye."

“Hey! Peter, you brat!”

Peter breathed a sigh of relief with hands on hips.

Tina is fine.

!&

She has been lying in bed for two hours.

She didn't play with her mobile phone and closed her eyes, trying to keep herself from thinking about other things, but she still couldn't sleep.

Closing her eyes, her mind flashed through pictures related to Peter repeatedly.

She didn't want to think about it, but her mind was out of control and flashed through those images repeatedly.

Thinking of the back, her mind was blank again, there was nothing left.

“boom!”

There was a small, crisp noise from the window.

At first, Tina thought that she had misheard.

After a while, there were a few more sounds.

She got up, got out of bed, walked to the window, opened the curtains, and looked down, and she saw the slender man standing there under the street lamp in the courtyard, with a faint smile on his face.

The light has not been turned on in Tina's room, but from Peter's perspective, the curtains can be seen opened, and a smile appeared on his face.

Tina stood in front of the window without moving.

Peter beckoned to her, then put his hands together and put it next to his ear.

Tina knew that he was asking her why she was still up.