

Predestined 1705

Chapter 1705

Maria felt that Peter left her like that, making her a bit shameless.

But when she turned her head and looked at Tina's expression, she felt that she hadn't lost many faces. After all, Peter said today that he wants "sisters" to eat with them. She is now Peter's girlfriend.

"Peter is like this. It's busy. Don't worry about him, eat more and get full." Maria smiled softly, acting as a hostess.

Tina paused and continued to eat.

It seemed that Maria's voice had not been heard at all.

Tina didn't speak, Maria insisted to call her: "Tina, you shouldn't mind, you know, Peter is busy with his work!"

Tina said coldly: "I don't know."

Stephanie was drinking soup. Hearing a cold voice, she almost squirted out the soup she had just sipped from the spoon.

Every time she watched Maria and Tina talk together, Stephanie felt that it was a big show, much more exciting than a TV series.

Maria was not angry, and smiled calmly: "Yes, I forgot. You are also very busy at work.

If you didn't make an appointment deliberately, it would be difficult for you and Peter to get together to meet. A year and a half. It's hard to see each other."

Even Stephanie could hear what Maria meant.

Maria was suggesting Tina, so she was fine not to meet Peter.

Stephanie could hear it, let alone Tina.

"Maria, are you tired?" Tina put down her chopsticks and looked up at Maria: "You're not tired, I'm tired, don't always get involved with me when everything is fine."

Tina was not in the mood to eat anymore and turned to take care of Stephanie.

Peter was very on the road and understood in seconds: "I'm full and can go now."

Tina nodded and stood up while leaning on the dining table.

Stephanie quickly dragged the wheelchair over and helped her to sit on it.

"Miss George, goodbye." Stephanie and Maria greeted and pushed Tina out.

When they went out, Maria was so angry that she picked up the cup in front of her and slammed it on the table again.

Stephanie and Tina hadn't left yet. Hearing the movement inside, Stephanie curiously said: "Is she smashing things? Does she actually smash things? It looks strange and gentle."

"Let's go." Tina didn't want to talk much.

In the box just now, she asked Peter about her previous injuries. Peter's statement is still the same as before, there is no flaw at all.

Is it because she thinks too much?

However, those photos look so real, they are not fake at all.

Tina's heart was in a mess, and she still couldn't make sense of it.

Stephanie murmured behind Tina for a long time, but didn't get Tina's response. He couldn't help but ask: "Ms. Tina, are you listening to me?"

"I didn't listen," Tina replied.

Stephanie felt that she had been hurt, but Tina was so direct, what could she do to stop talking.

â€¦

Back home, Tina took a shower, and sat on the bed to look at the photos.

She tapped her finger on the screen, and when she reacted, she realized that she had already dialed the person who sent the text message.

After Tina realized what she was doing, he suddenly felt her heartbeat stop.

But soon, that number called her back.

Did she make this call just now?

Tina looked at the constantly vibrating mobile phone, and after a short period of hesitation, she answered the call.

"Hello? Who are you?"

Chapter 1706

There was a silence on the other end of the phone.

Then, a voice processed by the voice changer came.

"Tina."

The voice processed by the voice changer was so rough that it was a little distorted, and it was almost impossible to hear the real feeling.

It was impossible to tell whether the person speaking was a woman or a man.

"I'm Tina, you sent me two photos, what are you going to do?" Tina asked in a cold voice while holding the phone.

“What am I going to do?” The person on the other end of the phone chuckled, “I just want to make friends with you and Peter. I like you very much.”

“Are you neurotic?” Tina felt that the person opposite was neurotic.

Send her that kind of photo, and said wants to make friends.

Moreover, give her care and care about Peter.

“If you want to make friends with Peter, just go find him. Why do you want to find me?” Tina finished speaking, feeling that she was not going anywhere, and she really talked to a neuropath so seriously.

She was about to hang up when she heard the person on the other end say: “Peter, I have already looked for him.”

Tina was slightly startled.

The person on the other end of the phone said, “Don’t you know?”

He did not give Tina a chance to answer questions and said in general: “Yes, men are always arrogant. I don’t know, everything is already out of control.”

“Ms. Tina, I don’t have toothpaste. Where can I find toothpaste?”

As Stephanie’s voice sounded, the door was also pushed open.

At the moment the door was pushed open, Tina hung up the phone.

She didn’t even understand why she suddenly hung up the phone.

“Is there no toothpaste?” Tina quickly sorted out her expression and looked up at Stephanie.

“Yes, do you still have it at home?” Stephanie walked over.

“Use mine first, it seems that there are no spare ones.” Tina didn’t even bother to find toothpaste for Stephanie at the moment.

“Oh, Okay,” Stephanie replied and ran into the bathroom.

Tina glanced at her mobile phone and left it aside.

She recalled the conversation with that person just now in her mind, but it didn’t sound like an ordinary dark fan.

Moreover, the person told her on the phone that he had already approached Peter and wanted to be friends with her and Peter.

What does this mean?

Does this have anything to do with her previous amnesia?

By the way, wasn’t she with Alyssa at the time?

She can also ask Alyssa, Alyssa will never lie to her.

Thinking of this, she wanted to call Alyssa.

But when she looked at the time, she found it was late, almost twelve o'clock.

It's so late, Alyssa should already be asleep.

Alyssa was already in poor health, but she is pregnant. Even if there is something important, Tina will not bother her.

Let's talk about it tomorrow.

Tina hardly slept this night.

Early the next morning, she got up and called Alyssa.

"Sorry, the number you dialed is temporarily unavailable!"

Why can't she get through?

Tina dialed twice again, still the same reaction.

There was no way to make a call to Alyssa.

Tina couldn't help but gritted her teeth and called Karl.

Karl's call was quickly connected, but it was a transfer.

"Hello, I am CEO Adams's assistant, Smith."