

Predestined 771

Chapter 771

Miana is a brainy woman, and Alyssa's words are reasonable, she also knows.

She and Karl have been together for so long, and Karl has never touched her. Only she knows this, and no one else.

Although she is thirty years old, she is well maintained, and there are many people who chase her. She thinks she is still charming, but Karl has never touched her, which is a shame to her.

She will not tell anyone about this, let alone let anyone know.

And Alyssa's proposal can just solve the problems Miana is facing now.

Go to bed with Karl, and expect another child of Karl.

In this way, she can safely be Mrs. Adams in her life.

She thought so much in her heart, but Miana's mouth did not immediately agree: "I want to be pregnant with Karl's child, just discuss with him, why should I be threatened by you?"

"I know you understand me, so don't pretend to be stupid with me anymore." Alyssa saw the way Miana thought before, and she knew that Miana could understand her.

"If you don't cooperate with me, I won't be able to get the custody of Grace. You will live under the same roof with Grace in the future, and now you have a chance to get rid of her effortlessly, right? Don't you want to hurry up?"

After Alyssa finished speaking, she stood up slowly: "Think about it, and call me when you think about it."

Alyssa turned around and counted in her heart as she walked: One, two, three!

"and many more!"

Miana's voice sounded behind her.

Alyssa stood still with her back facing Miana, and didn't look back, just stood there quietly, waiting for Miana to speak.

"I am willing to help you. I will find a way to be pregnant with Karl's child. As long as I am pregnant with Karl's child, no matter whether your lawsuit wins or not, you must take your daughter away!" It did no harm her, and of course she would not let this opportunity pass.

Alyssa said, "Waiting for your good news."

She opened the door and went out.

Miana leaned on the head of the bed and thought, how could she let Karl take the initiative to touch her.

Especially her legs are not convenient now.

But her opportunity soon came.

The next afternoon, Karl came to see her.

After Miana let the nurse go out, she said softly, "Karl, I feel back pain recently, can you help me rub it."

Karl sat on a chair far away from the hospital bed, without a trace of waves on his face: "See a doctor for back pain."

Miana bit her lip and looked aggrieved: "I don't want the doctor to look at my body!"

Karl raised his eyebrows: "In the eyes of doctors, there is no distinction between men and women. You have been studying abroad for so many years. You still don't understand this?"

Miana felt that she had been ridiculed by Karl and was very shameless. She turned her head aside and said angrily: "You go, I'm tired and want to rest."

It's simply that the oil and salt won't get in!

Had it not been for Grace's live little girl, Miana would have doubted Karl could do it!

However, she was talking about it, Karl even said this seriously!

"Then I'll go now." Karl didn't realize his mistake at all, and he stood up and walked out.

He has made great strides and made it in time, as if he was impatient to leave here.

When Miana raised her head, Karl's figure had already disappeared.

She was so angry that she smashed the pillow: "I'll just talk about it, you are really gone!"

She was angry just now, so she drove him away like that.

But the true thoughts in her heart didn't really drive him away.

!

As soon as Alyssa came out of the elevator carrying soup, she met Karl.

Karl had come to see Miana.

She just paused, and soon returned to normal, and walked past Karl without expression.

Without squinting, she didn't look at Karl too much, and naturally she didn't notice him. After she left, Karl stood and looked at her for a while before entering the elevator.

Alyssa watched Tina finish the soup and received a call from Miana as soon as she left the ward.

"You come to the hospital, I want to see you now!" Miana said in a bad tone, and immediately hung up the phone after she finished speaking like an order.

Alyssa chuckled lightly, put the phone up, and went directly to knock on Miana's ward door.

Seeing Alyssa, the nurse looked wary: "Why are you here again?"

“The woman inside asked me to come.” Alyssa pointed towards the ward inside.

At this time, Miana’s voice happened to be heard from inside: “Let her in.”

The nurse opened the door and let Alyssa in.

Miana hugged her hands in front of her, staring at her coldly.

Staring at Alyssa for a while, Miana said: “Karl is unwilling to let me conceive a child before getting married. He thinks this is very irresponsible. He said that he can only consider having a child after marriage. So we must use some other means for this matter.”

She said these words to deceive Alyssa, and she had never talked about it with Karl.

Miana has her own dignity, she will not talk about giving birth to a man who has never touched her.

Alyssa asked her: “What do you want to do?”

“You ask Karl to go out, give him medicine, or get him drunk, and then just call me.” Miana simply stated her plan, with calculations in her eyes, without a trace of emotion.

Alyssa looked at Miana coldly, and slowly laughed.

Karl, this is the woman you like. She is thinking about the position of Mrs. Adams’ CEO, and she is planning to be pregnant with your child. She doesn’t really love you at all.

Alyssa sighed, and said, “Miana, your abacus is so good. Ask me to ask Karl to come out and give him medicine, because you want him to hate me, right?”

“Originally, you took the initiative to find me to cooperate. We each contributed half of our efforts. This is a very fair deal.” Miana said disapprovingly.

“I understand.” Alyssa’s smile narrowed.

What Miana said was right, she took the initiative to find Miana to cooperate, and she and Miana each contributed half of their strength, there was nothing wrong with it.

“Wait for my news.” Alyssa left these words and went out.

When she left the ward, Alyssa’s expression on her face became colder and colder, and her hand holding the bag became tighter involuntarily.

Do you really want to do this to win the lawsuit?

Even if Karl uses power to oppress her, does she really want to calculate Karl like this?

Alyssa leaned against the elevator wall, her eyes widened and her thoughts drifting far away.

She hesitated.

This must be wrong, but she doesn’t know whether to do it or not.

Miana didn’t really love her, she was full of calculations to achieve her goals, but she didn’t mean to Miana.

Chapter 772

Alyssa sat quietly on the sofa for a long time, her eyes falling straight on the mobile phone placed on the coffee table.

The hand resting on the leg tightened and then loosened, and finally reached out and picked up the phone.

That string of familiar numbers was unconsciously pressed by her just like that.

The thumb was hung on the dial button, and she hesitated for a long time, but she couldn't press it out.

At this moment, Alyssa thought a lot.

The scene of Karl and Miana together, the matter of Karl driving her out

But what should Grace do?

If she hesitates at this time, Grace will live with Miana under the same roof.

Alyssa shook her head subconsciously, she couldn't put Grace in danger.

She took a deep breath, determined to be average, and pressed the dial button.

After the phone was pulled out, Alyssa pressed her lips tightly, waiting for the call to be connected. After the call was connected, it rang several times, and the person on the other end answered the call.

Karl's deep voice came from the phone: "What's the matter?"

The voice was cold, without a trace of extra emotion.

Alyssa calmed down and said calmly, "I want to talk to you."

"What can we talk about? You shouldn't try to collect strong evidence to win the lawsuit now?" Karl's tone was cold and without a trace of emotion.

"I want to talk to you about the lawsuit."

"What capital do you have to talk to me?"

Alyssa suppressed the discomfort in her heart, and said in a strong tone: "I am Grace's biological mother, I am qualified."

Karl was quiet for a moment, and said, "Okay, then I'll talk to you."

"Tomorrow at eight o'clock, Best Day." Alyssa said the address time and hung up the phone.

She reached out and grabbed her hair, took a heavy breath, picked up the phone and dialed another number: "Alvin, you can help me find some medicine."

At

At eight o'clock in the evening, Best Day.

Alyssa booked a box in advance, the dishes have been served, and the wine has been poured.

It was already eight o'clock, but there was no movement outside the door.

Just when Alyssa thought that Karl would not change his mind temporarily, the box door was pushed open from outside.

Karl walked in, only glanced at Alyssa, and sat down opposite her.

As always, he was wearing a straight suit, with a brilliant temperament and a cold complexion.

Alyssa curled her lips slightly and said with a smile: "I thought you were not coming."

"Why won't I come?" Karl raised his eyes, still with that indifferent expression: "What is your fear?"

"Hmm." Alyssa sat down, her expression was very pale.

Her gaze stayed on the glass of red wine in front of Karl for a second, then she naturally moved her gaze away and held up the wine glass in front of her: "Drink a glass?"

Without any suspicion, Karl directly raised the wine glass in front of him, raised it to Alyssa, then raised his head and took a sip.

Alyssa was taken aback for a moment, then raised her head and took a sip.

Today, she asked Karl to come out, she paid a lot of money, and the wine was also very expensive.

It stands to reason that such an expensive wine should feel good in the mouth, but when drinking it in Alyssa's mouth, it feels a bit bitter.

Karl took a sip of wine and also picked up his chopsticks and ate something.

He didn't seem to have thought that Alyssa would do something in the wine and vegetables.

Alyssa had mixed feelings in her heart, and she also took an order in silence.

"Let's talk." Karl quickly put down his chopsticks and looked at her: "What are you going to talk about?"

"Can't you really give me the custody of Grace?" If she can tell Karl to give her custody of Grace, then she won't have to do anything today, everyone is happy.

"I'm very busy. If you just want to talk about this, then I don't mind repeating it again, it's impossible!" Karl's expression turned cold, obviously angry.

"You and Miana are going to get married soon. You will have other children. Can you put yourself in the position and think about Grace?" In fact, Alyssa knew very well in her heart. She said that these were just wasted efforts, but she still thought there is a glimmer of hope.

"I don't think we need to talk anymore." Karl said, standing up, making a gesture to leave.

Alyssa immediately said: "Wait!"

Karl stopped and looked back at her.

Alyssa looked at Karl calmly, with a trace of nostalgia in her eyes: "If you don't want to talk about this, just forget it. You can go after dinner. This may be the last time we have dinner together."

What made Alyssa a little surprised was that Karl was actually moved by her, and he really turned around and sat in front of Alyssa, and took a big sip from the wine glass.

Alyssa's gaze fell on the wine glass in front of Karl again.

In that wine glass, she put the medicine ahead of time, and Karl took a sip immediately without warning.

So far, there is not much left in the glass.

The amount he drank should be enough.

Sure enough, it didn't take long for Karl's complexion to turn red.

Frowning slightly, he reached out and unbuttoned two more buttons on the shirt: "Turn down the temperature of the air conditioner."

Alyssa looked at his expression and asked him: "Are you very hot?"

Karl just frowned and didn't speak.

Upon seeing this, Alyssa sent a text message to Miana, with only a very brief word: "Come."

After sending the text message, she looked up and saw that Karl, who was sitting opposite, had reached out and held his forehead.

Alyssa asked faintly: "Are you uncomfortable?"

Karl raised his head suddenly, his face was abnormally red, but his eyes were horribly bright: "Alyssa, do you dare to put medicine in the wine?"

"Grace is everything to me now, you have to take her away, there is nothing I dare not do." Alyssa looked at him blankly, her eyes extremely cold.

Karl suddenly laughed: "Very well, you dare to fix me!"

As if feeling angry, he repeated it again: "Very good!"

Alyssa smiled and looked at him: "I used to think that we would be together forever until death separates us. But if you don't want me, then I don't want you anymore. I only want Grace now. Wish you and Miana grows old with a white head."

Karl stopped talking, but fixedly stared at Alyssa.

Alyssa knew that he had no strength to stand up at this time because of the effects of the medicine.

She picked up her bag, stood up, looked at Karl at last, and walked towards the door without reluctance.

"Alyssa!" Karl gritted his teeth behind her.

Alyssa straightened her back and slammed the door away.

As soon as she went out, Karl, who should have no strength to stand up, slowly sat up straight, and slammed the cup in front of him with his hand.

Alyssa dared to give him away to others!

He took this account down.

Chapter 773

Alyssa stood outside the door, and heard the movement inside. There was no major change in the expression on her face, but it was colder again.

Miana was late, so Alyssa had to call her.

After the call was connected, no one answered.

Why isn't Miana coming?

They planned this matter before, so Miana should be very active.

Not long after, Miana's figure appeared at the corner, and a caregiver was following her.

After Alyssa saw Miana coming over, her heart not only didn't fall, but she hung higher.

She shook her head, refused to think about why she was so upset in her heart, discarded all unnecessary thoughts, and just let herself think about it.

After Miana approached, Alyssa looked at her with an unsullen expression: "Why did you come on time?"

Miana glanced at Alyssa, her tone of disdain: "My leg is still hurt. It is not convenient to come over on crutches. What's wrong with it?"

Although Miana and Alyssa have always been rivals, she knows very well that Alyssa is reliable. What's more, this time it was for her daughter Grace, and Alyssa would definitely do her best to get it done.

Seeing that the wife of CEO Adams is already in her bag, she is not so anxious.

She would not let go of any chance to step on Alyssa.

Miana slowly curled her lips, revealing a vicious smile: "You can help me to get him to the room, my legs are not convenient."

Alyssa clenched her hand on her side involuntarily. She sneered and looked at Miana: "Why don't you let me sleep with him directly, so you save trouble?"

Miana glared at her when she heard this, "Alyssa! Pay attention to your own attitude! You are now begging me to do something!"

"You can leave it alone." Alyssa took out her cell phone, "Although Karl is not sober now, if she calls Mr. Smith now or calls 120, he should be able to wake up quickly."

Miana looked panicked and immediately snatched Alyssa's mobile phone and said loudly, "Are you crazy!"

Alyssa didn't even blink her eyes, looked at Miana and said coldly, "Aren't you going to stop it?"

"Youâ€¦!" Miana was choked by Alyssa, speechless.

It was clearly a cooperative relationship, but Alyssa still crushed her, this feeling made her uncomfortable.

But now she has no other choice but to let Alyssa threaten her.

“If you want to do it, hurry in, I’m leaving, and wait for your results.” Alyssa finished speaking, took back the phone in Miana’s hand, turned around, and left in strides.

In Miana’s view, Alyssa was in a panic.

The novice sent Karl to her, Alyssa must feel uncomfortable, right?

Miana showed a successful smile, opened the box door and walked in.

There were pieces of broken glass on the ground, and the dishes on the table barely moved, and Karl was sitting on the sofa with his head up, with several buttons on his shirt unbuttoned, revealing a large solid chest.

He stared slightly, breathing fast-short, looking very uncomfortable.

Miana walked over with a cane and asked very gently: “Karl, what’s wrong with you?”

Karl didn’t say anything, he didn’t even move. If it wasn’t for his rapid breathing, Miana would think that Karl was just asleep.

The man she chooses is naturally the best, even at this time, he still is in control of his body.

Thinking about this, Miana was even happier.

She stretched out her hand to touch Karl’s face. Usually, Karl would barely let her get close. At most, he would ask her to pull his arms, hold hands, no k!ss-k!ss, let alone go to bed.

And now, she finally has a chance!

However, before her hand touched Karl’s face, she suddenly turned her head and avoided it.

If she hadn’t opened her eyes, Miana thought he had avoided deliberately.

Although she felt a little dissatisfied, she still suppressed it abruptly.

As long as tonight passes, this man will be hers completely, she doesn’t have to rush for a while.

“Karl!” Miana no longer touched him, but whispered to him in his ear.

Karl opened his eyes at this time, and his eyes, which were dark as if they were about to be soaked in ink, were stained with lust, which made his whole person feel a bit more sexual.

Normally he always looks extremely cold, but at this time, the contrast between him and his normal life is too great, and Miana is very excited.

“Alyssa called me suddenly and asked me to pick you up. What did she do to you?” Miana pretended to be ignorant and asked him suspiciously.

Karl spoke with a hoarse voice: “I want to rest.”

“Okay, I’ll take you to rest right away.” Miana was about to help him, turning her eyes inadvertently, and saw that there was more than half a glass of wine left in the glass in front of him.

With a thought, she picked up the wine glass and drank the unfinished wine in it.

Karl is usually so cold, and she must be very old-fashioned in b3d. She also wants to drink some wine to help.

When Miana put down the wine glass, she caught a glimpse of the broken glass slag on the ground. She was a little puzzled. Karl’s wine glass was still there. Could the broken wine glass on the ground be caused by Alyssa?

Alyssa was really bold, daring to throw something in front of Karl.

The effect of the medicine was very fast, Miana stretched out her hand to help Karl, but her body became weak, and she was a little unsteady at all, and fell softly.

When she slid down, she dimly stretched out her hand to hold Karl.

But her hand touched the man’s arm, and the man’s arm was pulled away.

Immediately afterwards, the man’s clear voice: “I will take you to the room to rest.”

It was Karl’s voice, she was going to “rest” with Karl.

Miana said softly: “Okay.”

â€¦

After Alyssa got out of Best Day, she went straight back to her car.

She knew that what she should do at this time is to drive home to sleep like an okay person.

However, after plugging in the car key, she did not start the car for a long time.

What is she waiting for here?

Just now, Karl was drugged by her and delivered to Miana.

Karl and Miana will stay in Best Day to “rest” tonight. From then on, Karl has nothing to do with her.

Their only relationship is Grace’s father and mother.

Grace will be the only connection between them.

If it were possible, she might never see Karl again in her life.

She is the behind-the-scenes screenwriter of the entertainment industry, and Karl is a wealthy businessman, a top wealthy, and he goes to and out of the Adams’ and business evenings, which have nothing to do with her Alyssa.

She is just an ordinary Alyssa, an ordinary divorced woman, and a single mother.

When Alyssa thought of this, she couldn’t help laughing.

She was smiling quietly, but at the end of the laugh, her voice gradually became louder.

At this time, her cell phone rang.

Alyssa took a closer look and found that Clifford was calling.

She answered the phone: "Clifford, you are right, Karl and I are not suitable."

Chapter 774

After Alyssa finished speaking to the phone and sneered again, she hung up the phone.

After that, Clifford made several consecutive phone calls. But Alyssa did not answer or hang up.

The ringing of the mobile phone made Alyssa warm and impetuous, so she turned off the mobile phone, opened the door, and got out of the car.

She didn't know why she had to get out of the car. After getting out, her feet seemed to be out of control and walked into the golden tripod.

She didn't know what she was thinking or doing. After entering Best Day, she ran directly to the box where Karl ate before.

When she ran to the door of the box, she opened the door with a "bang" and found that there were only a few waiters cleaning the room.

When they saw Alyssa rushing in, they were all taken aback, and then asked, "Is there anything wrong with you lady?"

Alyssa ran in a hurry, standing at the door panting, her voice carrying a panic that she had never noticed: "Where are the people who were in this box?"

The waiters looked at each other and felt that Alyssa was weird, but they would always be more tolerant of beautiful people. The waiter said truthfully: "When we came in, there was no one in here. If it is your friend, try calling him."

When Alyssa heard this, her complexion suddenly changed.

Her heart kept sinking, sinking into a bottomless abyss.

Seeing her like this, the waiter asked concerned: "Miss, are you okay?"

Alyssa shook her head dully, then slowly raised her foot and walked out.

Obviously it has been decided, in order to obtain Grace's custody rights regardless of all the consequences, but why is she so sad in her heart?

Alyssa stopped and took out the phone to call Karl phone.

"Sorry, the call you made is temporarily unavailable."

She seemed to be stunned, and dialed Smith's phone again.

"Sorry, the user you are calling is busy."

Karl's phone couldn't be reached, and Smith didn't answer the phone.

Alyssa stretched out her hand to embrace her arm, and she suddenly felt very cold.

This was just the beginning, it was just the beginning of her and Karl's parting ways.

Now she just couldn't get through Karl's phone. After that, Karl would definitely black her out, and would not even look at her when he saw her on the road.

Alyssa walked out with a shallow foot.

Don't know how long it has been, someone blocked her way.

Under the dim street light, the first thing that came into view was the men's hand-made leather shoes and those slender legs.

Alyssa raised her head fiercely, but after seeing the man's face in front of her, her eyes dimmed again.

Clifford called her: "Alyssa."

Alyssa took two steps back slowly, looked straight into Clifford's eyes, and asked coldly, "How do you know I am here?"

"Why?" A smug flashed in Clifford's eyes: "You should have understood that Karl is not as good as you thought, nor as powerful as you thought."

Alyssa didn't say a word, letting Clifford speak.

Seeing that she didn't say a word, Clifford didn't even have a superfluous expression, his eyes went cold.

He looked at Alyssa, with a cold voice in his lowered voice: "As early as when Adams' caught fire and he left you and escaped by himself, you should have understood that Karl is just a mean man, not worthy of you!"

"Whether he is an affectionate man, he deserves it, it's just a matter between me and him! It has nothing to do with you!" Alyssa didn't want to see Clifford, nor did he want to deal with him.

She turned and walked towards the parking lot.

Clifford stepped forward and took her arm, his tone no longer as calm as he was just now: "Alyssa, Adams' fire was caused by me. I want you to see that you and Karl are not the same at all. You think so well!"

Clifford's tone sounded very excited.

Alyssa was puzzled, she always felt that Clifford's hatred for Karl was not so deep, but instead seemed to be jealous.

"Why do you hate Karl so much?" Alyssa turned her head, squinted slightly at Clifford, and said mockingly, "Karl is not as good as you thought. How good are you? Hiding in a dark corner. How good is it to use a woman to deal with Karl's and with a three-year-old child?"

If she will still marry and live with another man in the future, then that man definitely cannot be Clifford.

A vicious look appeared in Clifford's eyes: "Alyssa! You don't have to anger me like this!"

"Alyssa!"

Another male voice came from behind.

Alyssa turned her head and saw Alvin running towards her carrying a suit jacket.

Alvin ran to the front and saw Clifford there, and he sneered and looked at him: "Oh! What are you doing here at night?"

After he finished speaking, no matter what Clifford's expression was on, he stretched out his hand to embrace Alyssa's shoulder and walked to the other side, still in a silly tone: "Please have supper, I'm starving to death without dinner."

After Alyssa was held by him for a while, she moved aside, avoiding Alvin's hand.

Alvin didn't care, and looked down at her face: "What happened to you and Clifford? Why did he put on the expression that you failed him?"

"What are you doing?" Alyssa said blankly, looking straight ahead.

"Aren't you going to attack Karl in Best Day tonight? I come over to see if things go well. If it doesn't go well, you get caught by him, I might still save your life."

After Alvin finished speaking, he looked up and down at Alyssa: "There are no missing arms or legs. It seems that you succeeded."

Alyssa ignored him and returned to her car.

Alvin got into the car from the other side and got into the passenger seat.

Alyssa looked at him coldly: "Get out of the car."

Alvin put the suit jacket on the back of the chair, looked sideways at Alyssa, and followed the gesture to reason to her: "There is a traffic jam over there, I'm afraid that you will be caught by Karl when things are not going well. Yes! You can't think that I really care about you, invite me to have a meal?"

Hearing what he said, Alyssa realized that Alvin was still a little panting, and his hair, clothes and shirt were a little messy.

Although Alvin always looks like a playboy, he lives more real than anyone else, and Alyssa knows what he said is true.

Alyssa didn't say much, and drove him to find a place to eat.

Alvin tilted his head to look at Alyssa. There was no expression on his face and he couldn't see what she was thinking.

He asked tentatively: "Should I drive?"

He always felt that Alyssa was very dangerous to drive like this.

But Alyssa didn't say anything, he didn't say much, just buckled his seat belt silently.

Chapter 775

Alyssa carried Alvin forward aimlessly.

Seeing that she never meant to stop, Alvin had to pay attention to what restaurants outside, and let her stop when she chose one.

Alvin chose a restaurant with thick oil and red sauce. He ate it for the first time and found it to taste good.

Alyssa sat opposite him, hugging her arms as she watched Alvin devouring food.

Even if he swallowed, Alvin's food is still pretty.

He and Karl were of the same type, from good backgrounds, and he was born with a noble aura. Even when he gobbled it down, he still couldn't hide the aristocracy.

Alyssa took a deep breath and turned to look out the window.

Outside, I don't know when it started to rain. People passing by were walking in a hurry, some holding umbrellas, and some running in the rain.

And she is someone who doesn't need an umbrella.

When the storm really comes, the umbrella is unreliable.

Alyssa suddenly wanted to talk.

"When I was very young, I was very likable, beautiful and had good grades. But my mother, in order to please my father and step-sister, told me not to study too seriously, nor gave me beautiful skirts and hairpins. She told me not to grab My sister. She was not happy because of the reduction in my sister's limelight because of me."

"At that time, I thought that as long as I listened to my mother, she would love me. But until after I grew up, Karl's family asked my sister to marry, and my mother asked me to marry in her place, because it was rumored that Karl was an impotent, that was the first time I felt life was hard."

"After we got married, many things happened. Karl and I also experienced many things, but we were still together in the end. At that time, I thought I was the happiest woman in the world, but in the end, I was still with Karl. The owl separated."

When Alyssa said this, she gave a low smile.

As early as when she started to talk, Alvin had nothing to eat and listened to her quietly.

He pursed his lips slightly and said, "I've heard about Karl's past. The thing my father admired most about him at that time was his patience."

"Karl is the most powerful man I have ever seen." Even in this field, Alyssa would not say that Karl was not good.

Alvin let out a cry: "What about it? He is someone else's now, or you arranged it personally."

After he finished speaking, he realized that he had said something that shouldn't be said, and said in an awkward voice: "Alyssa, sorry, that's!"

"You're right, I did send him out with my own hands, but he pushed me away first! We don't owe each other, and I don't regret it." Alyssa almost came from these last words Squeezed out between her teeth.

Mother abandoned her, and Karl pushed her away at last.

In this world, no one can be your umbrella forever, you can only fight for everything yourself.

She does not regret it!

You must never regret what you have done!

Alvin looked at Alyssa carefully. The determination in her eyes didn't seem to be a lie. He smiled and said pretentiously, "In this case, why don't you think about me?"

Alyssa turned her head, looked at him up and down like a fool, and then looked away.

"What is your look? You look down on me?" Alvin looked unconvinced: "I am a lord, I am rich! I am handsome! Emotional affairs are also clean, and I never get muddled. I'll tell you seriously !think about it!"

Alyssa was startled by the seriousness in his tone.

When they first met, she knew Alvin wanted to pick her up and was very interested in her.

But at that time, his interest in her was only a man's interest in a beautiful woman, not her but other women.

After he knew her identity, he took the initiative to help her out of dissatisfaction with Karl.

As he himself said, he was a neat person, and since he decided to help her, he would not have any desire to hunt for her.

Alyssa also thought that Alvin had stopped thinking about her a long time ago, but she did not expect that he would say such things at such a time.

Seeing Alyssa's lingering silence, Alvin continued: "I don't worry, I don't want to take advantage of your fragility, I just want to take advantage of the vacancy, you can think about it longer, I will wait for you.

Alvin spread his hands and said that it didn't matter.

Alyssa glanced at him for a moment, and suddenly said, "If you can help me win the lawsuit, I will think about it."

Alvin "brushed" and stood up, leaned forward, and said loudly, "Really!"

Several guests at the adjacent table looked over here, Alvin said apologetically that he had said sorry to them, and then turned his head and looked at Alyssa with a serious face: "You said it seriously, but it is a joke?"

"I am serious, you really know it." Alyssa looked into his eyes and slowly said.

Alvin's eyes flashed with joy, and the smile on his face continued to expand. He slapped on the table and turned around to pick up his clothes: "Stop eating, come, I will take you home! I will go back to organize Information, I have to help you win this lawsuit!"

Alvin looked very happy, Alyssa stood up in silence and walked out.

This time, Alvin stopped Alyssa from driving. After he drove Alyssa home in Alyssa's car, he drove Alyssa's car away.

Before leaving, he said: "Anyway, I have to come to you tomorrow. Let me drive your car and bring it back to you tomorrow."

Alyssa stood downstairs, watching the car disappear.

The light rain in the night dampened her hair in just such a short while, and the breeze made her feel very cold.

Alyssa stood there for a while in a daze, then slowly turned around and walked towards the elevator entrance.

!

One-night light rain, the temperature actually dropped.

Alyssa slept for a while and did not wake up this night. When she woke up the next morning, she was dizzy and could not make a sound in her throat as if she was stuffed with cotton.

As soon as she came out of the bathroom after changing her clothes, someone knocked on the door.

Who will it be so early?

Alyssa walked to the door, glanced through the cat's eyes, and saw Alvin's handsome face, changing from the usual dangling, with a subtle smile.

Alyssa opened the door, squeezing a voice from her throat: "Why are you here!"

Alvin asked her: "What's wrong with your voice?"

Alyssa shook her head, signaled that she was okay, turned around and walked inside.

Alvin followed in from behind, carrying breakfast in his hand.

Alyssa first poured a glass of water for Alvin, and then poured water for herself to take some cold medicine.

Alvin saw her taking the medicine, and said quickly: "I brought breakfast, so you can take the medicine after breakfast."

Alyssa thought for a while and nodded.

The two were sitting at the dining table, before they started eating, the doorbell rang again.

What Alyssa thought of, she paused slightly, and Alvin stood up: "I will help you see who it is."

Chapter 776

Before Alyssa could speak, Alvin had already walked towards the door.

She raised her head to look at the door and found that Alvin was standing by the door and did not open it.

Alvin turned around and smiled at her: "No one."

When he finished speaking, he turned and walked towards Alyssa and returned to the table.

Alyssa didn't speak, and soon the doorbell rang again.

Alvin looked up at Alyssa and found that her eyes were full of clarity.

"It's Karl, right?" Alyssa put down her chopsticks and asked him softly.

Alvin didn't speak, which was regarded as acquiescence.

Alyssa stood up, Alvin frowned and said, "Alyssa, if you don't want to see him now, I will help you blast him out."

Alyssa shook her head: "It's okay."

She had thought before that if she did something like that, Karl would definitely settle the account with her, but she didn't expect that he would come to her so soon.

Alyssa stood still at the door, took a deep breath, and then opened the door.

Karl was dressed in a solemn black suit, and his expression was so gloomy that he was about to run, and there was a cold breath all over his body.

He stared at Alyssa fiercely, and did not immediately speak out.

He did not speak, and Alyssa would naturally not speak actively.

After a while, she heard Karl's somewhat hoarse voice: "You don't want to explain?"

"I don't need to explain anything to you." Alyssa said, also hoarse as Karl.

Neither of them looked pretty.

Alvin felt uneasy while staying inside, and walked out.

"Oh, Mr. Adams has been guarding the door of the single woman's room so early, isn't it nice to say it?" Alvin looked at Karl with a smile, his tone was an obvious provocation.

Alvin and Alyssa were both standing by the door. They looked very talented and looked right, but in Karl's eyes, they were not right, but they felt very dazzling.

He stared at Alvin gloomily for two seconds, then suddenly took a step forward, and stretched out his hand to pull Alvin out of the room and push him aside.

"Hey!"

When Alvin looked back, the door had already slammed shut.

Alvin slapped the door loudly: "Karl, you are still not a man! What is your ability to bully a woman, you have the ability to come out and fight me!"

At this time, the door of the opposite room opened, and Dave looked at Alvin blankly: "You can fight me."

Alvin noticed this man's burly figure, and knew that this man must be a practicing man. He is a bit of a three-legged cat, but it must be impossible to fight this kind of person, so he had to silence.

Dave glanced at Alyssa's door, then closed the door and entered.

Inside the room.

After Karl closed the door, he turned his back to the door, and his face was so gloomy.

Alyssa pressed her lips tightly and looked at Karl with a pale face, "What do you want?"

Karl sneered, "You're very capable, dare to fix me!"

"If I have the ability, I don't have to fight for Grace's custody rights with you. I would grab her directly." Alyssa stood in front of Karl, composing herself.

"Alyssa, have you?" Karl's brows and eyes were full of forbearance, as if he couldn't say anything, he paused before continuing: "No regrets at all?"

Almost immediately, Alyssa replied, "I don't regret it."

Things have been done, no matter how much regret it will not help.

She regretted it last night, but God did not give her a chance to regret it. When she returned, Karl and Miana were no longer in the box.

Now that it's done, what's the use of self-pity?

People always have to look forward.

Love is not everything, she still has to live, and Grace is there too.

"Okay, very good." Karl nodded, and said several "very good".

Then he opened the door and went out.

The door was slammed to the wall by him, and then it bounced back fiercely.

Alvin was worried that something happened and never left. Karl came out from the inside without even giving Alvin a straight look, so he left straight away.

Alvin hurriedly pushed the door into the room, and saw Alyssa standing there pale, and asked, "Alyssa, are you okay?"

She shook her head, her expression a little hollow: "It's okay."

â€¦

On the day Tina was discharged from the hospital, Alyssa went to pick her up.

When she passed Miana's ward, she glanced inside. The ward was empty and there was no one.

She went to the Tina's ward to help her collect things and didn't say much until she left the hospital.

Tina realized that there was something wrong with Alyssa, and asked, "Alyssa, what's wrong with you?"

"I'm okay." Alyssa smiled, but there was some emotion in her eyes that made people wonder.

Tina was startled: "Alyssa, you must tell me what you have to do. No matter what, I will always be on your side."

"Well, I know it all." Alyssa patted her cold shoulder, smiling softly.

Of course she knew that Tina would always be on her side.

Tina was injured this time because she was implicated. Although she is discharged from the hospital, she still has a long time to recuperate. Alyssa doesn't want Tina to worry about her troubles anymore, and hopes she can heal her injuries.

Alyssa got into the car with Tina, and Tina's agent was driving.

The car just drove out, and stopped by the side of the road.

"What do you stop for?" Tina asked in a loud voice.

The agent hesitated for a while and said, "Mr. Grant is here."

The manager Grant mentioned by the agent is naturally not someone else, but Peter.

As soon as the voice fell off, Peter had already walked out of the car window. He reached out and knocked on the car window. The agent unlocked the lock and Peter pulled the car door and sat in.

Peter said to agent: "You go down first, I have something to talk to them."

The agent nodded and got out of the car without saying anything.

After the agent got out of the car, Peter first took a look at Tina, raised his eyebrows, and said, "How are your legs?"

Tina glanced at him indifferently: "It's okay, it's not wasteful, and I can still make money for your company when I am done."

Tina and Peter were in a cold war, and Alyssa knew that it was nothing unusual for them to talk like this.

But soon, Peter turned around and said to Alyssa, "Alyssa, are you stupid? What did you do!"

Although Best Day was also owned by Karl, it was basically under Peter's name. Peter would not know what happened there.

Alyssa lowered her head and adjusted her clothes, and smiled faintly: "Your information is very clear."

"Why this, can you still laugh?" Peter got a headache: "Don't you know who Karl is? You dare to manipulate him?"

Chapter 777

Alyssa groaned for a moment, then responded, "Yes."

"Huh?" Peter stretched out his hand to help his forehead, and said earnestly: "It's all for this, and you are so calm. Do you think Karl will let you go? Huh?"

Alyssa replied very simply: "No."

"Then you stillâ€¦!" Peter looked at her calm expression, and was anxious: "Aren't you afraid of him?"

She was still calm: "There is nothing to be afraid of."

Peter was about to continue speaking, and Tina interrupted him: "Wait, what happened? What are you thinking about Karl? Why can't I understand you?"

"It's nothing, it's just a little contradiction between me and Karl." Alyssa gave Peter a calm look and motioned him not to tell Tina.

She didn't expect that Peter would come to the door directly after learning about this, and it happened to be when Tina was discharged from the hospital.

Alyssa had originally made up her mind not to let Tina know about it, and didn't want her to worry about it.

"Bypassing me!" Tina listened to the conversation between the two of them just now, and realized that things were not that simple.

Tina glanced at Alyssa, then turned to look at Peter: "Alyssa doesn't want to tell me, you tell me!"

It was impossible for Peter to hide words in front of Tina. He glanced at Alyssa with an embarrassed expression, and told her everything.

After listening to Peter's words, Tina almost dropped her chin and muttered, "Alyssa, you dare to give Karl medicine, awesome!"

Alyssa twitched the corners of her mouth and said nothing.

In the next second, Tina exploded in a sudden, with a tone of hatred for iron and steel: "You thought I really praised you! You are confused, even if it is a man you don't want, why do you want to make it cheaper? That b!tch Mian!"

Peter explained: "Karl and Alyssa are divorcedâ€¦!"

"Shut up!" Tina snorted coldly, and Peter immediately shut up and turned his head to look out the window.

"Also, is Karl someone you can fool if you want? He can kill you with his fingersâ€¦!" Tina was angry at first, and then she started to worry, "Or you Go abroad to hide?"

"I know you are worried about me, but this matter is not as serious as you think, and I can solve it." Alyssa knew that their original intention was to care about her.

But this is a matter between her and Karl, and it should not involve too many people.

Peter and Tina looked at each other, and both fell silent.

After a while, Peter said: "But this thing is indeed done beautifully!"

Peter and Karl had been in friendship for so many years, although the last time Karl sheltered Miana made Grant angry, it didn't make them both turn against each other.

In the end, he was still a little unhappy, but Miana also broke her leg and was hospitalized, which made him feel better.

Hearing that Karl had been given the medicine by Alyssa, he felt a little more happy. Nevertheless, he was happy, he became a little worried about Alyssa.

He originally thought that Karl and Alyssa would get back together one day, but when he saw Karl covering Miana regardless of right or wrong, he had to believe that Karl really cared about Miana.

Karl was cold-tempered and unpredictable, but he was desperate for the people he cared about.

As a result, Peter became even more worried about Alyssa's situation.

Alyssa had a good relationship with Tina, and he had already regarded Alyssa as a good friend, so he hurried to Alyssa to ask about this.

Tina glared at Peter: "Pretty!"

â€¦

After Tina was discharged from the hospital, she went home to recuperate, and her parents had already returned, and Alyssa didn't need to make any more soup.

But Alyssa spent more thoughts on preparing for the lawsuit.

Time flickered, and more than a month passed.

In early May, the weather in Rostenvel became hotter, and it was the season for wearing skirts.

The custody dispute between Alyssa and Karl had not been long since leaving the court.

At this time, news of Karl and Miana entering and leaving the obstetrics and gynecology department of the hospital was spread over the Internet.

There are photos and videos, and some people have seen them in the hospital.

Alyssa's mobile phone receives dozens of news items every day, all of which are related to Karl and Miana.

Every piece of news has a real punch.

People on the Internet and in the entire Rostenvel are talking about these two people.

"Probably they are getting married?"

"There was only news before, and neither of them personally confirmed it!"

“It should be announced this time!”

“Mr. Adams’ marriage is really bumpy.”

“Maybe rich people do this.”

Alyssa just went to the supermarket to buy something, and could hear them talking about Karl and Miana.

She recently caught a cold again and wore a mask when she went out.

The closer she left the court, the more irritable she felt.

She didn’t want to listen to these people talking about Karl, so she just picked a few things and returned home.

Since Karl visited her last time, she hasn’t seen him again for more than a month, and only saw a few blurry photos taken online.

But it can be vaguely seen from the outline that the person in the photo is really Karl.

After Alyssa drove home, she sorted out all the photos she had seen online in the past two months.

When the first news and the first photo came out, Alyssa was not sure that Miana was really pregnant.

However, the news and photos of them entering and leaving the hospital recently have been overwhelming. Karl did not come forward to stop them. He really planned to leave it alone and prepare for a big wedding.

It will probably be announced in a few days.

That night, Karl and Miana

Alyssa pulled the corners of her lips, barely smiled, then turned off the computer, picked up the phone and stood up to call Alvin.

As Alyssa expected, within a few days, Karl and Miana announced their marriage.

“Yesterday, Karl, CEO of the Adams’ Group, announced his marriage to his fiancée at a business dinner. The time is set in the middle of next month.”

As soon as this news came out, the upper circles of the Rostenvel stock market boiled again.

Alyssa sat in front of the TV, watching this news report while eating instant noodles.

Tomorrow is the day of the court session, and she has no intention of cooking or thinking about other things.

She only knew that she must get custody of Grace.

Early the next morning, Alyssa went to the court neatly dressed.

She met Alvin at the gate of the court.

Alvin noticed the black marks on her eyes and asked, "Did you sleep well last night?"

"At this time, it's weird to be able to sleep well, isn't it?" Alyssa turned her head and glanced at Alvin: "Your dark circles are also heavy."

Chapter 778

Alvin has indeed spent a lot of thought settling the case for Alyssa in the past two months.

During this period of time, his nerves have been very tight, afraid of losing.

"I've been a little tired recently. If I win this lawsuit, I can take a good rest." Alvin suppressed the anxiety in his heart and explained.

Alyssa felt Alvin's nervousness, and said soothingly: "It's not up to people to make things happen, it's up to the heavens. Even if you lose, there are other ways."

Alvin said with a solemn expression: "If you won't lose, go in."

Alyssa looked back and said, "I'll go in later."

Alvin's eyes flashed strangely and asked her, "Who are you waiting for?"

"Wait for two friends." Alyssa said.

After hearing Alyssa's words, Alvin glanced at her again and went first.

Not long after he walked in, Tina and Peter arrived, and Alyssa was waiting for the two of them.

They had previously said that they would come to the courtyard, and Alyssa was here waiting for them to enter together.

Tina and Peter have not reconciled yet. Both of them drove over in their own cars. Tina's legs could not drive yet. The assistant drove her.

One of them walked in front and the other walked behind.

"Alyssa!" Tina walked to Alyssa first.

Immediately afterwards, Peter also walked over and asked, "Is Karl here?"

"I haven't seen others yet." Alyssa looked far away, neither could she see Karl's figure, nor Smith's figure.

Peter shook his head: "Go in first."

Recently, online news about Karl and Miana's wedding date has been raging, and they all know that he is to avoid mentioning it.

Alyssa nodded slightly, and went in with Peter and Tina.

â€¦

Until the court session, Karl did not show up either.

Clifford also appeared in the court, and he also came to watch the court.

Smith hurriedly appeared in the court just before the trial.

Karl was absent, but the court still had to go.

Alyssa and Alvin looked at each other, not knowing what was going on.

Smith only said one sentence: "Sir has something to do."

The lawyers Karl hired were naturally the best, but Karl did not show up, so he still lacked a little confidence.

Alvin was essentially afraid of Karl, and Karl's absence made him more comfortable and relaxed.

Alvin is wearing a deep black suit today, which is very different from his usual style, and it also seems that he is more stable than usual.

"Although the economic conditions of the two sides are very different, but as the CEO of the Adams Group, does Karl have time to take care of the children and give them enough love? Material is important, but for a child under four years old, The love of loved ones is more important"

"I think you are changing the subject, what we said"

""

The lawyers on both sides are not abstinent, and both sides have come back and forth. The trial lasted for three hours before it ended.

Until the end, Karl did not appear.

At the gate of the court, Alyssa called Smith: "Mr. Smith, why didn't Karl come?"

Smith slightly nodded his head, still as rigid as before: "Ms. Palmer is in a physical condition and is hospitalized, so Boss can't get away."

Alvin and his party who followed, happened to only hear Smith's words.

Tina couldn't help but sneered, "He doesn't care about Grace because Miana has a child in her stomach, right?"

Alyssa lowered her eyes slightly and pulled Tina's arm.

"Isn't this something obvious? How tight was Karl's pressure before? Now that the court is officially opened but not showing up? It's spread all over the Internet. Who doesn't know that Karl's fiancée is suspicious, and their good will be coming?"

Tina got more and more angry as she walked to the side and kicked on the pillar.

She came out today to do a private business, without window high heels, her feet hurt a bit, but not serious.

Smith didn't seem to hear Tina's words, and only nodded at them, then turned to leave.

Tina said to Alyssa with some worry: "If he finds that b!tch woman, let him find it. Anyway, Grace's custody right belongs to you."

Alyssa smiled at her and turned to look at Alvin.

At this look, she found that Clifford was standing next to Alvin.

As if she hadn't seen Clifford, she just set her gaze on Alvin's face, and said with a little gratitude, "Thank you."

The result of this trial was better than expected.

"You just have to wait for the verdict to come down with peace of mind, and don't forget what you promised me at that time." Alvin carried a briefcase behind his back, and he really has the rigorous and steady temperament that a lawyer can have.

Tina looked at Alvin vigilantly, and asked Alyssa in a low voice, "What did you promise him?"

Tina only recently learned of Alvin's existence. She always felt that Alvin was not serious, so she was a little worried.

Alyssa said, "Be serious."

"Keep everything from me." Tina curled her lips without concealment.

Alyssa sorted out the messy hair on her forehead for Tina: "No, I will tell you everything when the dust settles on Grace."

"Ok."

At this time, Peter said again: "Alyssa, you won the first instance, but what if Karl appeals again?"

Before Alyssa could speak, Alvin replied for Alyssa: "Miana is already pregnant and hospitalized, how can he appeal? Besides, Karl's current situation is not suitable for bringing up a child."

Peter is also a man, and he can naturally see that Alvin is unusual for Alyssa.

But after all, Alyssa has been with Karl for so long, and Karl's friendship with him is not a day or two. Even though he and Karl have conflicts now, he still has a kind of opinion about Alvin.

Therefore, he didn't look at Alvin with kind eyes.

But now, what is right and wrong? Karl and Alyssa were already strangers.

"I'm leaving first. I'll call if I have something to do." Peter came to watch the court just to know the result. It depends on the situation that Alyssa won the first instance, and he didn't want to stay here any longer.

Seeing Alvin is a little uncomfortable, it's better to miss seeing him.

Alyssa nodded at him: "Goodbye."

Peter made a calling gesture towards Alyssa, then turned into the car and left.

Peter left, but Tina didn't plan to leave: "Alyssa, I will go to your house to accompany you?"

"I have other things to work on. You should go home and take a good rest and care your legs, so that the root of the disease will not fall." After Tina stood for a while, Alyssa was afraid that she would be tired, and helped her into the car.

She had been injured for a hundred days, and Tina had only been resting for less than two months, so she still has to recuperate.

Chapter 779

After Tina was sent away, Alyssa, Alvin and Clifford were left at the gate of the court.

Alvin said to Alyssa: "I'll take you back, and talk about something on the way."

Alyssa had no objection, nodded, turned around and planned to leave.

Suddenly, she thought of something, and looked back at Clifford: "Clifford, are you satisfied now?"

Clifford raised his eyes, the emotions in his eyes were complicated and difficult to distinguish.

"But are you really happy? Seeing me separate from Karl, watching me and Karl turn each other's eyes against each other, does it really make you happy?" Alyssa looked at him and asked quietly.

Clifford opened his mouth slightly, but did not speak aloud.

Alyssa smiled mockingly, then turned into the car, followed by Alvin.

Clifford watched them leave with a gloomy expression.

happy?

No.

What is happiness?

Since when did he only have calculations left in his life?

And his adoptive father, that famous philanthropist, most admired his calculations.

He doesn't know what happiness is, he only knows that every time he uses his own means to achieve a goal, there will be short-term happiness.

But soon it will lose, all emptiness all over again.

â€¦

Alyssa sat in the car, looked at the buildings outside the window, and said tiredly: "I was born in Rostenvel and grew up in here. Now I look at this city and I feel tired."

Alvin took her words and said, "Then leave this place."

Alyssa turned to look at him, and he continued: "If you want to stay in the country, we can change a place. If you don't want to stay in the country, we can go abroad."

“We?” Alyssa asked back.

“Don’t forget that you promised me before, as long as you win the lawsuit, you will consider me.” Alvin blinked at Alyssa, and the original form appeared again.

Alyssa’s gaze gradually became empty, and after a while, she said, “Okay.”

“You don’t have to worry about the case. Even if Karl appeals, he may be rejected. Recently, there has been a lot of news about his fiancée’s pregnancy. This is a drawback to his fight for custody. At the cusp of public opinion, it will affect children.”

Alvin explained some more with Alyssa, some she could understand, and some she could not.

Soon they arrived downstairs in the community where Alyssa lived.

Before getting off of the car, Alyssa said with a smile, “Thank you for the lift.”

“Take a good rest, after finalizing Grace’s affairs, we will talk about our affairs.” Alvin still looks bohemian, but Alyssa is not as disgusted as before.

Karl has started a new life, how about her?

Grace liked Alvin, and Alvin tried his best to help her with this lawsuit.

Alvin, it is worth her consideration.

Watching Alvin’s car drive away, Alyssa turned and entered the unit building.

As soon as she entered the elevator, Alyssa collapsed.

She leaned against the elevator wall with a tired face, tilted her head slightly, emptying her head, thinking a lot.

“Ding.”

When the elevator reached the floor, when Alyssa stood up straight and walked out, she felt that her mind was blank, and she seemed to be thinking nothing.

She should have been happy to win the lawsuit, but she felt heavy and uncomfortable in her heart.

Open the door, there is no light in the room, and the curtains are tightly drawn. Even in broad daylight, the room is dark.

Alyssa was too lazy to turn on the lights, closed the door, changed shoes, and walked towards the sofa.

When she was about to walk to the sofa, she suddenly felt something wrong in the room.

“You’re back.” In the darkness, the man’s low voice rang slowly.

Hearing this voice, Alyssa became stiff, and said in disbelief: “Karl!”

There was a slight movement on the sofa, and the man’s bitter breath gradually approached. Alyssa hadn’t adapted to the darkness in the room, but just stepped back subconsciously.

After Alyssa was shocked, she began to struggle: "Karl, what are you doing? Didn't you stay with Miana in the hospital and didn't even come to the court? What are you doing here with me? Let me go!"

"Let go of you?" Karl leaned to her ear and whispered, "I let you go, who let me go?"

Alyssa couldn't understand what Karl was talking about, but felt that he wanted to avenge her.

"If you are still a man, please leave immediately! I gave you the medicine at Best Day that day. It was indeed my work, but if you don't think like that for Miana, will you go to bed? Will she be pregnant Huh! Karl, blame yourself if you are to blame! What is the meaning of your revenge on me now?"

For a long time after drugging Karl, Alyssa felt that she was a mean and indecent person.

However, when Karl came to the door, the self-blame in her heart disappeared.

"Alyssa, there is one thing you said wrong. If I were a man, what I should do now is not to leave, but!" The words behind Karl disappeared into his wandering palm.

Alyssa went to court today. To make herself look more energetic, she deliberately wore a shirt and trousers.

The corners of the shirt were pressed into the trousers. She has lost weight recently. The corners of the clothes are not pressed tightly. With a light touch of Karl's hand, the corners of the clothes were brought out, and the rough palms touched her as delicate as fat skin.

The long-lost feeling came to mind, Alyssa couldn't help but shiver.

She didn't have any affection, she just felt sick, and Karl touched her with the hands he had touched other women!

Alyssa tensed her body, raised her hand to clasp Karl's hand that was still leaning into her clothes, and said coldly: "For Grace, give me a little face."

Karl calmed down, as if thinking about Alyssa's words, right.

Seeing this, Alyssa continued: "You already have Miana and the child in her belly. You will get married next month. Please respect your own choice and respect your future wife and children."

Alyssa clasped his hand forcefully, tried quietly to break free, but found that it didn't help at all.

She had seen Karl's strength. He could defeat two young and strong men alone, let alone subdue a woman.

She didn't eat in the morning, it was already noon, she was hungry and tired, and if he stalemates with Alyssa like this, she was afraid that she would faint.

She was about to continue speaking, but she felt a sudden lightness in her body.

The next moment, she was picked up by Karl and carried on his shoulders.

Chapter 780

Alyssa was flustered when she realized what Karl was going to do.

“Karl, you let me down!” A chill rushed into her limbs. She didn’t know that Karl was not in the hospital or the court but was waiting for her at her house, let alone why he was like this suddenly.

The Karl in her memory was an upright man, even if he was gloomy and cruel, he still had his own principles and tolerance.

It will never be the man who is plotting against her when the wedding is approaching!

Karl carried her towards the bedroom without saying a word. He ran into the corner of the table because he walked too quickly and made a muffled noise.

The more he did not speak, the more frightened Alyssa, and the more frightened, there was nothing Karl couldn’t do.

“You let me down, let me down!” Alyssa wanted to calm herself down, but she couldn’t calm herself down anymore. She was carried on her shoulders by Karl, and she kept beating him, struggling to think. Come down.

At this time, a cell phone rang in the living room.

Alyssa was overjoyed. The person calling her at this time must be someone who knows her home address, and there are only a few people she usually contacts.

It is not Tina, it may be Alvin.

If she keeps not answering the phone, people over there will feel weird and will definitely come to her.

Under such circumstances, some of her people even hope to come are Alvin.

Tina’s leg injury is not healed now, and she is a woman again, Karl is angry, but he will not be polite to anyone.

At this moment, Karl had already carried Alyssa to the door of the bedroom. As if he could see through Alyssa’s mind, he stopped and said, “Who are you still counting on to help you? Alvin?”

Alyssa didn’t say a word, but struggled hard. She knew how wrong she was at this time would only make Karl even more angry.

But a man in anger, even if you don’t speak, can still find a reason to be angry.

“What? You don’t even want to talk to me now?” Karl’s arms gradually tightened, and Alyssa’s legs hurt.

Alyssa’s bedroom was not big. As soon as Karl entered, he threw her on the bed and locked the bedroom door with his backhand.

The curtains in the bedroom were not closed tightly, and light came in from outside, making the line of sight clearer.

As soon as Alyssa was thrown onto the bed, she quickly got up, picked up the small table lamp beside the bed, and pointed at Karl with a vigilant expression: “Don’t come over! If you leave now, I will assume nothing happened before!”

Karl stood with his back to the door, with a black shirt on him, and his face was gloomy, but he did not hinder his handsomeness and aura in the slightest.

Alyssa couldn't figure out why Karl came back again.

Karl fixedly looked at her, raising his foot and slowly walking towards her.

Alyssa's bedroom was too small, she had no way to escape, and was forced to the corner by his movements step by step, until she finally could not retreat.

"Ah!" Alyssa exclaimed as he approached, closing her eyes and slamming the lamp in her hand at him.

However, only half of her hand stretched out, and it was completely intercepted by Karl in the air.

Alyssa held it very tightly, but Karl easily snatched the lamp from her hand: "Do you think you are my opponent? It's been too long since we've been apart. Who am I? Don't know anymore?"

Karl held her arm and pulled it back against the wall, leaving her no room for resistance, like a rabbit that was slaughtered but not reconciled, staring at him fiercely with cat-like eyes.

"You know that I like your eyes the most. Don't look at me with this kind of look. I don't like it." Karl lowered his head and gently kissed Alyssa's eyes.

His voice is very soft, like a lover's whisper.

Don't start with Alyssa disgusting, don't want to be touched by Karl.

"Do you hate being touched by me so much?" Karl laughed lowly, his voice is very magnetic, low and deep, especially nice.

However, listening to Alyssa's ears, she felt cold all over.

She gritted her teeth and still turned her head aside to look away: "Yes! I see your face now, I feel sick!"

The last word "sick" was very heavy.

When the voice fell, she obviously felt that the anger on the man in front of her was heavier.

In fact, she didn't even know how angry Karl was.

Is he angry because of Grace's custody rights?

She did give Karl medicine that night, but Karl still had a chance to refuse Miana!

But Miana is still pregnant!

If a person like Karl was determined, how could Miana get pregnant if he wasn't willing to do so?

"What can I do then? I will not only touch here, but also here, here, and here!" Karl would kiss every time he said "here".

Until the end, he kissed Alyssa's lips.

Alyssa now only hates Karl, even if she knows that she may not escape Karl's palm today, she still doesn't want to just give in.

She took a bite of Karl, and tasted the salty blood in his mouth.

Even so, Karl did not let go of her, but kissed deeper and more presumptuous.

Alyssa had no room to resist. When Karl kissed her, his hands began to tear her clothes, and finally he pushed her onto the bed very strongly.

In this way, Alyssa had no chance to resist.

Karl was determined to ask her today.

Alyssa was angry and anxious, and at the same time feeling sad and worried. She opened her eyes and looked at the ceiling, calmed down and did not struggle.

Karl felt the people under him calm down, and left her lips.

"I think Miana is pregnant and can't satisfy you, so you came to see me, right?" Alyssa's voice was a little hoarse with a touch of sadness. This was the only reason she could find.

She couldn't think of other reasons.

"You don't love me, do you want to abuse me like this? Can't we get together and get away?" Alyssa didn't want to cry, but tears had already flowed from her eyes uncontrollably.

Karl stretched out a finger and clicked on the corner of her eye.

For a moment, Alyssa thought that Karl would care about his former affection for her.

But in the next second, he broke her delusion with a word.

"Good gathering, good dispersal? Impossible!" After this sentence fell, Karl didn't hesitate anymore, and the movements on his hands became rough.

Alyssa felt that Karl was a demon at this time.

Until the last moment, Alyssa finally couldn't hold it, and softly begged him: "Karl, for the sake of previous love, you let me go!"