Chapter 11

Xavia: "!!!"

Who would want to seduce him?!

"Unfortunately, I'm not one of those superficial men. So, don't use those tactics of yours on me."

Xavia: "I..." Screw you, jerk!

"Young master." Zayne suddenly walked in with the medicine before Xavia could start cursing out loud. He was extremely surprised when he saw the scene of these two people.

"Oh my, I came at the wrong time! You two should continue, continue!"

His young master had always exercised excellent self-control and he had always kept his integrity. When he usually lost in any truth or dare games, he would always punish himself by drinking, and he had always refused to show any public display of his affection. But now, he was actually in such a close and loving position with his sister-in-law!

How could he be so insensitive and ignorant on a day when the sun was actually rising from the west?!

Zayne turned around to leave.

It was only then that Xavia noticed their intimate posture. So, she quickly left Zivon's embrace, feeling very ashamed as she shouted out, "It's not like that! I nearly fell down and I fell into his arms. There is nothing between the both of us!"

It was already a big deal for Zivon if he did not push her away when she fell into his arms.

Zayne continued smiling as he said, "Sister-in-law, you don't need to be shy. Young master is finally interested so you should take more initiatives and take advantage of this opportunity! Good luck!"

Xavia: "..." Did this person understand the human language?

Wait. Sister-in-law?

"I'm not your sister-in-law!"

The expression on Zayne's face changed and he looked at the determined and slightly furious expression on Xavia's face. He was stunned and confused for a moment and he walked over to Xavia in fright.

"Sister-in-law, are you okay? Do you remember running out onto the road and getting hit by a car? Well, there is no serious collision at all since I just bumped into you. You fainted from the shock. After that, I called the young master when I saw that it was you. Did you get amnesia from the collision?"

"Oh my god! What should I do if you really lost your memory?!"

Xavia: "…"

She finally understood now. This man hit her and identified her as her elder sister!

So, the reason why Zivon would say those words to her was because he had mistakenly thought that she had deliberately appeared in front of him.

She shouldn't have to take the blame for this misunderstanding!

Xavia turned around to look at Zivon. "It was your brother who hit me and brought me back here. I really didn't expect that your brother would also be as blind as you are!"

This implied that she could not possibly have seduced him at all!

The expression on Zivon's face suddenly turned cold.

This woman was obviously scolding him indirectly. She said that he was blind and she was also saying that his friend was blind and that they were both cut from the same cloth.

He sneered, "Would he have hit you if you were not setting up an 'accident'? Do you want to take a look at the car surveillance camera?"

Xavia was speechless.

At that time, she rushed out in a moment of anxiety because Luke was chasing her. She was indeed responsible but who was he saying was setting up an 'accident'?

"I was careless, but if I was setting up an 'accident', then I would have asked you for compensation. But forget it. I won't hold it against the both of you because of your blindness. This is the money for the registration fee. I would advise you to go and register for a checkup with an ophthalmologist! Goodbye. I hope that I'll never see you again!"

After she was done speaking, Xavia grabbed her bag from the side cabinet. After that, she took out ten dollars and slammed it down on the table before she limped and hopped away.

Zivon: "…"

Zayne: "…"

This woman was too brash! All the plutocrats in the world had to be polite and courteous when speaking to the young master but she actually dared to raise her voice at him. Did she know what the young master's status was?

Xavia did not care what his status was and she only felt hatred for him!

Back then, she could have actually turned out to be a good and successful person after passing the entrance examination and getting into a good university. She could have been in a sweet and loving relationship with Mark, and the both of them would have gotten married and have children together. She would have had an ordinary and beautiful life but unfortunately, that night turned her whole entire life upside down. Everyone scolded her for being a bitch who got pregnant before getting married. She also no longer had the right to like Mark anymore.

Now, her foster mother even sold her off to that kind of old man.

She never wanted to see him ever again!

"Don't go..." But at this moment, a tender and childish voice suddenly sounded.

Xavia was instantly stunned when she followed the voice and looked downward.
