Chapter 5

Outside the villa.

Xavia walked out of the neighborhood in one go. The night breeze was cold and Xavia sniffed slightly.

Although she had never once thought about the possibility of being with Zivon, she still felt uncomfortable because he had seriously misunderstood her and was even trying to use his power to suppress her.

He was a narcissistic, arrogant and self-righteous man. How many innocent people would have to die if he was a detective?

"Xavia Lockhart! It's actually you!" A familiar voice suddenly sounded.

Xavia raised her eyes and she saw Jenna coming out from behind the fountain!

Jenna had a very elegant and beautiful temperament. She was also very arrogant and pampered. However, she looked slightly shocked with a hint of savagery at this moment.

Her elder sister!

"Sister, why are you here?!" Didn't she go out to buy wine? The supermarket was not over this side.

Slap! Jenna had already given Xavia a tight slap across her face before she could even react.

Xavia fell down to the ground because she was completely caught off guard by the huge and unexpected force. A clear handprint immediately appeared on her small and fair face.

Jenna stared at her angrily as she scolded, "Sister?! You still know how to address me as your sister? What did you promise me a few years ago? You actually came all the way here to seduce Zivon now?!"

"Tell me, what did the both of you do inside the house just now? Were you intending to let him know that matter so that you can destroy my happiness so that you can get married to him instead?! Why are you so evil? How can you treat me like that? I'm your elder sister!"

The string of sentences came out as emotional and stinging.

Xavia's cheek and elbows were hurting and she felt a little dizzy. She felt slightly wronged and angry on the inside as she stood up.

"Sister, I only came over to deliver the takeout. I did not know that brother-in-law was the one who had placed the order. Brother-in-law was the one who mistook me for you and nothing happened between the both of us. The reason why I hid was because I was afraid that you would misunderstand me."

"If I really harbored any wrong intentions towards brother-in-law, then why would I possibly hide for three years?"

Jenna's face stiffened at the question.

Indeed, in the past three years, Jenna had also been worried that Xavia would do something behind her back. As a result, Xavia had never once appeared before. So, this time should also be a coincidence.

Xavia then said, "Besides that, I've already been hiding for three years because of you but you actually hit me because of him? I treat you like my elder sister but who do you view me as?"

Jenna naturally treated Xavia as a pest and a thorn in her flesh!

But Jenna naturally could not say this. The corners of her mouth twitched slightly.

"Sister. Of course, I treat you like my younger sister. I misunderstood you just now. It's just that your appearance can easily arouse Zivon's suspicion. There will be irreparable consequences if there is just a little mistake and carelessness. I believe that you won't want to be scolded by everyone and cause your elder sister grief, will you?"

"So, can you leave first while Zivon is on his business trip in S City for three months?"

Jenna was seemingly worried that Xavia would disagree to her request. So, she deliberately added, "Do this on the account that I have been paying for your grandmother's medical bills all these years."

At the end of the day, her elder sister still cared too much about this man!

Xavia smiled and said, "My grandmother is in the hospital now and I've also been living here for twenty two years now. So, I will never leave this place. However, you don't have to worry because I will never appear in front of the blind man, nor will I get involved with him in any way!"

Was a warm, caring man not nice enough? Was a handsome, young and gentle man not good? Or was she unhappy with being single?

That type of blind man who was as cold as ice and was not even gentle at all in that kind of matter, was really not her cup of tea!

"By the way, sister, the derailment of the train is not dependent on the track, nor is it related to the scenery outside. The problem lies with the train itself. There is no direct relationship between your happiness and whether I leave or not."

After Xavia was done speaking, she turned and left.

Jenna froze in place and her face turned pale out of anger.

That damn Xavia! How dare she use that tone to speak to her!

Jenna was extremely furious when she thought about how Zivon actually lied to her because of Xavia tonight!

She could not allow Xavia to stay!

Jenna took out her cell phone before she called Cara.

"Is this Xavia Lockhart's foster mother?"

"Hello, I'm her elder sister. I heard that you are struggling financially lately? Why don't you do something for me and I will give you one hundred thousand dollars when it's done?"

"It's not a big deal. It's just that Xavia is also old enough now and it is time for her to get married. That guy, Pockmark Wilson in your country isn't bad at all. Do you know what I mean?"
