

60: Selene

I stared at Luna's naked body with my eyes wide open. I have never seen a woman naked. Hell, Crew was the first male I have seen completely naked but a woman I share the same features with? Not once!

Luna's naked form unfolded before me, a canvas of celestial allure. Her skin, adorned with the ethereal glow of moonlight, displayed a delicate adornment of curves and contours. Our bodies weren't similar at the same time.

The soft cascade of her hair framed shoulders that bore the mark of both strength and grace. Her breasts, a sculpted embodiment of femininity, held a captivating allure. They were firm, not as big as mine but tear drop shaped.

I licked my lips instinctively as they swayed when she stopped walking. She stood a few feet away from us, the pink n*****s standing at attention when she saw how raptly I was staring at them. Goddamn.

The gentle curvature of her waist seamlessly led to the enticing contours below. Every inch of her, bathed in the soft luminescence, bespoke a celestial elegance that left an indelible impression on my mesmerized gaze. She is gorgeous.

Her pink v****a was shaved, unlike mine that has a little bit of hair because I haven't shaved in days. I suddenly felt self conscious. I didn't know I was going to have s*x with Crew and when he went down on me, I was in another world to care what was beneath.

Luna right here looks every inch ready to be devoured. I closed my thighs instinctively while she stood there like a goddess.

When I met her eyes again, she was staring down at my hunger with way more hunger than I could decipher. Her eyes were taking in every inch of my body like a hungry wolf ready to devour its prey and in this case, I am the prey. The innocent little lamb.

Our eyes clashed and she started walking further towards me, pushing Crew away to boldly stroke my curves with her hands. I am thicker than her even before I gave birth but after, only my waist regained its small size but everything widened from my breasts to my hips.

"You are so beautiful." She murmured as she touched my waist then slowly trail her hands down my ass to grab a handful.

Our breasts touched and an involuntary moan was yanked away from my throat at the feel of her naked body on mine. It wasn't as intense as how I felt with Crew but almost the same. Maybe because he made me c*m just a few minutes ago.

"So are you." I murmured then took her lips with mine in a desperate kiss. I needed to feel her.

We kissed like there was no tomorrow. Like our next breath depended on how deep we went and how hard we explored one another. We were breathing heavily when we pulled away, our hands still wandering over our bodies. Needing contact.

"You are only going to watch for shutting me out yesterday and not inviting me." Luna said to Crew who stood beside us wide eyed and very very much hard.

"What? Come on, Luna." His eyes became heavy with lust as he stared at her wanting her to change her mind.

"Nope. Only watching for you." She gave him a small smile that screamed your punishment making me giggle.

"She is mine now!" She called out as she led me back into the bedroom and shut the door behind her which was opened shortly by Crew.

She helped untangle my hair and told me to lie on the bed. I lay on my back with my pert breasts and hard n*****s pointing to the sky. I felt Luna lay down beside me and rolled over on my side to see that Luna was now completely naked, not even her strings were in place.

I leant over and kissed Luna hard on the lips moving quickly down to her firm and pert breasts that look inviting and sensitive. I took a n****e in my mouth and followed what the Crew had done to me earlier. I want to make her feel good too.

I licked it gently and then took it between my teeth nibbling and flicking it with my moist hot tongue. Luna moaned softly and squirmed on the bed, her hand coming to the back of my neck to push my head deeper to her breast.

I could feel Crew's eyes on us, intense and unwavering so I tried my best to give him the best performance hearing Luna moan. When she does that, something tightens in my stomach that feels oddly like giddiness and joy.

I slid down the bed and opened Luna's long sexy tanned legs, I kissed her inner thighs and then kissed her wet p***y as I listened to Luna groaning loudly. I think she also growled at some point, her eyes flashing to show her wolf.

"We have been waiting for so long for this." Kira moaned then purred in my head like the wanton female she is.

I flicked my tongue across Luna's aroused and sensitive clit while teasing her p***y lips with a finger. Luna was soaking wet and I loved it. I traced her clit with the tip of my tongue making her shudder on the bed and Crew to groan.

I pushed my finger inside her gently (still following what Crew did to me) Luna screamed quietly and lifted her slender hips from the bed for more friction. I could remember doing the exact same thing too earlier.

I placed my hands on Luna's hips to keep her still as I thrust my finger into her wetness harder and deeper. I flicked my tongue over her clit, again and again. Copying what the Crew had done to my clit. Luna couldn't keep her mouth shut and I'm sure she will lose her voice soon.

I shot a glance at Crew to find him rubbing his

d**k through his sweatpants with the heel of his hand. He does listen to Luna after all. That turned me on more than it should.

I focused back on Luna. I pushed another finger inside her now while I rubbed myself against the bottom of one of Luna's legs harder and faster. I believe when Crew said he enjoyed it almost more than I do. Giving your partner what they wanted was satisfying to say the least.

The faster I thrust my fingers inside Luna, the louder she groaned. And I was relentless and didn't stop, with my fingers pounding Luna's p***y and my tongue licking her clit.

I rubbed up and down Luna's leg in time with my fingers pumping her p***y, up and down, in and out. I gathered I was doing it right as Luna's body was squirming with passion and I was having trouble holding her still. If only Crew had joined.

I was also close to coming as I rubbed my naked body hard against Luna's bare leg. I pushed my fingers in harder and licked her clit faster while I felt Luna grinding her clit against my face wantonly. She is about to c*m it seems.

"Don't stop Sel, don't stop. Pleaseeeee." She came loudly bulking wildly on the bed.

I felt Luna's body tense momentarily and then tasted her sweet juices flooding into my mouth as she climaxed and overwhelming spasms took over her body. I sucked and sucked and sucked like I was about to get all the fluid off her body which was the plan.

I rubbed myself against Luna's leg faster and harder and felt Luna push her leg into me. My breasts were rubbing against Luna's tummy and bouncing together. I reached my peak and had another explosive o****m soaking Luna's leg as I did.

"f**k!" Crew bellowed from behind as he came in his pants, resting heavily on the wall behind him.
