

67: Third Person

Selene managed to feed Adrian enough for him to go back to sleep and his fever had broken a few hours ago which is a huge relief. After making sure his baby monitor is on, they filed into the other room in the suite of the hotel.

Crew was sitting on the couch doing something with his tablet when the two of them entered. Selene gave a tired sigh, Luna turned to stare at the lines bracketing her mouth with stress. Pushing her against the wall, Luna pressed my lips firmly on hers and she instantly returned the kiss with vigor of her own.

At the sound of the wet kiss, Crew turned around and his phone fell on the couch. He groaned at the sight of them going at it but they ignored him. Luna only wanted Selene to feel good and this is how it should be done. She should get a good fk.

She drew her to the couch where Crew was sitting only in his slacks after he gave Adrian a bath and wet his shirt. Luna gripped his dk through his slacks then removed his pants all together in a hurry. There is no use wasting time.

As she stroked Crew's ck, Selene knelt in front of him. Her heels clicked and scraped as she got down on her knees and folded her hands in her lap like an obedient student. Crew found out he really liked that sound for some reason. Submissive. Hot. Sexy.

Luna gave Selene a nod and then leaned down over Crew's ck. She licked the head and then took long licks up the sides of his shaft all the way around with her tongue out in a curl. She made sure Selene was watching every move though.

Crew's eyes rolled back in his head and then he thought about Selene's tongue, watching. He looked down and Luna was tonguing the head of his ck again as she looked at Selene too. Crew dared to look and saw Selene's attention focused on his ck. His dk twitched at the attention.

Luna went down on him and backed off. She stroked her saliva into him. She ran her mouth over the head and down one side an inch. She went down and off and slid a bit over the other side. Crew let out a sound between a groan and a growl that had Selene looking up at his face with those innocent greens.

He had been having heads from Luna for years now, but Crew had never seen this move before. He sure hadn't felt it. It was like she was missing on every other thrust on purpose and it felt awesome. She was showing Selene how to perfect it and he loved every second.

Luna gave one deep thrust down on him and then pulled off completely. She spoke with her own spit running down his shaft and over her wrapped fingers. "Get over here, Twilight."

Selene crawled forward on her hands and knees and Crew shivered. "Yes, baby," she whispered in a husky voice.

Crew swallowed. "Oh, Goddess."

"I have never seen anything hotter than two women in front of one dick." Nash said into Crew's head messing him up some more

"Suck him, Twilight. Suck him good. Better than I did if you want to earn a reward." Luna guided Selene's head closer to Crew's pulsating dk.

"I've never done this before." Selene said in a small voice but the anticipation was palpable in her eyes. She cannot wait to dive into it.

Luna rolled her eyes patiently and stroked Crew's ck. "Consider this on the job training. You suck him with as much enthusiasm and commitment as you would give any job. You know, when you were making coffee at Miranda's?"

Selene leaned forward and licked around the head of Crew's ck making it jump. She was clearly less experienced, but her mouth on him was electric. She took a deep breath and held it before plunging down over him.

"Less teeth." Luna said, her hands guiding Selene's head against the ck.

Crew could have kissed her for that instruction but seeing Selene obey is much hotter. Luna actually did lean up and kiss him lightly on the lips as Selene bobbed her head on Crew's ck in Luna's fist.

Luna pushed Selene away. "Do what I do?"

Luna went all the way down with her mouth open wide and then stuck out her tongue and licked his balls. She pulled off and spit on his ck. She didn't gag nor did she have tears in her eyes like Selene but Selene looks way hotter to Crew at that moment.

Sekene attempted the same. Halfway down, she coughed. Luna put her hand on the back of Selene's head. "Don't you quit on me."

When Selene relaxed and actually went deeper than Luna did. She licked out her tongue at the base and almost sucked his balls in too. He was disappointed when she finally pulled off. Selene spit a thick string of saliva onto his ck and Luna stroked it in.

"fk!" Crew groaned, tightening his hands into fists as he tried his best to stay unmoving.

Luna went down and did her side to side alternating motion with her mouth. Selene tried it next.

"Not like that." Luna said then did it again.

Selene got it perfect the next time with a level of intensity that nearly sent Crew over. If Selene could do this for him after today, he would be the happiest man alive. Luna gave him a soft kiss as if to celebrate as Selene licked and sucked.

Luna pushed Selene away gently and started sucking and licking one of Crew's balls. She spoke over it in her mouth. "Like this on the other one. Gently."

Luna wanted this whole thing to focus on Selene but it seems like she is enjoying giving Crew this bb than her own needs. They have removed their dresses yet but Luna knows she is probably wet down there and bothered. Much better.

Selene dove in. She wasn't as gentle, but Crew moaned and licked his lips. "Just like that, Sunny. fg hell."

"Keep going." Luna said with a pride beam that she pulled away a little to watch Selene.

Luna f*d Crew with her mouth as Selene sucks and kissed his balls with more vigor than she did earlier. She is getting a hang of things.

As he dug his fingers into the couch to prepare to c*m, Luna stopped and pushed Selene away from his balls. "We are going to get f*d tonight."

Luna slid her arms out of her black dress and pushed it down past her breasts and stomach to her waist. She pinched her ns and then rubbed her hands over her pert breasts as Selene and Crew both watched with rapt attention.

Crew wanted to suck on them (more like Selene's because of the milk) but she wrapped them around his ck and he fit in there nicely just like she said. She rubbed them together over his ck, but then pulled off. They weren't huge but they wrapped his ck nicely. .

Luna turned and bent over in front of Selene. Crew watched her ass spread in the red dress. It rode up until he saw the very hint of her shaved py peeking out from under the end of the dress. It felt like he was seeing his mate for the first time in five years.

Goddess help him because he is about to shot his c*m any second.
