

68: Third Person

Selene reached down and drew her fingernails over the top of Luna's panties. Luna spread her legs wider and sd Selene on her bare ass. "Such a fast learner."

"Learn from the best, baby." Selene pulled the panties aside and teased up and down Luna's py with her finger between her clit and her opening.

Luna sd her again, this time much harder than the first but it sent shivers down Selene's spine. Selene let out a long satisfied sigh that made Luna sk her some more while Crew watched from the couch with waning patience.

Selene leaned down and spread Luna's py (because she loves eating out her mate a lot) before attacking it with her tongue and lips. Luna tried to get Selene to lie down so she could go down on her but she wouldn't have it. Unless Luna comes, she ain't getting any for herself.

She could see how much Crew and Luna wanted to make this whole thing about her. She doesn't want nicer treatment because she is late to the party or she is naive when it comes to the bedroom activities. She wants to learn every single thing to please her mates too.

Luna let out a shuddering breath at the feel of Selene's mouth. This could not be the first time Selene had put her mouth on a py. But she knew it was. She was just gifted with the way she sucked and with all those porns she had seen Selene watching, it makes sense.

"Did I tell you to eat my py, Selene?" Luna's voice shook as she watched Crew over Selene's ass hold onto his rock hard ck and start stroking it. They abandoned him along the way.

Selene's muffled voice said teasingly. "Did I ask?"

Luna sd Selene once, twice, and then a third time. Crew who was stacked naked and working his ck and balls himself groaned. Selene just licked and sucked harder. Luna pulled the top of Selene's red dress down and freed one on her own breasts.

Her ns were darker than Luna's, almost the same color as her flaring red hair. She twisted her ne with one hand and took her fingers to Selene's py with the other. Selene licked all the way down to Luna's ass and then back up.

Luna saw a light pulse in her vision as her py pulsed with a throbbing o*m under Selene's gifted lips. She shuddered, her stomach spasming at the feel of o*m close to her reach. Luna screamed and then breathed.

"You're learning extremely fast, Twilight." Luna said breathlessly as she continued to fight her o*m to make it last longer but she came in shocking waves of pleasure that made her see black for a second.

Selene spoke between licks while she moaned with Luna's fingers in her wet py. "Thank you, baby."

Luna pulled out her fingers and sd Selene hard enough to rock her whole body and shake her ts. "Go take care of Crew before he finishes on his own."

Selene leaned towards Luna and took her lips with hers in a tender kiss, her tongue exploring her mate's with love. She pushed her c*m deep into Luna's throat so she could taste herself.

Luna's fingers delicately traced Selene's cheek, and as their lips met, a soft, celestial energy seemed to envelop them. Time momentarily stood still, encapsulating the depth of their affection in that shared moment, beneath the moonlit canvas of their love.

Selene gave a few more soft licks before kissing Luna on her clit. She stood up straight and walked over to Crew naked whose eyes were darker than usual, pupils dilated with lust. He stopped touching himself and looked up at her.

There are emotions in his eyes that she didn't understand but it doesn't matter because right now, it is all about them. She will make them repay her but for now, she only wanted them to lose their minds.

They shouldn't tread carefully just because she is a novice. She won't be after tonight.

Luna tasted Selene on her fingers and then inserted them wet into herself. She pulled at her n*e with her other hand and said to Selene. "Make him c*m hard like you did to me."

Selene gave her a seductive smile then leaned forward and brushed her n*e over Crew's lips. He stuck out his tongue and licked, sucked like the vengeance of a starving infant. She brushed his mouth upward and he caught it between his lips to start sucking.

Selene let him and started stroking him with her hand aiming him up at her py. He drew the milk from her breast, lots of it, making her py tighten at the intense pleasure she felt. He did it again and again until she was almost close to cumming.

He was longer than Selene had seen the other, so the head of his ck ran through between the lips of her py and she gasped. Selene kept stroking him and teasing her py with his ck as she did it. Luna on the other hand fingered herself harder watching from the bed.

Selene pulled her breast from his mouth and knelt down. She licked her juices off the head of his ck and then worked her way down. Crew started thrusting and Selene accepted him into her mouth with each motion of his hips. Just like Luna taught her.

"Use your tits." Luna ordered breathily.

Selene pushed her bigger breasts up into Crew's lap wrapping them around both sides of his ck without losing it from her mouth at the same time. Crew didn't know which planet Selene came from but he is thanking his luck she landed in his grasp because fg hell.

Luna licked her lips as she pleased herself and watched. "fk her ts into her mouth, Crew. Do it."

He slid his ck into her mouth and then stroked it back out wet between her ts. Selene slobbered thicker onto his ck as she sucked him to lubricate between her breasts for him. She held them together on his ck by her ns as he thrust.

"fk him, Twilight. fk him now."
