

PREHISTORIC: NUWA'S FIRST DISCIPLE, THE MASTER WAS THE FIRST TO ESTABLISH A HUMAN RELIGION

Chapter 4 The Dao Disk Replica

Nuwa wanted to avoid it, but the stream of light seemed to have eyes, and the aura attached to it faintly revealed the aura of the avenue, making it impossible for her to avoid it.

In the end, the stream of light hit Nuwa blankly, sending her flying several feet before she could stop.

However, Nuwa also used this to hold down the guy who was attacking her.

"This is....."

Looking at the ink pan in her arms, Nuwa had some doubts in her eyes.

There is a faint aura of Taoism on this ink disk, and he is now a saint, but this thing can knock him back several feet, which cannot be underestimated.

But now when I look at the ink disk, there is no aura fluctuation at all. Only the pattern carved on the ink disk makes Nuwa more and more familiar with it.

After looking at it for a moment, an idea suddenly appeared in Nuwa's mind.

"Isn't this the Great Dao Pattern?"

Thinking of this, Nuwa took another careful look, and finally became more and more certain.

This must be the avenue pattern!

It's just that this millstone looks ordinary, so how can it be engraved with the avenue pattern?

Just as Nuwa was thinking about it, she suddenly received a message in her mind.

[Reproduction of the Great Dao Plate. ]

Nuwa was playing with the Dao Dao Pan in her hand, and when she was trying to study it clearly, a familiar voice suddenly came from inside.

"I report today that I received guidance from my teacher in the Imperial Palace of Wa. I am so grateful that I don't even shed tears!"

"Today is another wonderful day. Heiji has been upgraded to the ninth grade Qinglian. From now on, the speed of cultivation will be greatly accelerated!"

"It's so exciting to think that my cultivation speed has improved so quickly recently!"

"..."

Listening to this familiar voice, Nuwa couldn't help but move her brows.

Isn't this the voice of my disciple?

And listening to the content of these words, it seems that his apprentice is doing reporting work every day.

But what Nuwa didn't expect was that her apprentice was so diligent, and was actually doing the review seriously every day.

Moreover, his image in the mind of his disciple has reached such a high level.

Thinking of this, Nuwa couldn't help but feel a little emotional. No wonder Sanqing and the others like to have apprentices. It's really good to have a caring apprentice.

It seemed that he still had to help Lu Feng improve his cultivation. It would be better if he could find his innate spiritual root.

Just as Nuwa was thinking about how to find the innate spiritual root for Lu Feng, Lu Feng's voice suddenly continued to be heard again.

"I didn't expect that I actually got another twelfth-grade Chaos Green Lotus. I absorbed it directly and raised my heels to the level of the Innate Demon God's twelfth-grade Chaos Green Lotus!"

"I've been lucky lately. I keep picking up innate spiritual roots. But there are so many of them that it's hard to choose."

Nuwa was completely silent now.

Now she was wondering if she had heard wrongly.

Is the twelfth-grade Chaos Green Lotus so easy to obtain?

The key is that what Lu Feng said was so serious that she was a little shocked.

Moreover, according to Lu Feng, those innate spiritual roots are just like cabbage on the ground. Can they be picked up casually?

The key is that she has been out for so long without touching a single innate spiritual root. Why did Lu Feng pick up so many at once, and there happened to be a twelfth-grade Chaos Green Lotus among them?

You must know that the rarity of innate spiritual roots is second to none in the entire ancient world.

In addition, Lu Feng already had a spiritual root, so what he needed most was to absorb innate spiritual roots of the same origin to improve his heels.

It's just that the scarcity of innate spiritual roots has made it difficult for Lu Feng to improve his heels and feet, which has made his cultivation stagnant.

Nuwa also saw this, but even though she was a saint, there was nothing she could do about it.

After all, heels and feet have been determined since birth. As an acquired creature, it is almost impossible to become an innate creature.

The distinction between innate creatures and innate demons is even more clear.

Lu Feng was just a green lotus seed acquired the day before, but now he has directly broken through and become the twelfth-level innate demon god Chaos Green Lotus. How could this not surprise Nuwa?

Moreover, the improvement of heels and feet will naturally bring about breakthroughs in cultivation.

If Nuwa guessed correctly, Lu Feng's strength may have been greatly improved now.

I just don't know what kind of opportunity my stupid apprentice has encountered recently, which actually allowed him to have such a good fortune!

Thinking back on it, Nuwa had no idea about the opportunity Lu Feng had now. Instead, she was particularly interested in the reports Lu Feng made every day.

"Today is another beautiful day, but I have bad luck today and didn't pick up anything good."

"I had good luck today. I broke through from the early stage of Xuanxian to the middle stage of Xuanxian!"

"Sit back and wait for the teacher to come back. I will definitely surprise the teacher then!"

.....

Nuwa listened to what Lu Feng said every day, and the more she listened, the more surprised she became.

You must know that she had not been away for long, and Lu Feng had already broken through from the early stage of True Immortal to the middle stage of Mysterious Immortal?

I think that when Lu Feng first came to his sect, he had just transformed and practiced for thirty thousand years, but his cultivation was still at the early stage of a true immortal.

He had only been away for a long time, and Lu Feng had already passed through so many levels, all the way to the middle stage of Xuanxian.

It seems that the restraints on his heels and feet were quite strong before, but now that the restraints on his heels and feet have been released, Lu Feng's cultivation speed has naturally increased.

In addition, although Lu Feng's daily report was short, Nuwa could tell that Lu Feng was very diligent.

After all, if it were someone else who was lazy, how could he report his cultivation status every day?

Nuwa is only filled with joy now. Sure enough, she still has to accept a disciple, otherwise you won't know how wonderful it is to have such a worry-free disciple!

Just when Nuwa was thinking about whether she should go out to search for her innate spiritual roots again, Lu Feng's report popped up again.

Nuwa listened to the words one by one until she heard the last one of the day.

"I'm really lucky today. I actually picked up an Innate Spiritual Root Ginseng King. This is a great thing. After I absorb it, I may be able to break through from the peak of Xuanxian to Jinxian. I can finally give the teacher Let's fight for it!"

After listening to this long paragraph, Nuwa didn't know whether to be envious or relieved.

I have to say that my apprentice is really lucky!

It's so good that even his sage teacher is a little envious!

However, when her disciples were practicing, they had not forgotten their teacher, and Nuwa was quite pleased.

But soon, Nuwa suddenly raised her head.

"Wait a minute! He is only a Xuanxian now. This wilderness is so dangerous. Is it possible that he is still traveling outside?"

If this were not the case, how could one explain why Lu Feng picked up so many good things for nothing every day?
