

The Divorce Prescription

---- Chapter 783 Celine smiled and said, "I didn't leave." "Are you going to? Right now, not seeing you makes me think you're taking Bella and leaving me," Adam lamented. Celine stayed quiet. Adam continued, "I know you want to keep your distance so I won't suffer from the Heartstring Venom. But Celine, I'm scared of losing you and Bella more than the pain from that venom. "No matter what challenges come our way, we can face them together . Don't back down, okay? Don't leave me again. It's already been three years.

I can't go through losing you and Bella for another three years and then another." While listening to his confession , Celine raised her hand and pressed it against the door. Right now, she wanted to see him badly, but they had to keep speaking through the door for his sake. She smiled softly. "Adam, I promise you, I won't leave." No matter how hard life got, they would get through it as long as they faced it together. ---- Adam's lips lifted into a small smile.

"Celine, I've been waiting for you to say that." Outside the door, Nigel and Fiona were both moved as they watched them stand together through adversity. Nigel stepped forward. "Adam, we're partly responsible for what happened with the Heartstring Venom. But now that Celine is our goddaughter , you can rest easy. We're going to help you both." Adam froze. He didn't know Nigel and Fiona had made Celine their goddaughter. "Mr. Hampton, Mrs. Hampton, you and Celine..." Fiona smiled. "Mr. Alvarez , we both really like Celine, so we made her our goddaughter .

We're planning a formal gathering to announce it publicly. From now on, we'll love and cherish her like our own." Adam smiled, genuinely happy. He knew Nigel and Fiona would be great parents, and because Celine now had two more people to love her, he couldn't be more grateful. Nigel patted Adam on the shoulder. "Funny how things come full circle. You're still my son-in-law in the end, and I'm still your father-in-law." Then, something seemed to occur to him.

"But I remember you saying once that you'd never marry anyone from the Hampton family-" ---- "No!" Adam immediately cut him off, realizing he had just walked into his own trap. He quickly blurted out on the spot, "Nigel! Fiona!" Inside the room, Celine laughed. If it weren't for the Heartstring Venom, she and Adam would probably already be married by now. Nigel said, "Mr. Alvarez, it's a bit early for you to be calling us that. You should wait until you and Celine register your marriage." Fiona nodded. "We'll go with whatever Celine says.

You still have to pass her test first." The atmosphere was warm and light-hearted. Just then, Adam's face turned pale again. His head was throbbing. "Adam!" Nigel caught him quickly. Celine noticed it immediately from inside the room and worriedly asked, "Adam, are you okay?" Adam shook his head. "I'm fine." Celine paused to think. "Adam, we can't just keep reacting. We've got to stop playing defense and take control." ---- Nigel asked, "Celine, have you come up with something?" Fiona added, "You're always so sharp and full of clever ideas.

You must have a plan." Celine said, "Yeah, I think I do." "What is it, Celine?" Adam asked. "Adam, will you do what I ask?" "Of course." "Adam, marry Carly," Celine said.

---- Chapter 784. What did Celine just say? Outside the door, Adam, Nigel, and Fiona all froze simultaneously. Carly had returned with Anne. Even though Anne's involvement in Yoruzen witchcraft had been exposed, they didn't think they had lost. Carly said excitedly, "Ms. Warwick, do you really think Adam will marry me?" Anne took a leisurely sip of tea. "Of course he will. Just get ready to be a bride. I'm the only one who can neutralize the Heartstring Venom in his body." Carly clung to Anne's arm. "Ms. Warwick, you're always so good to me." Anne replied, "Carly, you're my daughter now.

Of course, I'll take care of you." Carly sweetly called out, "Mom!" In Carly's world, if someone treated her well or were useful to her, she'd call them Mom without hesitation. Just then, a maid rushed in. "Ms. Warwick, Ms. Hampton, ---- someone just delivered something." Anne looked up. "What is it?" The maid held out a gold-embossed invitation. "Ms. Warwick, Ms. Hampton, it's an invitation." Anne took it. "An invitation to what?" She opened the shimmering card. Carly leaned over to look, too, and both their expressions changed. The maid, visibly nervous, said, "Ms. Warwick, Ms.

Hampton, word is that Mr. and Mrs. Hampton have officially made Celine their goddaughter. The 15th of this month is a lucky date, and the Hampton family is throwing a formal banquet. "They've invited all the top elites in the Capitol. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton also sent an invitation... inviting the two of you to attend." Carly shot up from her seat, furious. "What are they trying to say here? They actually made Celine their goddaughter?" Anne's expression darkened.

Getting Carly to call her "Mom" was supposed to throw Nigel and Fiona off balance, but she hadn't expected them to immediately take Celine in as their goddaughter. This wasn't just a casual title. Celine was their actual ---- biological daughter. Anne said coldly, "I saw this coming. Nigel and Fiona always favored Celine. Even though they thought you were their daughter, their hearts were already leaning toward her.

"Now that they've made her their goddaughter, you'll be worthless to them if something goes wrong and they find out that Celine is actually their biological daughter." Carly felt her heart sink. She couldn't understand it. She had schemed so hard to become Nigel and Fiona's daughter. She had done everything to stop Celine from reuniting with them. But no matter what she did, Celine still managed to enter the Hampton family. If Celine's true identity were exposed, Carly's value would drop to zero. Carly sat down in disbelief. "No way! Last time, Nigel and Fiona already ran a DNA test.

They won't suspect anything again soon!" Anne nodded. "Then, we need to act fast. Since they've invited us, we're going." Carly nodded in agreement. "So what if Celine's their goddaughter now? She still can't be with Adam? We're still going to win." ---- Carly and Anne shared a look and smiled, full of malice. The recognition banquet was about to begin. The entire Hampton residence was lit up brilliantly, and all the Capitol's elites had arrived-wealthy, powerful, and influential. Tonight was the true stage for the social elite.
