

President 1131

Chapter 1131

After thinking about it, Leonel said directly, "Natalie seduced me that night!"

Natalie sneered.

She knew the meaning of the old saying, "An eye for an eye, and we all go blind."

"But I swear that I haven't seen her since that night. I have sworn to you that I would cut off relationships with other women! I told the truth. I was drunk that night, so I was seduced by her. Believe me, Sarah!"

Leonel immediately gave full play to his strengths and his words were filled with sincerity and regret.

Sarah looked at Natalie.

Natalie looked at Leonel with contempt and snorted, "You're not worthy of me seducing you. Don't forget that you deliberately touched my leg under the table without letting others know. You don't feel disgusted, but I feel disgusted even when I say it! You are good at lying!"

"You!" Leonel glared at her fiercely.

"Why are you looking at me with such a look? Do you feel uncomfortable because I expose your soft spot?" Natalie laughed loudly.

Sarah made up her mind not to believe their words. She wanted the truth. She didn't believe Natalie. Nor did she believe Leonel!

When Sarah returned to the Day family's villa, she found that Billy and Moriah weren't at home. Sitting on the sofa, she didn't want to leave.

Leonel explained to Sarah anxiously and wanted to take her away. But Sarah didn't pay any attention to him.

Leonel had no choice but to sit on the opposite sofa and wait.

Billy and Moriah came back with the materials in their hands.

Billy had stayed in his apartment recently without going out. He was haggard, bearded and unkempt in just a few days.

Moriah was worried about him, so she went to the apartment. Seeing her son in that state, she was so heartbroken that she took him back home directly.

"Is he the biological father of the child in Natalie's belly?" Seeing Billy and Moriah, Sarah pointed at Leonel and said directly.

Moriah froze. Seeing Sarah's pale face, she didn't say anything.

However, Billy said, "Yes."

Moriah pulled his arm, but it didn't work.

Leonel didn't expect Billy to tell the truth, so he froze.

Sarah immediately became angry. She picked up an ashtray beside her casually and smashed it at Leonel.

Leonel immediately dodged it. Luckily, he reacted quickly. Otherwise, his face would have been covered in blood.

"In the past, I hid it from you because you hadn't recovered. Now that you have recovered, you have the right to know the truth. You should get ready to divorce him now." Billy said.

Before Sarah could say anything, Leonel immediately said loudly, "I don't agree! I won't divorce Sarah!"

Billy sneered and stared at him coldly, "It isn't up to you. It's not your turn to interfere with our family discussion! As long as there is a woman, he will have sex with her. Do you think such a man is worth being together with for the rest of your life?"

Moriah said, "Yes. Think about it. If you can't forgive him, you should get a divorce."

Sarah was silent. Holding the coffee cup with her right hand, she seemed to be going to smash it on Leonel.

Chapter 1132

"That's all. In the future, you can choose to live a life you want to live."

After going back that night, Sarah said that she wanted a divorce. She felt that Billy was right. Since Leonel slept with Natalie at that time, she should get a divorce quickly.

Leonel disagreed and apologized to her. He said sweet words and almost knelt down to ask for Sarah's forgiveness.

Sarah was very determined. She called Leonel's father to explain the reason for the divorce and wanted to divorce Leonel as soon as possible.

When Leonel's father learned about it, he was very angry and beat Leonel up that night.

Leonel went to Sarah and begged for her forgiveness with his injury. But Sarah made up her mind, ignored Leonel's words, and also ignored Leonel's father's persuasion.

Leonel's father was furious and immediately decided to freeze Leonel's bank cards.

Leonel was going through a rough time. He was kicked out of the Gordon family's villa. He had no money and was unable to go to a hotel. Worst of all, Leonel could not use his car and had to wander the streets.

Faced with such a result, Leonel was resentful. He was filled with resentment and anger towards Natalie.

If it hadn't been for Natalie, he wouldn't be s o miserable. Leonel had a grudge against Natalie and swore that he would get back a t Natalie.

Although he had no money, he could still get others to help. Then Leonel made a phone call.

After Livia and Natalie went home, they just sat down and had a drink of water. Then the landlord came and said, "You can't live here anymore."

"It's late. Even if you want us to move out, you have to wait until tomorrow." Natalie said.

The landlord disagreed and told them that they had to leave in the shortest possible time. They could pack their things tomorrow, but they could not stay in the house anymore starting today.

They were at a standstill. At the moment the landlord was about to call security, Livia dragged Natalie away and left.

The landlord had already made his decision, and arguing with him would not change his decision. It was better for them t o leave. Then they went to the hotels, but n o hotel took them in.

Then they went to a hostel that Natalie had always disliked, but they were rejected too. They weren't even allowed to stay in an Internet cafe. The result was that the two of them had no place to rest in the middle of the night.

Wearing thin clothes, Livia and Natalie walked in the street. The cold wind blew. They hugged themselves tightly.

"What the hell is going on? We can afford to pay for the room, but the hotel didn't let us stay. It's really strange." Livia thought about it with a puzzled look and asked, "Did you offend someone?"

Natalie suddenly reacted when she heard what Livia said. She remembered the words that Sarah warned her when she left the court.

Was it time for revenge?

Natalie gritted her teeth and hatred rose in her heart. She would let Sarah suffer these humiliations!

They had nowhere to go, so they planned to go to a bar.

When they entered the bar, they ran into their former classmates. There were quite a lot of people. They were all drinking. When they saw Livia and Natalie, they waved at them.

Natalie and Livia walked over and sat opposite them. There was a full glass of wine in front of them. Natalie picked up the glass and drank it all.

This time, her classmates asked Natalie why she got divorced instead of flattering her.

"How much property did you get after divorcing Billy? I'm sure it's a lot of money, right?"

"The Day family is a well-known rich family. If you get less property, the Day family will lose face, right?"

Chapter 1133

Natalie said that she didn't take a penny!

"Why are you in such a hurry to distance yourself from this matter? Your money is in your pocket, and we won't grab it. Why are you so afraid?"

"That's right."

Natalie felt uncomfortable when she heard that. She just wanted to overturn the table directly, but she didn't do anything and just sat there.

"Don't think that you can change your fate and have no worries as long as you have married a rich man. See? Her marriage ended in divorce. By the way, how long was she married?" "Actually, her marriage didn't last long, only a few months."

"Her marriage fell apart in such a short time. Now she gets nothing else besides money!"

Natalie was about to lose control. This kind of feeling made her return to the moment when she was mocked by the crowd seven years ago. She felt a sharp pain.

Taunt, curse and scorn mixed into a poisonous needle that stabbed into the deepest part of her heart!

Unable to hold it any longer, she screamed involuntarily. Then she flipped the table over with her greatest strength. All the bottles on the table fell to the ground and were smashed into pieces. Some of the remaining wine flowed down and everyone's pants got wet.

"You're crazy!"

"What's wrong with you? Why are you irritated?"

"You are rich, but we aren't. You should pay for the wasted wine and the bill!" A man said to Natalie.

Some people were screaming, cursing, and their faces changed. Two women of them were sitting there and looking through their mobile phones calmly. Then they looked at each other and shouted, "What? Sherman will remarry!"

Those who were still cursing suddenly became interested in this news. "Who is she going to marry? Who will marry a woman who has divorced and who is kept as a mistress?"

All her classmates thought that Sherman was kept as a mistress. This news spread widely!

"Who will she marry? Haha, her fiance is a man that I'm eager to marry! He is handsome, wealthy, elegant and attractive!" The woman sighed and spoke melancholy.

Hearing this, everyone became more and more curious about who was Sherman's fiance. Was it necessary for the woman to say such words?

However, for Sherman's condition, no matter she would marry what a perfect man, the man couldn't compare with Billy.

After all, the Day family was a well-known noble in Santabaca. Only a few families could surpass the Day family.

Everyone thought so. The woman handed over her mobile phone, and everyone took turns to look at it.

They had to admit that her fiancé did have a good appearance. In this world, there were some things that could not be bought, such as nobility and temperament that came from inside out.

Even from the screen of the mobile phone, his elegant and cold temperament gave people a sense of alienation and oppression.

"It's not a rare thing. Don't forget that after the divorce, Sherman becomes a rich woman. She shared Billy's property equally. Even if it accounts for only 3% of the shares of the Day family, it's definitely not a small sum. Now, women and men can do whatever they want as long as they have enough money. It's not difficult to keep a man with money." A man said.

"Yes, it's nothing to get a divorce. Money is omnipotent!"

"Sherman's belly has grown larger so quickly. It seems that she has been pregnant for five months."
"I think so."

Chapter 1134 "Sherman is prettier now. The man she supported was pretty good."

The men were gossiping. Their words were full of admiration and jealousy.

The woman sneered, "It was impossible for such a man to be supported by a woman. Let me tell you something about his background."

The men shrugged their shoulders and said, "No need."

"You are so ignorant. Don't slander my prince charming!" The woman was so excited that she exclaimed, "Have you heard of CH Corporation? It was started by him. Its branches are in the UK, Athana, Norwood and Lanechett. His parents are important local officials in Norwood. He was born in a rich family. His grandpa was a state official before retiring. His brother is a police chief. How could such a man be supported by a woman?"

All of them were silent. Billy's family background couldn't be comparable to this man's.

"Is he from the Wright family? According to the news, it is the richest family in Lanechett." One man whispered.

The woman said, "Of course. It is a really famous and rich family. Sherman is so lucky. After she divorced Billy, she married a richer man. The title of 'the richest man in Lanechett' is shocking enough! It is said that some people are born to be lucky. Even if she divorced Billy, she could marry a better man. Sherman is indeed beautiful.

But many women are prettier than her.

Why aren't they as lucky as she is?"

Hearing her words, others sighed and felt envious of Sherman!

"But some people are too unlucky. Even if she married a rich man, they got divorced within a few months."

Natalie was originally very sensitive. Once she heard such words, she lost her temper.

She turned her head to look at that woman with sharp eyes, "What are you talking about?"

That woman wasn't afraid of her. They had conflicts before. The woman said angrily, "Well, I just feel sorry for some people."

"Don't pretend!" Natalie walked over quickly. Just as Natalie was about to raise her hand to slap that woman, that woman clutched her wrist and sneered, "Are you crazy? How dare you slap me?"

Others looked at the two of them silently.

In fact, everyone thought that Sherman was lucky. Since that woman had conflicts with Natalie before, she tried hard to make fun of Natalie.

Others thought that it was common for couples to get married and divorced, which was the same as couples in rich families. So they just felt sorry for Natalie.

But Natalie thought too much. She thought that everyone made fun of her like that woman!

She was so angry that her face turned pale and she even trembled!

At this time, Livia pulled Natalie's arm and told her to leave.

Natalie gritted her teeth and stared at that woman with sharp eyes.

Eventually, Livia was about to take her away. One of their classmates said, "She should have a rest. She doesn't need to pay for the wasted wine. We'll take care of it."

It was in a mess under the table, with broken bottles and spilled wine.

In fact, everyone just knew that she divorced Billy. No one knew why they were divorced, let alone something Natalie had done.

After saying goodbye to them, Livia took Natalie away. That woman sneered. Anyway, she finally vented her anger.

Walking down the street, Livia said, "Why don't you work in another city? Anyway, you need to move on with your life."

Natalie said, "No. I will never leave. I want to take revenge."

Livia said, "Your idea is impractical. You have no money or power. How can you take revenge?"

Natalie didn't listen to her. At this moment, Natalie felt that she was foolish in the past. She had thought that Kingsley's family background was no better than Billy's according to his car.

However, Kingsley was much richer than Billy.

If she had given up Billy and pursued Kingsley, she must have lived a happy life now.

But it was too late now. Kingsley was smart. If she pursued Kingsley now, he would definitely not pay any attention to her.

Livia added, "If you don't want to leave Santabaca, you should find a job first." Natalie said coldly, "Since Sarah has the ability to prevent me from finding a place to stay in, no company dares to hire me." Livia was speechless.

Chapter 1135

Livia didn't know what Natalie was thinking about. She didn't want to find a job.

She wanted to take revenge on those who hurt her.

It was impossible for her to live an ordinary life like an ordinary person!

She was already dirty. Before she married Billy, she had had sex with Dr. Zack. Now she didn't care about anything!

She wanted to get what she wanted with her body.

She had already changed into another person with evil thoughts.

In fact, it was just her fault. Other people didn't care about her. However, she thought that they were concerned about her and that they would be very happy if she lived a n unhappy life.

This was supposed to be her own illusion.

She didn't know what would happen if this continued.

Sherman packed up and planned to go home. Since she was going to marry Kingsley, she thought that she should tell her parents about it.

Coming back from the office, Kingsley hanged his suit jacket on his arm casually.

She asked, "Why are you in such a hurry?"

"I'll accompany you home..." He said gently, while stroking her belly with his big hand,"

I missed you so much today."

Sherman put her hands around his neck and said, "What about me?"

"I've been thinking about you every second..." He smiled tenderly.

"No kidding." Sherman frowned and smiled, "You were serious before. Why do you always say sweet words?"

"Don't you like it?" Kingsley asked.

Sherman smiled cheerfully, "I like it very much. Thanks to me, you've become so good at saying sweet words."

Kingsley twisted his eyebrows gently.

Sherman stretched out his eyebrows with her fingers and said, "You will be more handsome this way."

He immediately smiled, "Really?" "Yes. I like to see you smile like this. You'd better wear a white shirt. I heard that women have a fantasy about and special feelings for men who wear white shirts!"

"What fantasy?" He asked.

After thinking about it, Sherman said, "I don't know."

"Sex?"

"Your mind is getting unhealthy. Mr.

Wright wouldn't say such words. You've changed a lot!"

Kingsley laughed, "I've also heard that only when a man loves a woman will he make fun of her. If not, he doesn't love her so much..."

Sherman didn't know what to say.

When they returned home, Sherman told her parents that she was getting married. Both Berton and Mildred froze. They wanted to congratulate Sherman, but didn't say anything.

"Mr. Holmes, Mrs. Holmes..." Kingsley said lightly and politely, "If you want to hold the wedding in Santabaca, I will prepare for it in advance. If you want to hold it in Lanechett, please give me your information in advance and I will help you get your pass."

"Lanechett." Mildred said without hesitation. She had never been to Lanechett.

Kingsley nodded, "Okay."

Sherman was silent all the time. She had expected that Mildred would immediately agree. Afterwards, Mildred hurried to sort out her own information and that of Berton and other relatives.

Looking at her like this, Sherman frowned and felt a little disgusted.

Walking out of her home, Sherman said, "I didn't plan to hold it in Lanechett!"

"I was planning to have the wedding by the Aegean Sea in Greece. I know you want to go there." He always remembered what she said.

Sherman was surprised, "Are you crazy? It's too much of a waste of money. If we have the wedding by the Aegean Sea, many relatives and friends have to go there. Are you kidding?"

"Everyone has their own way of life. I became rich on my own. I should enjoy spending money with my beloved people. Since I have money, of course I want to help you fulfill your wish. This isn't a waste of money. I want to take it seriously.

I hope to make the wedding unforgettable for you. When our child is born, I will definitely give him the best things. A man earns money so that his beloved woman and children can spend it. If you don't spend my money, it will be meaningless."

Chapter 1136

"It's not an easy thing for me to marry a woman I love and have my own child in my mid-thirties. I want to give you the best, you know?"

Kingsley embraced Sherman, his jaw resting on her shoulder. He sighed softly with satisfaction.

Sherman closed her eyes and enjoyed his warm hug. She nodded her head and agreed, "OK, let's hold the wedding in Lanechett."

"Good." A smile appeared on Kingsley's face. It was hard to imagine that a mature man like Kingsley would smile brightly.

One didn't need to go through ups and downs to have a happy life.

Instead, after one suffered a lot, she could still meet her Mr. Right. Happiness was so simple.

Sherman was too lazy to move, so Kingsley carried her in his arms and kept walking forward without fatigue.

The result of this court session was no different from the last time and didn't solve the problem. A conjecture without evidence couldn't prove anything.

After another wasted day, Sarah did not intend to waste time and energy. Well, she didn't have any evidence.

When Sarah went to court today, Natalie looked at her strangely. Natalie's eyes were full of hatred.

After the court was dismissed, Sarah was about to leave. She didn't want to continue because it may not turn out the way she wanted. She would only be physically and mentally exhausted.

At the end of the court session, Sarah and Natalie walked out of the courtroom one after the other. Natalie suddenly accelerated her steps and stopped Sarah at the door.

Before Natalie could say anything, she saw Leonel waiting at the side.

Leonel looked like he hadn't slept all night. He looked very haggard and had a stubbly beard.

As soon as Leonel saw Sarah come out, he walked over with joy. He reached out his hands to grab Sarah's arms and said, "Sarah, have you forgiven me?"

Natalie stood aside and watched them.

Obviously, Leonel did this on purpose. He pleaded for a hundred times but could not impress Sarah.

Leonel held Sarah's arms tightly. What he grabbed now was not only Sarah's arms but also money. How could he let her go?

"I know you are forgiving me. I deeply reflected on myself last night. I was confused in the past, and I will definitely not make such a mistake again. I promise! Please think about it this way. I used to have a lot of women around me, but I only slept with Natalie once during that time. What's more, I was drunk at that time! I know you're angry with Natalie, so I've got back at her. She made you so angry. I won't let her feel better either!"

Natalie's eyes twitched, so it was Leonel who had brought her to this point!

Sarah wasn't moved by Leonel's words and said coldly, "When Natalie was Billy's wife, you could even sleep with her. Not to mention other women. You feel pleased about it, but I feel deeply disgusted. You make me sick! From this matter, I have fully seen your character. Stop talking nonsense! Please prepare the documents. We will go to the Civil Registry Office tomorrow to get a divorce."

Leonel shook his head repeatedly, pretending to be very sad at this moment.

Sarah refused to hear Leonel's words, but she couldn't shake him off, so she called the driver to tear Leonel away.

After that, Sarah got into the car and left.

When the car disappeared from sight, Leonel changed his expression and said in a low voice, "Damn it! Why is Sarah so proud? Even if we get a divorce, my father will help me in the end. I'm his son, his only son! " After thinking for a moment, Leonel suddenly became full of energy and swept away the previous dark and gloomy mood.

Chapter 1137

After Natalie heard it, a mocking sneer lifted the corners of her mouth. She felt speechless at such a man.

Following the voice, Leonel saw Natalie smiling. He then gave a flirty smile at her.

Anyway, he would end up getting divorced. Why should he bother to dwell on it? What mattered most now was ...

Natalie felt disgusted at Leonel. She cast a cold glance at him and left, expressionless.

Natalie was back in the place where she stayed for the time being. Livia advised her to find a job first. Staying at home all the time wouldn't work things out!

Natalie did not want to. She actually never thought about finding a job!

All she wanted was to revenge against all the people who had put her in this situation!

Even if she worked hard in a company, she could only get a pay no more than three thousand dollars. She could never be satisfied with that pay!

Besides, what could she do with that pay?

To get a dress or a bag? If she ran into her classmates, she would definitely be ridiculed by them again!

Natalie could not bear being stuck in such a pitiful situation. Moreover, the company may not hire her now and she was unwilling to be humiliated!

Natalie thought that she was not the one who lived that kind of life. Natalie always thought she was different from the ordinary girls, and she should lead a different life.

Livia felt helpless. Natalie wouldn't listen to her. All she had said to Natalie was in vain.

Livia told Natalie that she had a gathering to attend this evening and left. Natalie then stayed at home idling time away.

Natalie knew very well that she could not have her life go on like this.

She then took out the clothes she used to wear. Some of them were very nice. She looked either innocent or sexy or a bit seductive on them.

Natalie picked one and then put it on. She selected a bag and then set off to a nightclub.

The nightclub was the most bustling place at night, which was also the best choice of location for her.

The rule was very simple. Good observation, good manners, and good dresses were very important.

Sitting in the corner of the nightclub, Natalie was holding a glass of red wine. She gently swayed the glass and the wine left a beautiful trace on the inside surface of the glass.

At this time, a man walked in, who was tall, handsome, and gave off a noble aura. The clothes on him were fancy.

Natalie got her target, a man who was rich and more handsome than Billy. She had no reason not to target such a man.

The man who walked in wasn't anyone else but Luke!

After hearing the news that Kingsley was going to marry Sherman, Luke got emotional and furious. He was like balloon that might explode anytime.

Luke ordered a private room, intending to drown his anger in drinks, otherwise, he would explode soon.

Standing up, Natalie followed Luke upstairs.

Chapter 1138

Natalie had been in the fashion industry some time ago, so she knew luxuries. The watch on this man's hand was worth several million dollars.

Luke walked slowly with his hands in the pockets of his suit pants. Natalie suddenly had an idea.

She pretended to have something urgent and hurried towards upstairs with the phone in her hand. Wearing high heels, she ran very fast. When she crossed two steps, she fell down. But she happened to fall into Luke's arms.

Luke instinctively reached out to hold her.

Natalie was so scared and her face was pale. She patted her chest lightly and gasped, "Thank you very much."

Luke was very calm.

"Did you come here alone to drink?" Natalie said.

He didn't say anything. At this time, his phone rang. He picked up the phone and said, "Is there any news?"

After a while, he frowned, "Kingsley and Sherman will return to Lanechett tomorrow? When will they hold their wedding?"

After hearing that, Natalie said in surprise, "Sherman?"

Hanging up the phone, Luke looked at her and said, "Do you know her?"

Natalie sneered, "Of course. Something happened between us."

Hearing the hidden message of her words, Luke raised his eyebrows lightly and asked, "Shall we go for a drink?"

Natalie nodded without hesitation. She had wanted to talk to Luke tonight.

They went to a private room and ordered a lot of wine. Luke folded his legs and asked Natalie what happened between her and Sherman.

Natalie hated Sherman so much that she told Luke a lot.

Hearing what she said, Luke smiled slowly.

Natalie asked, "What is your relationship with Sherman? Why do you know each other?"

Luke said, "I don't know Sherman. Kingsley and I have been friends for many years." 'Since he and Kingsley were friends, his family background must be very powerful.'

Thinking of this, Natalie was excited.

Hearing that Natalie hated Sherman, Luke said, "Since she treated you like this, why don't you get back at her?"

Natalie was not stupid. She heard his extreme resentment towards Sherman and said, "How can I get back at her?"

"She seems to be pregnant." Luke said lightly.

Natalie shook her head. Anyway, four children had died because of her.

She was superstitious. She would definitely not deal with children anymore. Otherwise, she was afraid she would have nightmares.

"How about other ways? Don't worry about anything. I'll give you money. Just get back at her. I can give you no matter what you need. I'm just as sick of her as you are." Luke said.

After thinking about it, Natalie shook her head and rejected his offer.

She was not stupid. The Wright family was the most powerful family. Even if she could rely on a powerful person, she wouldn't be able to fight with them.

Chapter 1139

Natalie didn't trust Luke because he was on good terms with Kingsley. If something happened, Luke would definitely blame it on her, and then he could get out of trouble.

Furthermore, the people she wanted to take revenge on the most were Billy, Leonel, and Sarah.

Natalie knew she couldn't retaliate against Sherman because she couldn't afford the consequences!

After thinking for a moment, Natalie showed a smile on her face. She walked slowly to Luke's side with the most graceful posture to make intimate contact with Luke.

But Natalie was pushed away by Luke's strong force when her hips touched the corner of his coat. Luke smiled coldly and said indifferently, "Get out! NOW!"

Without warning, Natalie hit the table in a messy position, her abdomen hurting.

When Natalie walked out of the private room, her hand was still on her abdomen. She left awkwardly.

Natalie couldn't believe that she would be treated this way in front of a man. She had always been the focus of men's attention and had never been treated this way.

In the past, men were all around Natalie. But now, Billy was cold to her, so was Luke, and even that bastard Leonel did the same to her. Could it be that she really had no charm anymore?

Tonight, whether for the sake of money or to find a backer she could temporarily rely on, she had to find a man and sleep with him. Natalie couldn't believe that men didn't like her. It was unacceptable for her.

This time, Natalie used the same method as the previous time. She picked her target first. The man drove a Bentley and wore a suit. He looked a bit old and had a beer belly. He was ordinary but he was rich.

With some tactics, Natalie easily seduced this man. Undeniably, she felt comforted.

Although this man looked old and had a beer belly, it proved that she was still charming.

What happened next went well and they were going to the room. A friend, who came with the man, squinted at him while looking at Natalie with a meaningful and strange gaze.

Natalie did not care about the gaze. She knew that when a young and beautiful woman was with a man who was much older than her, others would look at the woman in this way. She didn't care now!

Before going into the room, Livia called Natalie and said, "Don't be stupid! You should live your life in peace. Come back soon! You will only be mocked by others temporarily."

After hearing Livia's words, Natalie quickly walked into the room. There was no way she could be laughed at by others.

Livia called Natalie again, but her phone had been turned off.

Sherman and Kingsley returned to Lanechett. The wedding was coming up and they were going to take wedding photos.

The living room of the Wright family was very busy at this time. Kingsley was sitting with Sherman in his arms while Cathy and Kingsley's grandpa were discussing the wedding.

They had a heated discussion. Sherman sat quietly on the sidelines while Kingsley peeled oranges for her, ignoring his mother and grandfather's arguments about the wedding dress.

"Why are you arguing with me? Sher loves me! She would accept my advice!" Kingsley's grandpa was not happy.

'Sher...'

Sherman was speechless.

Kingsley narrowed his deep eyebrows slightly as he said tenderly, "Grandpa, she loves me the most."

"Shut up." Kingsley's grandpa glared at Kingsley and then looked at Cathy with a smug look, "Sher gave me a gift. Has she ever given you one? Huh?"

"I haven't even received a gift from her," Looking at Sherman, Kingsley said deliberately.

Sherman took the orange and fed it to Kingsley with a smile on her face, "Stop it!"

"Do you hear that? So do what I say!" Kingsley's grandpa said domineeringly.

Cathy thought about it and said, "It's not a big deal. Then let's do what you say."

Kingsley's grandpa was satisfied.

Sherman and Kingsley selected the style of the wedding dress at the Wright family's villa.

The designer specially flew over from

Athana to take Sherman's measurements and discuss the wedding dress.

Sherman kept doing various poses according to the designer's requirements.

Kingsley asked with concern, "Are you tired?"

"Fine." Sherman replied, "It's just taking the measurements."

"It's true that it's just taking measurements. But you're pregnant now, so you're definitely tired. When it's over, I'll take you to rest." Kingsley said softly. He held Sherman's hand and kissed her tenderly.

There were many people in the living room. Sherman pushed him gently. Kingsley smiled softly.

Kingsley's niece, who was about fifteen years old, said enviously, "Uncle is so gentle! You weren't like this before!"

Chapter 1140

Kingsley's niece thought that Kingsley treated Sherman differently. He had never treated Merlin like that. Although he smiled at Merlin, he was somewhat aloof towards her.

Sherman returned to the room and went to take a shower. Kingsley was worried about her, so he followed her to the bathroom to help her.

Sherman had refused many times, but Kingsley was insistent. He was afraid that she would fall over.

He was considerate towards her. He took everything into account for her even though she hadn't thought so much. He was reluctant to see her feel uncomfortable. She had no appetite after she was pregnant. He frowned and felt annoyed for that. He was worried about her and thus stayed by her side all the time.

Sherman put on pajamas after she had a shower. Kingsley stayed in the bathroom and had taken off his suits.

He planned to take a cold shower.

It was dark outside. The white gauzes fluttered slightly. Sherman and Kingsley were sleeping soundly. They were a perfect match.

Suddenly, Sherman sat up and stroked her hair with her hands.

As time went by, her belly became bigger and Kingsley woke up more easily. As long as she moved slightly, he would notice.

He turned on the lights, narrowed his eyes and sat up. The silk pajamas fell from his body and revealed his strong chest. He asked, "What's the matter?"

Sherman bit her lip and kept silent.

Kingsley was shocked and asked, "What's the matter? Are you having a bellyache? Or something else? Honey, tell me. Speak slowly."

She shook her head, "I want to eat pancakes. I'm so longing for them that I even can't fall asleep."

Kingsley smiled. He pulled a wry face but said gently, "OK. I will buy pancakes for you. Wait for me on the bed."

Sherman looked at the watch and said, "It's 2 a.m. Where can you buy pancakes?"

Forget it."

However, he took his coat and suits and put on them quickly. He said as he smoothed the collar, "I'll be right back."

Sherman said, "Forget it. It's late. There is no need for you to do that."

Kingsley smiled gently. He tucked her in, took the keys from the dresser and kissed her. He said, "It's rare for you to have an appetite. I will buy them for you..."

He drove to look for pancakes in Lanechett at 2 a.m.

It was difficult for him to look for the pancakes. All the supermarkets had been closed.

He was reluctant to drive back, but all the stores had been closed. He had no other choice but to call his friends who were in Lanechett one by one.

He made calls to many friends. Only then did one of his friends say that he had.

Kingsley got his car started immediately.

At 3 a.m., Kingsley disturbed his friends for pancakes. The friend teased him. Kingsley smiled brightly, "My wife wants to eat..."

The friend said with a smile, "Pregnant women will be like that. Sometimes they will want to eat something eagerly."

Kingsley smiled and thank his friend. Then he left with the pancakes.

Luckily, his friend had fresh pancakes.

Sherman felt dozy and couldn't keep awake. She looked at the watch. It was 3 a.m., but Kingsley hadn't come back.

It was difficult for him to look for the pancakes early in the morning. The stores and supermarkets all had been closed.

Where could he get pancakes?

She frowned, took out her phone and wanted to call him.

As soon as she held the phone and was about to call him, the room door was pushed open suddenly. Kingsley walked in. He hadn't changed his shoes or taken off his coat yet. He walked towards the bed, sat down, unwrapped the exquisite packing and handed her a piece of pancake. He said, "Here are you..."

Sherman blinked her eyes in surprise. She asked, "It's early in the morning. Where do you get them?"

She didn't expect him to get them!

He said, "I call one of my friends. Luckily, he has pancakes." Then he took off his coat, hung it on and walked out. When he returned, there was a glass of warm water in his hands. He handed it to her and said, "Drink some water in case you will choke..."

She nodded and took the glass of water from his hands. The temperature of the water was proper. She drank the water as she ate the pancake happily.

Kingsley sat beside her and saw the scene. He felt extremely satisfied. He had never had such a feeling before.

Sherman thought that she hadn't eaten such delicious food for a long time. She ate two pieces of pancakes in a row.

She was a little anxious. There were some crumbs left on her lips. He smiled, held her face and wiped her lips with his fingers gently.

She was touched by his gentle moves. She looked up and met his gaze. His gaze was deep, gentle and affectionate.

It was as deep as the sea that she couldn't see the bottom. It was choppy and filled with gentleness. She felt she was being dragged into a whirlpool of emotion, and she couldn't get rid of it. He was sparkling in her eyes.