

President 1341

Chapter 1341

Her indifference finally enraged Luke.

However, he could do nothing with her.

She was determined to refuse him.

His chest heaved violently. After a moment, he calmed down. He wasn't the person who could control his emotions before. If he lost his temper, a dozen people couldn't defeat him.

"Have you had enough? If not, I'll go and buy some more. By the way, what do you want to eat at noon? I'll buy it for you."

Luke would have gone up the wall if she had treated him like that before.

How could he say this to her with such a gentle look?

Eileen lowered her eyes.

She closed her eyes. When she opened them again, she looked calm.

"The caregiver will bring it for me from the canteen, so I won't trouble you. I almost forgot to thank you. "

Her polite words easily distanced herself from him.

Luke clenched his hands hanging at his sides. He wanted to say something but finally didn't.

He was struggling to keep his temper!

He left, leaving Eileen alone in the ward.

The window was opened by the nurse. The ward was located in a good position. She could see the green lawn and the glistening lake.

Staring blankly out the window, she was in a trance. Her mind wandered.

A few minutes later, Eileen left the ward and went to the doctor's office.

"I think you can have the first course of chemotherapy as soon as possible. Let's start after your cold is gone."

"Okay."

After thinking for a while, Eileen asked, "Is the success rate high?"

"I'm not sure. It depends on your condition. It's not very good. After all, you're not in the early stage of cancer," the doctor answered.

Eileen was silent.

She knew that though the doctor didn't put it bluntly, he implied her situation was bad.

"Take care of your body and have enough rest. Don't catch another cold and come for chemotherapy in two days."

The doctor admonished her again.

She asked the caregiver to bring her lunch from the canteen.

Just when she was about to eat, Brandy came in.

Carrying a lunch box, he said with a smile, " Mr. Bennington asked me to bring it here."

Eileen said she had bought lunch and couldn't eat so much. She advised Brandy to eat it.

Hearing this, Brandy smilingly came over.

When she was not looking, he snatched the lunch box from her hand and began to eat. " I haven't eaten lunch, so I won't stand on ceremony. Since this is the nutritious meal that Mr. Bennington specially prepared for the patient and I'm not sick or injured, I'd better not eat it."

If Mr. Bennington knew that the nutritious meal was eaten by him, he would throw a tantrum.

Eileen was lost for words.

In the afternoon, Luke went to pick up Brad from school and then drove him to the hospital.

"From now on, you'll live with your mom. Once the clothes and the other things are packed, I'll bring them to you."

"Why?" Brad was eating chicken. He gasped and his face was red because it was spicy.

"Your mom can't walk and she is ill these days. I'm not at ease without someone looking after her," Luke replied, turning the wheel to the left.

Chapter 1342

Brad nodded and said, "I'll take care of Mom!"

"I have to warn you about one more thing!"

Luke narrowed his slender eyes and said in a deep voice, "You have to support me this time! Got it?"

"Got it!" Brad answered quickly.

After hearing Brad's answer, Luke said with satisfaction, "Actually, it's good to have you and your mom together."

Brad tilted his head and looked at Luke in confusion.

■What is the benefit of that?'

"If you stay with your mom, you are like the radar I put next to your mom. In other words, you are my spy."

"I can know what's going on with Ruben and your mom as soon as possible.

Besides, you will call me first when your mom is in trouble, then I can help your mom in time just like this time."

Luke had his own thought. He believed that women were easily moved by getting timely help.

Hearing what Luke said. Brad rubbed his head and asked, "Am I a traitor?"

"No, you are a spy." Luke said with a smile.

Luke seemed proud to have Brad as a spy.

Brad thought it was funny to be called a spy.

After thinking for a moment, Brad patted Luke's shoulder and said, "Dad, I can help you with all my might, but whether you can be with Mom or not depends on your own efforts. However, I don't think you're gonna make it."

Luke immediately narrowed his eyes.

Brad said quickly, "Dad! Focus on driving! I'll definitely support you!"

After parking the car in the parking lot, Luke seemed to think of something. He leaned forward to take out a packing box and handed it to Brad. "Take this to your mom later."

"Dad, aren't you going upstairs?"

"I have a very important meeting this evening, so I won't go into the ward. Call me whenever you want something to eat or use. If I can't answer the phone, then call Brandy." Luke added.

Brad nodded his head and asked deliberately, "Can I call Mr. Lyall? I have his number on my phone too."

"Do you want to be punished today?" Luke glared at Brad and said, "Never call Ruben Lyall, okay?"

Brad covered his mouth and nodded, "Dad, it's wrong for you to punish me for something like this!"

Ignoring Brad's words, Luke glanced at him and asked, "Who should you call?"

"Brandy." Brad said with a long, trailing voice.

"Okay." Luke stroked Brad's head gently and said, "Well, you should go now. I'm gonna go."

Eileen didn't want Brad to stay in the hospital, but she had no choice because Brad didn't want to leave.

She stayed in a suite with a TV and another bed for Brad to sleep on.

After dinner, Brad sat at the coffee table to do his homework. When Brad opened his school bag, he happened to see the packing box in his school bag. He took it out and gave it to Eileen.

Eileen stared at it curiously and had no idea what was inside. She thought it was a gift from Brad.

Brad shook his head and said, "Actually, it's a gift from Dad."

After saying that, he returned to the coffee table and continued to do his homework.

Brad had a lot of homework!

Eileen did not intend to open the packing box because she would not accept a gift from Luke, but she inadvertently saw the word 'photo album' on the packing box.

Could it be that Luke sent over a photo album?

Eileen had nothing to do now and was a bit bored. So she decided to unpack the box after hesitating.

What Luke sent over was exactly photo albums. There were two albums, each of which was very thick.

Chapter 1343

With intense curiosity, Eileen opened the photo albums. She found that all these photos were taken when they were in the canyon.

She was a little surprised and also astonished when she saw these photos.

When did he take so many photos?'

In the beginning, Eileen found many photos of Brad, who was either playing around or laughing. Some others were taken when he was splashing water or collecting leaves. Brad was smiling so wide at that time.

When turning over this page, Eileen spotted there was a sentence at its bottom,"

I hope he can always be so happy and smile like this. Luke."

She recognized that it was indeed Luke's handwriting.

His handwriting was just like his character, wild and profound.

Eileen's heart seemed to start beating faster. She continued flipping through the album and saw a photo of her.

The photo was taken when she was sitting on a rock after she twisted her ankle. And her eyebrows knitted together in pain.

Luke had teased her, which annoyed her even more. She was then glaring at him with a scowl on her face.

As Eileen turned over this page, she found there was a sentence at its bottom too.

"Before the divorce, she was afraid of expressing herself in front of me. I want her to be herself around me without reservation."

Eileen's heart couldn't help but tremble. And she bit her lips slightly.

Eileen saw more photos as she continued turning over the album, and most of them were taken when Luke was carrying Eileen on his back.

She had never really seen his expression until this moment when looking at these photos.

His thin lips slightly curled. There was a soft look on his handsome face. It seemed that he was beaming all the time.

Women had always loved gifts from men.

Even if the gift wasn't so expensive, women would always love and cherish it as long as it was prepared carefully by men.

There were many photos of them, in which they had various poses and looks.

There was even a photo of her when she was tired and yawning on his back.

At this moment, Eileen found herself really loving these two albums. She loved this gift from him.

But she only loved the albums!

In Luke's house.

Luke was also flipping through the photos.

These photos were taken by one of his staff. Luke had told the staff to film them when they were in the canyon.

Luke was deeply touched when he saw the photos of Brad taken by Eileen, and that was why he chose to go to the canyon.

When flipping through these photos, Luke no longer felt lonely, and he felt happy on such a quiet night.

He had asked Brad to bring over these albums, so Eileen could have seen these photos too.

Then how will she feel and what looks she will have on her face when she sees these photos?'

Luke was so curious that he couldn't help imagining it, but he couldn't picture her look and response at this time.

He thought that she would be happy!

He smiled and felt that his world became bright.

The next day, Luke did not go to the company. Instead, he put on casual clothes and drove to the hospital.

When he got to the hospital ward only to find Eileen's ward was empty.

The caregiver who came to clean the room told him that the patient had been discharged.

When Luke heard this, his face hardened immediately.

Why hadn't he received a call from Brad? Why hadn't they told him that Eileen had been discharged?

Without staying there any longer, Luke returned to his car and drove fast toward the apartment.

As soon as he drove to the front of Eileen's apartment, he spotted that a man's car was parked there.

Chapter 1344

Luke was so angry that he lifted his foot and directly kicked the tires.

However, he was no match for the tires. The tires didn't move at all but his toes hurt. He couldn't hold his anger and cursed, "Damn it!"

He strode up the stairs.

The room door was opened by Brad.

As soon as he saw his father, Brad scratched his head and explained the situation to him, "When I woke up, I was already home. I don't know anything."

Luke raised his eyebrows and walked into the room.

Eileen sat on the bed. Ruben gave her a glass of water and put away her luggage.

With anger in his chest, Luck felt extremely uncomfortable.

Especially the moment he saw Ruben, he couldn't hold his anger, "Why didn't you tell me that you were discharged from the hospital?"

Eileen looked up at him. "Why should I tell you?"

"Then why did you tell him?" Luke pointed at Ruben.

"That seems to be my freedom. I have no obligation to report it to you."

Hearing this, Luke became furious. He asked again, "Why did you tell him about the discharge? Why not me?" "You have to tell me the reason."

Eileen stared at him, and her eyes were clear.

"Of course!"

Luke couldn't stand such a result.

"Well, let me tell you, I promised to date Ruben this morning. Now he is my boyfriend, and you are nothing to me. Are you satisfied with this reason?"

Staring at him, Eileen said word by word.

At this moment, Luke was shocked and his eyes dulled.

He thought that after the incidents in the canyon and last night, everything was heading in a good direction.

But he didn't expect that it would be a head-on blow!

His entire body was burning, and he felt uncomfortable all over his body. He directly said to Ruben, "I want to talk to her alone."

"Yes, but there is a time limit. She is my girlfriend now, and you have feelings for her. If you stay together for too long, I will feel uncomfortable."

"So you only have a very short time. If you can't finish it, then I won't let you continue."

Ruben smiled faintly. Then he took a deep look at Eileen and turned to leave with

Brad.

While he was speaking, Luke's knuckles were creaking.

If he said another word, Luke's fist would definitely land on his face!

Recently, his emotions were constantly suppressed and restrained.

If he lost his temper, it would naturally be powerful. Ordinary people wouldn't be able to withstand it at all!

Therefore, it was best for Ruben not to say another word, otherwise the consequences would be unimaginable!

The room became quiet.

Luke stood there without saying a word.

If he hadn't been standing opposite her, Eileen would have thought that she was the only one in the room. His breath was too light, and she couldn't feel it sometime.

Eileen didn't like such a situation.

If he lost his temper, she could remain calm. However, he was so quiet and silent that she couldn't figure out what he was thinking.

She was a little flustered and a little confused.

However, this feeling did not last long and dissipated in a moment.

Faced with him, she needn't panic.

Chapter 1345

Thinking about it this way, Eileen calmed down.

She sat upright and looked up at him quietly.

Suddenly, without warning, Luke said, "Did you get what I asked Brad to bring to you last night?"

Hearing this, Eileen froze.

She hadn't expected him to say this at all. After she had frozen, she nodded.

"Have you seen all the photos?" Luke added.

She said yes in a low voice to show that she had seen them all.

"Do the photos make you feel anything?"

Eileen's drooping eyes glittered slightly, and she said something against her will calmly and indifferently, "No."

Luke was breathing fast and his chest was heaving up and down. His face was dark, like a dark cloud. He looked very sullen.

"I have answered all your questions. If there is nothing else, please leave," Without looking at him again, Eileen picked up her glass and sipped the water.

His temperament was too wild, sharp and compelling.

She could no longer be in the same place with him. It was too depressing for her.

Compared with his aura, she must be no match for him.

However, Luke was very persistent at this time. He stared at her lovingly and said, "Are you sure you can't feel my love? Aren't you touched at all?"

When he prepared the present for her, he was strangely moved. It was a strange and wonderful feeling.

Perhaps she didn't know how he felt when he prepared the present.

This time, Eileen avoided his eyes. She no longer looked at him but looked directly at the window and answered coldly, "No."

Luke felt so upset that he breathed fast.

Suddenly the atmosphere in the room was very cold.

Luke raised his long legs, strode over and stood in front of her, looking down at her.

Eileen could feel him approaching her because his breath was on top of her head, and she could feel the warmth of his breath on her scalp.

Then Luke squatted down and put his hands firmly on her shoulders. He asked, "Tell me. Are you sure you don't feel anything?"

"I've already told you the answer. There is no need for you to ask again."

Eileen didn't look him in the eye as she said this.

"But I don't believe it. Look me in the eye and tell me. Are you sure you don't feel anything?"

Eileen said, "You're really annoying. I've told you that a million times. No, I don't feel anything. Even though you are not tired of it, I think that it is annoying."

"In addition, you don't love me. It's just that I built my life around you before, and you were used to it. Now all of a sudden, I'm cold to you, and you can't adapt to it."

"So the habit is a terrible thing."

"Besides, you have always been domineering and possessive. When you see another man chasing me, you can't help but want to get back what belonged to you before."

"Luke, I'm a person, not a thing."

"You love Zora, not me. And do you fully understand that whether you love me or just want to possess me?"

Luke's face was dark, as if his face was coated in dusty dust. His hands on her shoulders were loosening gradually.

At that moment, the door of Eileen's apartment was opened.

Ruben walked in with Brad and said, "Haven't you finished talking yet? Brad and I were kind of bored hanging out." "It has been finished," Eileen made a quick excuse and said.

Chapter 1346

"You said that you wanted to have a burger when you were in the hospital, so I and Brad bought it for you. Have a try before it gets cold".

Ruben came up to Eileen and intentionally pushed Luke away with his shoulders.

Being hit violently on the shoulders, Luke subconsciously moved aside, standing here and staring at them.

Luke was so furious. Nobody would feel comfortable under such a gaze.

"Aren't you gonna leave, Mr. Bennington? You seem to be late for work. Are you still expecting me to walk you out?" said Ruben as if he was the host.

However, Luke was very grumpy and didn't give it a shit. He said to Ruben in a cold voice, "Don't behave like this before me; otherwise, you shall be responsible for any consequence."

Ruben shrugged and carelessly smiled, "Is there anyone saying that you are ill-bred?"

After hearing that, Eileen immediately looked at Luke whose face was extremely cold just as she had expected.

However, when Eileen thought Luke would lose his temper, he lightly patted Ruben's chest and made a cold smile.

"Many people have said that, but I don't care. I have always been ill-bred, so you'd better not piss me off."

Luke lost his parents when he was young, and he was bad-tempered at that time.

He was called a villain for being irritable and grumpy.

Also, he always fought with other kids. During the fight, he was as fiercest as a lion.

Naturally, other kids' parents thought Luke was ill-bred because he lost his own parents. This was what Eileen heard from Merlin.

Ruben obviously reached Luke's bottom line. So, she worried so much that Luke would lose his temper.

Suddenly, Brad gently pulled Luke's sleeve and said, "Dad."

With the lovely voice, the anger emanated from Luke gradually faded away.

While he was repressing his emotion, he got a call from his assistant. He picked it u p and then left.

Ruben was still there in Eileen's room.

Suddenly Eileen felt exhausted and said," Ruben, please go back to your company. I a m fine."

"Are you sure?" Ruben was still worried about her.

Eileen firmly nodded, "Yes. Besides, I got Brad here. I am totally fine and thank you for pretending to play the show with me."

Luke was someone with high self-esteem. He would never go back after all these.

"My pleasure," Ruben smiled.

While Ruben left, Eileen went to the bathroom.

In the room was only Brad. He touched his head, took out his cell phone, and then called his dad. Shortly after the call was answered. He said, "Dad."

Luke was on the verge of losing his temper, which made everybody silent and scared. H e replied, "What is it?"

"I feel very sorry for you. Mom's heart was won by someone else before I could do anything to help."

To be honest, he was quite sad when seeing his dad walk away like that.

Luke was less angry, "Huh, it is good that you realized it. Has that man left?"

"Yes."

Brad scratched his head and hesitated about something.

He thought over and said, "Dad, I feel like you got no chance because Mom is truly willing to date Mr. Lyall."

It was silent over the other end of the phone.

Brad licked his lips and tried calling Luke,"

Dad, are you still there?"

"Yes."

Chapter 1347

Luke responded, "Your mom waited for me for eight years. Now she and Ruben are only dating each other. They haven't got married. I still have the opportunity to win your mom back."

Brad said, "Then I'll be a good spy this time. Although Mr. Lyall is very good to me, I still hope you can win!"

Eileen heard Brad talking intermittently in the bathroom.

When he walked out, she asked, "Who are you talking to?"

Brad answered that he talked to his classmate.

In the company.

Luke was in low spirits all day and he didn't even give a smile.

But he kept comforting himself. As he said to Brad, Eileen and Ruben hadn't got married.

She persisted for eight years in making him love her. How could he easily give up winning her back?

Though he comforted himself this way, he still felt disappointed and unhappy.

Standing up, he took the suit casually and went to the bar.

The night was getting darker but the nightlife had just begun. Luke didn't know when he started to dislike the noise in the bar. So, he ordered a private room to drink i n.

Drinking alone was ultimately boring. He drank two bottles, after which he asked a bartender to call a driver to take him home.

This time, Rosaria was waiting outside the gate.

During the period when Luke did not see her, she was alone and bored, so she found a boyfriend.

Though the man looked good, he was not good at all.

Knowing that she had a check, he tried every means to trick her out of the money. She rushed to ask for it. But the man didn't give the money back to her and she almost got beaten.

She understood this fully!

There were numerous men in the world but only Luke could treat her so well.

The car stopped in front of the villa.

She immediately greeted him in a pitiful and careful tone, "Hi, Luke."

Luke drank some wine and he couldn't see clearly.

Upon finding this, Rosaria quickly ran over to encircle his arm with both hands.

Though he was a little drunk, he was still conscious. Staring at her fixedly, he narrowed his eyes and said, "Follow me."

Hearing this, Rosaria smiled with joy. She followed him into the villa.

Luke wanted to test whether he would feel aroused for other women except Eileen.

Luke sat on the sofa.

Rosaria immediately poured him a glass of water considerately. "Drink some water."

Without saying a word, he suddenly stretched out his hand to grab her wrist. He was moving his body near hers little by little.

Rosaria flushed with shyness but she was a little excited.

'He has never touched me before. How...'

His face was approaching hers little by little. And the distance between him and her was getting closer and closer.

She could smell the masculine scent of him. It smelled nice and charming.

She was looking forward to and excited about what would happen. Rather, she even couldn't wait for that thing to happen.

She used to feel scared for Luke, but now she didn't feel that way anymore.

It seemed that a woman had to have some bad boyfriends before she could find the best man.

The distance was getting closer and closer. And she could clearly see his handsome face, prominent nose, and charming thin lips.

It was said that men with thin lips were not affectionate.

In her opinion, it was not true. Luke was obviously more affectionate than anyone else.

When the nose tips of the two touched and their lips were about to touch, Luke stopped suddenly. He stared at her eyes.

Rosaria dared not move. Being stared at by him, she felt a little embarrassed and shy.

'At this time, why is he still thinking about other things?'

Chapter 1348

Sometimes, if a woman became more active, the man would feel aroused more quickly.

Thinking of this, Rosaria moved forward and raised her head, as she wanted to kiss Luke.

Just when her lips were going to be pressed on his lips, Luke pushed her away and stood up.

Rosaria was slightly startled, and she felt a little uncomfortable.

Luke was pulling the tie and unbuttoning his shirt. "Go out. Don't come here again."

Rosaria was stunned, lying still without moving.

"No matter how much you look like her, you're still not her. What happened to her has been haunting me for many years. The more often I see you, the more annoyed I get. Don't come here in the future. Don't let me see you again!" Luke uttered coldly.

After Zora's death, as long as he touched another woman, the woman's face would become Zora's miserable face in his mind.

Over time, he lost interest in women.

Though Luke had no interest in Eileen, she was an exception.

For the first time, he got drunk and slept with her. But later, he had sex with her because of hatred!

It was precisely because of hatred that his mind became clearer, as he was able to see who the woman under him was, and he could completely forget Zora.

Rosaria wanted to get closer to him, but was pushed away by him. "I said very clearly. Leave now and don't annoy me!"

Rosaria didn't dare to provoke him, so she had to walk out of the villa.

She couldn't afford the consequences of infuriating him.

Luke raised his head, panting heavily.

As Eileen asked, why did he want to win her back? Was he possessive of her or was there another reason?

Taking a deep breath, Luke exhaled slowly.

He closed his eyes to calm himself down.

He needed to know the reason for his abnormality during this period...

It was quiet, except for the sound of the water and his breathing.

The water was very cold, but it could make him calm.

He gradually calmed down and began recalling what had happened recently. Eileen left him and spent much time with Ruben. Every time seeing her and Ruben stay together, he got annoyed. He seemed to find out the reason for his abnormality.

Suddenly, Luke opened his eyes, with his Adam's apple rolling.

He found the reason. But it was shocking.

It turned out that he was attracted by her, and he cared about her...

He thought about what had happened again. When did he start to care about her? It should be the day when he stood behind the tombstone and heard the words she said to Merlin.

He was touched by Eileen that night and began to care about her, though he hadn't loved her...

Taking a deep breath, he sat up and rubbed his brows with his big hands. But his breathing became faster.

Brad was sitting at the table.

In the kitchen, Eileen was cooking dinner.

After thinking about Luke, Brad lowered his head and continued to do his homework.

The dinner was noodles.

In the afternoon, Eileen, Ruben, and Brad went to the supermarket to buy a lot of things.

"Brad wants to eat ham sausages. How about making some?" Ruben asked.

Eileen nodded and answered, "Okay."

Ruben helped her and wanted to have a meal, so she had no reason to refuse him.

She was cooking the noodles while Ruben was cutting the ham sausages into thin slices. Then he walked towards Eileen, as he planned to plunge the slices into the pot.

Eileen just remembered that she hadn't cut onion, so she turned around to prepare the onion. Unexpectedly, the two bumped into each other, and she fell into his arms.

The distance between them was very close, and they could smell the fragrance emanating from each other.

Eileen didn't look at him. She took a step back and turned around to stir the noodles in the pot. Afraid that Ruben said something, she spoke, "Brad seems to be hungry. Let's speed up."

Ruben stood up straight and shrugged his shoulders, as if nothing had happened. "Okay."

After dinner, it was very late.

Ruben had to leave, but Eileen did not accompany him downstairs.

After Ruben left, she felt at ease, as she was not as nervous as when he was here.

Feeling a little bored, she looked around the room, and her eyes fell on the two albums. Then she took them and began to see the photos. The albums were given by Luke.

Chapter 1349

The conversation with Luke reappeared in Eileen's mind again. 'He is so stubborn and determined!'

Realizing that she was thinking about Luke, Eileen shook her head and watched the album.

The next day.

Early in the morning, Eileen went to the hospital.

The doctor said, "Are you ready?"

Eileen nodded. "Ready."

Kirsten held Eileen hand tightly.

"The medicine has already been prescribed. Go to the ward. I'll treat you with chemotherapy medicine shortly."

"Okay."

The doctor was afraid that Eileen would vomit, so she let Eileen take antiemetic in advance, and then she started the infusion of four drugs.

At first, Eileen was still a little nervous.

However, when the needle was propelled into her hand, she became calm.

Kirsten accompanied her all the time.

By the time the infusion was over, it was noon.

The minute Eileen and Kirsten walked out of the hospital, a car stopped beside them." Get into the car."

Eileen looked up.

It was Ruben.

"Why are you here?" "I visited a friend at the hospital. What a coincidence. Get into the car. I promised to play with Brad today." Ruben said.

Eileen declined. "No. Thank you."

"It's going to rain soon. It's not easy to hail a taxi, and I just happen to be going to your place."

Eileen still wanted to refuse, but Kirsten had already said first, "Thank you."

"You are welcome."

Eileen and Kirsten got into the car.

Kirsten's eyes were like radar, scanning Eileen.

As expected, after a while, it started to rain heavily.

Seeing Brad, Ruben said, "I've prepared the ingredients. Let's have a barbecue. I said that I would invite you to a big meal yesterday."

Brad was stunned. "I just said it casually, M r. Lyall."

'I just said it casually. Why did Mr. Lyall take it seriously?'

'I cannot do so in the future.'

'But Mr. Lyall is very scheming. In order to chase my mother, he even uses me!'

"But I'm not a casual person. Let's go together."

Eileen was not in the mood to have a barbecue. "Take Brad there. I won't go.

Drive him back early."

Now that Eileen had cancer, it was not appropriate for her to take Brad by her side.

Ruben suggested, "Let's go together."

Eileen still refused.

For a time, it was a little embarrassing.

Kirsten said, "Eileen, let's go together. Don't you worry that he alone takes after Brad?"

Eileen had to go.

And Kirsten went together.

When Brad sat in the car, his phone was vibrating.

He clicked on it and read the text message. It was from Luke. "What are you doing now?"

Brad replied, "Mr. Lyall takes me, Mom, and Aunt Kirsten to have a barbecue."

Luke only woke up after drinking, and he still felt groggy.

But reading the text message sent by Brad, he immediately became sober and cursed under his breath.

'It is raining so heavily. Is Eileen not afraid of falling?'

After thinking about it, he quickly typed out a line of words.

"You've got a task now, my little spy. Stand between them. Don't let them touch each other. You are the shield between them. Do you understand it?"

Chapter 1350

'I know.'

Then Brad replied, "We're going to have a barbecue. No texting!"

Luke's improved mood became bad due to Brad's message.

'Brad likes eating so much. Does he still remember the task that I gave to him?'

The more he thought about it, the angrier Luke became. In a rage, he threw his suit pants to the ground and rubbed his hair with his hands. Cursing under his breath, he entered the bathroom.

After a while, he sent another text message to Brad. "Where are you having the barbecue?"

Brad replied, "Dad, don't come here. I'll be a traitor if you come. How should I explain to Mom and Mr. Lyall? I'm embarrassed! How about coming here after we finish the barbecue?"

Luke flipped out. He sent a long message to Brad, who gave him the address in the end.

Luke asked Brandy to find a set of barbecue tools and then drove to where Brad and Eileen stayed.

Luke galloped all the way to the destination.

As expected, Ruben, Eileen, Brad and Kirsten were grilling meat.

Brad was happily eating the roasted mutton.

As soon as Brad saw Luke, Brad quickly turned his head away to shun Luke.

The expression on Brad's face seemed to indicate "I didn't ask Dad to come here."

Eileen was surprised. 'How can we meet Luke in such a place?'

Ruben smiled lightly and turned the meat.

Luke glanced at Eileen and then looked at Brad. "Brad, you said that you wanted to eat the meat grilled by me. Come here. I'll roast it for you now. Do you want to eat roasted lamb or roasted fish?"

Brad wiped the oil from the corner of his mouth, unwilling to move.

'Dad is talking nonsense. When did I say I wanted to eat roasted fish?'

Hearing this, Eileen looked at Brad, who was sitting on the stone.

Brad rubbed his head and smiled. "I said it before." "Come here."

Luke fiddled with his tools and signaled for Brad to come to him.

Brad had no choice but to walk towards Luke. Then he sat down beside Luke. "Dad, why are you here?"

"If I don't come, will you be useful?"

Luke glanced at him, and then his eyes fell on Eileen. But he was speaking to Brad. "What did you all do just now?"

"We had a barbecue. Mom and Mr. Lyall were responsible for roasting meat, and I just ate."

While speaking, Brad stuck out his round belly. "I'm already full."

Hearing this, Luke took another look at him and snorted coldly. "You really are useless!"

Luke had never roasted meat before.

Looking at the tools placed in front of him, he was at a loss.

Brad just squatted beside him. When he saw that Luke hadn't done anything for a while, he asked, "Dad, can you set up the tools?"

"It doesn't matter if you can't. I'm full anyway."

As a man, the most unbearable thing was doubted by others.

Now Luke's ability was questioned by his son. This was completely detrimental to the dignity of a man!

"Who told you that?"