

PRETENDING TO BE POOR

Chapter 15

Shawn and Rachel returned home.

Rachel was still full of anger.

Back home, Rachel was worried that he would be unhappy. She smiled and went to see him.

Shawn was expressionless, so it was difficult to tell whether he was happy or not.

After Shawn entered the room, Rachel immediately said, "Take a shower first. Change your clothes and I'll wash them for you. I bought some clothes and housecoats a few days ago."

Seeing that Rachel said these words with the greatest care, Shawn leaned over and pinched her chin with his fingers. And he said with a deep voice.

"Let's take a shower together?"

"What?"

Rachel blushed, but she gave a "yes" answer.

"Okay."

Then, in the small bathroom of the Waldow family, Shawn and Rachel had sex. This time, they were much more tired than before. Shawn carried Rachel out of the bathroom. As soon as she lay on the bed, she was so dizzy that she fell asleep.

Shawn walked out of the room with a towel. After lighting a cigarette, he took out his phone and called Steve.

Steve explained a lot, hoping that Shawn could forgive him before Shawn said in a languid and low voice.

"I don't care what you do. But stay away from me."

"Yes, Trey, I won't disturb you. Don't worry.

"Steve, will you keep your mouth shut?"

It was not a question, but a warning.

Steve revealed an embarrassing smile.

He had to keep his mouth shut.

Steve quickly added, "Yes, yes, Trey. Don't worry. I won't disclose anything about you and Rachel."

Steve felt uneasy. Fortunately, Shawn didn't pursue the matter. After hanging up the phone, Steve quickly sent a message to his group, telling Sidney and other fellows to keep their mouths shut.

"No one is allowed to tell others about what I said about Trey and his woman. I didn't say anything just now. You didn't see anything, either. Clear? Anyone who dares to leak the secret will come to no good"

Steve was very serious. He said with his teeth gritted. He attached great importance to this matter.

Sidney answered, "Steve, don't worry. We will never tell others."

Steve continued, "Very well, my man."

Loren asked, "Steve, we will keep our mouths shut. But I'm a little curious. Trey has seen many kinds of women. Why does he keep the woman he met in Q City? Hasn't he had enough fun yet? Did he say when he would return to Y City?"

Steve answered, "How do I know? Probably he's still interested."

Rachel looked so beautiful. It was not surprising that Shawn was still interested in her.

Sidney continued, "It's her honor to be chosen by Trey. She will live a rich and free life."

Steve thought the same. He was interested in Rachel too. But since she chose to be with Trey, Steve had to give up on her. And even if Trey abandoned her in the future, he couldn't mistreat her.

It was a pity that Rachel couldn't please him and his fellows.

as

Rachel got up early to make breakfast. When Shawn came out of their room, she felt shy to see him.

They took a bath together last night. It was a challenge for Rachel.

Even after one night, Rachel couldn't pretend as if nothing had happened.

After taking a quick bite, she went to work. If she continued to face Shawn, she would feel terribly ashamed.

Rachel didn't know if Shawn had noticed anything strange about her. He was calm and impassive all the time.

When Rachel arrived at her company and saw the colleagues in her office, she felt much worse.

Today, Vincent kept finding fault with Rachel. He was dissatisfied with her design. And he also asked her to do a lot of trivial things. It was obvious that he was revenging for her rudeness last night.

Ursula came to bother Rachel from time to time. Seeing that Rachel was so busy, she said some sarcastic words.

“Rachel, are you tired? Don’t blame me. You were so ignorant last night. You had no sense of what was right. Don’t be angry at Vincent’s retaliation against you. That’s what our boss means. Your husband is so stupid that he dares to be rude to Mr. Garner and the boss. He’s so stupid. You’d better quit before the probation period is over. If you get kicked out, you’ll lose face. Since you graduated from the A University, it will be funny if you fail to pass the probation period.”

Rachel was busy with her work, ignoring Ursula’s words.

“Well, why do you keep silent? You were talkative last night. I have thought highly of you. You’re good-looking and well-educated. But why are you willing to degenerate? Why did you find a migrant worker? Oh my god, Rachel, I have never thought of such a thing. How can you end up like this? Or have you done anything shameful in Y City? Is that why you come back to Q City and ask your husband to be responsible for it?”