

Priceless Baby 1461

Chapter 1461: Not Taking Any Risks

But Mo Yutian was definitely not going to help Yun Xuerou. Lan Qiwei was not his mother. Then why should he go rescuing her?

“Auntie, I suppose my mother is temporarily safe in the Northland. Instead of rushing to her rescue, I think we should make some plans first. What do you want to do next?”

Mo Yutian tried to learn her detailed plans.

Yun Xuerou found Mo Yutian's words reasonable. They were not in a hurry to rescue Lan Qiwei. “Right. I heard Helian Qingyu will fly to Dstan tomorrow. I've arranged for a bomb to be placed on his plane. Once they set off, they will be blown up soon enough.”

Mo Yutian did not expect that she would even kill her own son and found it unreasonable. “Why, auntie? Are you going to kill your own son?”

Yun Xuerou burst into wild laughters. “Haha, Xiao-Er, I never told anyone else. Helian Qingyu is not my son. He is just an ungrateful bastard I raised up. Since he is not defending me, I'm definitely destroying him!”

The main purpose for her to kill Helian Qingyu was merely to make Helian Wei and Jing Ruyue suffer.

Mo Yutian was indeed shocked. So Yun Xuerou had faked having a son to marry the former president.

In that case, she was indeed a catty woman.

In order to acquire as many details as possible, Mo Yutian pretended that he would join her plot for revenge.

When they finished planning, Yun Xuerou left and Mo Yutian went directly to the presidential palace.

It was intensively guarded.

Mo Yutian failed to sneak in. So he had to think of a different approach.

He targeted a guard and threw a dart with a letter attached toward him.

The guard sensed something grazing his ear and sticking into the wall behind him.

He became vigilant, held his gun and searched around for anything suspicious.

When he took out the dart and read from the letter attached, he realized how serious it could be.

The guard talked to his partner and hurried inside to report to the president.

He could not ask directly for the president. Instead, he went to the president's assistant Xiao Liang.

Xiao Liang did not report to the president immediately upon receiving the message. It was two o'clock in the morning. Their president had been working late and had gone to bed barely two hours ago.

As a loyal assistant, he had to get everything under control before his master attended to it.

Instead of waking Helian Qingyu, Xiao contacted the person in charge of his private plane and asked them to search for the bomb first.

Inside the Yunjing Villa.

Before dawn broke, while the husband and wife were still sleeping, someone snuck into the room.

It was the little girl in her pajamas. She woke up as early as she could in order to go to the airport with her father.

Seeing them still asleep, she crawled onto the bed and got in between. She placed a kiss on her mother, then her father.

Neither of them was awoken. Ying Bao continued to slightly poke her father's nose and pull her mother's ear.

Huo Yunshen thought it was his wife playing naughty and said without opening his eyes, "Honey, you little devil."

"Haha..." Ying Bao gurgled since her father mistook her for her mother.

Chapter 1462: Another Little Devil

Huo Yunshen heard the little girl's giggle and realized it was his daughter playing with him.

"You little... Why are you up so early?" Huo Yunshen sighed, as it wasn't even 5 in the morning.

"Because I want to go welcome Brother Feimo!" Ying Bao said as she shook her father's arm. "Come on! We have to leave soon."

"..."

Huo Yunshen instantly regretted telling her daughter that Tang Feimo and his family were visiting.

"It's still early. Mommy is still sleeping too. Why don't you go back and get some sleep?"

"Don't wanna!"

Not only did Ying Bao not want to go back to sleep, but she also intended to wake her mother up.

She turned to look at her mother, who was sleeping soundly and said, "Mommy looks so beautiful when she's sleeping. Can you give her a kiss to wake her up, daddy?"

"..." Huo Yunshen quickly got up from the bed to get Ying Bao out of the room so that she wouldn't wake Jing Xi.

Huo Yunshen yawned as he pulled his daughter back to her room.

Helian Qingyu woke up as soon as the alarm sounded. He began to get prepared for his trip to Dstan.

Xiao Liang was waiting for him at the gate.

“Xiao Liang! It looks like we won't have time for breakfast. Let's go,” Helian Qingyu said after checking his watch.

“Mr. President, I've already canceled the itinerary for today. I've also asked the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to inform Dstan.”

“What? Why?”

Helian Qingyu stared at Xiao Liang, wondering what gave him the guts to cancel his plan.

“Sir, take a look at this.”

Helian Qingyu got the dart from Xiao Liang, and he noticed a note on it.

He took the note out, and on it was a simple warning.

[The President's flight to Dstan is rigged! Do not let him board the plane!]

“Where... where did you find this?” Helian Qingyu gasped.

“The guards at the gate found it around two in the morning.”

Helian Qingyu checked the dart. The only people he knew who would relay messages through darts were characters from movies.

“Do you know who sent this?”

Helian Qingyu guessed that the person who sent the message decided to use the dart because he couldn't get into the mansion.

“I've already checked the CCTV footage but couldn't find anything. I've also informed our people to check the plane. It really was rigged. Since we couldn't determine what our enemy's next move is, that is why I decided to cancel the plan without informing you,” Xiao Liang explained. Helian Qingyu was glad that someone was helping him from the dark, or else he would've died in the explosion.

He also thanked Xiao Liang for taking the appropriate measures.

“Well done! Now that the plan is canceled, I'll just take it as a vacation then. Prepare the car, I'm going to the Yunjing Manor for breakfast!”

“Yes, sir!”

Helian Qingyu arrived at Jing Xi's place just in time for breakfast.

Chapter 1463: Change Of Plan

With their permission, Helian Qingyu entered the villa. Ying Bao ran to him and greeted, "Third daddy! What brings you here?"

Helian Qingyu was surprised that this little girl was up so early in the morning. He bent to lift her up and said, "Make a guess."

"Haha, it must be a tornado!"

Helian Qingyu poked slightly on her nose and asked, "How did you know it was a tornado?"

Ying Bao answered seriously, "They say that, because you are the president, you have a high stomach and a great pocket. How could it bring you here if it was not a tornado?"

Helian Qingyu was stunned, and then burst into laughter. "Haha, sweetheart, you are killing me!"

By a high stomach and a great pocket, she probably meant a high position and great power.

How funny she was.

Huo Yunshen was setting the table for breakfast when he saw Helian Qingyu holding Ying Bao in his arm and coming in while laughing wildly.

"What is it? Anything funny?"

Helian Qingyu placed the girl in her seat and sat down next to her. "I'm laughing at the joke your daughter just told."

He told her words to Huo Yunshen who also laughed his head off.

Jing Xi walked downstairs and came over upon hearing their laughter. "Hey, what made you so happy? Share with me."

"It's your daughter."

They all sat down and told Jing Xi about Ying Bao's words. She also laughed and said, "Ying Bao was right. There is indeed too much money in your pocket and it has become too heavy."

Recalling what she had heard from the news earlier on, Jing Xi asked, "Brother, aren't you flying to Dstan today? Why are you here?"

"There was a change of plan."

Helian Qingyu told them what had happened. Jing Xi was surprised. "Who was helping you secretly?"

"No idea."

"How come I feel it was the same person who sent us the message about Xuanye's assassination last time?"

"Indeed. I think so too. No matter who he is, I want to thank him for what he's been doing lately," Helian Qingyu said sincerely.

He did want to thank this mysterious person for helping him again and again.

"I guess he has a reason for not showing up. Let's wait. He will probably come to us one day."

"Right."

"Fortunately he told you so that you have changed the plan. And it gave you some spare time for breakfast with us."

Helian Qingyu started enjoying his breakfast and agreed, "Indeed, I did get myself a bit of time."

After breakfast Huo Yunshen took Ying Bao to pick up their guests from the airport, and Jing Xi was heading for school.

Helian Qingyu proposed to give his sister a ride.

On their way to school, Helian Qingyu came to know that everything was going well with his sister, but Huo Yunshen was sick.

He felt truly worried. "Have you found the match?"

"His mother and brother went for a matching yesterday. We're still waiting for the results."

"OK. When we get you to school I'll also go for a matching. With one more person there is some more hope."

"Thank you, brother."

"We're family. Don't mention it."

Jing Xi realized that Lan Ling-Er had never called for her help again since she came back from the Northland with Helian Qingyu. So she asked, "Brother, how did you get rid of Lan Ling-Er?"

Chapter 1464: Envy

"We've made a deal in the Northern Kingdom. If she stops doing bad things, I'll let her live," Helian Qingyu said.

"That's good," Jing Xi said and suddenly thought of Li Ruochu. "Have you gotten in contact with Ruochu yet?"

"No, she's been avoiding me. I have too many things on my hands now, and I don't have the time to go to Zstan. I can only wait until I'm free."

Since Helian Qingyu just became the President not long ago, he had to visit a lot of countries to establish a better relationship with them. His schedule was so tight that he did not have the time to bother with other things.

They talked all the way to the college.

"My class is about to start. Go take care of your business," Jing Xi said after she got out of the car.

"Okay! See you soon."

Helian Qingyu drove straight to the hospital after that.

Not only did he want to check if he could be a donor, he also informed Jun Yan about Huo Yunshen's condition. When the Estant's military and JS members learned about it, almost all of them went to the hospital to get their blood tested for compatibility.

Huo Yunshen was waiting with Ying Bao outside the Lin City International Airport. Ying Bao was standing on her toes, looking at the crowd.

"I can't see them! Why aren't they here yet?" Ying Bao asked.

"Here, you can sit on my shoulder," Huo Yunshen said and picked Ying Bao up to his shoulder.

Ying Bao grabbed his father's hand with one of her hands and his head with her other hand. Her eyes were still searching through the crowd.

She suddenly noticed a young boy with a modernized hairstyle and a pair of sunglasses.

She instantly recognized him as Tang Feimo.

"Daddy! It's Brother Feimo! And Uncle Tang and Auntie Liang! They're here!" Ying Bao shouted excitedly as she tapped her father's head.

"I see them too."

"Yay!"

When Ying Bao saw them closing in, she formed a loudspeaker with her hand and shouted, "Brother Feimo!"

Tang Feimo suddenly heard someone shouting at him and could instantly recognize Ying Bao's voice.

"Cherry!"

"Brother Feimo!"

Ying Bao let her father put her down as Tang Feimo ran towards her.

Even though they had seen each other only a few weeks earlier, it felt like ages for them.

Tang Feimo opened his arms as Ying Bao ran to him, and they hugged each other.

As Huo Yunshen looked at his daughter running into another man's arms, he couldn't help but feel a little jealous about it.

A lot of people looked at the two little kids hugging each other like a long lost couple and couldn't help but melt from the sight.

Chapter 1465: As Close As Possible

Tang Yichen came with his wife Liang Lan, carrying their luggage. Huo Yunshen walked toward them and said, "Tang, sister, how was your flight?"

For a frequent flyer, it was nothing. Tang Yichen smiled. "I'm used to it. But Lanlan had airsickness."

Liang Lan smiled politely. "I'm feeling much better now."

"Then let's go home. Come with me."

"Huo, thank you. We're bothering you again." Liang Lan thanked him.

"Don't mention it. We are so happy you could come. You should come more often."

Huo Yunshen then turned to the two kids. "Come on guys, let's go home now!"

Tang Feimo let go of Ying Bao, held her hand and followed their parents to leave the airport.

Huo Yunshen had come in a limousine today so that they could all sit in the back and chat while Mo An drove.

Ying Bao and Tang Feimo stayed as close as possible to each other with hands in hands, almost like conjoined twins.

"Brother Feimo, I have been so excited since daddy told me last night you were coming."

"Me too! I couldn't sleep throughout the night."

"Then stay here and never leave. So I can see you every day," Ying Bao said innocently.

"I do want to. But I have to go back to school. It's all my dad's fault. He did not want to move to Estan. Otherwise, we could be neighbors again!" Tang Feimo sighed and complained.

Tang Yichen overheard their chat and pointed to Huo Yunshen. "You see, ever since you moved here, my son has been dreaming about moving here too."

"Likewise, Ying Bao was asking me to build a bridge between Estan and Zstan so that she could visit Feimo anytime. What should we do?"

"Wow. If you lived in outer space, then would we have to make a spaceship?"

"Exactly!"

The two men felt hopeless with their children.

While they were chatting, the limo arrived at Yunjing Villa. Everybody got out of the car.

Jing Xi had already gotten home from her morning class and was expecting them in the garden.

"Tang, sister, finally you are here."

"Yeah, we are here again to make trouble."

Tang Feimo greeted her like a gentleman. "Auntie Jing, here I am again."

"Haha, Feimo, you are very welcome!"

Liang Lan came to check on Jing Xi and said, "Oh my! This is huge! It must be very tiresome to carry two babies. How have you been, Jing Xi?"

"I'm fine. It's not that different. I can handle this."

Jing Xi held Liang Lan and escorted them inside. "Come on in!"

The two kids ran inside first. Ying Bao took out a pair of boy's slippers and placed them on the ground. "Brother Feimo, I asked mommy to buy these for you. They're the same as mine."

Tang Feimo looked at the slippers. It was a pair of cute little piglets, similar to Ying Bao's but slightly different in design.

Ying Bao's piglets had long eyelashes and wore bowties, while his did not have those because they were boys.

"Cute, aren't they? How do you like it, Brother Feimo?"

Tang Feimo actually did not fancy those cartoon figures. He regarded himself as a tough boy and asked his mother never to buy anything cute.

Chapter 1466: Together

But since Ying Bao was waiting for a good answer, he could only nod.

"Yes! I like them very much!"

Tang Feimo put on the slippers, and Ying Bao pulled him to her room.

"Come! I'll show you how my room looks now! We can stay together now!"

Tang Feimo noticed the pink design was gone, replaced by an oceanic themed design.

A lot of miniature sea creatures were hanging on the ceiling.

Two little beds designed as boats also hung on the ceiling. The beds could be lowered down with the push of a button. Ying Bao lowered the beds and jumped into the white one while waving at Tang Feimo.

"The blue one is for Brother Feimo! My daddy made it for you!"

Tang Feimo quickly took off his slippers and climbed into the boat excitedly. Ying Bao pushed a button, and the ships began to circle around the room.

They paddled as if they were really on water.

"Do you like it?" Ying Bao asked.

"Yes! This is perfect!"

The new room only made Tang Feimo not want to go back to Zstan.

The kids began to play a pirate game in the room until the adults told them lunch was ready.

The chefs had prepared a huge meal to welcome the guests.

The kids did not even separate from each other during lunch as they sat side by side.

Ying Bao even did what her mother always did and placed a few foods on Tang Feimo's plate.

"Brother Feimo, try this drumstick!"

Ying Bao placed her favorite food in front of Tang Feimo.

"You can have it," Tang Feimo said as he gave it back to Ying Bao.

"You can both have one," Jing Xi laughed.

"Mommy, can I not go to school today? I want to be with Brother Feimo," Ying Bao requested during lunch.

"Oh, I forgot to tell you, your class is canceled today," Jing Xi said.

"Why's that?"

"Some of the little kids got HFMD, so they canceled class for the next ten days."

"That means I don't have to go to school, right? Yay!" Ying Bao cheered.

"Do you hate going to school?"

"No, but school is boring," Ying Bao said while pulling a face.

"I'll make sure you won't feel bored when I'm here," Tang Feimo said.

"Okay! What does Brother Feimo want to do after lunch?"

"Anything, as long as it's with you."

Tang Feimo was also happy to be able to come to Estan for one week with his parents.

Huo Yunshen and Tang Yitan went out for business after lunch while Jing Xi took the rest of them, Liang Lan included, to Renjing Chinese Medicine Hall to treat Liang Lan's symptoms.

The driver drove them to the clinic and Jing Xi led them in.

The business had been going well at the clinic ever since the people of Estan started to learn more about Chinese medicine.

Usually, people would have to wait in a long line just to be treated, but since Jing Xi was there, they could just walk straight into her grandfather's office.

Chapter 1467: No Longer His Boy

Coming to Jing Huaduo's, Jing Xi briefly introduced them and left Liang Lan with her grandfather.

He was indeed a great doctor. Upon hearing Liang Lan describing her problems, Jing Huaduo was pretty certain that she was suffering from metrorrhagia.

Jing Huaduo tailored a prescription and asked her to take on two courses of treatment, after which he would attend to her again.

Getting out of the clinic, Jing Xi and Liang Lan took the kids home.

After lunch, they played wildly in the garden while Jing Xi and Liang Lan sat by the pergola and chatted.

"Sister, I want to make sweaters for the babies. They say you are very good at knitting. Can you teach me?"

Jing Xi had bought some yarn and needles lately and tried to learn knitting.

She wanted to prepare two beautiful sweaters for her unborns.

She had never tried knitting and could not figure out those patterns by herself.

Hearing that Liang Lan was an expert, Jing Xi could not wait to learn from her.

"Sure! But do you have yarn and needles?" Liang Lan was more than willing to teach her.

"Yes! Sure! I've got them all!"

Jing Xi had someone get her yarn and needles, and started learning right away.

"First we need to know how to start. I'll teach you the most practical and good looking way."

Liang Lan showed her how to start, and Jing Xi picked up her yarn and needles to practice.

Under Liang Lan's patient and professional guidance, she learned to start and twist the yarn, and then started knitting on her own.

"Good job! You learn fast!"

Liang Lan found her to be a very smart student. She only needed to show her once or twice before Jing Xi could do it by herself.

Soon enough they finished the bottom of the sweater. Then Liang Lan taught her several patterns that would make a cute sweater.

Jing Xi learned carefully. After an afternoon of practicing she had already mastered those patterns.

Liang Lan also told her how to deal with the sleeves and collars. Then she had to sort it out step by step.

Jing Xi hoped that she could finish two cute little sweaters before giving birth to the babies.

She already felt proud with her future works.

The two women spent the whole afternoon knitting while the kids were playing in the garden.

There was a swimming pool in Yunjing Villa. The two kids played in the pool with swimming rings and their gurgling was heard throughout the villa.

Toward dark, the two men came home just in time for a tasty dinner their chefs prepared.

After dinner, Tang Yichen was about to take Liang Lan to the place he'd already booked.

They asked their son, "Feimo, we are leaving. Are you coming?"

"No! I'm not coming! I'm sleeping with Cherry!"

Tang Feimo liked Ying Bao's new room very much. There was no way that he could leave tonight.

Jing Xi held Tang Feimo and said to them, "Let Feimo stay here. Yunshen already remodeled Ying Bao's room. It could accommodate the two of them now. No worries!"

"Fine. Then we'll head off and come back tomorrow. Feimo, behave yourself, you know?"

"I know, I know. Just go, dad and mom. Go, go!"

Tang Feimo pushed his own parents out of the house.

Tang Yichen turned to take another look at his son and wondered, "Is he still our boy?"

Tang Feimo added bluntly, "Not any more. I want to be Auntie Jing's son. Goodbye, mom and dad!"

"You little monkey!"

Tang Feimo wanted no more scolding from his father and darted back inside.

Chapter 1468: Still Attractive

After sending Tang Yitan and Liang Lan off, Jing Xi went to Ying Bao's room to help the kids shower.

But when she walked into the room, she found out the kids were still playing.

"Ying Bao, Feimo, time to shower," Jing Xi said.

"Mommy, can we shower later? I want to play a little longer with Brother Feimo," Ying Bao requested.

"Fine, another 30 minutes, okay?"

"Okay!"

Jing Xi returned to her own room to shower first. Huo Yunshen had already prepared her pajamas for her and came to help her shower.

"I can clean myself, take some rest."

Jing Xi did not want to bother Huo Yunshen with every detail since he had been working all day long.

"It's all right. Let me help you."

Huo Yunshen took her to the bathroom. In it was a chair for hair washing, like those that could be found in salons. Jing Xi lay on it while Huo Yunshen helped wash her hair before taking her into the shower.

Since Jing Xi was pregnant, her breasts were larger than before. Even though her belly was huge, it didn't look all that bad.

It was hell for Huo Yunshen as he knew he couldn't make out with his wife but still had to stare at her naked body.

Huo Yunshen felt really depressed after helping Jing Xi with her shower.

He quickly dried her body with a huge towel and carried her back to the bedroom.

Huo Yunshen immediately turned and left after putting Jing Xi on the bed.

"Are you okay? Is your head hurting again?" Jing Xi asked, noticing that Huo Yunshen was acting all weird.

She was worried that he might be experiencing another blackout again.

"No, I'm fine. I think I need a shower too," Huo Yunshen said and quickly ran to the bathroom.

Jing Xi finally realized what was wrong with her husband and giggled. It seemed like she was still attractive even after getting pregnant.

After coming out from the shower, Huo Yunshen went and made sure the kids took their baths.

Ever since Jing Xi was 8 months pregnant, one of the servants, Lan Yi, had been helping with Ying Bao's shower. And since Tang Feimo was old enough to take care of his own, there wasn't much for Huo Yunshen to do.

He took the kids back to Ying Bao's room after their showers.

Ying Bao was riding on her father's arms and asked, "Daddy, do I smell good?"

"Yup, you smell really nice," Huo Yunshen said after taking a sniff.

"Yay!" Ying Bao smiled.

Huo Yunshen put his daughter onto her white bed while Tang Feimo climbed onto the blue one.

"Don't play with the buttons at night, okay?" Huo Yunshen said. "Remember to turn on the lights if you want to use the toilet."

"I got it. Hurry up and go accompany mommy," Ying Bao said as she waved her hand.

"Okay. Goodnight, Ying Bao. Goodnight, Feimo."

"Goodnight, daddy."

"Goodnight, Uncle Huo."

Huo Yunshen turned off most of the lights, leaving a small lamp near the switches open.

When Huo Yunshen had left, Ying Bao sat up and whispered, "Brother Feimo."

"Hm?" Tang Feimo also sat up in his bed.

Chapter 1469: Extremely Worried

Ying Bao crawled down from the bed and turned on the light again. She proposed, "Brother Feimo, let's continue with the pirate game!"

"Sure!"

But he felt a bit worried. "What if Uncle Huo finds out we aren't sleeping?"

"No worries. If daddy comes, we'll lie down right away and pretend to be asleep."

Ying Bao sounded like a veteran.

"Well, then let's start!"

So they started playing again.

Huo Yunshen had just returned to their bedroom and lain down with his wife. But he seemed to have heard some noise. "Honey, did you hear that?"

Jing Xi tried to listen and smiled. "I guess Ying Bao and Feimo are still playing."

"But I saw them lying down just now."

"Ha, they must have faked it for you."

"What should we do then?"

Huo Yunshen wondered if he should urge them to sleep again.

"Leave them alone. They will go to sleep when they are done."

Jing Xi cuddled her husband and closed her eyes.

"Goodnight, honey!"

"Goodnight!"

They had sweet dreams. On the following morning, Huo Yunshen got up on time.

But immediately after he sat up he found it was completely dark.

"Jing Xi!"

He reached out for Jing Xi anxiously.

Jing Xi was awakened and saw him sitting on the bed with his hands reaching out.

“Honey, I'm here!”

Jing Xi sat up and got hold of his hands.

Huo Yunshen took her hands and placed them against his heart.

“What's up, honey? Was it a nightmare?”

“No! Jing Xi! I can't see! I can't see you! What should I do?”

He reached his right hand to her face, while he was overwhelmed with anxiety.

“No worries, no worries! I'm right here!”

Jing Xi held his handsome face and looked into his eyes. They used to be glittering but now seemed foggy.

Previously Huo Yunshen had suffered from instant loss of eyesight. But it lasted for a longer while today, which made him scared.

“Honey, it sucks not being able to see you!”

Huo Yunshen dragged Jing Xi into his arms and was afraid that she would disappear once he let go.

“Listen to me, Yunshen, don't worry. We'll get the results tomorrow. Once we find you a matching donor we will get rid of the CNSL first. Then we will remove the clot. You will be perfectly fine afterwards.”

Jing Xi stroked him on the back and tried to calm him down.

“OK.”

He closed his eyes again and felt slightly better.

After a while, Huo Yunshen reopened his eyes and was finally relieved. It had been temporary. He could see again now.

“Well, honey, I can see you again.”

Huo Yunshen released his wife and stared carefully at her face.

Jing Xi fondled his eyebrows and smiled slightly. “How charming your eyes are. It would be such a pity if they went blind!”

Whenever she recalled the risk and low success rate Gu Yici had mentioned about the operations, she could not help being extremely worried.

She tried to soothe herself while talking to him. “Honey, you will be fine.”

“I know.”

They ended the conversation with a long kiss. When they got up, Jing Xi asked Huo Yunshen to cancel all the appointments today and stay at home for some good rest.

She had no class today and could stay home with him too.

“You go get ready and I'll check on the kids.”

Chapter 1470: A Heartwarming Scene

Jing Xi came to Ying Bao's room and realized the lights were on after she pushed the door open. Toys and pillows were scattered all around the room.

It was evident that the kids had been up playing all night.

Since Jing Xi could not pick the toys up, she decided to leave it for the cleaning maids after that.

The kids slept opposite each other, and they were sleeping soundly.

It was a very heartwarming scene. Jing Xi hoped that the kids could maintain the same relationship they had after they grew up.

She decided to let them sleep longer and did not wake them up.

She put their sheets over their bodies and left the room quietly.

Tang Yitan and Liang Lan came to the manor after breakfast.

Ying Bao and Tang Feimo had already woken up and were playing in the garden after their breakfasts.

“What are we playing today?” Ying Bao asked.

“What do you want to play?” Tang Feimo replied with a question.

“Let's go somewhere else. I want to go to the beach!”

“Okay!”

“I'll go tell my daddy.”

Ying Bao quickly ran back into the manor.

Huo Yunshen and Jing Xi were talking with Tang Feimo's parents when Ying Bao ran up to them.

“Daddy! Can we go to the beach today?”

“The beach?”

“Yes! Brother Feimo wants to go too!”

Thinking that the kids might have gotten bored from playing in the garden the day before, Huo Yunshen nodded.

“Of course. I'll go arrange it.”

“Yay!” Ying Bao clapped her hands and ran back to the garden.

After discussing with the remaining adults, they decided to go to Likee, a city in the south of Estan.

Likee was the city where Jing Xi and Huo Yunshen shot their music video, and it was also where Huo Yunshen got into a troubled situation with Helian Qingyu.

They drove for two hours and reached Likee.

There were a lot of pretty spots in Likee and a bigger beach than the one at Ye Xun's house.

There was also a huge theme park by the beach, and that was their destination.

While the two men accompanied the kids to the theme park, Jing Xi and Liang Lan decided to pay a visit to the nearest market.

Huo Yunshen arranged a few guards to accompany them.

There were a lot of things in the market, including traditional arts and crafts.

Jing Xi was there looking for inspiration for her graduation project, which needed her to submit a design.

Jing Xi found a shop that sold jewelry and decided to check it out.

"Let's go there," Jing Xi said as she pointed at the shop.

"Okay."

They walked into the shop, and Jing Xi was too immersed in the pieces of jewelry that were on display. She didn't notice that someone was standing in front of her and she bumped into the person.
