

Priceless Baby 641

Chapter 641: Are You Trying to Kill Me?

Xu Xiyan bit Huo Yunshen suddenly and it made him take a deep breath because of the pain.

“Hey! Are you trying to kill me?”

Huo Yunshen turned around and pressed Xu Xiyan under him.

Xu Xiyan lay below him as she stared at his lips which were already bleeding and it made him look sexier.

He was also gazing at her, and it was as if she was being pierced through by his sexy eyes.

“I'm sorry, does it hurt?”

“That should be my question.”

Huo Yunshen took revenge for the bite with another method as he continued another round of sex.

“Hey! It hurts!”

Huo Yunshen was worse than before. His craziness and ferocity were beyond her expectations.

The pain was enough for tears to fall. Her body was already at its limit after being played around with earlier in the morning.

It wasn't until Xu Xiyan begged Huo Yunshen to stop that he pulled himself away from her as Xu Xiyan fell asleep.

It was already nightfall when Xu Xiyan woke up.

She was the only one in the bedroom. She got up to take a shower and left the bedroom after putting on her clothes.

Ye Xun and Huo Sanyan were playing The Royal Alliance on the console in the living room. Yiye Zhiqiu and Guanfang Renzheng Xiaoke'ai were officially married in the game. They were shouting while they hunted for monsters.

Ying Bao was drawing pictures next to the dining table while Huo Yunshen was preparing dinner in the kitchen.

Xu Xiyan's hunger got triggered by the aroma that was coming from the kitchen.

My hubby's cooking is definitely the best! Looks like I can fill my stomach with good food again!

Xu Xiyan stopped next to Ying Bao and asked, “What are you drawing?”

The first reaction from Ying Bao after hearing her mother's voice was to cover her drawing with her hands.

She raised her head and greeted, “Mummy.”

“What? Can't let mummy see your drawings?”

“It's still not complete yet.”

Ying Bao meant that she wanted to show it to everyone after she had finished her picture.

“Okay, then show it to me once you're done,” Xu Xiyan said while she rubbed Ying Bao's head and went to the kitchen.

Xu Xiyan stood at the doorway as she admired the back of the man that was preparing the dinner.

Any normal dish would become an elaborate dish in his hands as he prepared the ingredients proficiently.

Could it be that he's a magician? Xu Xiyan thought. There's no other explanation for how he could create such amazing foods.

In Xu Xiyan's eyes, Huo Yunshen was like a God that did not belong in the human realm, but he'd rather remain as a human for the person he loved.

Xu Xiyan could not help but agree that these kinds of men were the sexiest.

Xu Xiyan walked over to him and hugged him from behind, sticking her face into his wide back.

Huo Yunshen felt the arms on his chest and said, “My wife, you're up.”

“Yup.”

Xu Xiyan closed her eyes as she tried to listen to his heartbeat.

“What should I do?” Xu Xiyan said after a moment of silence. “I'm afraid someone will steal my perfect hubby away.”

Huo Yunshen instantly stopped what he was doing and grabbed her hand before turning around to face her.

He pulled her into his arms, kissed her on her forehead and said, “You don't have to worry about anything. Huo Yunshen will always belong to Jing Xi, no one else.”

Before Xu Xiyan could even reply, a cute voice came from the door and said, “Daddy, I also want a hug...”

“...” Both of them looked at their daughter, speechless.

They'd completely forgotten that the little girl would always appear at the wrong time.

Chapter 642: The Gamer's Depression

Huo Yunshen and Xu Xiyan quickly separated from each other as Huo Yunshen picked his daughter up and said, “Come on, let me hug you.”

Xu Xiyan scratched her head as she looked at her daughter having a great time with Huo Yunshen. She had a weird feeling in her heart, as if her husband had been stolen away by her daughter.

She wondered if it was because her desire for Huo Yunshen had intensified.

Xu Xiyan walked over to them, and the three of them hugged together while the two adults kissed Ying Bao on her cheeks at the same time.

Ying Bao was happy because of the kiss as she took out her drawings and said, "Daddy, mummy, the drawing is finished. Here, have a look."

The two adults looked at her picture that had four squares on it.

In the first square was two adults while a little kid stood in the middle. It was obvious that Ying Bao had drawn herself with her parents.

The second square was two adults sticking together.

The third square was also two adults sticking together.

The fourth square still was the same, two adults sticking together.

"Cherry, who are they?" Xu Xiyan asked.

"This one is daddy and mummy kissing," Ying Bao explained. "This one is Uncle Tree-leaf and Auntie Sanyan kissing, and this one is Auntie Orange and Uncle Dazhi kissing."

"..." Xu Xiyan almost fainted as she could not believe what her daughter had just drawn. Looks like we have to be careful in the future. We must not let Ying Bao catch us doing adult things.

"Not bad, this is a good drawing," Huo Yunshen praised. "I'll make you something as your reward. Hurry up and clean your hands, we'll be eating soon. And go call Uncle Tree-leaf and Auntie Sanyan too."

"Okay!" Ying Bao smiled as he slipped down from Huo Yunshen's arms and ran to the living room.

"Do you need me to do anything?" Xu Xiyan asked.

"Nope," Huo Yunshen replied. "On second thought, why don't you take these out?"

"Sure thing."

"Uncle Tree-leaf! Auntie Sanyan!" Ying Bao shouted in the living room. "Dinner is ready."

Yet the two adults were on the final stage of the boss fight and neither of them wanted to stop playing.

"One minute! I have to show the monster what I'm made of first!" Ye Xun said without averting his eyes from the screen.

Ying Bao walked around the couch waiting for their game to end. She looked at the two adults who were too immersed in the game and sighed while shaking her head.

Since her father took his time to prepare dinner for them, Ying Bao believed that they should be as eager as she was.

To not let the two adults drag it out any further, Ying Bao thought of a great idea and ran to the back of the console and unplugged the LAN connection.

“What the... what happened?”

The boss only had one health point left and they were suddenly disconnected from the game. Any gamer should know how depressing that moment was.

“Cherry, why did you unplug the wire?” Huo Sanyan scolded as she noticed it was the little girl's doing.

“Uncle Tree-leaf, Auntie Sanyan, both of you have been playing for three hours straight. You'll become blind if you keep playing.”

“...” Both of them were speechless. We won't go blind, but we might die from regret. We almost got our hand on the legendary equipment!

Even if they were still thinking of the equipment that they could get, they still had to listen to what the little girl had said. They put their controllers down and went to the dining room.

Chapter 643: Someone I Can Rely On

Huo Sanyan went to the dining room. She saw that Xu Xiyan was arranging the food on the dining table and said, “Mrs. Huo, you should teach your kid better. She unplugged our wire!”

Xu Xiyan took a glance at her daughter who was waiting patiently for the food and praised, “Job well done, Ying Bao. If the same thing ever happens again, just pull the power cord.”

“...” Huo Sanyan could feel her heart bleeding already.

“Hey, little brother,” Huo Sanyan scolded as Huo Yunshen came out from the kitchen. “Put a leash on your wife and daughter. They are becoming too bossy around here.”

“So what?” Huo Yunshen shrugged coldly. “They became like that because I want it. If you don't like that, then you should just go home.”

“...” Oh my god! These three... I seriously have nothing to say!

“Only Mr. Ye can cure my broken heart now,” Huo Sanyan said. “Don't get too overboard, I tell you, or else I won't take over Juxing!”

Huo Sanyan had agreed to take over Juxing after Ye Xun told her to do so. After taking care of the assets and power transfer, Huo Sanyan would officially become the CEO of Juxing.

Yet Huo Yunshen wasn't scared by her threat. He picked up a plate of spaghetti allo scoglio and said, “Oh well, I guess this is for the dog then.”

“Hey, hey... I'm just kidding! It will be a waste to feed this to the dog, give it to me...” Huo Sanyan quickly stopped him, as it was her favorite food and took a bite before giving a thumbs up. “This is so good! Now that you've fed me, just leave Juxing to me! I'll make sure that it'll get back on the right track.”

As they were having their dinner, Huo Sanyan turned to Xu Xiyan and asked, “Jing Xi, looks like Huo Jingtang is trying to purchase Jingyue. How about you come and work with me at Juxing?”

Before Huo Sanyan even stepped up to her position, Yunhai Entertainment had already announced that they would be purchasing Jingyue Entertainment.

The news spread throughout the entertainment industry like wildfire.

“No, thanks. I think Jingyue is doing just fine.”

Xu Xiyan felt that she owed it to Jingyue Entertainment for helping her in times of need. Plus, she also had friends like Xiao Yuqian and Wan Dou at the company; there was no way she would abandon them.

Even if she had gotten Juxing Entertainment, she did not want to give the public the impression that she was someone who would betray her benefactor for her own benefits.

She would never leave the company as long as Jingyue was still in trouble.

“But with the size of your company, Yunhai will definitely be able to purchase it,” Huo Sanyan said. “Do you think Huo Jingtang will give you an easy life if you were to work under him?”

Both Xu Xiyan and Huo Sanyan were on the bad side of Huo Jingtang because they supported Huo Yunshen.

Huo Sanyan was afraid that since Yunhai Entertainment was now an independent company without any relationship with the Huo Group, Huo Jingtang would use the chance to take his revenge on Xu Xiyan.

“I'm not afraid of him. I have someone to rely on,” Xu Xiyan smiled as she shifted her body and held Huo Yunshen in her arm.

There wasn't even a speck of fear in her heart because the man was powerful enough to give her a sense of safety.

Huo Yunshen even told her that it would be hard for Huo Jingtang to purchase Jingyue Entertainment.

Even if he wanted to, he might not have the ability to.

...

Xu Xiyan was currently working hard for her workshop's first movie, titled “Those Beautiful Bygone Days.”

Chapter 644: Took Good Care of Her

Ma Haodong had already agreed to be the male lead of the film. They'd already confirmed the cast for every character except for Qi Liya's part as the female lead.

Xu Xiyan had asked Qi Liya out for a coffee at a very chill and quiet café.

Qi Liya came wearing a one-piece linen dress and a small rounded hat. She had sunglasses on and had tied her hair into a braid. She looked sweet and yet did not lose her elegance.

“Only a few days have passed since we last met and you've become prettier,” Xu Xiyan praised.

“You and your sweet mouth,” Qi Liya laughed as she sat. One look at her face and anyone would know that she was leading a happy life.

All because she was in love.

After she had started to date Huang Guoqiang officially, she noticed Huang Guoqiang was quite the romantic person. Not only was he careful about every detail, but he also took good care of her.

Even though they might not be as young as they used to be, their time together was like the love story of teenagers, like their first love, and it was pretty.

Huang Guoqiang made her life whole. There were too many regrets when she dated Peng Sicheng in secret, and they were all being reversed by Huang Guoqiang one by one.

“Are you going to act after finishing ‘Red-Sleeved Beauty?’” Xu Xiyan asked. She remembered that Qi Liya had told the reporters that she would be leaving the acting industry for a while.

“I don't think I have any plans after that,” Qi Liya answered. “I think I want to take a good rest.”

Qi Liya rarely had free time as an actress, and she felt that she had given too much of her youth to acting. She decided not to continue down the road that she was on.

“That's too bad,” Xu Xiyan sighed. “I was hoping for you to play the female lead in a new film.”

Xu Xiyan respected Qi Liya's decision, but she felt that it was a waste of Qi Liya's own talent as she was born for the screen.

“A female lead? What's the title of the film?” Qi Liya asked curiously.

“It's an online teen film. The title is ‘Those Beautiful Bygone Days.’ I thought that you're really suitable to play the female lead and that's why I asked.”

“Who's the director?”

Qi Liya never took part in any teen films. Most of her acting roles were in historical period dramas or films and the new genre really piqued her curiosity.

“It's a newcomer. I have the script with me here, have a look.”

Qi Liya took the script and read it. She noticed that the teen film took place during the characters' high school life which would allow her to recall her memories of her high school days.

Qi Liya thought the script was interesting and asked, “I've never heard of this director, Lu Zeyan. And this studio, Jinxi Studio... is it yours?”

Xu Xiyan answered Qi Liya's question with a smile.

“That really is a surprise. You've become the boss of a studio!” Qi Liya exclaimed. “All right, since it's your film, I'll agree to play the female lead. And I don't need any remuneration for this.”

Qi Liya was trying to repay Xu Xiyan's kindness from when she was in her time of need.

“Thank you for thinking highly of me,” Xu Xiyan said. “I won't let you lose anything for playing a role in this film. If it's a failure, I will take all the consequences myself; but if it's a huge success, you'll be part of the success too!”

Both of them smiled at each other, and Xu Xiyan asked, “How are you doing at Yunhai?”

“It's the worst! After Mr. Huo resigned from his position, Yunhai became completely different! Huo Jingtang changed the whole business policy for the company. Now Yunhai is busy purchasing other small companies. That's right, he's targeting Jingyue too.”

Chapter 645: Trying to Take Revenge on Me?

“Yes, I've heard about it. He really has a huge appetite,” Xu Xiyan said.

Yunhai Entertainment was different than it used to be.

After they had officially announced they would try to start acquiring smaller companies, it caused a huge commotion in the entertainment business.

Everyone knew that Yunhai used to belong to Huo Yunshen; it was the king of entertainment companies. But ever since Huo Yunshen left the company, they had gone through a huge change in their business policy and their staff.

Through the full authority that Huo Jingtang had, he fired all of Huo Yunshen's supporters and managers.

Only people that Huo Jingtang trusted were left in Yunhai.

Most supported his decision to acquire Jingyue Entertainment during the executives' conference.

He thought that it would be easy to purchase a company that only consisted of no more than 50 people.

Yet everything did not proceed as smoothly as he thought it would.

Huo Jingtang's secretary rushed into the CEO's office and reported, “Mr. Huo, it's really bad. Something came up when we tried to purchase Jingyue Entertainment.”

“What came up?” Huo Jingtang asked as he looked down on his secretary.

“We might fail to purchase it,” the secretary said as sweat rolled down his forehead. He looked at Huo Jingtang with fear in his eyes.

“Fail?”

Huo Jingtang never allowed the word “failure” to be part of his life.

They'd already done the assessment of Jingyue Entertainment and knew of its assets. Acquiring Jingyue should be a walk in the park.

There was no way Yunhai would fail to purchase that kind of company,

“Have a look at this. The original assessment mentioned that Jingyue Entertainment's registered capital is less than one billion yuan. But in just one night, Jingyue now controls a ton of subsidiaries.”

Huo Jingtang took the report and frowned after he had finished reading it.

Jingyue Entertainment began with only 3 employees and slowly increased to around 50 people. The expansion rate was normal, yet in just one night the company had gained control over a huge amount of subsidiaries.

Almost half of its subsidiaries were listed companies registered in other countries, while the others were subsidiaries of huge companies who had their businesses in Zstan's top-tier cities. Some were even global franchised companies.

If Jingyue Entertainment kept expanding at that rate, it would soon become Jingyue Group.

There was no way that the acquisition case that Yunhai had prepared would be able to purchase Jingyue now that they'd suddenly increased their assets and categories.

“Have you found out who Jingyue Entertainment's boss is?” Huo Jingtang asked.

They had investigated Jingyue in the past and knew that Xiao Yuqian was only the acting president for Jingyue Entertainment. She was not the juridical person for the company.

But because Jingyue had strict policies on controlling the information about their executives, Yunhai never found out who the real boss was.

“My apologies, but I still couldn't find out who it is.”

Huo Jingtang remained silent for a few minutes as he began to analyze everything in his head. With how the celebrities had been acting for the past few weeks and people leaving Yunhai for other companies, Huo Jingtang thought of an almost impossible possibility.

“Huo Yunshen...could he be the one behind it? Could it be that he's trying to destroy Yunhai using Jingyue, to take his revenge on me?”

“If that's the case, then we're in huge trouble,” the secretary said.

Chapter 646: Should've Gone for Her Instead

Now that Yunhai Entertainment had parted ways with the Huo Group and became an independently listed company, it meant that there would be no one backing Yunhai and that they could only match other companies with their own resources.

If Huo Yunshen really did get his hands on Jingyue, and if he were to try and purchase Yunhai in a joint effort with other companies, it would be one hell of a fight.

Huo Jingtang could not help but feel a chill run down his spine as he thought of the possibilities and asked, “Is Chu Yuhe out of jail yet? What did he say? Is he willing to work with me?”

“Chu Yuhe has been sentenced to life, there's no way we can get him out,” his secretary answered. “He's complete trash now that he has lost the ownership and managing rights of Juxing.”

“Then who has the ownership and managing rights now?” Huo Jingtang asked.

“Jing Xi, the same woman at Huo Yunshen's side.”

“...” Even if Huo Jingtang was a prophet, there was no way that he could have expected Juxing to fall into the hands of Xu Xiyan.

“What happened? What is their relationship?”

He would've believed it if Chu Yuhe had handed Juxing to Xu Xinrou, but he just could not understand why he would hand it to Xu Xiyan.

“I've already asked Chu Yuhe myself. He told me that they were friends since they were kids. Juxing was built using the money Jing Xi got from her mother after she passed away,” the secretary explained while he shuffled through his notebook. “Oh, and Jing Xi is Xu Jinshan's daughter, but changed to her mother's last name, Jing, after she left the Xu family. Her mother used to be the violin diva who shocked the whole world, Jing Ruyue.”

“...” Huo Jingtang was shocked by the facts once again.

He always thought of Xu Xiyan as a minor character who he would not even want to waste time looking at.

Huo Jingtang knew about the Jing family and their fame in producing the best Chinese doctors in all of Peijing. He also knew about the violin genius that came from the Jing family.

He never expected that Xu Xiyan was the daughter of Jing Ruyue.

Huo Jingtang suddenly understood something...why Huo Yunshen would fall so deeply for Xu Xiyan.

He finally understood why Huo Yunshen would even throw away Yunhai just for her.

Because Xu Xiyan was never an ordinary girl. She was the most precious gem that was hidden in a box of treasures.

Even Xue Yating nor Tang Shixue would even come close to matching her.

Huo Jingtang could not help but to punish himself for his stupidity. He should've just gone for Xu Xiyan from the beginning.

He began to think of ways to get Xu Xiyan to his side as he ordered, “Go and get me Jing Xi's schedule!”

“Already done that. Tomorrow is the last filming day for 'Root of Evil.' They will be hosting a dinner party at the Imperial Hotel.”

“Very good.”

Huo Jingtang adjusted his tie as he believed that a chance had arrived for him.

Even though he'd heard that Huo Yunshen and Xu Xiyan's relationship had moved to the next level, if he could not get Xu Xiyan to his side, he would at least try to get her away from Huo Yunshen.

There was nothing more soothing to him than tearing them apart. Huo Yunshen's pain was a pleasure to him.

Chapter 647: A Feeling of Relief

Huo Jingtang suddenly recalled a scandal that Xu Xinrou had once told him about, something about Xu Xiyan spending a night with some dude in a hotel five years ago.

Xu Xinrou did mention to him that the scandal was a card that she was keeping until it was necessary to use it.

And Huo Jingtang believed that the time had come.

Not long after, a scandal about how Xu Xiyan spent a night with someone five years ago surfaced.

The scandal was vague as it only mentioned the man was someone powerful in the entertainment industry and included a picture that showed the man's back.

As soon as the scandal was posted online, people began to talk about it on the internet.

[Are you serious? Who's trying to hurt my Ms. Jing again?]

[Five years ago? A superpower in the entertainment industry? It does look like HJT, right?]

[Is it HJT? They did have a scandal; it was a while back and I thought it was fake. Don't tell me it's real?]

[Anyone else think that it looks like HYS?]

[But he was crippled five years ago!]

[Maybe it was before the accident happened?]

[So which is it? HJT or HYS?]

As people began to discuss the scandal, Xu Xiyan had no idea what was going on, as she was filming.

It was the last scene of "Root of Evil."

The male lead, which was also the lead inspector, finally found out the location of the serial killer, W. The police began to chase after him until they reached a cliff.

W was hurt and had no place to run.

The male lead had his gun pointed at him and said, "It's a dead end! Surrender now!"

The antagonist smiled and shouted the name of the female lead. The protagonist was shocked by it, and W took the chance to kick the gun out of the protagonist's hand.

They began to fight using their fists and kicks.

Yet W still wasn't a match for the protagonist, as the latter picked up his gun and shot W without any restraints.

W fell down, and blood began to flow out from his mouth.

The female lead suddenly ran over to his side, kneeled beside him while crying and shouted, "No!"

"Brother, please don't die..." the female lead sobbed. "Do you still remember when you were little? Your younger sister with the claw braid? The one that got hit because she stole a bun?"

W opened his eyes painfully and looked at the girl in front of him, stunned by her words.

He could not imagine that the female lead and his sister were the same person, but when he saw her cry and heard her stories, it touched his heart deeply.

His heart was telling him that the younger sister he had been searching for the whole time, was the female lead that lived in a different world than he was in.

"My sister..." W said as tears filled his eyes. It was a day that he'd longed for.

He was finally able to meet his sister.

The serial killing was planned out perfectly. W had killed a total of five people, all related to the murder of his family.

In the end, he was able to avenge his family and find his long lost sister.

W raised both of his hands and let his sister cuff him, He was willing to take the punishment for the crimes that he had committed.

The screen changed to the last scene. The female lead was standing in front of W's grave as she set a bundle of white lilies before his gravestone.

"And, that's a wrap!" Peng Sicheng shouted, announcing the completion of the "Root of Evil" filming stage.

"Finally!"

"Oh, yes! It's finally over!"

A few of the crew members took off their hats and threw them high up into the sky. The three-months-long filming was finally over and everyone had a relieved expression on their face.

"Do remember we will have our celebration dinner tonight at the Imperial Hotel!" Mr. Xing reminded.

"We hope to see everyone there!"

Xu Xiyan went into the changing room and changed back into her original clothes, meeting Ma Haodong on her way out.

Chapter 648: Trying to Separate Them

"Jing Xi, congratulations," Ma Haodong said.

He'd already changed into a blazer which intensified his attractive bad-boy looks.

Xu Xiyao high-fived him and said, "Congratulations to you, too."

"Don't forget to dress handsome tonight," Ma Haodong said.

"Back to you, don't forget to be pretty tonight," Xu Xiyao smiled.

The Imperial Hotel, 8 p.m.

The crews were having a huge dinner party in the hotel, sponsored by big companies such as Yunhai Entertainment. The party was as crowded as an award ceremony could be.

All of the actors and the director were present at the party, while other famous celebrities and reporters were also invited as they tried to promote the show.

The party began with a speech from the sponsors and director.

The actors were introduced onto the stage after that. The first to be introduced was Mu Qian, the lead actor of the show, nicknamed "Senior."

The next to go onto the stage was the female lead, Xu Xiyao, wearing a black nightdress, different from her character in the show.

Everyone was attracted to her as soon as she got onto the stage. It was as if she was a shining black pearl.

Xu Xiyao sat beside the male lead, and they began the interview.

Most of the questions were about Xu Xiyao, about how a newcomer like she got the fame of a list actress.

Yet, one of the reporters went straight in with the scandal that was spread online.

"Jing Xi, we saw the scandal online about you spending a night with someone five years ago, is it true?" the reporter asked. "Can we know who that person was?"

"..." Xu Xiyao was stunned as she could not believe the incident that happened five years ago had been made public.

Is it Chu Yuhe? Or Xu Xinrou? There's no way Chu Yuhe could contact someone outside, so that just leaves Xu Xinrou, right?

Just as Xu Xiyao was wondering how to answer the question, Huo Jingtang came into the hall with his assistant carrying a bundle of 99 roses in his hands.

Huo Jingtang sat in the place that was reserved for him as the assistant went onto the stage and handed Xu Xiyao the roses.

"Miss Jing Xi, this is from our boss."

Huo Jingtang's assistant shoved the roses to Xu Xiyao and left the stage instantly, yet the reporters were able to capture the moment,

Every person who had seen the news was eager to find out about the man in the scandal. It was as if Huo Jingtang was telling the whole world that he was the one who had spent the night with Xu Xiyang five years ago with his sudden appearance.

Even some of the reporters ran down the stage to interview Huo Jingtang about the scandal.

Xu Xiyang was completely out of sync with everything that was happening. She had not had the time to check the news on her way to the hotel and had no idea what was happening in the online world.

She was confused by Huo Jingtang's sudden appearance and his motive.

Could it be that he's trying to tear us apart again?

Xu Xiyang looked at where Huo Jingtang was sitting and noticed that he was looking back at her, and his eyes were smiling.

Chapter 649: Particularly Offended

She couldn't explain why, but she felt very uncomfortable in seeing his stare.

She always had a feeling that Huo Jingtang was a somber and elusive man. Now, he had ordered his staff to send a bouquet of flowers to her. Could it be because he wanted to cause the public and Huo Yunshen to misunderstand her?

If Huo Jingtang thought that he could simply win a woman's heart by giving her a bouquet of flowers, she could only say that he was being a bit delusional.

However, shortly after Xu Xiyang received the flowers, more people came in from all directions. Every one of them was carrying two beautiful and exquisitely decorated rose baskets in their arms. One by one, they placed the baskets on the ground around Jing Xi, forming a heart-shaped encirclement around her.

One of them came up and gave her a beautiful bouquet of cherry blossoms and a cute teddy bear holding a heart in its hands. A heart-shaped card was attached to it.

Xu Xiyang unfolded the card. The card says:

[Miss Cherry, you're so beautiful tonight.]

Behind the card was a stick figure drawing of Mr. Cherry with a beard, Miss Cherry with a skirt and a cute Cherry Baby. The drawing of the family of three was Cherry's childish work.

Wow, Xu Xiyang was very surprised. She didn't expect to receive such a great gift at all.

It could be said that Huo Yunshen's move to present her with flowers had alleviated Xu Xiyang of her awkward situation.

Huo Jingtang narrowed his eyes as he watched Xu Xiyang being surrounded by fresh flowers. Someone else had stolen his show by gifting her a stage full of flowers shortly after he had gifted her a bouquet of flowers.

His smugness was short-lived. This very moment felt like a slap to his face.

Just by looking at how happy Jing Xi was after seeing the card, he guessed that the person who had sent her the flowers must be Huo Yunshen.

He was always there to deliberately steal his limelight. How despicable of him!

Yes, it was Huo Yunshen who had done it. What's wrong with him giving flowers to his beloved woman? Who would dare to say anything about that?

No one knew that at this time, Huo Yunshen and Ying Bao were sitting in a private box on the second floor, looking at her shining brightly like a star on the stage from far away.

Thanks to someone's grand show of flower gifting, the audience was clamoring with excitement. Everyone was discussing who had given the flowers to Jing Xi. Was someone trying to pursue her?

"Who sent the flowers?"

"Is someone confessing to Jing Xi?"

"Wow, it's so romantic..."

A reporter took the opportunity to ask her, "Miss Jing Xi, who gave you the flowers? Was it an admirer? Or your boyfriend?"

The reporter only wanted to coax out some valuable information from her, but Jing Xi kept her lips tight. She smiled at the camera as she answered, "First of all, I would like to thank the superfan who has given me all these flowers. I'm really flattered! Please don't be so extravagant next time. If you have the money just directly transfer it into the production's account. Director Peng will definitely thank you on behalf of the team."

Her humor had successfully diverted everyone's curiosity. It seemed that no one pressed her further about the incident that had happened five years ago anymore.

After interviewing her for a while, the host then invited the second male lead and the other main actors onto the stage.

After Ma Haodong came onto the stage, he naturally took his seat next to Jing Xi. The two looked at each other and smiled, chemistry apparent in their eyes.

He seemed to have said something in Jing Xi's ear, making her laugh joyfully.

However, Ning Xin, who was in the audience watching them, felt particularly offended at what she saw.

She had come to support Ma Haodong, not to see him flirt with other women.

Her face darkened, and she was clearly very unhappy.

Not only had the sight of Jing Xi and Ma Haodong sitting together made Ning Xin feel uncomfortable, but Xiao Yuqian was also close by, sitting just two seats away from Jing Xi at her right-hand side.

Xiao Yuqian had also come, and furthermore, as Jing Xi's manager.

Ning Xin couldn't help but feel like laughing. Ma Haodong's ex had become Jing Xi's manager. Wasn't that ironic?

Chapter 650: Don't Mention About This Person Anymore

The interview was basically completed. One of the reporters had heard Jing Xi sing before and they all started to urge her to sing.

Xu Xiyan took the microphone and chuckled, "Thank you all for thinking highly of me, but I can't sing tonight. Our prince charming Liang Yusen has prepared to sing tonight. If I were to sing too, wouldn't I be stealing his limelight? But I've prepared something else tonight and I shall perform it for you all later."

It was time for the feast of the celebration banquet. The actors and the main creative staff went down from the stage to be seated at the tables while those who were going to perform later went backstage to get ready.

Below the stage, Xiao Yuqian spotted several reporters heading backstage. She felt a bit worried about Jing Xi and decided to follow them.

As she came to the backstage and turned a corner, someone called out to her.

"Long time no see, Big Sister."

Xiao Yuqian stopped abruptly in her tracks. She turned around and saw a woman in a long blue dress walking towards her gracefully.

The woman donned exquisite makeup along with a faint smile on her face, her lips a vibrant red over her pearl white teeth. But as her eyes looked toward Xiao Yuqian, a glint of hatred flashed in them.

Xiao Yuqian had seen Ning Xin earlier but she had paid no attention to her. She also didn't feel like talking with Ning Xin so she ignored her as if she was air.

But now, Ning Xin had come after her and had taken the initiative to talk to her. She could not help but be forcibly reminded of the past by her appearance.

Ning Xin was her sister just in name, the child of her stepmother from a previous marriage. They had not seen each other for six years and she had already become Huayin Entertainment's list artist. She was really impressive.

Ning Xin came up to her and said with a smile, "When did you return to Zstan, big sis? It's already been some time since you've returned to Zstan. Why didn't you come back to the Xiao family and see us?"

"That's my business whether to go back or not. You can't make me," Xiao Yuqian answered her coldly. After all, she didn't feel like talking to Ning Xin too much.

She would never forget how this harmless-looking woman had betrayed her six years ago.

“It's true that I can't make you go back. But do you know that after returning to Zstan, you've severely damaged my relationship with Haodong?” Ning Xin said, jabbing Xiao Yuqian on her shoulder with a finger, her face turning somewhat forbidding.

If Xiao Yuqian had not returned to Zstan, Ning Xin would have become the woman closest to Ma Haodong.

Because of Xiao Yuqian's sudden departure at that time, Ning Xin had the opportunity to become close to Ma Haodong. She took advantage of her status as Xiao Xuqian's sister and stayed by Ma Haodong's side, pretending to be his little sister who knew his troubles and helped him by counseling and accompanying him.

Then, she finally became Ma Haodong's confidante. But now, Xiao Yuqian was back.

“What happens between you and him are your businesses, and don't mention this person to me anymore. Sorry, I have to go to the restroom. Please excuse me!”

Xiao Yuqian didn't want to waste any more of her breath with Ning Xin. She shot her a look then walked off to the restroom.

But what Xiao Xuqian didn't expect was that Ning Xin came after her to the restroom. Ning Xin said to her, “Xiao Yuqian, you better listen well. You better stay further away from me and Haodong. Otherwise, don't blame me for being ruthless.”

Xiao Yuqian turned the tap on to wash her hands. “And if I don't stay away, what can you do about it anyway?” she said with a calm expression on her face.

She didn't want to have a conflict with Ning Xin—she didn't want to have anything to do with a shameless and vile person. However, if Ning Xin insisted on harassing her, she shall not keep quiet and let her have her way.

Ning Xin curved her lips into a smirk. “You may not know this, but I still have racy photos of you and a random man having a one-night stand. As long as you don't obey me, I'll send those photos to the media. By then everyone shall know how coquettish the pure-hearted and saintly goddess Xiao Yuqian can be while being pinned under a man.

Xiao Yuqian was slightly shocked. She could not help but feel a chill running down her back.
